INTRODUCTION.

PECULIARITIES OF THIS WORK.

THE "BAPTIST PRAISE BOOK" differs from similar publications in most of the following particulars:

1. As its name intimates, it is peculiarly a praise book; hymns of praise to the adorable Deity, especially as the glorious Redeemer, being abundant.

2. A primary object in the publication has been to extend and improve Congregational Singing. Hence TUNES, as well as hymns, are given; it being now an accepted conclusion that music must accompany the words in order to secure the best results in the service of song. At the same time, an edition with hymns only (with uniform numbers) has been prepared.

3. It is a BAPTIST publication. When its preparation was commenced, no hymn and tune book for sanctuary use was available, or in prospect, except issued by some other branch of the Christian family and sought to be adapted to Baptist churches; a circumstance for the existence of which at least no good reason could be assigned.

4. This work is the offspring of love. It was voluntarily undertaken with the sole purpose of furnishing the best possible hymn and tune book for the use of the Baptist churches; and with some of the editors it is the product of a life's enthusiasm and painstaking in this special direction.

5. The "Baptist Praise Book" is believed to be richer in the precious gems of hymnology than any other volume extant. Many of the old favorites, and of the most exquisite modern hymns, can be found in no collection except this. As is fitting, the hymns are set in a clear, bold type.

6. The tunes are very largely those which have been tested by use and pronounced of current value by the universal award of Christian hearts. In some instances these are inserted more than once. The best of new tunes will also here be found.

7. The attempt has here been made, so far as singing goes, to give to the Sabbath service somewhat of the freedom and unction of the social or vestry meetings. It is believed that the soul of the denomination is yearning for more warmth and spirituality in the songs of Zion. Hence revival and other melodies, if they but palpitate with real spiritual utterance, are introduced; even in some instances where perhaps a cold criticism might have passed the edict of exclusion. Vitality has everywhere been preferred to stiff precision.

8. CHILDREN'S hymns are interspersed, especially adapting the book to Sunday School anniversaries, sermons to the young, and like occasions. These are of rare value. Some are entirely new.

9. The subjects and range of the hymns are broad and comprehensive, making the collection unusually full. They are thoroughly classified, and each verse is indexed.

10. Especial care has been given to the adaptation of hymns and tunes. In this particular no musical author excels Mr. J. P. Holbrook, whose fine taste and varied acquisitions have been admirably displayed in the pages of this book.

11. For such as may desire their use, a collection of Chants and Anthems, with select Scripture Sentences, a very brief Confession of Faith and Church Covenant, the Lord's Prayer and the Commandments are given. The Chants and Anthems are among the grandest that have been composed.

12. Finally; no pains have been spared, either in the carefulness and research of its editors, the expensiveness of copyright tunes, or the skill of mechanical execution, to make the "BAPTIST PRAISE BOOK" an inspiration and a joy with the great brotherhood of the Churches. And may He whose face shines on its every page, accept this labor of love, and cause it to animate the joys of His children until they unite in the chorus of praise with the redeemed in glory.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

THE musical department of this work has been intrusted to the most careful and competent critics. To Mr. J. P. HOLBROOK, the successful editor of the "Songs for the Sanctuary," and the composer of many beautiful tunes, special reference has already been made.

For the valuable assistance afforded by Rev. R. LOWRY, J. E. GOULD, G. F. ROOT, W. G. FISCHER, J. M. EVANS, OSCAR M. NEWELL, ASA HULL, PHILIP PHILLIPS, THEO. F. SEWARD, S. J. VAIL, Rev. L. HARTSOUGH, and Rev. W. McDONALD, grateful acknowledgments are freely expressed.

Copy-right music must not be taken from this volume, for the sake of publication, without the permission of those who own the same. Applications of this kind must be made either to the composers themselves or to their publishers.

A CONFESSION OF FAITH.

WE BELIEVE—

In one God, Maker and Ruler of heaven and earth, revealed as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, equal in every divine perfection;^a

In the Holy Scriptures as his inspired Word, and the only rule of faith and practice:^b

In the fall of man and his condemnation as a sinner, and God's sovereign grace and love in redemption and the choice of his people:^c

In the way of salvation by Jesus Christ, the Son of God incarnate, who obeyed the law, suffered and died for the sins of men, and is risen and exalted a Priest and King:^d

In the free offer of eternal life to all in the Gospel, and the aggravated guilt of those who reject it:^e

In the necessity of regeneration by the Holy Spirit, and of repentance toward God and faith in Christ:^f

In the justification and adoption of the believer, through the blood and righteousness of Jesus:^g

In the Divine institution of the Christian ministry, and the visible church of professed believers with its initiatory and memorial rites, Baptism* and the Lord's Supper:^h

In the sacred observance of the Lord's Day, for rest, worship, and religious instruction:ⁱ

In the final perseverance of all saints, through sanctification of the Spirit and obedience to the truth:^j

In the present life as man's only day of grace, and the soul's entrance at death into conscious blessedness or woe:^k

In the resurrection of all the dead at the glorious coming of the Son of Man, and his just adjudgment of the wicked to everlasting punishment and the righteous to life eternal.^l

* Immersion only to show forth in a solemn and beautiful emblem, our faith in the crucified, buried and risen Saviour, and our death to sin and resurrection to a new life. NOTE. By "the visible church" is meant a local congregation, in distinction from the whole body of believers or kingdom of Christ, and from a territorial, national, or hierarchical church. The New Testament churches were evidently organizations of baptized believers, local, and independent, under Christ; their officers being pastors and deacons, bishop and elder being the same as pastor.

A COVENANT.

AS we trust we have received, through Divine Grace, the Lord Jesus Christ, and given ourselves wholly to him, and on profession of our faith have been buried with him in baptism and thus united to his church, we do now solemnly and joyfully covenant with each other, and, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, engage—

That we will walk together with brotherly love, exercising a Christian care and watchfulness over each other, participating in each other's joys, and, with tender sympathy, bearing one another's burdens and sorrows:

That we will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together at the Communion and other appointed meetings, but seek and pray for the spirituality, harmony, and prosperity of this church; sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines; and give its claims a sacred pre-eminence over all organizations of human origin:

That we will cheerfully contribute of our means, as God has prospered us, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us; for the relief of the poor; and for spreading the gospel over the earth:

That we will maintain private and family devotions; religiously educate the children committed to our care; and endeavor, in purity of heart and newness of life, and good-will toward all men, to exemplify and commend our holy faith, win souls to the Saviour, and hold fast our profession till he shall come and receive us unto himself.

[Relying on the grace of God, do you thus covenant and promise?]

And now the God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that Great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant make us perfect in every good work to do his will, working in us that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. AMEN.

THE LAW OF GOD,

AS WRITTEN IN THE TWENTIETH CHAPTER OF THE BOOK OF EXODUS.

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.—Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

II.—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III.—Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

IV.—Remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.—Thou shalt not kill.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW BY OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST.

St. Matthew 22 : 37-40.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

OPENING SENTENCES.

THE Lord is in his holy temple : let all the earth keep silence before him.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer.—

Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

For, where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

Seek ye the Lord while he may be found ; call ye upon him while he is near.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts : and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him ; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Thus saith the High and Lofty One that inhabiteth eternity :
Whose Name is Holy ;
I dwell in the high and holy place ;
With him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit,
To revive the spirit of the humble,
And to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit :
A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Rend your hearts, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God ; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

Wherewith shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He hath showed thee, O man! what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, and love mercy, and walk humbly with thy God.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his Name: Bring an offering and come before him: Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

Offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the Most High.

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us; but, if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

I will arise, and go to my father; and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness; for they shall be filled.

Even the youth shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: but they that wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.

Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise ; be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the Lord is good : his mercy is everlasting, and his truth endureth to all generations.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord ? or who shall stand in his holy place ? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart ; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

Oh come, let us worship and bow down, and kneel before the Lord our Maker. For he is our God ; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

OUR Father which art in heaven :

Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

(For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.)

AMEN.

B E N E D I C T I O N .

THE Lord bless thee, and keep thee ; the Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee ; the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Amen.—NUMBERS vi. 24-26.

THE grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.—2 COR. xiii. 14.

GLADNESS. 7s & 6s.

i. O day of rest and glad-ness, O day of joy and light, O balm of care and sad-ness, Most beau-ti-ful, most bright; On thee, the high and low-ly, Bending be-fore the throne, Sing, Ho-ly, Ho-ly, Ho-ly, To the Great Three in One.

I

2 On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth:
On thee, for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee, our Lord, victorious,
The Spirit sent from Heaven,
And thus on thee, most glorious,
A triple light was given.

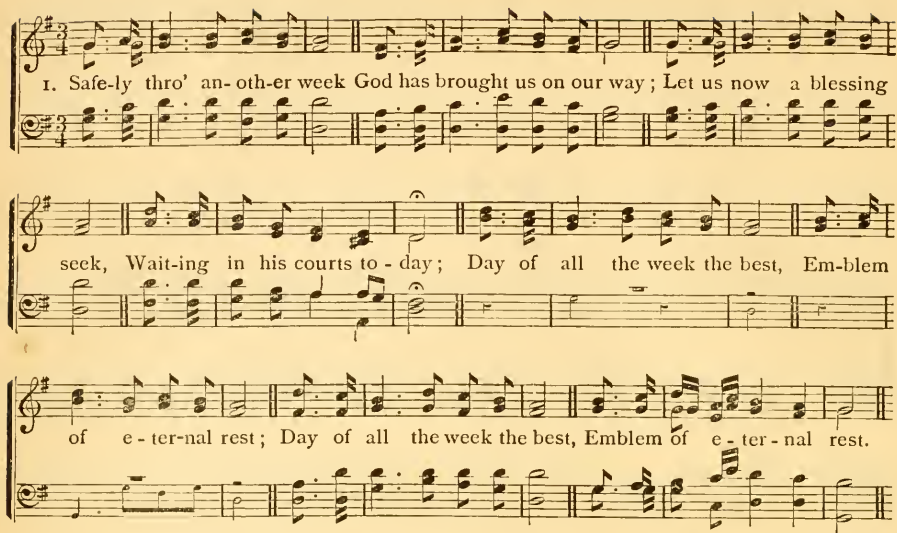

3 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,

Where gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

4 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest:
To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
To thee, blest Three in One.

SABBATH. 7s. 6 lines.

L. MASON.

1. Safe-ly thro' an-oth-er week God has brought us on our way; Let us now a blessing seek, Wait-ing in his courts to-day; Day of all the week the best, Em-blem of e-ter-nal rest; Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e-ter-nal rest.

2 While we pray for pardoning grace
Through the dear Redeemer's Name,
Show thy reconciléd face,
Take away our sin and shame;
From our worldly cares set free,
May we rest this day in thee.

3 Here we come thy Name to praise;
Let us feel thy presence near;
May thy glory meet our eyes
While we in thy house appear:
Here afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting feast.

4 May thy Gospel's joyful sound
Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
Make the fruits of grace abound;
Bring relief for all complaints:
Thus let all our Sabbaths prove
Till we rest in thee above.

1 SAVIOUR! who this day didst break
The dark prison of the tomb;

Bid my slumbering soul awake,
Shine through all its sin and gloom:
Let me, from my bonds set free,
Rise from sin, and live to thee.

2 Blessed Spirit! Comforter!
Sent this day from Christ on high;
Lord, on me thy gifts confer,
Cleanse, illumine, sanctify.
All thine influence shed abroad
Lead me to the truth of God.

3 Sad and weary were our way,
Fainting oft beneath our load,
But for thee, thou blessed day,
Resting-place on life's rough road.
Here flow forth the streams of grace,
Strengthened hence we run our race.

4 Soon, too soon, the sweet repose
Of this day of God will cease;
Soon this glimpse of Heaven will close,

Vanish soon the hours of peace;
Soon return the toil, the strife,
All the weariness of life.

PLEYEL'S HYMN. 7s.

PLEYEL.

1. To thy tem - ple I re - pair; Lord, I love to wor - ship there;
When with - in the veil I meet Christ be - fore the mer - cy - seat.

2 While thy glorious praise is sung,
Touch my lips, unloose my tongue,
That my joyful soul may bless
Thee, the Lord my Righteousness!
3 While the prayers of saints ascend,
God of love! to mine attend!
Hear me, for thy Spirit pleads;
Hear, for Jesus intercedes!
4 While I hearken to thy law,
Fill my soul with humble awe;
Till thy Gospel bring to me
Life and immortality.
5 From thy house when I return,
May my heart within me burn;
And at evening let me say,
I have walked with God to-day!

MONTGOMERY.

1 LORD, we come before thee now,
At thy feet we humbly bow;
Oh, do not our suit disdain!
Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?
2 Lord, on thee our souls depend,
In compassion now descend;
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.
3 In thine own appointed way,
Now we seek thee; here we stay;
Lord, we know not how to go,
Till a blessing thou bestow.

- 4 Send some message from thy word,
That may joy and peace afford;
Let thy Spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.
5 Comfort those who weep and mourn,
Let the time of joy return,
Those who are cast down lift up,
Make them strong in faith and hope.
6 Grant that all may seek and find
Thee a God supremely kind;
Heal the sick, the captive free,
Let us all rejoice in thee.

HAMMOND.

1 COME, my soul, thy suit prepare;
Jesus loves to answer prayer;
He himself has bid thee pray;
Therefore will not say thee nay.
2 Thou art coming to a King,
Large petitions with thee bring;
For his grace and power are such,
None can ever ask too much.
3 With my burden I begin;
Lord, remove this load of sin;
Let thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.
4 Lord, I come to thee for rest;
Take possession of my breast;
There thy blood-bought right maintain,
And without a rival reign.

MESSIAH. 7s. Double.

HAROLD.

I. Pleasant are thy courts above, In the land of light and love ; Pleasant are thy courts below,

In this land of sin and woe. Oh, my spir - it longs and faints For the converse of thy saints, For the brightness of thy face, For thy full-ness, God of grace !

2 Happy birds that sing and fly
Round thy altars, O Most High !
Happier souls that find a rest
In their Heavenly Father's breast !
Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.

3 Happy souls ! their praises flow,
Even in this vale of woe
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies ;
On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach thy throne at length ;
At thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

4 Lord, be mine this prize to win,
Guide me through this world of sin ;
Keep me by thy saving grace,
Give me at thy side a place ;

Sun and Shield alike thou art,
Guide and guard my erring heart ;
Grace and glory flow from thee,
Shed, oh, shed them, Lord, on me.

1 LIGHT of life, seraphic fire,
Love divine, thyself impart ;
Every fainting soul inspire ;
Enter every drooping heart ;
Every mournful sinner cheer,
Scatter all our guilty gloom ;
Son of God ! appear, appear,
To thy human temples come.

2 Come, in this accepted hour,
Bring thy heavenly kingdom in ;
Fill us with thy glorious power,
Set us free from all our sin :
Nothing more can we require,
We will covet nothing less ;
Be thou all our heart's desire,
All our joy, and all our peace.

2 On this auspicious morn
The Lord of life arose ;
He burst the bars of death,
And vanquished all our foes ;
And now he pleads our cause above,
And reaps the fruits of all his love.
- 3 All hail, triumphant Lord !
Heaven with hosannas rings,
And earth, in humbler strains,
Thy praise responsive sings :
Worthy the Lamb that once was slain,
Thro' endless years to live and reign.

COTTERILL.

- IO Children's Hymn.
1 WHEN little Samuel woke,
And heard his Maker's voice,
At every word he spoke,
How much did he rejoice !

- O blessed, happy child, to find
The God of heaven so near and kind !
- 2 If God would speak to me,
And say he was my friend,
How happy I should be,
Oh, how would I attend !
The smallest sin I then should fear,
If God Almighty were so near.
- 3 And does he never speak ?
Oh, yes ; for, in his word,
He bids me come and seek
The God that Samuel heard :
In almost every page I see
The God of Samuel calls to me.
- 4 Like Samuel, let me say,
Whene'er I read his word,
"Speak, Lord ; I would obey
The voice that I have heard.
And when I in thy house appear,
Speak, for thy servant waits to hear."

I. { Now to thy sa - cred house I come with will - ing feet, }
 { Where saints, with morn - ing vows, In full as - sem - bly meet: }

Thy power di - vine shall here be shown, And from thy throne thy mer - cy shine, And from thy throne thy mer - cy shine.
 And from thy throne thy mer - cy shine.

II

2 Oh send thy light abroad !
 Thy truth with heavenly ray
 Shall lead my soul to God,
 And guide my doubtful way :
 I'll hear thy word with faith sincere,
 And learn to fear and praise the Lord.

3 Here reach thy bounteous hand,
 And all my sorrows heal ;
 Here health and strength divine,
 Oh make my bosom feel !
 Like balmy dew, shall Jesus' voice
 My bones rejoice, my strength renew.

4 Thus in thy holy hill,
 Before thine altar, Lord,
 My harp and song shall sound
 The glories of thy word :
 Henceforth to thee, O God of grace,
 A hymn of praise my life shall be.

DWIGHT.

I 2

1 WELCOME, delightful morn,
 Thou day of sacred rest ;

I hail thy kind return ;
 Lord, make these moments blest !
 From the low train of mortal toys
 I soar to reach immortal joys.

2 Now may the King descend
 And fill his throne of grace ;
 Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
 While saints address thy face ;
 Let sinners feel thy quickening word,
 And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove,
 With all thy quickening powers ;
 Disclose a Saviour's love,
 And bless the sacred hours :
 Then shall my soul new life obtain,
 Nor Sabbaths be indulged in vain.

HAYWARD.

DOXOLOGY.

To God, the Father, Son,
 And Spirit ever blest,
 Eternal Three in One,
 All worship be address :
 As heretofore it was, is now,
 And shall be so, for evermore.

1. How pleased and blest was I To hear the peo-ple cry, "Come, let us seek our God to - day!"

Yes, with a cheerful zeal We'll haste to Zi-on's hill, And there our vows and hon-ors pay.

2 Zion, thrice happy place,
Adorned with wondrous grace,
And walls of strength embrace thee round:
In thee our tribes appear
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 Here David's greater Son
Has fixed his royal throne ;
He sits for grace and judgment here :
He bids the saint be glad,
He makes the sinner sad,
And humble souls rejoice with fear.

4 May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait
To bless the soul of every guest :
The man who seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase—
A thousand blessings on him rest !

5 My tongue repeats her vows,
"Peace to this sacred house!"
For here my friends and kindred dwell ;
And since my glorious God
Makes thee his blest abode,
My soul shall ever love thee well.

WATTS.

1 'Tis heaven begun below
To hear Christ's praises flow
In Zion where his Name is known :
What will it be above
To sing redeeming love,
And cast our crowns before his throne !

2 Oh, what sweet company
We then shall hear and see !
What harmony will there abound,
When souls unnumbered sing
The praise of Zion's King,
Nor one dissenting voice is found !

3 With everlasting joy,
Such as will never cloy,
We shall be filled, nor wish for more ;
Bright as meridian day,
Calm as the evening ray,
Full as a sea without a shore.

4 Till that blest period come,
Zion shall be my home ;
And may I never thence remove Till from the church below
To heaven at once I go,
And there commune in perfect love !

1. Sweet is the work, my God, my King, To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing; To show thy love by morn-ing light, And talk of all thy truth at night, And talk of all thy truth at night.

I 5

- 2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest ;
 No mortal cares shall seize my breast :
 O may my heart in tune be found,
 Like David's harp of solemn sound !
- 3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
 And bless his works, and bless his word ;
 Thy works of grace how bright they shine !
- 4 How deep thy counsels, how divine !
- 4 Fools never raise their thoughts so high ;
 Like brutes they live, like brutes they die !
 Like grass they flourish, till thy breath
 Blasts them in everlasting death.
- 5 But I shall share a glorious part ;
 When grace hath well refined my heart ;
 And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
 Like holy oil, to cheer my head.
- 6 Then shall I see, and hear, and know,
 All I desired or wished below ;
 And every power find sweet employ
 In that eternal world of joy.

I 6

WATTS.

- 1 How pleasant, how divinely fair,
 O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are !
 With long desire my spirit faints
 To meet th' assemblies of thy saints.
- 2 My flesh would rest in thine abode ;
 My panting heart cries out for God !

- My God, my King, why should I be
 So far from all my joys and thee ?
- 3 Blest are the saints who dwell on high,
 Around thy throne, above the sky ;
 Thy brightest glories shine above,
 And all their work is praise and love.
- 4 Blest are the souls who find a place
 Within the temple of thy grace ;
 There they behold thy gentler rays,
 And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.
- 5 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
 To find the way to Zion's gate ;
 God is their strength ; and through the road,
 They lean upon their helper, God.

WATTS.

I 7

- 1 How sweet to leave the world awhile,
 And seek the presence of our Lord !
 Dear Saviour, on thy people smile,
 According to thy faithful word.
- 2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
 That we may here converse with thee ;
 O Lord, behold us at thy feet !
 Let this the gate of heaven be.
- 3 "Chief of ten thousands," now appear,
 That we by faith may view thy face ;
 Oh, speak, that we thy voice may hear,
 And let thy presence fill the place.

1. My opening eyes with rap - ture see The dawn of thy re - turn - ing day;
My thoughts, O God, as - cend to thee, While thus my ear - ly vows I pay.

- 2 Oh, bid this trifling world retire,
And drive each carnal thought away;
Nor let me feel one vain desire—
One sinful thought through all the day.
- 3 Then, to thy courts when I repair,
My soul shall rise on joyful wing,
The wonders of thy love declare,
And join the strains which angels sing.

J. HUTTON.

- 1 DEAR is the hallowed morn to me,
When Sabbath bells awake the day,
And, by their sacred minstrelsy,
Call me from earthly cares away.
- 2 And dear to me the wingéd hour
Spent in thy hallowed courts, O Lord!
To feel devotion's soothing power,
And catch the manna of thy word.
- 3 And dear to me the loud Amen,
Which echoes through the blest abode,
Which swells, and sinks, and swells
again,
Dies on the walls, but lives to God.
- 4 Oft when the world, with iron hands,
Has bound me in its six days' chain,
This bursts them, like the strong man's
And lets my spirit loose again. [bands,
- 5 Go, man of pleasure, strike thy lyre,
Of broken Sabbaths sing the charms;
Ours be the prophet's car of fire
That bears us to a Father's arms.

CUNNINGHAM.

- 1 THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love,
But there's a nobler rest above;
To that our longing souls aspire,
With cheerful hope and strong desire.
- 2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin nor death shall reach the place;
No groans shall mingle with the songs
That warble from immortal tongues.
- 3 No rude alarms of raging foes,
No cares to break the long repose,
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high, eternal noon.
- 4 O long-expected day, begin!
Dawn on these realms of woe and sin;
Fain would we leave this weary road,
And sleep in death to rest with God.

DODDRIDGE.

- 1 LORD, how delightful 'tis to see
A whole assembly worship thee!
At once they sing, at once they pray,
They hear of heaven, and learn the way.
- 2 I have been there, and still would go,
'Tis like a little heaven below;
Not all that careless sinners say,
Shall tempt me to forget this day.
- 3 Oh, write upon my memory, Lord,
The truths and precepts of thy word!
That I may break thy laws no more,
But love thee better than before.

2 Come, bless the Lord, whose love as-sings

So sweet a rest to wearied minds ;
Provides an antepast of heaven,
And gives this day the food of seven.

3 O that our thoughts and thanks may rise
As grateful incense to the skies ;
And draw from heaven that sweet repose

Which none but he that feels it knows.

4 This heavenly calm within the breast
Is the dear pledge of glorious rest
Which for the church of God remains,
The end of cares, the end of pains.

5 In holy duties let the day
In holy pleasures pass away.
How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend,
In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

STENNETT.

1 SWEET is the light of Sabbath eve,
And soft the sunbeams lingering there ;
For these blest hours the world I leave,
Wafted on wings of faith and prayer.

2 Season of rest ! the tranquil soul
Feels the sweet calm, and melts to love ;
And while these sacred moments roll,
Faith sees the smiling heaven above.

3 Nor will our days of toil be long ;
Our pilgrimage will soon be trod ;
And we shall join the ceaseless song,
The endless Sabbath of our God.

EDMESTON.

1 MILLIONS within thy courts have met,
Millions, this day, before thee bowed ;
Their faces Zion-ward were set,
Vows with their lips to thee they vowed.

2 Soon as the light of morning broke
O'er island, continent, or deep,
Thy far-spread family awoke,
Sabbath, all round the world, to keep.

3 From east to west, the sun surveyed,
From north to south, adoring throngs ;
And still, when evening stretched her
shade,
The stars came out to hear their songs.

4 And not a prayer, a tear, a sigh,
Hath failed this day some suit to gain ;
To those in trouble thou wert nigh :
Not one hath sought thy face in vain.

5 Yet one prayer more !—and be it one,
In which both heaven and earth accord.
Fulfill thy promise to thy Son ;
Let all that breathe call JESUS LORD !

 True absolution and release ;

 With purity and inward peace.

 Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
 And simple hearts without alloy
 That only long to be like thee.

 Then, Jesus, cleanse me with thy blood,
 And be my Advocate with God.
- 3 When each day's scenes and labors
 close,
 And wearied nature seeks repose,

- With pardoning mercy richly blest,
 Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest ;
 And, as each morning sun shall rise,
 Oh, lead me onward to the skies !
- 4 And at my life's last setting sun,
 My conflicts o'er, my labors done,
 Jesus, thy heavenly radiance shed,
 To cheer and bless my dying bed ;
 And from death's gloom my spirit raise,
 To see thy face and sing thy praise.

T. HASTINGS.

I. From ev - ery storm - y wind that blows, From ev - ery swell - ing tide of woes,

There is a calm, a sur - re - treat - 'Tis found be - neath the mer - cy - seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place, than all besides, more sweet—
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene, where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend ;

Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, there on eagles' wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest no more,
And heav'n comes down our souls to great,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

5 Oh, let my hand forget her skill,
My tongue be silent, cold and still,
This bounding heart forget to beat,
If I forget thy mercy-seat ! STOWELL.

1 My God, is any hour so sweet, .
From blush of morn to evening star,
As that which calls me to thy feet,
The calm and holy hour of prayer ?

2 Then is my strength by thee renewed ;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven ;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude,
With clear and beauteous hopes of heaven.

3 No words can tell what sweet relief,
There for my every want I find ;

What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What deep and cheerful peace of mind !

4 Lord, till I reach the blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be,
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In faithful, filial prayer to thee !

C. ELLIOT.

1 WHAT various hindrances we meet
In coming to a mercy-seat !
Yet who that knows the worth of prayer
But wishes to be often there ?

2 Prayer makes the darkened clouds withdraw ;
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.

3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight ;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor
bright ;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.

4 Have you no words ? ah ! think again ;
Words flow apace when you complain,
And fill a fellow-creature's ear
With the sad tale of all your care.

5 Were half the breath thus vainly spent
To heaven in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord hath done for me !"

MORNING HYMN. L. M.

BARTHOLOMEW, 1761.

I. A - wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run ;

Shake off dull sloth, and joy - ful rise To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice.

- 2 Wake and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who, all night long, unwearied sing
High praise to the eternal King.
- 3 Glory to thee who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me whilst I slept!
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake!
- 4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew;
Disperse my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.
- 5 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

KEN.

31

- 1 HAST thou within a care so deep,
It chases from thine eyelids sleep?
To thy Redeemer take that care,
And change anxiety to prayer.
- 2 Hast thou a hope with which thy heart
Would almost feel it death to part?
Entreat thy God that hope to crown,
Or give thee strength to lay it down.

- 3 Hast thou a friend whose image dear
May prove an idol worshipped here?
Implore the Lord that nought may be
A shadow between heaven and thee.
- 4 Whate'er the care that breaks thy rest,
Whate'er the wish that swells thy breast,
Spread before God that wish, that care,
And change anxiety to prayer.

- 1 GOD of the morning, at whose voice
The cheerful sun makes haste to rise,
And like a giant doth rejoice
To run his journey through the skies:
- 2 Oh, like the sun may I fulfil
The appointed duties of the day;
With ready mind and active will,
March on and keep my heavenly way.
- 3 But I shall rove, and lose the race,
If God my Sun should disappear,
And leave me in this world's wide maze,
To follow every wandering star.
- 4 Give me thy counsel for my guide,
And then receive me to thy bliss;
All my desires and hopes beside
Are faint and cold compared with this.

TALLIS' EVENING HYMN. L. M.

TALLIS.

1. Glo - ry to thee, my God, this night, For all the blessings of the light ;
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings, Be-neath thine own Al - might-y wings.

- 2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done ;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
Teach me to die, that so I may Rise glorious at the awful day.
- 4 Oh, may my soul on thee repose ;
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close,
Sleep, that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.
- 5 Praise God from whom all blessings flow ;
Praise him, all creatures here below ;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host ;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost !

KEN.

- 1 Thus far the Lord hath led me on,
Thus far his power prolongs my days ;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.
- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home ;
But he forgives my follies past ;
And gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep :
Peace is the pillow for my head,
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

- 4 Faith in his Name forbids my fear ;
Oh, may thy presence ne'er depart ;
And, in the morning, make me hear
The love and kindness of thy heart.
- 5 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground ;
And wait thy voice to rouse my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

WATTS.

35

- 1 GREAT God, to thee my evening song
With humble gratitude I raise ;
Oh let thy mercy tune my tongue,
And fill my heart with lively praise.
- 2 My days, unclouded as they pass,
And every gently rolling hour,
Are monuments of wondrous grace,
And witness to thy love and power.
- 3 And yet this thoughtless, wretched
heart,
Too oft regardless of thy love,
Ungrateful, can from thee depart,
And, fond of trifles, vainly rove.
- 4 Seal my forgiveness in the blood
Of Jesus ; his dear name alone
I plead for pardon, gracious God,
And kind acceptance at thy throne.
- 5 Let this blest hope mine eyelids close ;
With sleep refresh my feeble frame ;
Safe in thy care may I repose,
And wake with praises to thy Name.

1. Sun of my soul, thou Sav - iour dear, It is not night if thou be near ;

Oh, may no earth-born cloud a - rise To hide thee from thy serv - ant's eyes.

- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.
- 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I cannot live ;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wandering child of thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin ;
Let him no more lie down in sin.
- 5 Watch by the sick ; enrich the poor
With blessings from thy boundless store ;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant slumbers, pure and light.
- 6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere thro' the world our way we take,
Till in the ocean of thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

KEBLE.

37

- 1 O LORD, how joyful 't is to see
The brethren join in love to thee ;
On thee alone their heart relies,
Their only strength thy grace supplies.

- 2 How sweet, within thy holy place,
With one accord to sing thy grace,
Besieging thine attentive ear
With all the force of fervent prayer.
- 3 Oh, may we love the house of God,
Of peace and joy the blest abode ;
Oh, may no angry strife destroy
That sacred peace, that holy joy.
- 4 The world without may rage, but we
Will only cling more close to thee,
With hearts to thee more wholly given,
More weaned from earth, more fixed on
heaven.
- 5 Lord, shower upon us from above
The sacred gift of mutual love ;
Each other's wants may we supply,
And reign together in the sky.

JOHN CHANDLER.

38

- 1 WHILE now upon this Sabbath eve,
Thy house, Almighty God, we leave,
'T is sweet, as sinks the setting sun,
To think on all our duties done.
- 2 Oh ! evermore may all our bliss
Be peaceful, pure, divine like this ;
And may each Sabbath, as it flies,
Fit us for joys beyond the skies.

39

2 Oh, what a night was that which wrapt
A guilty world in gloom!
Oh, what a sun which broke this day
Triumphant from the tomb!

3 The powers of darkness leagued in vain
To bind our Lord in death;
He shook their kingdom when he fell,
By his expiring breath.

4 And now his conquering chariot wheels
Ascend the lofty skies;
Broken beneath his powerful cross,
Death's iron sceptre lies.

5 This day be grateful homage paid,
And loud hosannas sung;
Let gladness dwell in every heart,
And praise on every tongue.

6 Ten thousand thousand voices join
To hail this happy morn,
Which scatters blessings from its wings
O'er nations yet unborn.

1 AND now another week begins,
This day we call the Lord's;
This day he rose, who bore our sins—
For so his word records.

2 Hark, how the angels sweetly sing!—
Their voices fill the sky;
They hail their great victorious King,
And welcome him on high.

3 We'll catch the note of lofty praise;
May we their rapture feel;
Our thankful songs with theirs we'll raise,
And emulate their zeal.

4 Come then, ye saints! and grateful sing
Of Christ, our risen Lord—
Of Christ, the everlasting King—
Of Christ, th' incarnate word.

5 Hail, mighty Saviour! Thee we hail:
High on thy throne above;
Till heart and flesh together fail,
We'll sing thy matchless love.

1 BLEST morning, whose young dawning

Beheld our rising God,
That saw him triumph o'er the dust,
And leave his dark abode.

2 In the cold prison of the tomb
The dead Redeemer lay,
Till the revolving skies had brought
The third, th' appointed day.

3 Hell and the grave unite their force
To hold our Lord, in vain;
The sleeping conqueror arose,
And burst their feeble chain.

4 To thy great name, almighty Lord,
These sacred hours we pay,
And loud hosannas shall proclaim
The triumph of the day.

To plead for all his saints,
Presenting at his Father's throne
Our songs and our complaints.

3 Thou art a God before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;
Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
Nor dwell at thy right hand.

4 But to thy house will I resort,
To taste thy mercies there;
I will frequent thy holy court,

In ways of righteousness;
Make every path of duty straight

1 WITHIN thy house, O Lord, our God,
In glory now appear;
Make this a place of thine abode,
And shed thy blessings here.

2 When we thine awful seat surround,
Thy Spirit, Lord, impart;
And let thy gospel's joyful sound
With power reach every heart.

3 Here let the blind their sight obtain;
Here give the mourners rest:
Let Jesus here triumphant reign,
Enthroned in every breast.

4 Here let the voice of sacred joy
And humble prayer arise,
Till higher strains our tongues employ,
In realms beyond the skies.

1 LORD, at thy temple we appear,
As happy Simeon came,
And hope to meet our Saviour here,—
Oh make our joys the same.

2 With what divine and vast delight
The good old man was filled,
When fondly in his withered arms,
He clasped the holy child!

3 "Thou art the light prepared to shine
Upon the Gentile lands,
Thine Israel's glory, and their hope,
To break their slavish bands."

Scarce shall I feel death's cold em-

- 4 He hears our praises and complaints ;
And, while his awful voice
Divides the sinners from the saints,
We tremble and rejoice.
- 5 Peace be within this sacred place,
And joy a constant guest !
With holy gifts and heavenly grace
Be her attendants blest !
- 6 My soul shall pray for Zion still,
While life or breath remains :
There my best friends, my kindred, dwell ;
There God, my Saviour, reigns.

WATTS.

- 1 COME, thou desire of all thy saints !
Our humble strains attend,
While, with our praises and complaints,
Low at thy feet we bend.
- 2 How should our songs, like those above,
With warm devotion rise !
How should our souls, on wings of love,
Mount upward to the skies !

- 3 Come, Lord ! thy love alone can raise
In us the heavenly flame !
Then shall our lips resound thy praise,
Our hearts adore thy name.
- 4 Dear Saviour ! Let thy glory shine,
And fill thy dwellings here,
Till life, and love, and joy divine
A heaven on earth appear.
- 5 Then shall our hearts enraptured say,
Come, great Redeemer ! come,
And bring the bright, the glorious day,
That calls thy children home.

STEELE.

47

- 1 My soul, how lovely is the place
To which thy God resorts !
'Tis heaven to see his smiling face,
Though in his earthly courts.
- 2 There the great Monarch of the skies
His saving power displays ;
And light breaks in upon our eyes
With kind and quickening rays.
- 3 With his rich gifts the heavenly Dove
Descends and fills the place,
While Christ reveals his wondrous love,
And sheds abroad his grace.
- 4 There, mighty God, thy words declare
The secrets of thy will ;
And still we seek thy mercy there,
And sing thy praises still.

1. Ear-ly, my God, with-out de-lay, I haste to seek thy face; My thirsty spir-it faints a-way, My thirst-y spir-it faints a-way, Without thy cheering grace.

48

- 2 So pilgrims, on the scorching sand,
Beneath a burning sky,
Long for a cooling stream at hand;
And they must drink, or die.
- 3 I've seen thy glory, and thy power,
Through all thy temple shine;
My God, repeat that heavenly hour,
That vision so divine.
- 4 Not all the blessings of a feast
Can please my soul so well,
As when thy richer grace I taste,
And in thy presence dwell.
- 5 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move,
Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
As thy forgiving love.
- 6 Thus, till my last, expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King;
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my lips to sing. WATTS.

- 1 I LOVE to see the Lord below;
His church displays his grace;
But upper worlds his glory know,
And view him face to face.
- 2 I love to worship at his feet,
Though sin annoy me there;
But saints, exalted near his seat,
Have no assaults to fear.

- 3 I love to meet him in his court,
And taste his heavenly love;
But still his visits seem too short,
Or I too soon remove.
- 4 He shines, and I am all delight;
He hides, and all is pain:
When will he fix me in his sight,
And ne'er depart again?
- 5 O Lord, I love thy service now;
Thy church displays thy power;
But soon in heaven I hope to bow
And praise thee evermore. WATTS.

50

- 1 THIS is the day the Lord hath made,
He calls the hours his own;
Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
And praise surround the throne.
- 2 To-day he rose and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell;
To-day the saints his triumph spread,
And all his wonders tell.
- 3 Hosanna to th' anointed King,
To David's holy Son;
Help us, O Lord—descend and bring Salvation from thy throne.
- 4 Blest be the Lord who comes to men
With messages of grace;
Who comes in God his Father's name
To save our sinful race. WATTS.

Oh, bless this flock, and make this fold En-joy a heavenly rest!

2 Welcome and precious to my soul
Are these sweet days of love ;
But what a Sabbath shall I keep
When I shall rest above !

3 I come, I wait, I hear, I pray ;
Thy footsteps, Lord, I trace ;
Here, in thine own appointed way,
I wait to see thy face. MASON.

In pain awhile to part ;
'Tis by his care we meet again,

Our feet from every snare ;
And blest the goodness of the Lord,
Which to this hour we share.
- 4 O may the Spirit's quickening power
Now sanctify our joy,
And warm our zeal in works of love,
Our talents to employ.

Soon shall our wanderings cease ;
And with our Father we shall dwell,

- 1 DEAR Shepherd of thy people, here
Thy presence now display ;
As thou hast given a place for prayer,
So give us hearts to pray.
- 2 Within these walls let holy peace,
And love, and concord dwell ;
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.
- 3 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind bestow ;

And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow !

- 4 May we in faith receive the word,
In faith present our prayers ;
And in the presence of our Lord
Unbosom all our cares.
- 5 And may the gospel's joyful sound,
Enforced by mighty grace,
Awaken many sinners round,
To come and fill the place.

56

- 1 LORD, thou wilt hear me when I pray ;
I am for ever thine ;
I fear before thee all the day,
Nor would I dare to sin.
- 2 And while I rest my weary head,
From cares and business free,
'Tis sweet conversing on my bed
With my own heart and thee.
- 3 I pay this evening sacrifice ;
And when my work is done,
Great God ! my faith and hope relies
Upon thy grace alone.
- 4 Thus, with my thoughts composed to peace,
I give mine eyes to sleep ;
Thy hand in safety keeps my days,
And will my slumbers keep.

- 1 HAIL, tranquil hour of closing day!
Begone, disturbing care!
And look, my soul, from earth away
To him who heareth prayer.

Before his throne of grace,
While to the contrite spirit's sense,
He shows his smiling face.
- 3 How sweet, through long-remembered

His mercies to recall,

And pressed with wants, and griefs,

That throne is open still;

1. Prayer is the soul's sin-cere de-sire, Un-ut-tered or ex-pressed;
The mo-tion of a hid-den fire That trembles in the breast.

- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air:
His watchword at the gates of death—
He enters heaven with prayer.
- 5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways;
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry—"Behold he prays!"
- 6 O thou, by whom we come to God—
The Life, the Truth, the Way;
The path of prayer thyself hast trod;
Lord! teach us how to pray.

MONTGOMERY.

66

- 1 THERE is an eye that never sleeps
Beneath the wing of night;
There is an ear that never shuts,
When sink the beams of light.
- 2 There is an arm that never tires,
When human strength gives way;
There is a love that never fails,
When earthly loves decay.

- 3 That eye is fixed on seraph throngs;
That arm upholds the sky;
That ear is filled with angel songs;
That love is throned on high.
- 4 But there's a power which man can wield
When mortal aid is vain,
That eye, that arm, that love to reach,
That listening ear to gain.
- 5 That power is prayer, which soars on high,
Through Jesus, to the throne;
And moves the hand which moves the world,
To bring salvation down!

67

- 1 PRAYER is the breath of God in man,
Returning whence it came;
Love is the sacred fire within,
And prayer the rising flame.
- 2 It gives the burdened spirit ease,
And soothes the troubled breast;
Yields comfort to the mourning soul,
And to the weary rest.
- 3 When God inclines the heart to pray,
He hath an ear to hear;
To him there's music in a sigh,
And beauty in a tear.
- 4 The humble suppliant cannot fail
To have his wants supplied,
Since he for sinners intercedes,
Who once for sinners died.

 Endless praises
 To Jehovah, Three in One !

BERLIN. 10s.

MENDELSSOHN.

1. A-bide with me ! fast falls the even - tide, The darkness deepens ; Lord, with me abide ;

When other help - ers fail, and comforts flee, Help of the help-less, oh, a-bide with me.

- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day ;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away ;
Change and decay on all around I see ;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.
- 3 I need thy presence every passing hour,
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power ?
Who like thyself, my guide and stay can be ?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.
- 4 I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless ;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting ? where, grave, thy victory ?
I triumph still, if thou abide with me.
- 5 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes ;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies ;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee ;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

LYTE.

ASPINWALL. Chant.

H. LODER.

1. Abide with me ! fast falls the ev-en-tide, The darkness deepens ; Lord, with me a-bide :

When other helpers fail, and comforts flee, Help of the helpless, oh, a-bide with me.

STOCKWELL. 8s & 7s.

D. E. JONES.

1. Si - lent - ly the shades of eve - ning Gath - er round my low - ly door ;

Si - lent - ly they bring be - fore me Fa - ces I shall see no more.

90

- 2 Oh, the lost, the unforgotten,
Though the world be oft forgot ;
Oh, the shrouded and the lonely,
In our hearts they perish not.
- 3 Living in the silent hours,
Where our spirits only blend,
They, unlinked with earthly trouble,
We still hoping for its end.
- 4 How such holy memories cluster,
Like the stars when storms are past,
Pointing up to that fair heaven
We may hope to gain at last.

91

- 1 TARRY with me, O my Saviour,
For the day is passing by ;
See ! the shades of evening gather,
And the night is drawing nigh.
- 2 Many friends were gathered round me
In the bright days of the past ;
But the grave has closed above them,
And I linger here at last.
- 3 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows ;
Paler now the glowing west ;
Swift the night of death advances ;
Shall it be the night of rest ?
- 4 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
Lord, I cast myself on thee ;
Tarry with me through the darkness !
While I sleep, still watch by me.

- 5 Tarry with me, O my Saviour !
Lay my head upon thy breast
Till the morning ; then awake me—
Morning of eternal rest !

MRS. C. SMITH.

- 1 VAINLY through night's weary hours,
Keep we watch lest foes alarm ;
Vain our bulwarks and our towers,
But for God's protecting arm.
- 2 Vain were all our toil and labor
Did not God that labor bless ;
Vain, without his grace and favor,
Every talent we possess.
- 3 Seek we then the Lord's Anointed ;
He shall grant us peace and rest :
Ne'er was suppliant disappointed
Who to Christ his prayer addressed.

LYTE.

93

- 1 Lo, the day of rest declineth,
Gather fast the shades of night ;
May the Sun which ever shineth,
Fill our souls with heavenly light !
- 2 While thine ear of love addressing,
Thus our parting hymn we sing,
Father, grant thine evening blessing,
Fold us safe beneath thy wing !

94

- 2 Father in heaven! oh, hear when we call!
 Hear, for Christ's sake, who is Saviour of all;
 Feeble and fainting we trust in thy might,
 In doubting and darkness thy love be our light;
 Let us sleep on thy breast while the night taper burns,
 Wake in thy arms when morning returns.
 Father, have mercy, &c.

SWEET HOUR OF PRAYER. L. M.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1. Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer ! That calls me from a world of care,
D. C. And oft es-caped the tempter's snare By thy re - turn, sweet hour of prayer ;

And bids me at my Fa-ther's throne Make all my wants and wish - es known.
And oft es-caped the tempter's snare By thy re - turn, sweet hour of prayer. Fine.

In sea - sons of dis - tress and grief, My soul has oft - en found re - lief, D. C.

95

- 2 Sweet hour of prayer ! sweet hour of prayer !
Thy wings shall my petition bear,
To him whose truth and faithfulness,
Engage the waiting soul to bless ;
And since he bids me seek his face,
Believe his word, and trust his grace,
I'll cast on him my every care,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer !
- 3 Sweet hour of prayer ! sweet hour of prayer !
May I thy consolation share ;
Till from Mount Pisgah's lofty height,
I view my home, and take my flight ;
This robe of flesh I'll drop, and rise
To seize the everlasting prize ;
And shout, while passing through the air,
Farewell, farewell, sweet hour of prayer.

LUTHER. S. M.

T. HASTINGS.

1. Stand up, and bless the Lord, Ye people of his choice; Stand up, and bless the Lord your God With heart, and soul, and voice, With heart, and soul, and voice.

96

- 2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear his holy name,
And laud, and magnify?
- 3 Oh, for the living flame
From his own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our souls inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought!
- 4 God is our strength and song,
And his salvation ours;
Then be his love in Christ proclaimed
With all our ransomed powers.
- 5 Stand up, and bless the Lord;
The Lord your God adore;
Stand up, and bless his glorious name,
Henceforth, for evermore!

MONTGOMERY.

97

- 1 LET sinners take their course,
And choose the road to death;
But in the worship of my God
I'll spend my daily breath.
- 2 My thoughts address his throne,
When morning brings the light;
I seek his blessing every noon,
And pay my vows at night.

- 3 Thou wilt regard my cries,
O my eternal God,
While sinners perish in surprise,
Beneath thy holy rod.
- 4 But I, with all my cares,
Will lean upon the Lord;
I'll cast my burdens on his arm,
And rest upon his word.
- 5 His arm shall well sustain
The children of his love;
The ground on which their safety stands
No earthly power can move.

WATTS.

98

- 1 My soul, repeat his praise,
Whose mercies are so great,
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.
- 2 His power subdues our sins,
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west
Doth all our guilt remove.
- 3 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread;
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.

WATTS.

TRURO. L. M.

1. Praise ye the Lord, his servants, raise Your hearts and voi - ces in his praise ;

His presence seek, his name a - dore ; Oh, praise the Lord for ev - er - more.

1 PRAISE ye the Lord, his servants, raise
Your hearts and voices in his praise ;
His presence seek, his name adore ;
Oh, praise the Lord forevermore.

2 Above the earth, beyond the sky,
The Lord in glory reigns on high :
The best is vile, the brightest dim,
The loftiest low, compared with him.

3 Yet suppliant misery's fainting groan
Can reach him on his lofty throne ;
And all the Godhead from above
Flows down in melting grace and love.

4 Lord, to our feeble cry attend ;
Be still the contrite sinner's friend ;
Still mark our wants, and hear our plea,
And bear us on to heaven and thee.

1 O BLESSED God, to thee I raise
My voice in thankful hymns of praise ;
And when my voice shall silent be,
My silence shall be praise to thee.

2 For voice and silence both impart
The filial homage of my heart ;

And both alike are understood
By thee, thou Parent of all good.

3 Thy grace is all unsearchable,
Thy care for me no tongue can tell :
Thou lov'st my loudest praise to hear,
And lov'st to bless my voiceless prayer.

101

1 O JESUS, Lord of heavenly grace,
Thou Brightness of thy Father's face,
Thou Fountain of eternal light,
Whose beams disperse the shades of night !

2 Come, holy Sun of heavenly love,
Send down thy radiance from above ;
And to our inmost hearts convey
The Holy Spirit's cloudless ray.

3 Oh, hallowed thus be every day !
Let meekness be our morning ray,
And faithful love our noon-day light,
And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

4 O Christ, with each returning morn,
Thine image to our hearts is borne :
Oh, may we ever clearly see
Our Saviour and our God in thee !

ROMBERG.

1. How sweet, up - on this sa - cred day, The best of all the seven,
To cast our earth - ly thoughts a - way, And think of God and heaven!

IO2

- 2 How sweet to be allowed to pray
Our sins may be forgiven!
With filial confidence to say,
"Father, who art in heaven!"
- 3 How sweet the words of peace to hear
From him to whom 'tis given
To wake the penitential tear,
And lead the way to heaven!
- 4 Then hail, thou sacred, blessed day,
The best of all the seven,
When hearts unite their vows to pay
Of gratitude to heaven! MRS. FOLLEN.

IO3

- 1 THE Lord of glory is my light,
And my salvation, too;
God is my strength, nor will I fear
What all my foes can do.
- 2 One privilege my heart desires,
Oh, grant me an abode
Among the churches of thy saints,
The temples of my God!
- 3 There shall I offer my requests,
And see thy beauty still;
Shall hear thy messages of love,
And there inquire thy will.
- 4 When troubles rise, and storms appear,
There may thy children hide:

God has a strong pavilion, where
He makes my soul abide. WATTS.

IO4

- 1 OUR Father, God, who art in heaven,
All hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done
In heaven and earth the same.
- 2 Give us this day our daily bread;
And as we those forgive
Who sin against us, so may we Forgiving grace receive.
- 3 Into temptation lead us not;
From evil set us free;
And thine the kingdom, thine the power,
And glory, ever be. JUDSON.

IO5

- 1 Now that the sun is beaming bright,
Once more to God we pray
That he, the uncreated Light,
May guide our souls this day.
- 2 No sinful word, nor deed of wrong,
Nor thoughts that idly rove;
But simple truth be on our tongue,
And in our hearts be love.
- 3 And while the hours in order flow,
O Christ, securely fence
Our gates beleaguer'd by the foe,—
The gate of every sense. AMBROSE

1. Lord, with glow - ing heart I'd praise thee, For the bliss thy love be - stows ;

For the pardoning grace that saves me, And the peace that from it flows :
D. s. Thou must light the flame, or nev - er Can my love be warmed to praise.

Help, O God, my weak en-deav-or; This dull soul to rap-ture raise ;

106

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray ;
Found thee lost and kindly brought thee

From the paths of death away ;
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express :
Low before thy footstool kneeling,
Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless :
Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise ;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth thy praise.

KEY.

107

HEAVENLY Shepherd, guide us, feed us,
Through our pilgrimage below,
And beside the waters lead us,
Where thy flock rejoicing go.

Lord, thy guardian presence ever,
Meekly bending, we implore ;
We have found thee, and would never,
Never wander from thee more.

BICKERSTETH.

108

1 SAVIOUR! breathe an evening blessing,
Ere repose our eyelids seal ;
Sin and want we come confessing ;
Thou canst save, and thou canst heal.

Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrows past us fly,
Angel-guards from thee surround us—
We are safe if thou art nigh.

2 Though the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness can not hide from thee :
Thou art he who, never weary,
Watcheth where thy people be.
Should swift death this night o'ertake
us,

And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,
Clad in bright and deathless bloom.

To take our load of sins away,

A ransom for our souls hath found,
Before thy throne we sinners bend:
To us thy pard'ning love extend.

Our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord!
Before thy throne we sinners bend:
To us thy saving grace extend.

- 1 THEE we adore, eternal Lord!
We praise thy Name with one accord;
Thy saints, who here thy goodness see,
Through all the world do worship thee.

And ceaseless raise their songs on high,
Both cherubim and seraphim,
The heavens and all the powers therein.

The prophets swell the immortal song;
The martyrs' noble army raise
Eternal anthems to thy praise.
- 4 Thee, holy, holy, holy King
Thee, O Lord God of hosts, they sing:
Thus earth below, and heaven above.
Resound thy glory and thy love.

GIARDINI. 1760.

1. Come, thou Almighty King, Help us thy name to sing, Help us to praise: Father all-glorious, O'er all vic-tor-ious, Come, and reign o-ver us, Ancient of Days!

II 4

- 2 Come, thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend!
Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success:
Spirit of holiness, On us descend!
- 3 Come, Holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour!
Thou, who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart, Spirit of power!
- 4 To the great One in Three,
The highest praises be,
Hence evermore!
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity Love and adore.

C. WESLEY.

II 5

- 1 THOU, whose almighty word
Chaos and darkness heard,
And took their flight,
Hear us, we humbly pray,
And where the gospel day
Sheds not its glorious ray,
"Let there be light."
- 2 Thou, who didst come to bring,
On thy redeeming wing,
Healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,

Sight to the inly blind,
Oh, now to all mankind
"Let there be light."

- 3 Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving, holy Dove,
Speed forth thy flight;
Move on the waters' face,
Bearing the lamp of grace;
And in earth's darkest place
"Let there be light." MARRIOTT.

II 6

- 1 FATHER of love and power,
Guard thou our evening hour,
Shield with thy might;
For all thy care this day
Our grateful thanks we pay,
And to our Father pray,
Bless us to-night.
- 2 Jesus Immanuel,
Come in thy love to dwell
In hearts contrite;
For many sins we grieve,
But we thy grace receive,
And in thy word believe;
Bless us to-night.
- 3 Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving, holy Dove,
Shed forth thy light;
Heal every sinner's smart,
Still every throbbing heart,
And thine own peace impart;
Bless us to-night.

1. Be - fore Je - ho - vah's aw - ful throne, Ye na - tions, bow with sa - cred joy :

Know that the Lord is God a - lone, He can cre - ate, and he de - stroy.

2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men ;
And when, like wand'ring sheep we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.

3 We are his people, we his care—
Our souls, and all our mortal frame :
What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to thy name ?

4 We'll crowd thy gates, with thankful songs,
High, as the heaven, our voices raise ;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.

5 Wide as the world is thy command ;
Vast as eternity thy love ;
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

WATTS.

1 YE nations round the earth, rejoice
Before the Lord, your sovereign King ;
Serve him with cheerful heart and voice ;
With all your tongues his glory sing.

2 The Lord is God ; 'tis he alone
Doth life, and breath, and being give ;
We are his work, and not our own ;
The sheep that on his pastures live.

3 Enter his gates with songs of joy,
With praises to his courts repair ;
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.

4 The Lord is good, the Lord is kind,
Great is his grace, his mercy sure ;
And the whole race of man shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

1 WITH deepest reverence at thy throne,
Jehovah, peerless and unknown !
Our feeble spirits strive, in vain,
A glimpse of thee, great God ! to gain.

2 Who, by the closest search, can find
The eternal, uncreated mind ?
Nor men, nor angels can explore Thy heights of love, thy depths of power.

3 That power we trace on every side ;
Oh ! may thy wisdom be our guide !
And while we live, and when we die,
May thine almighty love be nigh.

A depth where all our thoughts are

The stars he numbers, and their names
He gives to all those heavenly flames.
- 3 Thro' each bright world above, behold
Ten thousand thousand charms unfold;
Earth, air, and mighty seas combine
To speak his wisdom all divine.

Its wonders, oh, what thought can trace!
Here wisdom shines forever bright;
Praise him, my soul, with sweet delight.

VANHALL'S HYMN. L. M.

VANHALL.

I. Oh, render thanks to God above, The fountain of e - ternal love; Whose mercy firm, thro' a - ges past, Hath stood, and shall forev-er last; Hath stood, and shall forev-er last.

I 23

- 2 Who can his mighty deeds express,
Not only vast—but numberless?
What mortal eloquence can raise
His tribute of immortal praise?
- 3 Extend to me that favor, Lord,
Thou to thy chosen dost afford;
When thou return'st to set them free,
Let thy salvation visit me.
- 4 Oh, render thanks to God above,
The fountain of eternal love:
His mercy firm, through ages past,
Hath stood, and shall forever last.
- TATE & BRADY.

I 24

- 1 COME, O my soul! in sacred lays
Attempt thy great Creator's praise:
But, oh, what tongue can speak his fame?
What mortal verse can reach the theme?
- 2 Enthroned amid the radiant spheres,
He glory like a garment wears;
To form a robe of light divine,
Ten thousand suns around him shine.
- 3 In all our Maker's grand designs,
Almighty power with wisdom shines;
His works, thro' all this wondrous frame,
Declare the glory of his name.
- 4 Raised on devotion's lofty wing,
Do thou, my soul, his glories sing;

And let his praise employ thy tongue,
Till list'ning worlds shall join the song!

BLACKLOCK.

I 25

- 1 KINGDOMS and thrones to God belong;
Crown him, ye nations, in your song;
His wondrous names and pow'rs rehearse;
His honors shall enrich your verse.
- 2 He shakes the heav'ns with loud alarms;
How terrible is God in arms!
In Israel are his mercies known;
Israel is his peculiar throne.
- 3 Proclaim him King, pronounce him blest;
He's your defence, your joy, your rest;
When terrors rise, and nations faint,
God is the strength of every saint.
- WATTS.

I 26

- 1 O PRAISE the Lord in that blest place
From whence his goodness largely flows;
Praise him in heav'n, where he his face
Unveiled in perfect glory shows.
- 2 Praise him for all the mighty acts
Which he in our behalf hath done;
His kindness this return exacts,
With which our praise should equal run.
- 3 Let all, who vital breath enjoy,
The breath he doth to them afford
In just returns of praise employ;
Let every creature praise the Lord.

i. Oh, come, loud anthems let us sing, Loud thanks to our Al-might - y King ;

For we our voic-es high should raise, When our sal - va-tion's Rock we praise.

127

2 The depths of earth are in his hand,
Her secret wealth at his command ;
The strength of hills that threat the skies,
Subjected to his empire lies.

3 The rolling ocean's vast abyss
By the same sovereign right is his ;
'Tis moved by his almighty hand,
That formed and fixed the solid land.

4 Oh, let us to his courts repair,
And bow with adoration there :
Down on our knees devoutly all
Before the Lord our Maker fall.

TATE & BRADY.

128

1 PRAISE, everlasting praise, be paid
To him who earth's foundation laid ;
Praise to the God whose strong decrees
Sway the creation as he please.

2 Firm are the words his prophets give,
Sweet words on which his children live ;
Each of them is the voice of God,
Who spoke and spread the skies abroad.

3 Oh, for a strong, a lasting faith,
To credit what th' Almighty saith ;
T' embrace the message of his Son,
And call the joys of heaven our own.

4 Then, should the earth's old pillars
shake,
And all the wheels of nature break,
Our steady souls shall fear no more
Than solid rocks when billows roar.

1 LOUD hallelujahs to the Lord,
From distant worlds where creatures dwell !

Let heaven begin the solemn word,
And sound it dreadful down to hell.

2 Mortals, can you refrain your tongue
When nature all around you sings?
Oh for a shout from old and young,
From humble swains and lofty kings !

3 Wide as his vast dominion lies,
Make the Creator's name be known ;
Loud as his thunder shout his praise,
And sound it lofty as his throne.

4 Jehovah ! 'tis a glorious word !
Oh ! may it dwell on every tongue ;
But saints who best have known the Lord,

Are bound to raise the noblest song.

5 Speak of the wonders of that love
Which Gabriel plays on every chord :
From all below, and all above,
Loud hallelujahs to the Lord.

3 'Tis he, my soul, that sent his Son
To die for crimes which thou hast done ;
He owns the ransom, and forgives
The hourly follies of our lives.

He utters his almighty voice—
The nations melt—the tumult dies.

2 From sea to sea, through all the shores,
He makes the noise of battle cease ;
When from on high his thunder roars,
He awes the trembling world to peace.

3 "Be still—and learn that I am God ;
I'll be exalted o'er the lands ;
I will be known and feared abroad,
But still my throne in Zion stands."

4 O Lord of hosts, Almighty King !
While we so near thy presence dwell,

Our faith shall sit secure, and sing
Defiance to the gates of hell.

WATTS.

132

1 THERE is a God!—all nature speaks,
Thro' earth, and air, and seas, and skies ;
See ! from the clouds his glory breaks,
When the first beams of morning rise.

2 The rising sun, serenely bright,
O'er the wide world's extended frame,
Inscribes, in characters of light,
His mighty Maker's glorious name.

3 Ye curious minds, who roam abroad,
And trace creation's wonders o'er,
Confess the footsteps of your God,
And bow before him, and adore.

STEELE.

133

1 Lo, God is here !—let us adore,
And own how dreadful is this place ;
Let all within us feel his power,
And silent bow before his face.

2 Lo, God is here !—him day and night
United choirs of angels sing ;
To him, enthroned above all height,
Let saints their humble worship bring.

3 Lord God of hosts, oh, may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill ;
Still may we stand before thy face,
Still hear and do thy sovereign will.

BEASTALL.

I. Al-might-y God, we praise and own Thee our Cre-at- or, King a-lone;

All things were made to hon-or thee, O Fa-ther of e-ter-ni-ty!

I 34

- 2 To thee all angels loudly cry;
The heavens and all the powers on high,
Cherubs and seraphim, proclaim,
And cry, Thrice holy to thy name!
- 3 Lord God of hosts, thy presence bright,
Fills heaven and earth with beauteous
light;
The apostles' happy company,
And ancient prophets, all praise thee.
- 4 The crownéd martyrs' noble host,
The holy church in every coast,
Their Maker for their Father own,
Now reconciled in Christ his Son.

I 35

- 1 YES, God is good; in earth and sky,
From ocean-depths and spreading
wood,
Ten thousand voices seem to cry,
"God made us all, and God is good."
- 2 The sun that keeps his trackless way,
And downward pours his golden flood,
Night's sparkling hosts, all seem to say,
In accents clear, that God is good.
- 3 The merry birds prolong the strain,
Their song with every spring renewed;
And balmy air, and falling rain,
Each softly whisper, "God is good."
- 4 I hear it in the rushing breeze;
The hills that have for ages stood,

- The echoing sky and roaring seas,
All swell the chorus, "God is good."
- 5 Yes, God is good, all Nature says,
By God's own hand with speech en-
dued;
And man, in louder notes of praise,
Should sing for joy that God is good.
- 6 For all thy gifts we bless thee, Lord;
But chiefly for our heavenly food,
Thy pard'ning grace, thy quick'ning
word;
These prompt our song, that God is good.

JOHN H. GURNEY.

I 36

- 1 PRAISE ye the Lord; my heart shall join
In work so pleasant, so divine;
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life, and thought, and being, last.
- 2 Happy the man whose hopes rely
On Israel's God: he made the sky,
And earth, and seas, with all their train;
And none shall find his promise vain.
- 3 His truth forever stands secure;
He saves th'oppress'd, he feeds the poor;
He helps the stranger in distress,
The widow and the fatherless.
- 4 He loves the saints; he knows them well,
But turns the wicked down to hell:
Thy God, O Zion, ever reigns;
Praise him in everlasting strains.

GREGORIAN CHANT.

I. Up to the fields where an - gels lie, And liv - ing wa - ters gen - tly roll,

Fain would my thoughts leap out and fly, But sin hangs heav - y on my soul.

I 37

2 O might I once mount up and see
The glories of th' eternal skies,
What little things these worlds would be!
How despicable to my eyes!

3 Had I a glance of thee, my God,
Kingdoms and men would vanish soon,
Vanish as though I saw them not,
As a dim taper dies at noon.

4 Then they might fight, and rage, and rave,

I should perceive the noise no more
Than we can hear a shaking leaf
While rattling thunders round us roar.

5 Great All in All, Eternal King,
Let me but view thy lovely face,
And all my powers shall bow and sing
Thine endless grandeur and thy grace.

WATTS.

I 38

1 LORD, thou hast searched and seen me through :

Thine eye commands with piercing view
My rising and my resting hours,
My heart and flesh with all their pow'rs.

2 My thoughts, before they are my own,
Are to my God distinctly known ;
He knows the words I mean to speak,
Ere from my opening lips they break.

3 Within thy circling power I stand ;
On every side I find thy hand :

Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
I am surrounded still with God.

4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great !
What large extent ! what lofty height !
My soul, with all the powers I boast,
Is in the boundless prospect lost.

5 Oh ! may these thoughts possess my
breast,

Where'er I rove, where'er I rest,
Nor let my weaker passions dare
Consent to sin, for God is there.

WATTS.

I 39

1 GIVE thanks to God, he reigns above ;
Kind are his thoughts, his name is love ;
His mercy ages past have known,
And ages long to come shall own.

2 Let the redeemed of the Lord
The wonders of his grace record ;
Israel, the nation whom he chose,
And rescued from their mighty foes.

3 He feeds and clothes us all the way,
He guides our footsteps, lest we stray ;
He guards us with a powerful hand,
And brings us to the heavenly land.

4 O let us, then, with joy record
The truth and goodness of the Lord ;
How great his works—how kind his ways !

Let every tongue pronounce his praise.

WATTS.

ROCKINGHAM. L. M.

L. MASON.

1. My God, my King, thy va-rious praise Shall fill the rem-nant of my days ;
Thy grace em-ploy my hum-bles tongue, Till death and glo - ry raise the song.

I40

- 2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear ;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for thee.
- 3 Let distant times and nations raise
The long succession of thy praise ;
And unborn ages make my song
The joy and triumph of their tongue.
- 4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds ?
Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds :
Vast and unsearchable thy ways !
Vast and immortal be thy praise !

WATTS.

I41

- 1 THE Lord is King ! lift up thy voice,
O earth, and all ye heavens, rejoice !
From world to world the joy shall ring :
The Lord omnipotent is King !
- 2 The Lord is King ! who then shall dare
Resist his will, distrust his care ?
Holy and true are all his ways :
Let every creature speak his praise.
- 3 The Lord is King ! exalt your strains,
Ye saints ; your God, your Father reigns ;
One Lord, one empire, all secures :
He reigns,—and life and death are yours.

- 4 Oh, when his wisdom can mistake,
His might decay, his love forsake,
Then may his children cease to sing,—
The Lord omnipotent is King !

CONDER.

I42

- 1 WITH all my powers of heart and tongue,
I'll praise my Maker in my song ;
Angels shall hear the notes I raise,
Approve the song, and join the praise.
- 2 To God I cried when troubles rose ;
He heard me, and subdued my foes :
He did my rising fears control,
And strength diffused through all my soul.

- 3 Amid a thousand snares, I stand
Upheld and guarded by thy hand ;
Thy words my fainting soul revive,
And keep my dying faith alive.

WATTS.

I43

- 1 GREAT is the Lord ! What tongue can
frame,
An honor equal to his name ?
How awful are his glorious ways !
The Lord is dreadful in his praise !
- 2 Thy glory, fearless of decline,
Thy, glory, Lord, shall ever shine ;
Thy praise shall still our breath employ
Till we shall rise to endless joy.

DARLEY. L. M.

W. H. W. DARLEY.

1. Come, let our voices join to raise A sacred song of sol-emn praise: God is a sov-ereign
King: re-hearse His hon-or in ex-alt-ed verse, His hon-or in ex-alt-ed verse.

I44

- 2 Come, let our souls address the Lord,
Who framed our natures by his word:
He is our Shepherd: we, the sheep
His mercy chose, his pastures keep.
- 3 Come, let us hear his voice to-day,
The counsels of his love obey;
Nor let our hardened hearts renew
The sins and plagues that Israel knew.
- 4 Come, let us turn, with holy fear,
To him who now invites us near;
Accept the offered grace to-day,
Nor lose the blessing by delay.
- 5 Come, seize the promise while it waits,
And march to Zion's heavenly gates;
Believe, and take the promised rest;
Obey, and be forever blest.

WATTS.

I45

- 1 SING to the Lord that built the skies,
The Lord that reared this stately frame;
Let all the nations sound his praise,
And lands unknown repeat his name.
- 2 He formed the seas, and formed the hills,
Made every drop and every dust,
Nature and time, with all their wheels,
And pushed them into motion first.
- 3 Now, from his high, imperial throne,
He looks far down upon the spheres;

He bids the shining orbs roll on,
And round he turns the hasty years.

- 4 Thus shall this moving engine last,
Till all his saints are gathered in;
Then for the trumpet's dreadful blast
To shake it all to dust again!
- 5 Yet, when the sound shall tear the
skies,
And lightning burn the globe below,
Saints, you may lift your joyful eyes,
There's a new heaven and earth for you.

WATTS.

I46

- 1 THY works proclaim thy glory, Lord:
The blooming fields, the singing bird,
The tempests and the sunny hour,
Show forth thy goodness and thy power.
- 2 And when the setting sun declines,
I view thee in its brilliant lines:
Those tints so beautiful and bright
Teach me the Author of all light.
- 3 Great God, how should our worship rise
To thee, who formed the earth and skies!
The things that creep and things that fly
Are view'd by thine all-seeing eye.
- 4 Then will I still adore thy Name,
Thou who forever art the same;
But yet thy grace and mercy, Lord,
Shine brightest in thy holy word.

1. God is the ref - uge of his saints, When storms of sharp dis - tress in - vade ;

Ere we can of - fer our com - plaints, Be - hold him pres - ent with his aid.

I47

- 2 Let mountains from their seats be hurl'd
Down to the deep, and buried there,
Convulsions shake the solid world—
Our faith shall never yield to fear.
- 3 Loud may the troubled ocean roar ;
In sacred peace our souls abide ;
While every nation, every shore,
Trembles and dreads the swelling tide.
- 4 There is a stream whose gentle flow
Supplies the city of our God,
Life, love, and joy, still gliding thro',
And watering our divine abode.
- 5 That sacred stream, thine holy word,
Our grief allays, our fear controls ;
Sweet peace thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls.
- 6 Zion enjoys her Monarch's love,
Secure against a threatening hour ;
Nor can her firm foundation move,
Built on his truth, and armed with power.

WATTS.

I48

- 1 MY God, I love and I adore ;
But souls that love would know thee
more :
Wilt thou forever hide, and stand
Behind the labors of thy hand ?

- 2 Thy hand, great God, sustains the poles
On which this huge creation rolls ;
The starry arch proclaims thy power ;
Thy pencil glows in every flower.
- 3 Across the waves, around the sky,
There's not a spot, or deep or high,
Where the Creator has not trod,
And left the footsteps of a God.
- 4 Fain would I trace the immortal way
That leads to courts of endless day,
Where the Creator stands confessed,
In his own fairest glories dressed.

- 1 THERE'S nothing bright, above, below,
From flowers that bloom to stars that glow,
But in its light my soul can see
Some features of the Deity.
- 2 There's nothing dark, below, above,
But in its gloom I trace thy love,
And meekly wait the moment when
Thy touch shall make all bright again.
- 3 The light, the dark, where'er I look,
Shall be one pure and shining book,
Where I may read, in words of flame,
The glories of thy wondrous name.

1. Great God, in-dulge my hum-ble claim; Thou art my hope, my joy, my rest;

The glories that com-pose thy name Stand all en-gaged to make me blest.

I 50

- 2 Thou great and good, thou just and wise,
Thou art my Father and my God;
And I am thine, by sacred ties,
Thy son, thy servant, bought with blood.
- 3 With early feet I love t' appear
Among thy saints, and seek thy face;
Oft have I seen thy glory there,
And felt the power of sovereign grace.
- 4 I'll lift my hands, I'll raise my voice,
While I have breath to pray or praise;
This work shall make my heart rejoice,
And bless the remnant of my days.

WATTS.

I 51

- 1 THOU, Lord, who rear'st the moun-
tain's height,
And mak'st the cliffs with sunshine
bright,
Oh, grant that we may own thy hand
No less in every grain of sand!
- 2 With forests huge, of dateless time,
Thy will has hung each peak sublime;
But withered leaves beneath the tree
Have tongues that tell as loud of thee.
- 3 Teach us that not a leaf can grow
Till life from thee within it flow;
That not a grain of dust can be,
O Fount of being, save by thee!

STERLING.

I 52

- 1 GREAT Former of this various frame,
Our souls adore thine awful name,
And bow and tremble, while they praise
The Ancient of eternal days.
- 2 Our days a transient period run,
And change with every circling sun;
And, in the firmest state we boast,
Before the moth we sink to dust.
- 3 But let the creatures fall around;
Let death consign us to the ground;
Let the last general flame arise,
And melt the arches of the skies;—
- 4 Calm as the summer's ocean, we
Can all the wreck of nature see,
While grace secures us an abode
Unshaken as the throne of God.

DODDRIDGE.

I 53

- 1 WAIT, O my soul! thy Maker's will;
Tumultuous passions, all be still!
Nor let a murmuring thought arise;
His ways are just, his counsels wise.
- 2 He in the thickest darkness dwells,
Performs his work, the cause conceals;
But, though his methods are unknown,
Judgment and truth support his throne.
- 3 In heaven, and earth, and air, and seas,
He executes his firm decrees;
And by his saints it stands confessed,
That what he does is ever best.

1. Lord, from thy un-ex-haust-ed store, Thy rain re-lieves the thirst-y ground,
 Makes lands that barren were be-fore, With corn and use-ful fruits a-bound.

I 54

- 1 LORD, from thy unexhausted store,
 Thy rain relieves the thirsty ground,
 Makes lands that barren were before,
 With corn and useful fruits abound.
- 2 On rising ridges down it pours,
 And every furrowed valley fills:
 Thou mak'st them soft with gentle
 showers,
 In which a blest increase distils.
- 3 Thy goodness does the circling year
 With fresh returns of plenty crown;
 And where thy glorious paths appear,
 The fruitful clouds drop fatness down.
- 4 They drop on barren deserts, changed
 By them to pastures fresh and green:
 The hills about, in order ranged,
 In beauteous robes of joy are seen.
- 5 Large flocks with fleecy wool adorn
 The cheerful downs; the valleys bring
 A plenteous crop of full-eared corn,
 And seem, for joy, to shout and sing.

- 2 How blest thy saints! how safely led!
 How surely kept! how richly fed!
 Saviour of all in earth and sea,
 How happy they who rest in thee.
- 3 The year is with thy goodness crowned;
 Thy clouds drop wealth the world around;
 Through thee the deserts laugh and sing,
 And nature smiles and owns her King.
- 4 Lord, on our souls thy Spirit pour;
 The moral waste within restore;
 Oh, let thy love our spring-tide be,
 And make us all bear fruit to thee.

I 55

- 1 PRAISE, Lord, for thee in Zion waits;
 Prayer shall besiege thy temple gates;
 All flesh shall to thy throne repair,
 And find through Christ salvation
 there.

- 1 JUST are thy ways, and true thy word,
 Great Rock of my secure abode;
 Who is a God, beside the Lord?
 Or where's a refuge like our God?
- 2 'Tis he that girds me with his might,
 Gives me his holy sword to wield;
 And while with sin and hell I fight,
 Spreads his salvation for my shield.
- 3 He lives, and blessed be my Rock;
 The God of my salvation lives;
 The dark designs of hell he broke:
 Sweet is the peace my Father gives.

Which shall no change or period see ;
For thou, O Lord, and thou alone,

But God above can still their noise,
And make the angry sea comply.

- 1 WHAT finite power, with ceaseless toil,
Can fathom the eternal mind ?
Or who the Almighty Three in One,
By searching to perfection find ?
- 2 Angels and men in vain may raise,
Harmonious, their adoring songs ;
The laboring thought sinks down oppressed,
And praises die upon their tongues.
- 3 Yet would I lift my trembling voice,
A portion of his ways to sing ;
And mingling with his meanest works,
My humble, grateful tribute bring.

I 59

- 1 O THOU, by long experience tried,
Near whom no grief can long abide ;
My Lord, how full of sweet content
My years of pilgrimage are spent !

- 2 All scenes alike engaging prove,
To souls impressed with sacred love ;
Where'er they dwell, they dwell in thee,
In heaven, in earth, or on the sea.
- 3 To them remains nor place nor time ;
Their country is in every clime ;
They can be calm and free from care
On any shore, since God is there.
- 4 While place we seek, or place we shun,
The soul finds happiness in none ;
But with our God to guide our way,
'Tis equal joy to go or stay.
- 5 Could I be cast where thou art not,
That were indeed a dreadful lot ;
But regions none remote I call,
Secure of finding God in all.

My trust is in thy mighty power,
Thou art my Shield from foes abroad,
At home my Safeguard and my Tower.

So shall I, by thy watchful care,
Be guarded safe from every foe.

161

- 2 Long hadst thou reign'd ere time began,
Or dust was fashioned into man ;
And long thy kingdom shall endure,
When earth and time shall be no more.
- 3 But man, weak man, is born to die,
Made up of guilt and vanity ;
Thy dreadful sentence, Lord, was just—
“Return, ye sinners, to your dust.”
- 4 Death, like an overflowing stream,
Sweeps us away ; our life's a dream—
An empty tale—a morning flower,
Cut down and withered in an hour.
- 5 Teach us, O Lord, how frail is man ;
And kindly lengthen out our span,
Till a wise care of piety
Fit us to die and dwell with thee.

WATTS.

The song shall wake with opening light,
And warble to the silent night.
- 2 When anxious care would break my rest,
And grief would tear my throbbing
breast,
Thy tuneful praises, raised on high,
Shall check the murmur and the sigh.

- 3 When death o'er nature shall prevail,
And all my powers of language fail,
Joy thro' my swimming eyes shall break,
And mean the thanks I cannot speak.
- 4 But, oh, when that last conflict's o'er,
And I am chained to flesh no more,
With what glad accents shall I rise
To join the music of the skies !
- 5 Soon shall I learn the exalted strains
Which echo o'er the heavenly plains,
And emulate, with joy unknown,
The glowing seraphs round thy throne.

His love reveals a smiling face,
His truth and promise seal the grace.
- 3 Thro' all his works what wisdom shines!
He baffles Satan's deep designs ;

On swifter wings salvation flies:

Star of our hope, thy softened light

love,
Before thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no lustre of our own.

Wise are the wonders of thy hands ;
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.
- 3 My God, how excellent thy grace !
Whence all our hope and comfort

The sons of Adam, in distress,
Fly to the shadow of thy wings.

i LET all the earth their voices raise,

To sing and bless Jehovah's name:

2 He framed the globe, he built the sky,
He made the shining worlds on high,
And reigns complete in glory there.
His beams are majesty and light;
His beauties, how divinely bright!
His temple, how divinely fair!

3 Come the great day, the glorious hour,
When earth shall feel his saving power,
And heathen nations fear his name!
Then shall the race of man confess
The beauty of his holiness,
And in his courts his grace proclaim.

DOXOLOGY.

Now to the great and Sacred Three,
The Father, Son, and Spirit, be
Eternal praise and glory given,
Thro' all the worlds where God is known,
By all the angels near the throne,
And all the saints in earth and
heaven.

1. O God! our help in a - ges past, Our hope for years to come,

Our shel - ter from the storm - y blast, And our e - ter - nal home!

I 72

- 2 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.
- 3 A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone—
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.
- 4 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away ;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
- 5 O God! our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guide while troubles last,
And our eternal home. WATTS.

I 73

- 1 GREAT God, how infinite art thou!
What worthless worms are we!
Let all the race of creatures bow,
And pay their praise to thee.
- 2 Thy throne eternal ages stood,
Ere seas or stars were made ;
Thou art the ever-living God,
Were all the nations dead.
- 3 Eternity, with all its years,
Stands present in thy view ;

- To thee there's nothing old appears,
Great God, there's nothing new.
- 4 Our lives thro' various scenes are drawn,
And vexed with trifling cares,
While thine eternal thought moves on Thine undisturbed affairs.
- 5 Great God, how infinite art thou!
What worthless worms are we!
Let all the race of creatures bow,
And pay their praise to thee.

WATTS.

I 74

- 1 HOLY and reverend is the name
Of our eternal King ;
Thrice holy Lord! the angels cry ;
Thrice holy! let us sing.
- 2 The deepest reverence of the mind,
Pay, O my soul! to God ;
Lift with thy hands a holy heart
To his sublime abode.
- 3 With sacred awe pronounce his name
Whom words nor thoughts can reach ;
A broken heart shall please him more
Than the best forms of speech.
- 4 Thou holy God! preserve our souls
From all pollution free :
The pure in heart are thy delight,
And they thy face shall see.

ST. JOHN'S. C. M.

1. I sing th'al-might-y power of God, That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flow-ing seas a-broad, And built the loft-y skies.

I 75

- 2 I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day ;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.
- 3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food ;
He formed the creatures with his word,
And then pronounced them good.
- 4 Lord ! how thy wonders are displayed
Where'er I turn mine eye !
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky !
- 5 There's not a plant or flower below
But makes thy glories known ;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
By order from thy throne.
- 6 Creatures that borrow life from thee
Are subject to thy care ;
There's not a place where we can flee
But God is present there.

WATTS.

I 76

- 1 THE Lord our God is Lord of all ;
His station who can find ?
I hear him in the waterfall ;
I hear him in the wind.
- 2 If in the gloom of night I shroud,
His face I cannot fly ;

- I see him in the evening cloud,
And in the morning sky.
- 3 He smiles, we live ! he frowns, we die !
We hang upon his word ;
He rears his mighty arm on high,
We fall before his sword.
- 4 He bids his gales the fields deform ;
Then, when his thunders cease,
He paints his rainbow on the storm,
And lulls the winds to peace.

H. K. WHITE.

I 77

- 1 LORD ! when my raptured thought surveys
Creation's beauties o'er,
All nature joins to teach thy praise,
And bid my soul adore.
- 2 Where'er I turn my gazing eyes,
Thy radiant footsteps shine ;
Ten thousand pleasing wonders rise,
And speak their source divine.
- 3 On me thy providence hath shone
With gentle, smiling rays ;
Oh ! let my lips and life make known
Thy goodness and thy praise.
- 4 All-bounteous Lord ! thy grace impart ;
Oh ! teach me to improve
Thy gifts, with ever-grateful heart,
And crown them with thy love.

1. Some seraph, lend your heavenly tongue, Or harp of golden string,
That I may raise a lofty song To our eternal King.

178

- 2 Thy names, how infinite they be!
Great Everlasting One!
Boundless thy might and majesty,
And unconfined thy throne.
- 3 Thy glory shines immensely bright;
Exhaustless is thy grace;
Immortal day breaks from thine eyes,
And Gabriel veils his face.
- 4 Thine essence is a vast abyss,
Which angels cannot sound;
An ocean of infinities
Where all our thoughts are drown'd.
WATTS.

179

- 1 FATHER! how wide thy glory shines!
How high thy wonders rise!
Known through the earth by thousand signs—
By thousand through the skies.
- 2 Those mighty orbs proclaim thy pow'r,
Their motions speak thy skill;
And on the wings of every hour
We read thy patience still.
- 3 But when we view thy strange design
To save rebellious worms,
Where vengeance and compassion join
In their divinest forms.
- 4 Here the whole Deity is known;
Nor dares a creature guess

- Which of the glories brightest shone,
The justice or the grace.
- 5 Now the full glories of the Lamb
Adorn the heavenly plains:
Bright seraphs learn Immanuel's name,
And try their choicest strains.
- 6 Oh! may I bear some humble part,
In that immortal song;
Wonder and joy shall tune my heart,
And love command my tongue.
WATTS.

180

- 1 THERE'S not a star whose twinkling
light
Illumes the distant earth,
And cheers the solemn gloom of night,
But goodness gave it birth.
- 2 There's not a cloud whose dews distil
Upon the parching clod,
And clothe with verdure vale and hill,
That is not sent by God.
- 3 There's not a place in earth's vast
round,
In ocean deep, or air,
Where skill and wisdom are not found;
For God is everywhere.
- 4 Around, beneath, below, above,
Wherever space extends,
There Heaven displays its boundless
love,
And power with goodness blends.

1. In all my vast con-cerns with thee, In vain my soul would try
To shun thy pres-ence, Lord, or flee The no - tice of thine eye.

181

- 2 Thine all-surrounding sight surveys
My rising and my rest,
My public walks, my private ways,
And secrets of my breast.
- 3 My thoughts lie open to the Lord,
Before they're formed within ;
And ere my lips pronounce the word,
He knows the sense I mean.
- 4 Oh, wondrous knowledge, deep and high!
Where can a creature hide?
Within thy circling arms I lie,
Enclosed on every side.
- 5 So let thy grace surround me still,
And like a bulwark prove,
To guard my soul from every ill,
Secured by sovereign love.

WATTS.

182

- 1 JEHOVAH God! thy gracious power
On every hand we see ;
Oh, may the blessings of each hour
Lead all our thoughts to thee.
- 2 If, on the wings of morn, we speed
To earth's remotest bound,
Thy right hand will our footsteps lead,
Thine arm our path surround.

- 3 Thy power is in the ocean deeps,
And reaches to the skies ;
Thine eye of mercy never sleeps,
Thy goodness never dies.
- 4 From morn till noon, till latest eve,
The hand of God we see ;
And all the blessings we receive,
Ceaseless proceed from thee.
- 5 In all the varying scenes of time,
On thee our hopes depend ;
In every age, in every clime,
Our Father and our Friend.

THOMSON.

183

- 1 THY way, O Lord, is in the sea ;
Thy paths I cannot trace,
Nor comprehend the mystery
Of thine unbounded grace.
- 2 As, through a glass, I dimly see
The wonders of thy love ;
How little do I know of thee,
Or of the joys above !
- 3 'Tis but in part I know thy will ;
I bless thee for the sight :
When will thy love the rest reveal,
In glory's clearer light ?
- 4 With rapture shall I then survey
Thy providence and grace ;
And spend an everlasting day
In wonder, love, and praise.

1. The Lord, our God, is full of might, The winds o - bey his will ;

He speaks,—and, in his heav-en-ly height, The roll - ing sun stands still.

184

- 2 Rebel, ye waves, and o'er the land
With threatening aspect roar ;
The Lord uplifts his awful hand,
And chains you to the shore.
- 3 Howl, winds of night, your force combine ;
Without his high behest,
Ye shall not, in the mountain pine,
Disturb the sparrow's nest.
- 4 His voice sublime is heard afar,
In distant peals it dies ;
He yokes the whirlwind to his car,
And sweeps the howling skies.
- 5 Ye nations, bend—in reverence bend ;
Ye monarchs, wait his nod,
And bid the choral song ascend
To celebrate your God.

H. K. WHITE.

185

- 1 THE Lord, how fearful is his name !
How wide is his command !
Nature, with all her moving frame,
Rests on his mighty hand.
- 2 Immortal glory forms his throne,
And light his awful robe ;
While with a smile, or with a frown,
He manages the globe.
- 3 A word of his almighty breath
Can swell or sink the seas ;

- Build the vast empires of the earth,
Or break them as he please.
- 4 On angels, with unveiled face
His glory beams above ;
On men, he looks with softest grace,
And takes his title, Love.

WATTS.

186

- 1 KEEP silence, all created things !
And wait your Maker's nod ;
My soul stands trembling, while she sings
The honors of her God.
- 2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown,
Hang on his firm decree ;
He sits on no precarious throne,
Nor borrows leave to be.
- 3 His providence unfolds the book,
And makes his counsels shine ;
Each opening leaf, and every stroke.
Fulfills some deep design.
- 4 My God ! I would not long to see
My fate, with curious eyes—
What gloomy lines are writ for me,
Or what bright scenes may rise.
- 5 In thy fair book of life and grace,
Oh ! may I find my name
Recorded in some humble place,
Beneath my Lord, the Lamb.

I. E - ter - nal Wis - dom! thee we praise; Thee with cre - a - tion sing;

With thy loved name, rocks, hills, and seas, And heaven's high pal - ace ring.

I 87

- 2 How wide thy hand hath spread the sky!
How glorious to behold!
Tinged with a blue of heavenly dye,
And starred with sparkling gold.
- 3 Infinite strength, and equal skill,
Shine through the worlds abroad,
Our souls with vast amazement fill,
And speak the builder, God.
- 4 But still the wonders of thy grace
Our softer passions move;
Pity divine in Jesus' face
We see, adore, and love. WATTS.

I 88

- 1 GREAT Ruler of all nature's frame!
We own thy power divine;
We hear thy breath in every storm,
For all the winds are thine.
- 2 Wide as they sweep their sounding way
They work thy sovereign will;
And, awed by thy majestic voice,
Confusion shall be still.
- 3 Thy mercy tempers every blast
To them that seek thy face,
And mingles with the tempest's roar
The whispers of thy grace.

- 4 Those gentle whispers let me hear,
Till all the tumult cease;
And gales of Paradise shall lull
My weary soul to peace.

DODDRIDGE.

I 89

- 1 THY goodness, Lord, our souls confess,
Thy goodness we adore;
A spring whose blessings never fail,
A sea without a shore!
- 2 Sun, moon, and stars, thy love attest
In every golden ray;
Love draws the curtains of the night,
And love brings back the day.
- 3 Thy bounty every season crowns
With all the bliss it yields,
With joyful clusters loads the vines,
With strengthening grain, the fields.
- 4 But chiefly thy compassion, Lord,
Is in the gospel seen;
There, like a sun, thy mercy shines
Without a cloud between.
- 5 Pardon, acceptance, peace, and joy,
Through Jesus' name are given;
He on the cross was lifted high
That we might reign in heaven.

- 2 Shine to his glory, worlds of light!
Ye million suns of space;
Ye moons and glistening stars of night
Running your mystic race.
- 3 Shout to Jehovah, surging main!
In deep eternal roar;
Let wave to wave resound the strain,
And shore reply to shore.
- 4 Storm, lightning, thunder, hail, and snow,
Wild winds that keep his word,
With the old mountains far below,
Unite to bless the Lord.
- 5 And round the wide world let it roll,
Whilst man shall lead it on;
Join, every ransomed human soul,
In glorious unison.

191

- 1 COME, shout aloud the Father's grace,
And sing the Saviour's love;
Soon shall we join the glorious theme,
In loftier strains above.
- 2 God, the eternal, mighty God,
To dearer names descends;
Calls us his treasure and his joy,
His children and his friends.
- 3 My Father, God! and may these lips
Pronounce a name so dear?

- Not thus could heaven's sweet harmony
Delight my listening ear.
- 4 Thanks to my God for every gift
His bounteous hands bestow;
And thanks eternal for that love
Whence all those comforts flow.

HIGGINBOTHAM.

192

- 1 WITH songs and honors sounding loud,
Address the Lord on high;
Over the heavens he spreads his cloud,
And waters veil the sky.
- 2 He sends his showers of blessings down,
To cheer the plains below.
He makes the grass the mountains
crown,
And corn in valleys grow.
- 3 His steady counsels change the face
Of the declining year;
He bids the sun cut short his race,
And wintry days appear.
- 4 His hoary frost, his fleecy snow,
Descend and clothe the ground;
The liquid streams forbear to flow,
In icy fetters bound.
- 5 He sends his word and melts the snow,
The fields no longer mourn;
He calls the warmer gales to blow,
And bids the spring return.

He plants his foot - steps in the sea, And rides up - on the storm.

193

- 2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up his vast designs,
And works his sovereign will.
- 3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take ;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and will break
In blessings on your head.
- 4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace ;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.
- 5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour ;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.
- 6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain ;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

COWPER.

194

- 1 GOD is a spirit, just and wise ;
He sees our inmost mind ;
In vain to heaven we raise our cries
And leave our hearts behind.
- 2 Nothing but truth before his throne
With honor can appear ;

- The painted hypocrites are known,
Whate'er the guise they wear.
- 3 Their lifted eyes salute the skies,
Their bending knees the ground ;
But God abhors the sacrifice
Where not the heart is found.
- 4 Lord, search my thoughts, and try my
ways,
And make my soul sincere ;
Then shall I stand before thy face,
And find acceptance there.

WATTS.

195

- 1 THROUGH endless years thou art the

O thou eternal God ;
Each future age shall know thy name,
And tell thy works abroad.
- 2 The strong foundations of the earth
Of old by thee were laid ;
By thee the beauteous arch of heaven
With matchless skill was made.
- 3 Soon shall this goodly frame of things,
Created by thy hand,
Be, like a vesture, laid aside,
And changed at thy command.
- 4 But thy perfections, all divine,
Eternal as thy days,
Through everlasting ages shine,
With undiminished rays.

"GREATOREX COLL."

The musical score consists of two systems of music. Each system has a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are written below the notes.

1. Be - gin, my tongue, some heavenly theme, And speak some boundless thing ;
 The might - y works, or might-ier name, Of our e - ter - nal King.

196

- 2 Tell of his wondrous faithfulness,
 And sound his power abroad ;
 Sing the sweet promise of his grace,
 And the performing God.
- 3 His every word of grace is strong,
 As that which built the skies ;
 The voice that rolls the stars along,
 Speaks all the promises.
- 4 Oh, might I hear thy heavenly tongue
 But whisper, "Thou art mine !"
 Those gentle words should raise my song
 To notes almost divine.

WATTS.

197

- 1 How dread are thine eternal years,
 O everlasting Lord !
 By prostrate spirits day and night
 Incessantly adored !
- 2 Yet I may love thee too, O Lord !
 Almighty as thou art,
 For thou hast stooped to ask of me,
 The love of my poor heart.
- 3 No earthly father loves like thee,
 No mother half so mild
 Bears and forbears, as thou hast done
 With me, thy sinful child.
- 4 Only to sit and think of God—
 Oh, what a joy it is !

- To think the thought, to breathe the name,
 Earth has no higher bliss !
- 5 Father of Jesus ! love's reward !
 What rapture will it be,
 Prostrate before thy throne to lie,
 And gaze and gaze on thee !

LYRA CATH.

198

- 1 O God of Bethel ! by whose hand
 Thy people still are fed ;
 Who through this weary pilgrimage
 Hast all our fathers led ;—
- 2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present
 Before thy throne of grace ;
 God of our fathers ! be the God
 Of their succeeding race.
- 3 Through each perplexing path of life
 Our wandering footsteps guide :
 Give us each day our daily bread,
 And raiment fit provide.
- 4 Oh spread thy covering wings around,
 Till all our wanderings cease,
 And, at our Father's loved abode,
 Our souls arrive in peace.
- 5 Such blessings from thy gracious hand
 Our humble prayers implore ;
 And thou shalt be our chosen God
 And portion evermore.

1. To thee, my right-eous King and Lord, My grate-ful soul I'll raise ;

From day to day thy works re - cord, And ev - er sing thy praise.

- 2 Thy greatness human thought exceeds ;
 Thy glory knows no end ;
 The lasting record of thy deeds
 Through ages shall descend.
- 3 Thy wondrous acts, thy power, and might,
 My constant theme shall be ;
 That song shall be my soul's delight
 Which breathes in praise to thee.
- 4 The Lord is bountiful and kind,
 His anger slow to move :
 His tender mercies all shall find,
 And all his goodness prove.
- 5 From all thy works, O Lord, shall spring
 The sound of joy and praise ;
 Thy saints shall of thy glory sing,
 And show the world thy ways.
- 6 Throughout all ages shall endure
 Thine everlasting reign ;
 And thy dominion, firm and sure,
 Forever shall remain. WRANGHAM.

- 1 SWEET is the memory of thy grace,
 My God, my heavenly King ;
 Let age to age thy righteousness
 In songs of glory sing.

- 2 God reigns on high, but ne'er confines
 His goodness to the skies ;
 Through the whole earth his bounty

 And every want supplies.
- 3 With longing eyes thy creatures wait
 On thee for daily food,
 Thy lib'ral hand provides their meat,
 And fills their mouths with good.

 Thy power and praise proclaim ;
 But saints that taste thy richer grace
 Delight to bless thy name.

 And, as my days began with thee,

 In death I will adore ;
 And after death will sing thy praise,
 When time shall be no more.

- 2 The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just ;
Deliverance he affords to all
Who on his succor trust.
- 3 Oh, make but trial of his love !
Experience will decide
How blest are they, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.
- 4 Fear him, ye saints, and you will then
Have nothing else to fear ;
Make you his service your delight ;
He'll make your wants his care.

- 1 WHAT shall I render to my God
For all his kindness shown ?
My feet shall visit thine abode,
My songs address thy throne.
- 2 Among the saints that fill thy house,
My offerings shall be paid ;
There shall my zeal perform the vows
My soul in anguish made.
- 3 How much is mercy thy delight,
Thou ever blesséd God !
How dear thy servants in thy sight !
How precious is their blood !
- 4 How happy all thy servants are !
How great thy grace to me !

My life, which thou hast made thy care,
Lord, I devote to thee.

- 5 Now I am thine, forever thine,
Nor shall my purpose move ;
Thy hand hath loosed my bonds of pain,
And bound me with thy love.
- 6 Here in thy courts I leave my vow,
And thy rich grace record ;
Witness, ye saints, who hear me now,
If I forsake the Lord.

WATTS.

- 1 To heaven I lift my waiting eyes ;
There all my hopes are laid ;
The Lord that built the earth and skies

Whom he designs to keep ;
His ear attends the softest call,
His eyes can never sleep.
- 3 Israel, rejoice, and rest secure ;
Thy keeper is the Lord ;
His wakeful eyes employ his power
For thine eternal guard.
- 4 He guards thy soul, he keeps thy breath,
Where thickest dangers come ;
Go and return, secure from death,
Till God commands thee home.

The Lord's a God of boundless might,
The whole creation's King.

Nor less when he denies ;
E'en crosses, from his sovereign hand,
Are blessings in disguise.

3 Why should we doubt a Father's love,
So constant and so kind ?
To his unerring, gracious will
Be every wish resigned.

4 In thy fair book of life divine,
My God, inscribe my name ;
There let it fill some humble place,
Beneath my Lord, the Lamb.

HERVEY.

2 I 2

1 GOD, my supporter and my hope,
My help for ever near,
Thine arm of mercy held me up,
When sinking in despair.

2 Thy counsels, Lord, shall guide my feet
Through this dark wilderness :
Thy hand conduct me near thy seat,
To dwell before thy face.

3 Were I in heaven without my God,
'T would be no heav'n to me ;
And while this earth is my abode,
I long for none but thee.

4 What if the springs of life were broke,
And flesh and heart should faint ?

God is my soul's eternal rock,
The strength of every saint.

5 But to draw near to thee, my God,
Shall be my sweet employ :
My tongue shall sound thy works abroad
And tell the world my joy. WATTS.

2 I 3

1 YES, I will bless thee, O my God !
Through all my earthly days ;
And to eternity prolong
Thy vast, thy boundless praise.

2 In every smiling, happy hour,
Be this my sweet employ :
Thy praise refines my earthly bliss,
And doubles all my joy.

3 When gloomy care, and keen distress
Afflict my throbbing breast,
Thy praise shall mingle with my tears,
And lull each pain to rest.

4 Nor shall my tongue alone proclaim
The honors of my God :
My life, with all its active powers,
Shall spread thy praise abroad.

5 Nor death itself shall stop my song,
Though it will close my eyes ;
My thoughts shall then to nobler heights
And sweeter raptures rise.

- 2 All nature owns his guardian care,
In him we live and move;
But nobler benefits declare
The wonders of his love.
- 3 He gave his Son, his only Son,
To ransom rebel worms;
'Tis here he makes his goodness known
In its diviner forms.
- 4 To this dear refuge, Lord, we come,
'Tis here our hope relies;
A safe defence, a peaceful home,
When storms of trouble rise.
- 5 Thine eye beholds, with kind regard,
The souls who trust in thee;
Their humble hope thou wilt reward
With bliss divinely free.
- 6 Great God, to thy almighty love,
What honors shall we raise;
Not all th' angelic songs above
Can render equal praise.

STEELE.

215

- 1 LET children hear the mighty deeds
Which God performed of old,
Which in our younger years we saw,
And which our fathers told.
- 2 He bids us make his glories known,
His works of power and grace;

- And we'll convey his wonders down
Through every rising race.
- 3 Our lips shall tell them to our sons,
And they again to theirs,
That generations yet unborn
May teach them to their heirs.
- 4 Thus shall they learn, in God alone
Their hope securely stands,
That they may ne'er forget his works,
But practise his commands. WATTS.

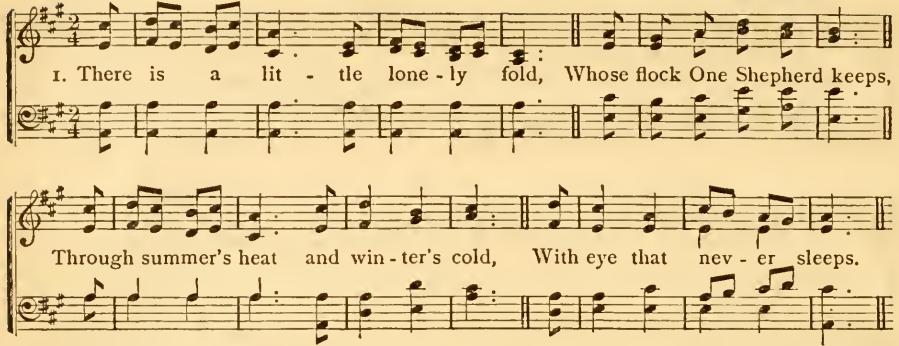

216

- 1 FAITHFUL, O Lord, thy mercies are,
A rock that cannot move;
A thousand promises declare
Thy constancy of love.
- 2 Thou waitest to be gracious still;
Thou dost with sinners bear,
That, saved, we may thy goodness feel,
And all thy grace declare.
- 3 Its streams the whole creation reach,
So plenteous is the store;
Enough for all, enough for each,
Enough forevermore.
- 4 Throughout the universe it reigns;
It stands forever sure;
And while thy truth, O God, remains,
Thy goodness shall endure.

1. There is a lit - tle lone - ly fold, Whose flock One Shepherd keeps,
Through summer's heat and win - ter's cold, With eye that nev - er sleeps.

217

- 2 By evil beast, or burning sky,
Or damp of midnight air,
Not one in all that flock shall die
Beneath that Shepherd's care.
- 3 For if, unheeding or beguiled,
In danger's path they roam,
His pity follows through the wild,
And guards them safely home.
- 4 Oh, gentle Shepherd, still behold
Thy helpless charge in me!
And take a wanderer to thy fold,
That trembling turns to thee.

LITCHFIELD'S COLL.

218

- 1 My Shepherd will supply my need;
Jehovah is his name;
In pastures fresh he makes me feed,
Beside the living stream.
- 2 He brings my wandering spirit back
When I forsake his ways,
And leads me, for his mercy's sake,
In paths of truth and grace.
- 3 When I walk through the shades of death,
Thy presence is my stay;
A word of thy supporting breath
Drives all my fears away.
- 4 Thy hand, in sight of all my foes,
Doth still my table spread;

My cup with blessings overflows;
Thine oil anoints my head.

- 5 The sure provisions of my God
Attend me all my days;
Oh, may thine house be mine abode,
And all my works be praise!
- 6 There would I find a settled rest,
While others go and come—
No more a stranger or a guest,
But like a child at home. WATTS.

219

- 1 LORD, 't is an infinite delight
To see thy lovely face,
To dwell whole ages in thy sight,
And feel thy vital rays.
- 2 While the bright nation sounds thy praise
From each eternal hill,
Sweet odors of exhaling grace,
The happy region fill.
- 3 Thy love a sea without a shore,
Spreads life and joy abroad—
Oh, 't is a heaven worth dying for
To see a smiling God!
- 4 Show me thy face, and I'll away
From all inferior things;
Speak, Lord, and here I quit my clay,
And stretch my airy wings. WATTS.

I've none but thee in heaven a - bove, Or on... this earth - ly ball.

220

- 2 In vain the bright, the burning sun
Scatters his feeble light ;
'T is thy sweet beams create my noon—
If thou withdraw, 't is night.
- 3 And while upon my restless bed
Through midnight hours I roll,
If my Redeemer shows his head,
'T is morning with my soul.
- 4 To thee I owe my wealth and friends,
My health and safe abode ;
Thanks to thy name for meaner things,
But they are not my God.
- 5 Were I possessor of the earth,
And called the stars my own,
Without thy graces and thyself,
I were a wretch undone.
- 6 Let others stretch their arms like seas,
And grasp in all the shore,
Grant me the visits of thy face,
And I desire no more. WATTS.

221

- 1 My God ! the spring of all my joys,
The life of my delights,
The glory of my brightest days,
And comfort of my nights.
- 2 In darkest shades if he appear,
My dawning is begun !

- He is my soul's sweet morning star,
And he my rising sun.
- 3 The opening heavens around me shine
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shows his heart is mine,
And whispers, I am his !
- 4 My soul would leave this heavy clay
At that transporting word,
Run up with joy the shining way,
'T embrace my dearest Lord.
- 5 Fearless of hell, and ghastly death,
I'd break through every foe ;
The wings of love, and arms of faith,
Should bear me conqueror through. WATTS.

222

- 1 THE mercies of my God and King
My tongue shall still pursue :
Oh, happy they who, while they sing
Those mercies, share them too !
- 2 As bright and lasting as the sun,
As lofty as the sky,
From age to age thy word shall run,
And chance and change defy.
- 3 The covenant of the King of kings
Shall stand forever sure ;
Beneath the shadow of thy wings
Thy saints repose secure. LYTE.

- 2 For thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine ;
Oh, when shall I behold thy face,
Thou Majesty Divine ?
- 3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul ?
Trust God, and he'll employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.
- 4 God of my strength, how long shall I,
Like one forgotten, mourn ;
Forlorn, forsaken, and exposed
To my oppressor's scorn ?
- 5 My heart is pierced, as with a sword,
While thus my foes upbraid :
"Vain boaster, where is now thy God ?
And where his promised aid ?"
- 6 Why restless, why cast down, my soul ?
Hope still, and thou shalt sing
The praise of him who is thy God,
Thy health's eternal Spring.

- 1 WITH earnest longings of the mind,
My God, to thee I look ;
So pants the hunted hart to find
And taste the cooling brook.
- 2 'Tis with a mournful pleasure now
I think on ancient days ;

Then to thy house did numbers go,
And all our work was praise.

- 3 But why, my soul, sunk down so far
Beneath this heavy load ?
Why do my thoughts indulge despair,
And sin against my God ?
- 4 Hope in the Lord, whose mighty hand
Can all thy woes remove ;
For I shall yet before him stand,
And sing restoring love. WATTS.

- 1 How long, sometimes, a day appears !
And weeks, how long are they !
Months move on slow, as if the years
Would never pass away.
- 2 But even years are passing by,
And soon must all be gone ;
For day by day, as minutes fly,
Eternity comes on.
- 3 Days, months, and years must have an end,
Eternity has none ;
'T will always have as long to spend
As when it first begun.
- 4 Great God ! a creature can not tell
How such a thing can be,
I only pray that I may dwell
Eternally with thee.

- 1 WHEN morning's first and hallowed ray
Breaks, with its trembling light,
To chase the pearly dews away,
Bright tear-drops of the night—

But rises gladly free,
On wings of everlasting love,
And finds its home in thee.
- 3 When evening's silent shades descend,
And nature sinks to rest,
Still, to my Father and my Friend,
My wishes are addressed.

And bid my pleasures flee,
Thou reign'st where grief cannot annoy;
I will be glad in thee.

Above, around is spread,
Sweet dreams of everlasting bloom

How wondrous are thy ways?

Nor let his mercies lie
Forgotten in unthankfulness,

'T is he relieves thy pain;
'Tis he that heals thy sicknesses,
And gives thee strength again.

Let all the nations fear;
Let sinners tremble at his throne,
And saints be humble there.

Let earth adore its Lord;
Bright cherubs his attendants stand,
And swift fulfill his word.
- 3 In Zion is his throne;
His honors are divine;

His church shall make his wonders

For there his glories shine.

How terrible his praise!
Justice, and truth, and judgment join,
In all his works of grace. WATTS.

How wondrous is thy name!
Thy glories how diffused abroad
Through the creation's frame!
- 2 The lark mounts up the sky
With unambitious song,
And bears her Maker's praise on high
Upon her artless tongue.
- 3 My soul would rise and sing
To her Creator, too:
Fain would my tongue adore my King,
And pay the worship due.
- 4 And yet the songs I frame
Are faithless to thy cause,
And steal the honors of thy name
To built their own applause.

Else all my worship 's vain;
This wretched heart will ne'er be true
Until 'tis formed again. WATTS.

His counsel and his care,
Preserve us safe from sin and death,
And every hurtful snare.
- 3 He will present our souls,
Unblemished and complete,
Before the glory of his face,
With joys divinely great.
- 4 Then all the chosen seed

"He hath no faith of God within,
Nor fear before his eyes."

Though men renounce his fear;
His justice, hid behind the cloud,
Shall one great day appear.
- 3 His truth transcends the sky;
In heaven his mercies dwell;
Deep as the sea his judgments lie;
His anger burns to hell.

Whence all our safety springs!
Oh, never let my soul remove
From underneath his wings! WATTS.

This dungeon where I dwell;
'T is paradise when thou art here;
If thou depart, 't is hell.

The angels owe their bliss;
They sit around thy gracious throne,
And dwell where Jesus is.
- 4 Not all the harps above
Can make a heavenly place,
If God his residence remove,
Or but conceal his face.
- 5 Nor earth, nor all the sky,
Can one delight afford,
No, not a drop of real joy,
Without thy presence, Lord.

- 2 Lord of heaven! beyond our sight
Shines a world of purer light;
There in love's unclouded reign
Parted hands shall meet again;
Oh, that world is passing fair!
Yet, if thou wert absent there,
What were all its joys to me?
Whom have I in heaven but thee?
- 3 Lord of earth and heaven! my breast
Seeks in thee its only rest:
I was lost; thy accents mild
Homeward lured thy wandering child:
Oh! should once thy smile divine
Cease upon my soul to shine,
What were earth or heaven to me?
Whom have I in each but thee?

GRANT.

- 1 PRAISE to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days;
Bounteous source of every joy!
Let thy praise our tongues employ.
Flocks that whiten all the plain,
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain;
Clouds that drop their fattening dews,
Suns that temperate warmth diffuse:—
- 2 All that spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich o'erflowing stores;—
Lord, for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows, and solemn praise:
And when every blessing's flown,
Love thee for thyself alone.

- 1 PRAISE to thee, thou great Creator !
Praise to thee from every tongue ;
Join, my soul, with every creature,
Join the universal song.
- 2 Father ! source of all compassion !
Pure, unbounded grace is thine :
Hail the God of our salvation,
Praise him for his love divine !

For the hope of future joy,
Sound his praise thro' earth and heaven,
Sound Jehovah's praise on high !

Father, Son, and Holy Ghost ;
Praise him, every living creature,
Earth and heaven's united host.

Till in heaven our song we raise :
Then enraptured fall before him,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise !

- 1 God is love ; his mercy brightens
All the path in which we rove ;
Bliss he wakes, and woe he lightens ;
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 2 Time and change are busy ever ;
Man decays, and ages move ;
But his mercy waneth never ;
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 3 E'en the hour that darkest seemeth
Will his changeless goodness prove ;
From the gloom his brightness
streameth,
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 4 He with earthly cares entwineth
Hope and comfort from above ;
Everywhere his glory shineth ;
God is wisdom, God is love.

i. Sing to the Lord most high; Let ev - ery land a - dore; With grate-ful voice make known His good - ness and his power: With cheerful songs de - clare his ways, And let his praise in - spire your tongues.

253

2 Enter his courts with joy ;
 With fear address the Lord ;
 He formed us with his hand,
 And quickened by his word ;
 With wide command he spreads his sway,
 O'er every sea and every land.

3 His hands provide our food,
 And every blessing give ;
 We feed upon his care,
 And in his pastures live :
 With cheerful songs declare his ways,
 And let his praise inspire your tongues.

4 Good is the Lord our God,
 His truth and mercy sure ;
 While earth and heaven shall last,
 His promises endure :
 With wide command he spreads his sway,
 O'er every sea and every land.

DWIGHT.

254

1 COME, let us gladly sing
 To God, our Saviour-King ;
 With thanks his presence seek,
 In psalms his praises speak ;
 He's God most high ; let all draw nigh,
 And crown him—Lord of earth and sky.

2 He gave the mountains birth,
 He made the spacious earth ;
 His are the sea and land—
 They rose at his command :
 With reverence all before him fall,
 And on his name devoutly call.

3 Come, kneel before his throne,
 For he is God alone ;
 We are the flock he leads—
 The sheep his bounty feeds :
 To-day—to-day—his voice obey ;
 Grieve not the Holy Ghost away.

 Creator and Ruler o'er all ;

 Your vows in his temple proclaim !
 His praise with melodious accordance prolong,
 And bless his adorable name.
- 4 For good is the Lord, inexpressibly good,
 And we are the work of his hand ;
 His mercy and truth from eternity stood,
 And shall to eternity stand.

THE LORD IS GREAT. 11s & 8s.

L. MASON.

1. The Lord is great ! ye hosts of heaven, adore him, And ye who tread this earthly ball ;

In ho - ly songs rejoice a-loud be-fore him And shout his praise who made you all.

256

- 2 The Lord is great ; his majesty how glorious !
 Resound his praise from shore to shore ;
 O'er sin, and death, and hell, now made victorious,
 He rules and reigns forevermore.
- 3 The Lord is great ; his mercy how abounding !
 Ye angels, strike your golden chords ;
 Oh, praise our God, with voice and harp resounding,
 The King of kings and Lord of lords !

LYONS. 10s & 11s.

HAYDN.

1. Oh, wor-ship the King, all glo-rious a - bove, Oh, grateful - ly sing his won-der - ful love!

Our Shield and De-fend-er, the An-cient of days, Pa-vil-ioned in splendor, and gird - ed with praise.

257

- 2 Oh tell of his might, oh sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space!
His chariots of wrath deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.
- 3 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.
- 4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail:
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!
- 5 O measureless Might, ineffable Love!
While angels delight to hymn thee above,
The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall lisp to thy praise. GRANT.

258

- 1 OUR Father in heaven, we hallow thy Name:
May thy kingdom holy on earth be the same:
Oh give to us daily our portion of bread:
It is from thy bounty that all must be fed.
- 2 Forgive our transgressions, and teach us to know
That humble compassion which pardons each foe;
Keep us from temptation, from evil and sin,
And thine be the glory, forever! Amen!

SARAH J. HALE.

259

- 1 O PRAISE ye the Lord! prepare your glad voice,
 His praise in the great assembly to sing,
 In their great Creator let all men rejoice,
 And heirs of salvation be glad in their King.
- 2 Let them his great name devoutly adore ;
 In loud-swelling strains his praises express,
 Who graciously opens his bountiful store,
 Their wants to relieve, and his children to bless.
- 3 With glory adorned, his people shall sing
 To God, who defence and plenty supplies ;
 Their loud acclamations to him, their great King,
 Through earth shall be sounded, and reach to the skies.
- 4 Ye angels above, his glories who 've sung,
 In loftiest notes, now publish his praise :
 We mortals, delighted, would borrow your tongue—
 Would join in your numbers, and chant to your lays. TATE, VARIED.

260

- 1 YE servants of God, your Master proclaim,
 And publish abroad his wonderful name ;
 The name all-victorious of Jesus extol ;
 His kingdom is glorious ; he rules over all.
- 2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save ;
 And still he is nigh : his presence we have ;
 The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
 Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.
- 3 "Salvation to God, who sits on the throne,"
 Let all cry aloud, and honor the Son ;
 The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
 Fall down on their faces, and worship the Lamb.
- 4 Then let us adore, and give him his right—
 All glory and power, and wisdom and might ;
 All honor and blessing, with angels above,
 And thanks never ceasing, for infinite love. C. WESLEY.

DOXOLOGY.

His praise declare, ye heavens above,

And praise his holy name,
By whose almighty word
They all from nothing came:
And all shall last from changes free;
His firm decree stands ever fast.
- 4 Let all of richest birth
With those of humbler name,
And judges of the earth,
His matchless praise proclaim.
In this design, let youths with maids,
And hoary heads with children, join.
- 5 United zeal be shown
His wondrous fame to raise,
Whose glorious name alone
Deserves our endless praise;
Earth's utmost ends his power obey;
His glorious sway the sky transcends.

TATE & BRADY.

- 1 THE Lord Jehovah reigns,
His throne is built on high;
The garments he assumes,
Are light and majesty;
His glories shine with beams so bright,
No mortal eye can bear the sight.
- 2 The thunders of his hand
Keep the wide world in awe;
His wrath and justice stand,
To guard his holy law;
And where his love resolves to bless,
His truth confirms and seals the grace.
- 3 Through all his perfect work,
Surprising wisdom shines;
Confounds the powers of hell,
And breaks their curst designs:
Strong is the arm— and shall fulfill
His great decrees, his sovereign will.
- 4 And can this mighty King
Of glory condescend—
And will he write his name,
My Father and my Friend?
I love his name, I love his word;
Join, all my powers, and praise the Lord!

- 2 Ye angels, catch the thrilling sound,
 While all the adoring thrones around
 His boundless mercy sing;
 Let every listening saint above
 Wake all the tuneful soul of love,
 And touch the sweetest string.
- 3 Whate'er this living world contains,
 That wings the air or treads the plains,
 United praise bestow;
 Ye tenants of the ocean wide,
 Proclaim him through the mighty tide,

 Ye feathered warblers of the spring,
 Harmonious anthems raise
 To him who shaped your finer mold,

- 1 YE fields of light, celestial plains,
 Where pure, serene effulgence reigns,
 Ye scenes divinely fair,
 Your Maker's wondrous power proclaim,
 Tell how he formed your shining frame,
 And breathed the fluid air.
- 2 Join all ye stars, the vocal choir;
 Thou dazzling orb of liquid fire,
 The mighty chorus aid;
 And, soon as evening veils the plain,
 Thou moon, prolong the hallowed strain,
 And praise him in the shade.
- 3 Thou heaven of heavens, his vast abode,
 Proclaim the glories of thy God;
 Ye worlds declare his might;
 He spake the word, and ye were made,
 Darkness and dismal chaos fled,
 And nature sprung to light.
- 4 Let every element rejoice;
 Ye thunders, burst with awful voice
 To him who bids you roll;
 His praise in softer notes declare,
 Each whispering breeze of yielding air,

MERIBAH. C. P. M.

L. MASON.

1. My God, thy boundless love I praise; How bright on high its glories blaze!
How sweet-ly bloom be - low! It streams from thy e - ter - nal throne;
Through heaven its joys for ev - er run, And o'er the earth they flow.

265

- 2 'Tis love that paints the purple morn,
And bids the clouds, in air upborne,
Their genial drops distil;
In every vernal beam it glows,
It breathes in every gale that blows,
And glides in every rill.
- 3 It robes in cheerful green the ground,
And pours its flowery beauties round,
Whose sweets perfume the gale;
Its bounties richly spread the plain,
The blushing fruit, the golden grain,
And smile in every vale.
- 4 But in thy word, I see it shine
With grace and glories more divine,
Proclaiming sin forgiven;
There Faith, bright cherub, points the way
To realms of everlasting day,
And opens all her heaven.
- 5 Then let the love that makes me blest
With cheerful praise inspire my breast,
And ardent gratitude;
And all my thoughts and passions tend
To thee, my Father and my Friend,
My soul's eternal good!

HENRY MOORE.

266

- 1 ALTHOUGH the vine its fruit deny,
The budding fig-tree droop and die,
No oil the olive yield,
Yet will I trust still in my God,
Yea, bend rejoicing to his rod,
And by his grace be healed.
- 2 Though fields, in verdure once arrayed,
By whirlwinds desolate be laid,
Or parched by scorching beam;
Still in the Lord shall be my trust,
My joy; for, though his frown is just,
His mercy is supreme.
- 3 Though from the fold the flock decay,
Though herds lie famished o'er the lea,
And round the empty stall;
My soul above the wreck shall rise,
Its better joys are in the skies,
There God is all in all.
- 4 In God my strength, howe'er distrest,
I yet will hope and calmly rest,
Nay, triumph in his love;
My lingering soul, my tardy feet,
Free as the hind he makes, and fleet,
To speed my course above.

Pointing to his rude abode!
Rapturous news for every nation:
Mortals! now behold your God!

Angels leave their bliss to tell;

Wing your flight o'er all the earth,
Ye who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth;

Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing;
Yonder shines the infant Light;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ the new-born King.

Brighter visions beam afar;
Seek the great Desire of nations;
Ye have seen his natal star;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ the new-born King.
- 4 Saints, before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord, descending,
In his temple shall appear;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ the new-born King.

Doomed for guilt to endless pains,
Justice now revokes the sentence;
Mercy calls you; break your chains;

 JESUS, our Immanuel!
 Hark! the herald angels, etc.

3 Hail! the heaven-born Prince of peace!
 Hail! the Sun of Righteousness!
 Light and life to all he brings,

 Born to give them second birth.

Born that man no more may die ;
Born to raise the sons of earth ;
Born to give them second birth.

"Glory to the new-born King!—
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!"

C. WESLEY.

274

- 1 HE has come, the Christ of God !
Left for us his glad abode ;
Stooping from his throne of bliss,
To this darksome wilderness !
- 2 He has come, the Prince of peace !
Come to bid our sorrows cease ;
Come to scatter, with his light,
All the shadows of our night.

- 3 He, the mighty King, has come !
Making this poor earth his home ;
Come to bear our sin's sad load,
Son of David, Son of God !
- 4 He has come, whose name of grace
Speaks deliverance to our race !
Left for us his glad abode,
Son of Mary, Son of God !

275

- 1 GOD with us! oh, wondrous name !
Manifest in flesh he came,
Hiding in a form like mine
All his attributes divine.
- 2 Equal with the Father, still
He obeys the Father's will,
Lays his rightful glories by,
Comes, as man, for man to die.
- 3 While as man on earth he dwelt,
As true God his power was felt ;
At his voice diseases fled,
Opening graves restored their dead.
- 4 As a man he groans and dies,
Prisoned in the tomb he lies ;
Soon he rises from the grave,
Man to die, but God to save.

B. MANLY, JR.

RATHBUN. 8s & 7s.

J. CONKEY.

1. Hail! thou long-ex-pect-ed Je-sus, Born to set thy peo-ple free:
From our sins and fears re-lease us, Let us find our rest in thee.

276

- 2 Israel's strength and consolation,
Hope of all the saints, thou art;
Long desired of every nation,
Joy of every waiting heart.
- 3 Born thy people to deliver,
Born a child, yet God our King,
Born to reign in us forever,
Now thy gracious kingdom bring.

- 4 By thine own eternal Spirit,
Rule in all our hearts alone;
By thine all-sufficient merit,
Raise us to thy glorious throne.

C. WESLEY.

277

- 1 HARK! a thrilling voice is sounding;
"Christ is nigh," it seems to say;
"Cast away the dreams of darkness,
O ye children of the day!"
- 2 Wakened by the solemn warning,
Let the earth-bound soul arise;
Christ, her Sun, all ill dispelling,
Shines upon the morning skies.
- 3 Lo! the Lamb, so long expected,
Comes with pardon down from
heaven;
Let us haste, with tears of sorrow,
One and all to be forgiven.

- 4 That when next he comes with glory
And the world is wrapped in fear,
With his mercy he may shield us,
And with words of love draw near.
- 5 Honor, glory, might, and blessing,
To the Father, and the Son,
With the everlasting Spirit,
While eternal ages run.

278

- 1 COME ye lofty, come ye lowly,
Let your songs of gladness ring;
In a stable lies the Holy,
In a manger rests the King.
- 2 Come ye poor, no pomp of station
Robes the child your hearts adore:
He, the Lord of your salvation,
Shares your want, is weak and poor.
- 3 Oxen, round about behold them!
All is naked, cold and bare!
See the shepherds, God has told them
That the Prince of Life lies there.
- 4 Let us bring our poor oblations,
Thanks and love and faith and praise,
Come ye people, come ye nations,
One and all on him to gaze.
- 5 Hark, the heaven of heavens is ringing,
Christ the Lord to man is born!
Are not all our hearts, too, singing,
Welcome, welcome, happy morn!

 How they crossed the desert wild,
 Journeyed on by plain and mountain,
 Till they found the holy Child—
 How they opened all their treasure,
 Kneeling to that infant King,
 Gave the gold and fragrant incense,
 Gave the myrrh in offering?

 Was the bright and Morning Star,
 He who came to light the Gentiles
 And the darkened isles afar?
 And we too may seek his cradle,
 'There our hearts' best treasure bring—
 Love and faith and true devotion,
 For our Saviour, God, and King.

2 Joy to the world, the Saviour reigns ;
Let men their songs employ ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills,
and plains
Repeat the sounding joy.

3 No more let sin and sorrow grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground ;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.

4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love. WATTS.

282

1 SING to the Lord, ye distant lands,
Ye tribes of every tongue ;
His new-discovered grace demands
A new and nobler song.

2 Say to the nations Jesus reigns,
God's own almighty Son ;
His power the sinking world sustains,
And grace surrounds his throne.

3 Let heaven proclaim the joyful day ;
Joy through the earth be seen ;
Let cities shine in bright array,
And fields in cheerful green.

4 Let an unusual joy surprise
The islands of the sea ;
Ye mountains, sink ; ye valleys, rise ;
Prepare the Lord his way.

5 Behold, he comes ; he comes to bless
The nations, as their God,
To show the world his righteousness,
And send his truth abroad.

6 But when his voice shall raise the dead,
And bid the world draw near,
How will the guilty nations dread
To see their Judge appear !

- 2 In heaven the rapturous song began,
And sweet seraphic fire
Through all the shining legions ran,
And strung and tuned the lyre.
- 3 Swift through the vast expanse it flew,
And loud the echo rolled;
The theme, the song, the joy, was new,
'T was more than heaven could hold.
- 4 Down through the portals of the sky
Th' impetuous torrent ran;
And angels flew, with eager joy,
To bear the news to man.
- 5 Hail, Prince of life! forever hail,
Redeemer, brother, friend!
Though earth, and time, and life should fail,
Thy praise shall never end.

- 1 HARK! the glad sound! the Saviour comes,
The Saviour promised long!
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.
- 2 He comes, the prisoner to release,
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.

- 3 He comes, from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And on the eyeballs of the blind
To pour celestial day.
- 4 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And with the treasures of his grace
To enrich the humble poor.
- 5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
The welcome shall proclaim,
And heavens eternal arches ring
With thy beloved name. DODDRIDGE.

- 1 ANGELS rejoiced and sweetly sung
At our Redeemer's birth;
Mortals! awake; let every tongue
Proclaim his matchless worth.
- 2 Glory to God, who dwells on high,
And sent his only Son
To take a servant's form, and die,
For evils we had done!
- 3 Good-will to men; ye fallen race!
Arise, and shout for joy;
He comes, with rich, abounding grace,
To save, and not destroy.
- 4 Lord! send the gracious tidings forth,
And fill the world with light,
That Jew and Gentile, through the earth,
May know thy saving might. HURN.

- 2 Good-will to sinful dust is shown,
And peace on earth is given;
For lo! th' incarnate Saviour comes,
With news of joy from heaven.
Mercy and truth with sweet accord,
His rising beams adorn;
Let heaven and earth in concert sing,
"The promised child is born!"

287

- 1 It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace to the earth, good-will to man,
From heaven's all-gracious King:"
The earth in solemn stillness lay,
To hear the angels sing.
- 2 Still thro' the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled;

And still celestial music floats

O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on heavenly wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds,
The blessed angels sing.

- 3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way,
With painful steps and slow,
Look up! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
Oh rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing!
- 4 For lo, the days are hastening on,
By prophet-bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold!
When peace shall over all the earth
Its final splendors fling, [song
And the whole world send back the
Which now the angels sing! SEARS.

HANDEL.

1. While shepherds watch'd their flocks by night, All seated on the ground, The an-gel of the Lord came down, And glo-ry shone a - round, And glo-ry shone a - round.

288

2 "Fear not," said he,—for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind,—
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring,
To you and all mankind.

3 "To you, in David's town, this day,
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour, who is Christ, the Lord,
And this shall be the sign:—

4 "The heavenly babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."

5 Thus spake the seraph—and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels, praising God, who thus Addressed their joyful song:—

6 "All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin, and never cease!"

TATE.

1 MESSIAH! at thy glad approach
The howling winds are still;
Thy praises fill the lonely waste,
And breathe from every hill.

2 Renewed, the earth a robe of light,
A robe of beauty wears;
And in new heavens a brighter sun
Leads on the promised years.

3 Let Israel to the Prince of Peace
The loud hosanna sing;
With hallelujahs, and with hymns,
O Zion, hail thy King.

M. BRUCE.

290

1 AWAKE, awake the sacred song
To our incarnate Lord!
Let every heart and every tongue
Adore th' eternal Word.

2 That awful Word, that sovereign Power
By whom the worlds were made—
Oh, happy morn! illustrious hour!—
Was once in flesh arrayed!

3 Then shone almighty power and love,
In all their glorious forms,
When Jesus left his throne above,
To dwell with sinful worms.

4 Adoring angels tuned their songs
To hail the joyful day;
With rapture then let mortal tongues
Their grateful worship pay.

5 What glory, Lord, to thee is due!
With wonder we adore;
But could we sing as angels do,
Our highest praise were poor.

Children's Hosanna.

- 1 WHEN his salvation bringing,
To Zion Jesus came,
The children all stood singing
Hosanna to his name.
- 2 Nor did their zeal offend him,
But as he rode along,
He bade them still attend him,
And smiled to hear their song.
- 3 Then since the Lord retaineth
His love for children still—
Though now as King he reigneth
On Zion's heavenly hill—
- 4 We'll flock around his banner,
Who sits upon the throne,
And sing aloud, Hosanna!
To David's royal Son.

With harmony divine;
See how from heaven they bend,
And in full chorus join:
"Fear not," say they; "great joy we bring:
Jesus, your King, is born to-day.
- 3 "He comes, your souls to save
From death's eternal gloom;
To realms of bliss and light
He lifts you from the tomb:
Your voices raise; with sons of light
Your songs unite of endless praise.
- 4 "Glory to God on high!
Ye mortals, spread the sound,
And let your raptures fly
To earth's remotest bound;
For peace on earth, from God in heaven
To man is given, at Jesus' birth."

Roll o'er the heavenly plains,

Some new delight in heaven is known;
Loud sound the harps around the throne.

The joyful hosts descend;
Jesus forsakes the sky,
To earth his footsteps bend;
He comes to bless our fallen race;
He comes with messages of grace.

Let every mortal know
What love in God is found,
What pity he can show;
Ye winds that blow, ye waves that roll,
Bear the glad news from pole to pole.

To great Immanuel's name;
Arise, ye sons of men,
And all his grace proclaim;
Angels and men, wake every string,
'Tis God the Saviour's praise we sing!

Children's Hymn.

- 1 JESUS a child his course begun:
How radiant dawned his heavenly day!
And those who such a race would run
As early should be on their way.
- 2 His Father's business was his care;
Yet in man's favor still he grew:
Oh, might we learn by thought and prayer,
Like him a work of love to do!
- 3 For all mankind he came, nor yet
An infant's visit would deny;
Nor friend nor mother did forget
In his last hour of agony.

304

- 1 "SEE how he loved!" exclaimed the Jews,
As tender tears from Jesus fell;
My grateful heart the thought pursues,
And on the theme delights to dwell.
- 2 See how he loved, who traveled on,
Teaching the doctrine from the skies!
Who bade disease and pain begone,
And called the sleeping dead to rise.
- 3 See how he loved, who never shrank
From toil or danger, pain or death!
Who all the cup of sorrow drank,
And meekly yielded up his breath.
- 4 Such love can we, unmoved, survey?
Oh, may our breasts with ardor glow,
To tread his steps, his laws obey,
And thus our warm affections show!

Hosanna to the King of kings:
The Saviour comes!—and babes proclaim
Salvation, sent in Jesus' name.
- 3 Nor these alone their voice shall raise,
For we will join this song of praise;
Still Israel's children forward press
To hail the Lord their Righteousness.
- 4 Messiah's name shall joy impart
Alike to Jew and Gentile heart:
He bled for us, he bled for you,
And we will sing hosanna too.
- 5 Proclaim hosannas loud and clear;
See David's Son and Lord appear!

All praise on earth to him be given,
And glory shout thro' highest heaven.

308

- 1 To thee be glory, honor, praise,

Inspired with joy at thine approach,

Hail, thou that in Jehovah's name
Didst come thy people to redeem,
And comest now thy crown to claim!

They met thee with triumphal palms;
Now, for thy glad return we watch
With longing prayers, and vows, and psalms.

Rode a bark at evening tide,

Jesus, sleeping on a pillow,

While the winds were all abroad,
Calmly slept the Son of God.

Fearful hearts awaked their Lord.
Jesus, by his sovereign power,

Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,

1 AT even ere the sun was set,
The sick, O Lord, around thee lay;
Oh, in what divers pains they met!
Oh, with what joy they went away!

2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we Oppressed with various ills draw near:
What if thy form we cannot see?
We know and feel that thou art here.

3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel;
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved thee well,
And some have lost the love they had.

4 And some have found the world is vain,
Yet from the world they break not free;
And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in thee.

5 O Saviour Christ, thou too art Man;
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide.

6 The touch has still its ancient power;
No word from thee can fruitless fall;
Hear in this solemn evening hour,
And in thy mercy heal us all.

313

1 WHEN power divine, in mortal form,
Hushed with a word the raging storm,
In soothing accents Jesus said—
"Lo! it is I; be not afraid."

2 Blest be the voice that breathes from
heaven,
To every heart in sunder riven,
When love, and joy, and hope are fled—
"Lo! it is I; be not afraid."

3 And when the last dread hour is come,
While shuddering nature wails her doom,
This voice shall call the pious dead—
"Lo! it is I; be not afraid." J. E. SMITH.

1 How beauteous were the marks divine,
That in thy meekness used to shine,
That lit thy lonely pathway, trod
In wondrous love, O Son of God !

2 Oh, who like thee, so calm, so bright,
So pure, so made to live in light ?
Oh, who like thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe ?

3 Oh, who like thee, so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before ?
So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility ?

4 The bending angels stooped to see
The lisping infant clasp thy knee,
And smile as in a father's eye,
Upon thy mild divinity.

5 And death, which sets the prisoner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to thee ;
Yet love through all thy torture glowed,
And mercy with thy life-blood flowed.

Illuming all my way of woe ;
And give me ever on the road

The lowly Jesus wandered here,
Where'er he went, affliction fled,

The opening ear, the loosened tongue,
His precepts heard, his praises sung.

3 With bounding steps, the halt and lame
To hail their great Deliverer came ;
O'er the cold grave he bowed his head,
He spake the word, and raised the dead.

4 Despairing madness, dark and wild,
In his inspiring presence smiled ;
The storm of horror ceased to roll,
And reason lightened through the soul.

"GREATOR EX COLL."

i. What grace, O Lord, and beau-ty shone A-round thy steps be - low ;

What pa - tient love was seen in all Thy life and death of woe.

317

- 2 For, ever on thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung ;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped thy silent tongue.
- 3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove ;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.
- 4 Oh, give us hearts to love like thee !
Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sin than all
The wrongs that we receive.
- 5 One with thyself, may every eye,
In us, thy brethren, see
The gentleness and grace that spring
From union, Lord ! with thee.

E. DENNY.

318

- 1 INCARNATE Word ! by every grief,
By each temptation tried,
Who lived to yield our ills relief,
And to redeem us died !
- 2 If gaily clothed and proudly fed,
In dangerous wealth we dwell,
Remind us of thy manger bed,
And lowly cottage cell.

- 3 If press'd by poverty severe,
In envious want we pine,
Oh may the Spirit whisper near,
How poor a lot was thine !
- 4 Through fickle fortune's various scene
From sin preserve us free ;
Like us thou hast a mourner been,
May we rejoice with thee !

319

- 1 THOU art the Way : to thee alone
From sin and death we flee ;
And he who would the Father seek,
Must seek him, Lord, by thee.
- 2 Thou art the Truth : thy word alone
True wisdom can impart ;
Thou only canst instruct the mind,
And purify the heart.
- 3 Thou art the Life : the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm ;
And those who put their trust in thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.
- 4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life :
Grant us to know that Way ;
That Truth to keep, that Life to win,
Which leads to endless day. DOANE.

- 2 When the pangs of trial seize us,
When the waves of sorrow roll,
I will lay my head on Jesus,
Pillow of the troubled soul.
Surely, none can feel like thee,
Weeping One of Bethany.
- 3 Jesus wept! and still in glory,
He can mark each mourner's tear;
Living to retrace the story
Of the hearts he solaced here.
Lord, when I am called to die,
Let me think of Bethany.

Is a legacy of love;
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,

2 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
Hark! all the tribes hosanna cry!
Thy humble beast pursues his road,
With palms and scattered garments
strowed.

3 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
The wingéd squadrons of the sky
Look down, with sad and wondering eyes,
To see th' approaching sacrifice.

4 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh:
The Father, on his sapphire throne,
Expects his own anointed Son.

5 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die:
Bow thy meek head to mortal pain;
Then take, O God, thy power, and

1. O WONDROUS type, O vision fair,
Of glory that the Church shall share,
Which Christ upon the mountain shows,
Where brighter than the sun he glows!

2 With shining face and bright array,
Christ deigns to manifest to-day

What glory shall be theirs above,
Who joy in God with perfect love.

3 And faithful hearts are raised on high
By this great vision's mystery;
For which in joyful strains we raise
The voice of prayer, the hymn of praise.

4 O Father, with the Eternal Son,
And Holy Spirit, ever One,
Vouchsafe to bring us by thy grace
To see thy glory face to face.

1 FLOW fast, my tears! the cause is great;
This tribute, claims an injured Friend:
One whom I long pursued with hate,
And yet he loved me to the end.

2 Fast flow my tears; yet faster flow,
Stream copious as yon purple tide;
'Twas I that dealt the deadly blow,
I urged the hand that pierced his side.

3 Fast, and yet faster flow my tears,
Love breaks the heart and drowns the eyes, [rears,
His visage marred, towards heaven he
And, pleading for his murderers, dies!

4 My grief no measure knows, nor end,
Till he appears the sinner's Friend!
And gives me in a happy hour,
To feel the risen Saviour's power.

The Saviour wrestles lone with fears ;
Ev'n that disciple whom he loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.
- 3 'Tis midnight ; and for others' guilt
The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood ;
Yet he that hath in anguish knelt
Is not forsaken by his God.

Is borne the song that angels know ;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

- 1 LORD ! in thy garden agony,
No light seemed on thy soul to break,
No form of seraph lingered nigh,
Nor yet the voice of comfort spake—
- 2 Till, by thine own triumphant word,
The victory over ill was won ;
Till the sweet, mournful cry was heard,
"Thy will, O God, not mine, be done !"
- 3 Lord, bring these precious moments back,
When, fainting, against sin we strain ;

Or in thy counsels fail to track
Aught but the present grief and pain.

- 4 In weakness, help us to contend ;
In darkness, yield to God our will ;
And true hearts, faithful to the end,
Cheer by thine holy angels still !

326

- 1 FROM Calvary a cry was heard—
A bitter and heart-rending cry ;
My Saviour ! every mournful word
Bespoke thy soul's deep agony.
- 2 A horror of great darkness fell
On thee, thou spotless, holy One !
And all the eager hosts of hell
Conspired to tempt God's only Son.
- 3 The scourge, the thorns, the deep dis-
grace—
These thou could'st bear, nor once repine ;
But when Jehovah veiled his face,
Unutterable pangs were thine.
- 4 Let the dumb world its silence break ;
Let pealing anthems rend the sky ;
Awake, my sluggish soul, awake !
He died, that we might never die.

2 Brought forth to judgment, now he stands
Arraigned, condemned, at Pilate's bar ;
Here, spurned by fierce prætorian bands,
There, mocked by Herod's men of war.

3 He bears their buffeting and scorn—
Mock-homage of the lip, the knee—
The purple robe, the crown of thorn—
The scourge, the nail, th' accursed tree.

4 No guile within his mouth is found ;
He neither threatens, nor complains ;
Meek as a lamb for slaughter bound,
Dumb, 'mid his murderers he remains.

5 But hark ! he prays : 'tis for his foes :
And speaks : 'tis comfort to his friends ;
Answers : and paradise bestows ;
He bows his head : the conflict ends.

1 SOFT be the gently breathing notes,
That sing the Saviour's dying love ;—
Soft as the evening zephyr floats ;
Soft as the tuneful lyres above :

2 Soft as the morning dews descend,
While the sweet lark exulting soars ;
So soft, to your Almighty Friend,
Be every sigh your bosom pours :

3 Pure as the sun's enlivening ray,
That scatters life and joy abroad ;
Pure as the lucid car of day,
That wide proclaims its Maker, God ;

4 Pure as the breath of vernal skies ;—
So pure let our contrition be ;
So purely let our love arise
To him who bled upon the tree. COLLIER.

1 O CHRIST ! our King, Creator, Lord !
Saviour of all who trust thy word !
To them who seek thee ever near,
Now to our praises bend an ear.

2 In thy dear cross a balm is found,
It flows from every streaming wound,
Whose power our inbred sin controls,
Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls.

3 Thou didst create the stars of night ;
Yet thou hast veiled in flesh thy light,
Hast deigned a mortal form to wear,
A mortal's painful lot to bear.

4 When thou didst hang upon the tree,
The quaking earth acknowledged thee :
When thou didst there yield up thy breath,
The world grew dark as shades of death.

My rich-est gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.

- 2 Forbid it, Lord! that I should boast
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

331

- 1 STRETCHED on the cross, the Saviour dies ;
Hark ! his expiring groans arise ;
See, from his hands, his feet, his side,
Descends the sacred, crimson tide.
- 2 And didst thou bleed?—for sinners bleed?
And could the sun behold the deed?
No ; he withdrew his cheering ray,
And darkness veiled the mourning day.
- 3 Can I survey this scene of woe,
Where mingling grief and mercy flow,
And yet my heart so hard remain,
Unmoved by either love or pain?
- 4 Come, dearest Lord, thy grace impart,
To warm this cold, this stupid heart,
Till all its powers and passions move
In melting grief and ardent love.

STEELE.

332

- 1 YE that pass by, behold the Man !
The Man of Grief, condemned for you,
The Lamb of God for sinners slain,
Weeping to Calvary pursue.
- 2 His sacred limbs they stretch, they tear,
With nails they fasten to the wood ;
His sacred limbs ! exposed and bare,
Or only covered with his blood.
- 3 Behold his temples crowned with thorn,
His bleeding hands extended wide,
His streaming feet transfixed and torn,
The fountain gushing from his side.
- 4 Oh thou dear suffering Son of God,
How doth thy heart to sinners move?
Sprinkle on us thy precious blood,
And melt us with thy dying love !

C. WESLEY.

333

- 1 "Tis finished !"—so the Saviour cried,
And meekly bowed his head and died :
"Tis finished !"—yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.
- 2 "Tis finished !"—this his dying groan
Shall sins of deepest hue atone,
And millions be redeemed from death
By Jesus' last, expiring breath.
- 3 "Tis finished !"—Heaven is reconciled,
And all the powers of darkness spoiled ;
Peace, love, and happiness again
Return, and dwell with sinful men.
- 4 "Tis finished !"—let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round :
"Tis finished !"—let the triumph rise,
And swell the chorus of the skies.

To spread her Maker's praise abroad ;
And every labor of his hands
Shows something worthy of a God.
- 2 But in the grace that rescued man
His brightest form of glory shines ;
Here on the cross 'tis fairest drawn
In precious blood and crimson lines.
- 3 Oh the sweet wonders of that cross,
Where God the Saviour loved and died ;
Her noblest life my spirit draws
From his dear wounds and bleeding side.
- 4 I would forever speak his name
In sounds to mortal ears unknown ;
With angels join to praise the Lamb,
And worship at his Father's throne.

- 2 Yé saints, approach! the anguish view
Of him who groans beneath your load;
He gives his precious life for you,
For you he sheds his precious blood.
- 3 Here's love and grief beyond degree,
The Lord of Glory dies for men;
But lo! what sudden joys we see,
Jesus, the dead, revives again.
- 4 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
How high our great Deliverer reigns;
Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell.
And led the tyrant death in chains.
- 5 Say, "Live forever, glorious King,
Born to redeem, and strong to save!"
Then ask,—“O death, where is thy sting?
And where thy victory, O grave?”

Oh come ye to the Saviour's side!
Oh come, together let us mourn!
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.
- 2 Have we no tears to shed for him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah! look how patiently he hangs:
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.
- 3 How fast his hands and feet are nailed;
His throat with parching thirst is dried:

His fainting eyes are dimmed with blood!

Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

- 4 Come, let us stand beneath the cross;
So may the blood from out his side
Fall gently on us—drop by drop;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.
- 5 A broken heart, a fount of tears
Ask, and they will not be denied:
Lord Jesus, may we love and weep,
Since thou for us art crucified.

- 1 OF him who did salvation bring,
I could forever think and sing;
Arise, ye needy,—he'll relieve;
Arise, ye guilty,—he'll forgive.
- 2 Ask but his grace, and lo, 'tis given;
Ask, and he turns your hell to heaven,
Though sin and sorrow wound my soul,
Jesus, thy balm will make it whole.
- 3 To shame our sins he blushed in
blood;
He closed his eyes to show us God:
Let all the world fall down and know,
That none but God such love can show.
- 4 Insatiate to this spring I fly;
I drink, and yet am ever dry;
Ah! who against thy charms is proof,
Ah! who that loves, can love enough.

Make us to hate the load of sin
That lay so heavy on our God.
- 3 O holy Lord! uplifted high
With outstretched arms, in mortal woe,
Embracing in thy wondrous love
The sinful world that lies below!

Think on thy bleeding wounds and pain,
And contemplate thy woes again.

He bleeds, my Saviour bleeds!
- 4 Beneath the thorny crown
The crimson fountain seeps;

See how it trickles down;
He bleeds, my Saviour bleeds!

- 5 Bearing the fatal wood,
His band of saints he leads,
Marking the way with blood;
He bleeds, my Saviour bleeds!
- 6 He hangs upon the tree,
Hangs there for my misdeeds;
He sheds his blood for me;
He bleeds, my Saviour bleeds!

Of the cross, of the cross!
In nothing else my soul shall glory,
Save the cross, save the cross!
Yes, this my constant theme shall be,
Through time and in eternity,
That Jesus suffer'd death for me,
On the cross, on the cross!

- 3 Let every mourner come and cling
To the cross, to the cross!
Let every Christian come and sing,
Round the cross, round the cross!
Here let the preacher take his stand,
And with the Bible in his hand,
Proclaim the triumphs of the Lamb
On the cross, on the cross!

SPANISH HYMN. 7s. Double.

1. Bound up - on th' ac - curs - ed tree, Faint and bleed - ing, who is he?
By the eyes so pale and dim, Stream - ing blood and writh - ing limb,
By the flesh with scourg - es torn, By the crown of twist - ed thorn,
By the drooping, death - dew'd brow, Son of Man, 'tis thou! 'tis thou!

357

- 2 Bound upon th' accurséd tree,
Dread and awful, who is he? -
By the sun at noonday pale,
Shivering rocks and rending veil,
By earth that trembles at his doom,
By yonder saints that burst their tomb,
Trembling nature knows thee now;
Son of God, 'tis thou! 'tis thou!
- 3 Bound upon th' accurséd tree,
Faint and bleeding, who is he?
By the prayer for them that slew,
"Lord! they know not what they do!"
By Eden, promised ere he died
To the felon at his side,
Lord, our suppliant knees we bow,
Son of God, 'tis thou! 'tis thou!
- 4 Bound upon th' accurséd tree,
Sad and dying, who is he?
By the last and bitter cry
The life given up in agony;

- By the baffled burning thirst,
By the side so deeply pierced,
Crucified! we know thee now;
Son of Man, 'tis thou! 'tis thou!
- 5 Bound upon th' accurséd tree,
Cold and lifeless, who is he?
By the lifeless body laid
In the chamber of the dead:
By the mourners come to weep
Where the bones of Jesus sleep;
By the linen round thy brow,
Son of Man, 'tis thou! 'tis thou!
- 6 Bound upon th' accurséd tree,
Dread and awful, who is he?
By the spoiled and empty grave,
By the souls he died to save,
By the conquest he hath won,
By the saints before his throne,
By the rainbow round his brow;
Son of God, 'tis thou! 'tis thou!

- 2 It is finished,—oh what pleasure
Do these precious words afford!
Heavenly blessings, without measure,
Flow to us from Christ the Lord.
"It is finished!"
Saints, the dying words record.
- 3 Finished all the types and shadows
Of the ceremonial law,—
Finished—all that God hath promised,
Death and hell no more shall aye:
"It is finished!"
Saints, from hence your comfort draw.

Join to sing the pleasing theme;
All on earth and all in heaven
Join to praise Immanuel's name:
Hallelujah!
Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

- 1 WHO is this that comes from Edom,
All his raiment stained with blood,

To the captive speaking freedom,
Bringing and bestowing good;
Glorious in the garb he wears,
Glorious in the spoil he bears?

- 2 'Tis the Saviour, now victorious,
Traveling onward in his might;
'Tis the Saviour; oh, how glorious
To his people is the sight!
Satan conquered, and the grave;
Jesus now is strong to save.
- 3 Why that blood his raiment staining?
'Tis the blood of many slain;
Of his foes there's none remaining,
None, the contest to maintain;
Fallen now, no more to rise,
All their glory prostrate lies.
- 4 Mighty Victor, reign forever,
Wear the crown so dearly won;
Never shall thy people, never,
Cease to sing what thou hast done.
Thou hast slain thy people's foes;
Thou hast healed thy people's woes.

 Then her griefs were all forgot,
 For she found he was the same.

 As she heard his welcome voice;
 Just before, she thought him dead,

 What a change his word can make,

 You who weep for Jesus' sake,
 He will wipe your tears away.

- 1 RESTING from his work to-day,
 In the tomb the Saviour lay;
 Still he slept; from head to feet
 Shrouded in the winding sheet,—
 Lying in the rock alone,
 Hidden by the seal'd stone.
- 2 Late at even there was seen
 Watching long the Magdalene;
 Early, ere the break of day,
 Sorrowful she took her way
 To the holy garden glade,
 Where her buried Lord was laid.
- 3 So with thee till life shall end
 I would solemn vigil spend;
 Let me hew thee, Lord, a shrine
 In this rocky heart of mine,
 Where in pure embalm'd cell
 None but thee may ever dwell.

 True affection's offering;
 Close the door from sight and sound
 Of the busy world around;
 And in patient watch remain
 Till my Lord appear again.

View the Lord of life arraigned.
Oh the wormwood and the gall !
Oh the pangs his soul sustained !
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss :
Learn of him to bear the cross.

There, adoring at his feet,
Mark that miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete.
"It is finished !" hear him cry ;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.
- 4 Early hasten to the tomb,
Where they laid his breathless clay ;
All is solitude and gloom :
Who hath taken him away ?
Christ is risen, he seeks the skies ;
Saviour, teach us so to rise.

MONTGOMERY.

- 1 WOULDST thou learn the depth of sin,
All its bitterness and pain ?

- What it cost thy God to win
Sinners to himself again ?
Come, poor sinner, come with me ;
Visit sad Gethsemane.
- 2 Wouldst thou know God's wondrous
love ?
Seek it not beside the throne ;
List not angels' praise above ;
Come and hear the heavy groan
By the Godhead heaved for thee,
Sinner, in Gethsemane.
 - 3 When his tears and bloody sweat,
When his passion and his prayer,
When his pangs on Olivet
Wake within thee thoughts of care,
Think, O sinner, 'twas for thee
He suffered in Gethsemane.

Love the God that loved thee so ;
Weep thou must, but likewise fear
Lest that fountain freshly flow,
That once freely gushed for thee
In sorrowful Gethsemane.

- 2 Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won:
Lo! our Sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo! he sets in blood no more.
- 3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
Christ hath burst the gates of hell!
Death in vain forbids his rise;
Christ hath opened Paradise!
- 4 Lives again our glorious King:
Where, O Death, is now thy sting?
Once he died, our souls to save:
Where thy victory, O Grave?
- 5 Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted head;
Made like him, like him we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

C. WESLEY.

365

- 1 ANGELS! roll the rock away;
Death! yield up thy mighty prey;
See! the Saviour leaves the tomb,
Glowing with immortal bloom.
- 2 Now, ye saints, lift up your eyes,
See him high in glory rise!
Hosts of angels, on the road,
Hail him—the incarnate God.

- 3 Heaven unfolds its portals wide;
See the Conqueror through them ride!
King of glory! mount thy throne—
Boundless empire is thine own.
- 4 Praise him, ye celestial choirs!
Tune, and sweep your golden lyres;
Raise, O earth! your noblest songs,
From ten thousand thousand tongues.
- 5 Every note with wonder swell,
Sin o'erthrown, and captive hell!
Where, O Death, is now thy sting?
Where thy terrors, vanquished king?

GIBBONS.

Drive your anxious cares away;
See the place where Jesus lay!
- 3 Christian! dry your flowing tears,
Chase your unbelieving fears;
Look on his deserted grave;
Doubt no more his power to save!

Hallelujah ! Praise the Lord !

3 He who bore all pain and loss,
Comfortless, upon the cross,
Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us and hears our cry ;
Hallelujah ! Praise the Lord !

How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven,
How we, too, may enter heaven !
Hallelujah ! Praise the Lord !

1 HAIL to thee, our risen King !
Joyfully thy praise we sing ;
For, the mighty conflict o'er,
Now thou livest evermore.

2 Thou within the tomb hast slept,
Angel guards thy vigil kept ;
'Twas their word to Mary brought
Tidings of the Lord she sought.

3 " Seek him not among the dead,
He is risen as he said : "

Gladdened by the angelic word,
Turning, she beheld her Lord.

4 Fain like Mary, Lord, would we
In thy glorious presence be,
Hear thy voice and see thy face,
Praise thee for thy wondrous grace.

369

1 HAIL the day that sees him rise,
Glorious, to his native skies !
Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Enters now the gates of heaven.

2 There the glorious triumph waits :
Lift your heads, eternal gates !
Christ hath vanquished death and sin ;
Take the King of glory in.

3 Still for us he intercedes,
His prevailing death he pleads ;
Near himself prepares our place,
Great Forerunner of our race.

4 Master, will we ever say,
Taken from our head to-day,
See thy faithful servants, see,
Ever gazing up to thee !

5 Grant, though parted from our sight,
High above yon azure height,
Grant, our hearts may thither rise,
Following thee beyond the skies !

In full assembly meet
To wait his high commands,

Joyful they come, and wing their way
From realms of day to Jesus' tomb.

The globe on which you dwell ;
Transported cry, " Jesus who bled

- 1 Now for a tune of lofty praise,
To great Jehovah's equal Son!
Awake, my voice, in heavenly lays,
Tell the loud wonders he hath done.
Sing, how he left the worlds of light,
And the bright robes he wore above;
How swift and joyful was the flight,
On wings of everlasting love.

Th' almighty Captive left the earth,

- 1 HAIL! morning known among the blest,—
Morning of hope, and joy, and love,—
Of heavenly peace, and holy rest,
Pledge of the endless rest above.
Blest be the Father of our Lord,
Who from the dead hath brought his Son,
Hope to the lost was then restored,
And everlasting glory won.
- 2 Scarce morning twilight had begun
To chase the shades of night away,
When Christ arose—unsetting Sun—
The dawn of joy's eternal day.
Mercy looked down with smiling eye,
When our Immanuel left the dead;
Faith marked his bright ascent on high,
And hope, with gladness, raised her head.

- 2 Though now ascended up on high,
He bends to earth a brother's eye ;
Partaker of the human name,
He knows the frailty of our frame.
- 3 Our fellow-sufferer yet retains
A fellow-feeling for our pains ;
And still remembers, in the skies,
His tears, his agonies, and cries.

- 4 In every pang that rends the heart,
The Man of Sorrows had a part ;
He sympathizes in our grief,
And to the sufferer sends relief.

Let us make all our sorrows known,
And ask the aids of heavenly power,
To help us in the evil hour.

For whom the pains of death he bore.

See the rich diadem he wears !
Thou too shalt bear a harp of gold—
A crown of joy, when he appears.

My flesh for ever with the dead,

But in the Saviour's lovely face
Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace !

The heavens resound with anthems

The shining angels as they speed,

While Roman guards kept watch and

Majestic from the spoiléd tomb,

Their hearts with speechless joy were

Their Lord's belovéd face to see,
Eager they haste to Galilee.

His face with love's own radiance

- 2 The highest place that heaven affords
Is his by sovereign right :
The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
He reigns in glory bright ;—
- 3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below,
To whom he manifests his love,
And grants his name to know.
- 4 To them, the cross, with all its shame,
With all its grace is given ;
Their name, an everlasting name,
Their joy—the joy of heaven.
- 5 To them the cross is life and health,
Though shame and death to him ;
His people's hope, his people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme. KELLY.

- 2 Our enemy is put to shame,
His short-lived triumph o'er ;
Our God is with us, we exclaim,
We fear our foe no more.
- 3 Oh share with us the spoils, we pray,
Thou diedst to achieve ;
We meet within thy house to-day,
Our portion to receive.
- 4 And let thy conquering banner wave
O'er hearts thou makest free,
And point the path that from the grave
Leads heavenward up to thee.
- 5 We die with thee : oh, let us live
Henceforth to thee aright !
The blessings thou hast died to give
Be daily in our sight.

391

- 1 WELCOME thou Victor in the strife,
Welcome from out the cave !
To-day we triumph in thy life
Around thine empty grave.

- 6 Fearless we lay us in the tomb,
And sleep the night away,
If thou art there to break the gloom,
And call us back to-day.

HARWELL. 8s & 7s.

L. MASON.

1. { Hark! ten thousand harps and voices Sound the note of praise above; }
 { Je - sus reigns, and heaven rejoices; Je - sus reigns, the God of love; }

See, he sits on yonder throne! Je - sus rules the world alone.

Hal - le - lu - jah! hal - le - lu - jah! Hal - le - lu - jah! A - men.

392

2 Jesus, hail! whose glory brightens
 All above and gives it worth;
 Lord of life, thy smile enlightens,
 Cheers and charms thy saints on earth:

When we think of love like thine,
 Lord, we own it love divine.

3 King of glory, reign forever!
 Thine an everlasting crown;
 Nothing from thy love shall sever
 Those whom thou hast made thine own:

Happy objects of thy grace,
 Chosen to behold thy face.

4 Saviour, hasten thine appearing!
 Bring, oh bring the glorious day,
 When, the awful summons hearing,
 Heaven and earth shall pass
 away!

Then with golden harps we'll sing,
 "Glory, glory, to our King!"
 Hallelujah, Amen!

KELLY.

393

1 HAIL, thou once despised Jesus:
 Crowned in mockery a king!
 Thou didst suffer to release us;
 Thou didst free salvation bring.
 Hail, thou agonizing Saviour,
 Bearer of our sin and shame!
 By thy merits we find favor;
 Life is given through thy name.

2 Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory,
 There forever to abide;
 All the heavenly host adore thee,
 Seated at thy Father's side:
 There for sinners thou art pleading;
 There thou dost our place prepare:
 Ever for us interceding,
 Till in glory we appear.

3 Worship, honor, power, and blessing
 Thou art worthy to receive;
 Loudest praises, without ceasing,
 Meet it is for us to give.
 Help, ye bright angelic spirits;
 Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;
 Help to sing our Saviour's merits;
 Help to chant Immanuel's praise.

LOCKHART.

i. Look, ye saints ;—the sight is glo - rious ;—See the Man of Sor - rows now ;

From the fight returned vic - to - rious, Ev - ery knee to him shall bow ;

Crown him, crown him, Crown him, crown him, Crowns become the Vic - tor's brow.

394

2 Crown the Saviour, angels, crown him ;
Rich the trophies Jesus brings ;
In the seat of power enthrone him,
While the heavenly concert rings :
Crown him, crown him ;
Crown the Saviour King of kings.

3 Sinners in derision crowned him,
Mocking thus the Saviour's claim ;
Saints and angels crowd around him,
Own his title, praise his name :
Crown him, crown him ;
Spread abroad the Victor's fame.

*4 Hark ! those bursts of acclamation !
Hark ! those loud, triumphant chords !

Jesus takes the highest station ;
Oh, what joy the sight affords !
Crown him, crown him,
King of kings, and Lord of lords.

KELLY.

395

i HAIL, thou happy morn, so glorious !
Come, ye saints, your griefs give o'er ;

Sing how Jesus rose victorious,
By his own almighty power :
Hallelujah !
To the glorious Son of God.

2 Countless bands of angels glorious,
Cloth'd in bright ethereal blue ;
Straight the sound of Christ victorious
From their silver trumpets flew :
Christ triumphant
Rises ; Conqueror o'er the tomb.

3 Is this he who died on Calvary,
Who was pierc'd with many a spear ?
Clad with countless suns of glory,
See, he rises through the air :
Hallelujah !
Zion's mourner, now rejoice.

4 Tremble, ye who him rejected,
Lo ! he breaks through yonder cloud ;
Rise, ye saints, and shout triumphant,
Victory ! through Jesus' blood :
Hark ! the trumpet
Sounds the resurrection morn.

BREST. 8s, 7s & 4.

L. MASON.

1. Lo ! he comes, with clouds descending, Once for favored sinners slain ; Thousand thousand saints, attending,

Swell the tri-umph of his train: Hal - le - lu - jah! Je - sus shall for - ev - er reign.

396

- 2 Every eye shall now behold him,
Robed in dreadful majesty :
Those who set at nought and sold him,
Pierced, and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see.
- 3 When the solemn trump has sounded,
Heaven and earth shall flee away ;
All who hate him must, confounded,
Hear the summons of that day—
“Come to judgment !—
Come to judgment !—come away !”
- 4 Now the Saviour, long expected,
See, in solemn pomp, appear ;
All his saints, by man rejected,
Now shall meet him in the air :
Hallelujah !
See the day of God appear.

WESLEY & CENNICK.

397

- 1 CHRIST is coming ! let creation
Bid her groans and travail cease ;
Let the glorious proclamation
Hope restore and faith increase—
Christ is coming !
Come, thou blessed Prince of peace.

- 2 Earth can now but tell the story
Of thy bitter cross and pain ;
She shall yet behold thy glory
When thou comest back to reign—
Christ is coming !
Let each heart repeat the strain.
- 3 Though once cradled in a manger,
Oft no pillow but the sod ;
Here an alien and a stranger,
Mocked of men, disowned of God—
All creation
Yet shall own that kingly rod.
- 4 Long thy exiles have been pining,
Far from rest and home and thee ;
But, in heavenly vesture shining,
Soon they shall thy glory see—
Christ is coming !
Haste the joyous jubilee.
- 5 With that “blessed hope” before us,
Let no harp remain unstrung ;
Let the mighty advent chorus
Onward roll from tongue to tongue—
Christ is coming !
Come, Lord Jesus, quickly come.

1. { Lo, he com-eth! count-less trumpets Blow to raise the sleeping dead; }
 { 'Mid ten thou-sand saints and an-gels, See their great ex-alt-ed Head! }

Hal - le - lu - jah! Hal - le - lu - jah! Wel - come, wel-come, Son of God!

398

- 2 Now his merit, by the harpers,
 Through the eternal deep resounds ;
 Now resplendent shine his nail-prints,
 Every eye shall see his wounds ;
 They who pierced him
 Shall at his appearance wail.
- 3 Full of joyful expectation,
 Saints behold the Judge appear ;
 Truth and justice go before him ;
 Now the royal sentence hear :
 Hallelujah!
 Welcome, welcome, Judge divine.
- 4 "Come, ye blessed of my Father,
 Enter into life and joy ;
 Banish all your fears and sorrows ;
 Endless praise be your employ :"
 Hallelujah!
 Welcome, welcome to the skies.

CENNICK.

399

- 1 Lo! he comes, with clouds descending!
 Hark! the trump of God is blown,
 And th' Archangel's voice attending
 Makes the high procession known :
 Sons of Adam
 Rise, and stand before your God!

- 2 Crowns and sceptres fall before him,
 Kings and conquerors own his sway ;
 Haughtiest monarchs now adore him,
 While they see his lightnings play :
 How triumphant
 Is the world's Redeemer now !
- 3 Hear his voice, as mighty thunder
 Sounding in eternal roar,
 While its echo rends in sunder
 Rocks and mountains, sea and shore ;
 Hark! his accents
 Thro' th' unfathomed deep resound !
- 4 "Come, Lord Jesus! oh, come quickly,"
 Oft has prayed the mourning bride :
 "Lo!" he answers, "I come quickly!"
 Who thy coming may abide?
 All who loved him,
 All who longed to see his day.
- 5 "Come," he saith, "ye heirs of glory ;
 Come, ye purchase of my blood ;
 Claim the kingdom now before you,
 Rise, and fill the mount of God,
 Fixed forever
 Where the Lamb on Zion stands."

OLIVERS.

OLIPHANT. 8s, 7s & 4s.

Arranged by L. MASON.

I. O'er the dis-tant mountains breaking, Comes the reddening dawn of day;
Rise, my soul, from sleep a-wak-ing, Rise, and sing, and watch, and pray:
Solo. 'Tis thy Sav-iour, 'Tis thy Sav-iour, Tutti. On his bright, re-turn-ing way, On his bright, re-turn-ing way. A-men.

400

- 2 O thou long-expected, weary
Waits my anxious soul for thee ;
Life is dark, and earth is dreary,
Where thy light I do not see :
O my Saviour,
When wilt thou return to me !
- 3 Nearer is my soul's salvation,
Spent the night, the day at hand ;
Keep me in my lowly station,
Watching for thee, till I stand,
O my Saviour,
In thy bright and promised land !
- 4 With my lamp well-trimmed and burning,
Swift to hear, and slow to roam,
Watching for thy glad returning,
To restore me to my home,
Come, my Saviour !
O my Saviour, quickly come !

401

- 1 JESUS comes to souls rejoicing,
Bringing news of sin forgivén ;
Jesus comes in sounds of gladness,
Lifting up our souls to heavén ;
Hallelujah !
Now the gate of death is rivén.
- 2 Jesus comes in joy and sorrow
Shares alike our hopes and fears ;
"Jesus comes" whate'er befalls us,
Cheers our hearts and dries our tears,
Hallelujah !
Cheering e'en our failing years.
- 3 Jesus comes on clouds, triumphant,
When the heavens shall pass away ;
Jesus comes again in glory ;
Let us then our homage pay :
Hallelujah !
Sing we till the break of day.

DODGE. L. M.

J. P. HOLBROOK.

1. When Christ came down on earth of old, He took our nature poor and low;

He wore no form of an - gel mould, But shared our weakness and our woe.

402

2 But when he cometh back once more,
Then shall be set the great white throne ;
And earth and heaven shall flee before
The face of him that sits thereon.

3 O Son of God ! in glory crown'd,
The Judge ordain'd of quick and dead ;
And son of man ! so pitying found
For all the tears thy people shed ;

4 Be with us in that awful hour,
And by thy crown, and by thy grave,
And all thy love and all thy power,
In that great day of judgment save !

403

1 O SAVIOUR, is thy promise fled,
Nor longer might thy grace endure
To heal the sick, and raise the dead,
And preach thy gospel to the poor ?

2 Come, Jesus, come ! return again ;
With brighter beam thy servants bless,
Who long to feel thy perfect reign,
And share thy kingdom's happiness !

3 Come, Jesus, come ! and, as of yore,
The prophet went to clear thy way,
A harbinger thy feet before,
A dawning to thy brighter day ;

4 So now may grace with heavenly shower

Our stony hearts for truth prepare ;
Sow in our souls the seed of power,
Then come and reap thy harvest there.

HEBER.

404

1 THE Lord will come ! the earth shall
quake ;

The hills their fixed seat forsake ;
And, withering, from the vault of night
The stars withdraw their feeble light.

2 The Lord will come ! but not the same
As once in lowly form he came,
A silent Lamb to slaughter led,
The bruised, the suffering, and the dead.

3 The Lord will come ! a dreadful form,
With wreath of flame, and robe of storm,
On cherub wings, and wings of wind,
Anointed Judge of human kind.

4 Can this be he who wont to stray
A pilgrim on the world's highway,
By power oppress'd, and mock'd by pride,
The Nazarene, the Crucified ?

5 Go, tyrants ! to the rocks complain ;
Go, seek the mountain's cleft in vain !
But faith, victorious o'er the tomb,
Shall sing for joy—the Lord is come !

HEBER.

MENDEBRAS. 7s & 6s.

I. { Re - joice, all ye be - liev - ers, And let your lights ap - pear; }
 { The eve - ning is ad - vanc - ing, And dark - er night is near: }

The Bride-groom is a - ris - ing, And soon he draw - eth nigh:

Up! pray, and watch, and wres - tle! At mid - night comes the cry.

405

- 2 The watchers on the mountain
 Proclaim the Bridegroom near;
 Go meet him as he cometh,
 With hallelujahs clear:
 The marriage-feast is waiting,
 The gates wide-open stand;
 Up, up, ye heirs of glory!
 The Bridegroom is at hand.

- 3 Our hope and expectation,
 O Jesus, now appear;
 Arise, thou Sun so longed for,
 O'er this benighted sphere!
 With heart and hands uplifted,
 We plead, O Lord, to see
 The day of earth's redemption,
 That brings us unto thee:

LAURENTI.

406

- 1 THE world is very evil;
 The times are waxing late:

- Be sober and keep vigil,
 The Judge is at the gate;
 The Judge who comes in mercy,
 The Judge who comes in might,
 To terminate the evil,
 And vindicate the right.
 2 Prepare we then to meet him;
 Let right to wrong succeed;
 Let penitential sorrow
 To heavenly gladness lead:
 So may we sound his praises,
 Who from destruction saved,
 Bore with us in defilement,
 And from defilement laved.
 3 Far, far, as we have wandered,
 And deep as is our fall,
 His mercies never fail us,
 Who freely pardons all;
 Who bids his grace abounding
 Love's mightiness display,
 And David's royal fountain
 Purge every sin away.

"ROOT AND SWEETZER COLL."

1. Come, Lord, and tar - ry not, Bring the long-looked - for day;

Oh, why these years of wait - ing here, These a - ges of de - lay?

407

- 2 Come! for the good are few,
They lift the voice in vain;
Faith waxes fainter on the earth,
And love is on the wane.
- 3 Come! for love waxes cold,
Its steps are faint and slow;
Faith now is lost in unbelief;
Hope's lamp burns dim and low.
- 4 Come! for creation groans,
Impatient of thy stay,
Worn out with these long years of ill,
These ages of delay.
- 5 Come, and make all things new;
Build up this ruined earth,
Restore our faded Paradise,
Creation's second birth!
- 6 Come, and begin thy reign
Of everlasting peace;
Come, take the kingdom to thyself,
Great King of Righteousness!

BONAR.

408

- 1 THE Church has waited long
Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits,
A friendless stranger she.

- 2 Age after age has gone,
Sun after sun has set,
And still, in weeds of widowhood,
She weeps a mourner yet.
- 3 Saint after saint on earth
Has lived, and loved, and died;
And as they left us one by one,
We laid them side by side:
- 4 We laid them down to sleep,
But not in hope forlorn;
We laid them but to ripen there
Till the last glorious morn.
- 5 The whole creation groans,
And waits to hear that voice
That shall restore her comeliness,
And make her wastes rejoice.
- 6 Come, Lord, and wipe away
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
Thine own fair world again. BONAR

DOXOLOGY.

SONG. 8s & 5s.

GERMAN.

i. Sing of Je - sus, sing for - ev - er Of the love that chang-es nev - er!

Who, or what, from him can sev - er Those he makes his own?

409

- 1 SING of Jesus, sing forever
Of the love that changes never!
Who, or what, from him can sever
Those he makes his own?
- 2 With his blood the Lord hath bought
them,
When they knew him not, he sought
them,
And from all their wanderings brought
them ;
His the praise alone.
- 3 Through the desert Jesus leads them,
With the bread of heaven he feeds
them,
And through all their way he speeds
them
To their home above.
- 4 There they see the Lord who bought
them,
Him who came from heaven and sought
them,
Him who by his Spirit taught them,
Him they serve and love. KELLY.

410

- 1 SAINTS in glory! we together
Know the song that ceases never ;
Song of songs thou art, O Saviour,
All that endless day.
- 2 Theme of Adam when forgiven,
Theme of Abraham, David, Stephen .
Souls, ye chant it entering heaven,
Now, henceforth, always.
- 3 O the God-man! O Immanuel!
Cloud by day! Jehovah-Angel!
Fire by night! he led his Israel,
So he leads us home.
- 4 Come, ye angels, round us gather,
While to Jesus we draw nearer ;
In his throne he'll seat forever,
Those for whom he died.
- 5 Underneath his throne, a river
Clear as crystal flows forever,
Like his fulness, failing never:
Hail enthronéd Lamb!
- 6 Oh, th' unsearchable Redeemer!
Shoreless Ocean, sounded never!
Yesterday, to-day, forever,
Jesus Christ, the same. MAHMIED.

1. Let us awake our joys, Strike up with cheerful voice, Each creature sing—Angels, begin the song, Mortals, the strain prolong, In accents sweet and strong, "Jesus is King."

411

- 2 Proclaim abroad his name,
Tell of his matchless fame:
What wonders done!
Shout through hell's dark profound,
Let all the earth resound,
"Till heaven's high arch rebound,
"Victory is won."
- 3 All hail the glorious day,
When through the heavenly way
Lo, he shall come!
While they who pierced him wail,
His promise shall not fail;
Saints, see your King prevail:
Great Saviour, come. RUGBURY.

412

- 1 RISE, glorious Conqueror, rise;
Into thy native skies,—
Assume thy right:
And where in many a fold
The clouds are backward rolled—
Pass through those gates of gold,
And reign in light!
- 2 Victor o'er death and hell!
Cherubic legions swell
Thy radiant train:
Praises all heaven inspire;
Each angel sweeps his lyre,
And waves his wings of fire,—
Thou Lamb once slain!

- 3 Enter, incarnate God!—
No feet but thine, have trod
The serpent down;
Blow the full trumpets, blow!
Wider yon portals throw!
Saviour triumphant—go,
And take thy crown!
- 4 Lion of Judah—hail!
And let thy name prevail
From age to age;
Lord of the rolling years;—
Claim for thine own the spheres,
For thou hast bought with tears
Thy heritage! BRYDGES.

413

- 1 SOUND, sound the truth abroad!
Bear ye the word of God
Through the wide world;
Tell what our Lord has done,
Tell how the day is won,
And from his lofty throne
Satan is hurled.
- 2 Ye, who forsaking all,
At your loved Master's call,
Comforts resign;
Soon will your work be done;
Soon will the prize be won;
Brighter than yonder sun
Then shall ye shine. KELLY.

ITALIAN HYMN. 6s & 4s.

GIARDINI. 1760.

I. Glo-ry to God on high! Let heaven and earth reply, "Praise ye his name!" His love and grace a-dore, Who all our sorrows bore; Sing loud fore-ermore, "Worthy the Lamb!"

4 I 4

- 2 While they around the throne
 Cheerfully join in one,
 Praising his name,—
 Ye who have felt his blood
 Sealing your peace with God,
 Sound his dear name abroad,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"
- 3 Join, all ye ransomed race,
 Our Lord and God to bless:
 Praise ye his name!
 In him we will rejoice,
 And make a joyful noise,
 Shouting with heart and voice,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"
- 4 Soon must we change our place,
 Yet will we never cease
 Praising his name:
 To him our songs we bring;
 Hail him our gracious King;
 And, through all ages sing,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

JAMES ALLEN.

4 I 5

- 1 SING, sing his lofty praise,
 Whom angels cannot raise,
 But whom they sing;
 Jesus, who reigns above,
 Object of angels' love,
 Jesus, whose grace we prove,
 Jesus, our King.

- 2 Rich is the grace we sing,
 Poor is the praise we bring,
 Not as we ought;
 But when we see his face,
 In yonder glorious place,
 Then shall we sing his grace,
 Sing without fault.

KELLY.

4 I 6

- 1 COME, all ye saints of God,
 Wide through the earth abroad
 Spread Jesus' fame:
 Tell what his love hath done;
 Trust in his name alone;
 Shout to his lofty throne,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"
- 2 Hence, gloomy doubts and fears!
 Dry up your mournful tears;
 Swell the glad theme:
 To Christ, our gracious King,
 Strike each melodious string;
 Join heart and voice to sing,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"
- 3 Hark! how the choirs above,
 Filled with the Saviour's love,
 Dwell on his name!
 There, too, may we be found,
 With light and glory crowned,
 While all the heavens resound,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

- 2 What is faith's foundation strong?
What awakes my lips to song?
He who bore my sinful load,
Purchased for me peace with God,
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.
- 3 Who defeats my fiercest foes?
Who consoles my saddest woes?
Who revives my fainting heart,
Healing all its hidden smart?
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.
- 4 Who is life in life to me?
Who the death of death will be?
Who will place me on his right
With the countless hosts of light?
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

This delights and stirs me so ;
Faith in him who died to save,
Him who triumphed o'er the grave,
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

- 2 When the morning paints the skies,
When the golden sunbeams rise,
Then my Saviour's form I find
Brightly imaged on my mind.
- 3 When the day-beams pierce the night,
Oft I think on Jesus' light,
Think how bright that light will be,
Shining through eternity.
- 4 When, as moonlight softly steals,
Heaven its thousand eyes reveals,
Then I think : Who made their light
Is a thousand times more bright.
- 5 When I see in spring-tide gay,
Fields their varied tints display,
Wakes the thrilling thought in me,
What must their Creator be?

Come, reveal thyself to me!
Let me, 'mid thy radiant light,
See thine unveiled glories bright.

- 2 For the grandeur of thy nature,—
 Grand, beyond a seraph's thought ;

 wrought ;
 For thy providence, that governs
 Through thine empire's wide domain,
 Wings an angel, guides a sparrow ;
 Blesséd be thy gentle reign.

 Bright, tho' veiled in darkness long,
 Thought is poor, and poor expression ;

 Brightness of the Father's glory!
 Shall thy praise unuttered lie?
 Break, my tongue! such guilty silence,
 Sing the Lord who came to die:—
- 4 From the highest throne of glory,
 To the cross of deepest woe,
 Came to ransom guilty captives!—
 Flow, my praise! forever flow:
 Re-ascend, immortal Saviour!
 Leave thy footstool, take thy throne;
 Thence return and reign forever;—
 Be the kingdom all thine own!

 Hail, ye saints, the exalted Saviour,
 Let his courts with praise resound.
- 2 Lo, Jehovah, we adore thee ;
 Thee our Saviour! thee our God!
 From his throne his beams of glory
 Shine through all the world abroad.
 In his word his light arises,
 Brightest beams of truth and grace ;
 Bind, oh, bind your sacrifices,
 In his courts your offerings place.

 Highest honors, never failing,
 Rise eternal round thy throne ;
 Now, ye saints, his power confessing,
 In your grateful strains adore ;

 Freely flows forevermore.

D.S. But our Je - sus died to have us Re - conciled in him to God.

2. Which of all our friends, to save us, Could or would have shed his blood?

422

- 3 When he lived on earth abaséd,
Friend of sinners was his name ;
Now, above all glory raiséd,
He rejoices in the same.
- 4 Could we bear from one another
What he daily bears from us ?
Yet this glorious Friend and Brother
Loves us though we treat him thus.
- 5 Oh for grace our hearts to soften !
Teach us, Lord, at length to love !
We, alas ! forget too often
What a Friend we have above.

- 1 CHRIST, above all glory seated !
King eternal, strong to save !
To thee, Death, by death defeated,
Triumph high and glory gave.
- 2 Thou art gone, where now is given,
What no mortal might could gain :
On the eternal throne of heaven,
In thy Father's power to reign.
- 3 There thy kingdoms all adore thee,
Heaven above and earth below,

- While the depths of hell before thee,
Trembling and defeated bow.
- 4 We, O Lord ! with hearts adoring,
Follow thee above the sky :
Hear our prayers thy grace imploring,
Lift our souls to thee on high.
- 5 So when thou again in glory
On the clouds of heaven shalt shine,
We thy flock shall stand before thee,
Owned forevermore as thine.

424

- 1 JESUS comes, his conflict over,
Comes to claim his great reward ;
Angels round the victor hover,
Crowding to behold their Lord.
- 2 Yonder throne for him erected,
Now becomes the victor's seat ;
Lo, the man on earth rejected !
Angels worship at his feet.
- 3 Day and night they cry before him,—
“ Holy, holy, holy Lord ! ”
All the powers of heaven adore him ;
All obey his sovereign word. KELLY

1. Oh, could I speak the match-less worth, Oh, could I sound the glories forth,

Which in my Saviour shine, I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings, And vic with Gabriel while he sings In notes al-most di-vine, In notes al-most di-vine.

425

- 2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin, and wrath divine:
I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.
- 3 I'd sing the characters he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne:
In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would to everlasting days
Make all his glories known.
- 4 Well, the delightful day will come
When my dear Lord will bring me
home,
And I shall see his face;
Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in his grace.

- 1 COME join, ye saints, with heart and Alone in Jesus to rejoice, [voice,

- And worship at his feet;
Come, take his praises on your tongues,
And raise to him your thankful songs,
"In him ye are complete!"
- 2 In him, who all our praise excels,
The fullness of the Godhead dwells,
And all perfections meet:
The head of all celestial powers,
Divinely theirs, divinely ours;
"In him ye are complete!"
- 3 Still onward urge your heavenly way,
Dependent on him day by day,
His presence still entreat;
His precious name forever bless,
Your glory, strength and righteousness,
"In him ye are complete!"
- 4 Nor fear to pass the vale of death;
In his dear arms resign your breath,
He'll make the passage sweet;
The gloom and fears of death shall flee,
And your departing souls shall see
"In him ye are complete!"

2 Five bleeding wounds he bears
Received on Calvary;
They pour effectual prayers,
They strongly plead for me:
Forgive him, oh forgive, they cry,
Nor let that ransomed sinner die!

3 The Father hears him pray,—
His dear anointed One;
He cannot turn away
The presence of his Son;
His Spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I am born of God.

4 My God is reconciled;
His pardoning voice I bear;
He owns me for his child;
I can no longer fear:
With confidence I now draw nigh,
And Father, Abba, Father, cry.

i COME, every pious heart,
That loves the Saviour's name,

Your noblest powers exert
To celebrate his fame:
Tell all above, and all below,
The debt of love to him you owe.

2 He left his starry crown,
And laid his robes aside;
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died:
What he endured, no tongue can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell.

3 From the dark grave he rose—
The mansion of the dead;
And thence his mighty foes
In glorious triumph led;
Up through the sky the conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour God.

4 From thence he'll quickly come—
His chariot will not stay—
And bear our spirits home
To realms of endless day:
There shall we see his lovely face,
And ever rest in his embrace.

- 2 Great Prophet of my God,
 My tongue would bless thy name ;
 By thee the joyful news
 Of our salvation came :
 The joyful news of sins forgivén,
 Of hell subdued, and peace with heavén.
- 3 Jesus, my great High-Priest,
 Offered his blood and died ;
 My guilty conscience seeks
 No sacrifice beside :
 His powerful blood did once atone,
 And now it pleads before the throne.
- 4 My dear almighty Lord !
 My Conqueror and my King !
 Thy sceptre and thy sword,
 Thy reigning grace I sing :
 Thine is the power ; behold, I sit,
 In willing bonds, beneath thy feet.
- 5 Now let my soul arise,
 And tread the tempter down ;
 My Captain leads me forth
 To conquest and a crown ;

A feeble saint shall win the day,
 Though death and hell obstruct the way.

- 1 PRAISE to the Lord on high,
 Who spreads his triumphs wide ;
 While Jesus' fragrant name
 Is breathed from every side :
 Balmy and rich the odors rise,
 And fill the earth and reach the skies.
- 2 Ten thousand dying souls
 Its influence feel, and live ;
 Sweeter than vital air
 The incense they receive :
 They breathe anew, and rise and sing
 Jesus, the Lord, their conquering King.
- 3 But sinners scorn the grace
 That brings salvation nigh ;
 They turn their face away,
 And faint, and fall, and die :
 So sad a doom, ye saints deplore ;
 For oh, they fall to rise no more !

1. What e - qual hon - ors shall we bring To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,

When all the notes that an - gels sing Are far in - fe - rior to thy name?

431

- 2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of life, that groaned and died,
Worthy to rise, and live and reign
At his almighty Father's side.
- 3 Honor immortal must be paid,
Instead of scandal and of scorn ;
While glory shines around his head,
He wears a crown without a thorn.
- 4 Blessings forever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men!
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say, "Amen."

WATTS.

432

- 1 COME, let us sing the song of songs—
The saints in heaven began the strain—
The homage which to Christ belongs :
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"
- 2 Slain to redeem us by his blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God :
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"
- 3 To him who suffered on the tree,
Our souls, at his soul's price, to gain,
Blessing, and praise, and glory be :
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"
- 4 To him, enthroned by filial right,
All power in heaven and earth proclaim,

- Honor, and majesty, and might :
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"
- 5 Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with him we reign,
This song, our song of songs shall be :
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

- 1 Now to the Lord, who makes us know
The wonders of his dying love,
Be humble honors paid below,
And strains of nobler praise above.
- 2 'Twas he who cleansed our foulest sins,
And washed us in his precious blood ;
'Tis he who makes us priests and kings,
And brings us rebels near to God.
- 3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest,
To Jesus, our eternal King,
Be everlasting power confessed :
Let every tongue his glory sing.
- 4 Behold ! on flying clouds he comes,
And every eye shall see him move ;
Tho' with our sins we pierced him once,
He now displays his pardoning love.

The brightest image of his grace;
God, in the person of his Son,
Has all his mightiest works outdone.
- 3 The spacious earth and spreading flood
Proclaim the wise, the powerful God,
And thy rich glories from afar
Sparkle in every rolling star.
- 4 But in his looks a glory stands,
The noblest labor of thine hands:
The pleasing lustre of his eyes
Outshines the wonders of the skies.
- 5 Grace, 'tis a sweet, a charming theme;
My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name;
Ye angels, dwell upon the sound;
Ye heavens, reflect it to the ground.

Where he unveils his lovely face,
His beauties there may I behold,
And sing his name to harps of gold.

We first received thy pledge of love.
- 3 The gladness of that happy day!
Our hearts would wish it long to stay;
Nor let our faith forsake its hold,
Nor comfort sink, nor love grow cold.

Increase thy praise, improve our joys,
Till we are raised to sing thy name,
At the great supper of the Lamb.

DOBEL'S COLLECTION.

442

- 1 We sing the praise of him who died,
 Of him who died upon the cross;
 The sinner's hope let men deride,
 For this we count the world but loss.
- 2 Inscribed upon the cross we see,
 In shining letters, God is love;
 He bears our sins upon the tree,
 He brings us mercy from above.
- 3 The cross! it takes our guilt away;
 It holds the fainting spirit up;
 It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
 And sweetens every bitter cup.
- 4 It makes the timid spirit brave,
 And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
 It takes the terror from the grave,
 And gilds the bed of death with light.
- 5 The balm of life, the cure of woe,
 The measure and the pledge of love,
 The sinner's refuge here below,
 The angels' theme in heaven above.

Woods echo to the strain.

O'er earth and ocean fly ;
Till morn to eve, and noon to night,
And heaven to earth, reply.

Jesus is kind to our complaints;
He loves to hear our praise.

Our Saviour and his flock appear,
One Shepherd and one fold.
- 3 Toil, trial, suffering, still await
On earth the pilgrims' throng;
Yet learn we in our low estate
The Church Triumphant's song.
- 4 "Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,"
Cry the redeemed above,
"Blessing and honor to obtain,

It turns their hell to heaven.

Proclaim his love, and say in death—

Lord, teach our songs to rise:
Thy love can raise our humble strain,
And bid it reach the skies.

It spreads a fragrance round :
Justice and mercy, truth and peace,
In union here are found.
- 2 He is our life, our joy, our strength,
In him all glories meet ;
He is a shade above our heads,
A light to guide our feet.
- 3 The thickest clouds are soon dispersed,
If Jesus shows his face :
To weary, heavy-laden souls
He is the resting-place.
- 4 When storms arise and tempests blow,
He speaks the stilling word ;

The threatening billows cease to flow,
The winds obey their Lord.

- 5 Through every age he's still the same ;
But we ungrateful prove,
Forget the savor of his name,
The sweetness of his love. BEDDOME.

460

- 1 COME, let us join our songs of praise
To our ascended Priest ;
He entered heaven with all our names
Engraven on his breast.
- 2 Below he washed our guilt away,
By his atoning blood ;
Now he appears before the throne,
And pleads our cause with God.
- 3 Clothed with our nature still, he knows
The weakness of our frame,
And how to shield us from the foes
Whom he himself o'ercame.
- 4 Nor time, nor distance, e'er shall quench
The fervor of his love ;
For us he died in kindness here,
For us he lives above.
- 5 Oh ! may we ne'er forget his grace,
Nor blush to bear his name ;
Still may our hearts hold fast his faith
Our lips his praise proclaim.

"GREATOR EX COLL."

1. I know that my Re-deem-er lives; He lives who once was dead;
To me in grief he com-fort gives; With peace he crowns my head.

461

- 2 He lives, triumphant o'er the grave,
At God's right hand on high,
My ransomed soul to keep and save,
To bless and glorify.
- 3 He lives to fill my breast with love,
With joy my heart to feed;
He lives to plead for me above,
To succor me in need.
- 4 He lives that I may also live,
And now his grace proclaim;
He lives that I may honor give
To his most holy name.
- 5 Let strains of heavenly music rise,
While all their anthem sing
To Christ, my precious sacrifice,
And ever-living King.

462

- 1 THERE is a name I love to hear,
I love to speak its worth:
It sounds like music in mine ear,
The sweetest name on earth.
- 2 It tells me of a Saviour's love,
Who died to set me free;
It tells me of his precious blood,
The sinner's perfect plea.
- 3 Jesus! the name I love so well
The name I love to hear!

- No saint on earth its worth can tell,
No heart conceive how dear.
- 4 This name shall shed its fragrance still Along life's thorny road,
Shall sweetly smooth the rugged hill
That leads me up to God.
- 5 And there, with all the blood-bought throng,
From sin and sorrow free,
I'll sing the new eternal song
Of Jesus' love for me.

WHITFIELD.

463

- 1 THOU dear Redeemer, dying Lamb,
We love to hear of thee;
No music 's like thy charming name,
Nor half so sweet can be.
- 2 Oh may we ever hear thy voice,
In mercy to us speak;
And in our Priest we will rejoice,
Thou great Melchisedec.
- 3 Our Saviour shall be still our theme,
While in this world we stay;
We'll sing our Jesus' lovely name,
When all things else decay.
- 4 When we appear in yonder cloud,
With all the favored throng,
Then will we sing more sweet, more loud,
And Christ shall be our song.

I. O Je - sus, when I think of thee, Thy man - ger, cross, and throne,
My spir - it trusts ex - ult - ing - ly In thee, and thee a - lone.

464

- 2 I see thee in thy weakness first ;
Then, glorious from thy shame
I see thee death's strong fetters burst,
And reach heaven's mightiest name.
- 3 In all, a brother's love I trace
By power divine exprest ;
One in thy Father's dear embrace,
And on thy mother's breast.
- 4 For me thou didst become a man,
For me didst weep and die ;
For me achieve thy wondrous plan,
For me ascend on high.
- 5 Oh let me share thy holy birth,
Thy faith, thy death to sin !
And, strong amidst the toils of earth,
My heavenly life begin. BETHUNE.

465

- 1 JESUS ! I love thy charming name,
'Tis music to mine ear ;
Fain would I sound it out so loud,
That earth and heaven should hear.
- 2 Yes !—thou art precious to my soul,
My transport and my trust ;
Jewels, to thee, are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.
- 3 All my capacious powers can wish,
In thee doth richly meet ;

Nor to mine eyes is light so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.

- 4 Thy grace still dwells upon heart,
And sheds its fragrance there ;—
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.
- 5 I'll speak the honors of thy name,
With my last laboring breath ;
Then, speechless, clasp thee in mine arms,
The Conqueror of death.

DODDRIDGE.

466

- 1 O JESUS, thou the beauty art
Of angel-worlds above ;
Thy name is music to the heart,
Enchanting it with love.
- 2 O Jesus, Saviour, hear the sighs
Which unto thee I send ;
To thee my inmost spirit cries,
My being's hope and end.
- 3 Stay with us, Lord, and with thy light
Illume the soul's abyss ;
Scatter the darkness of our night,
And fill the world with bliss.
- 4 O Jesus, King of earth and heaven,
Our life and joy, to thee
Be honor, thanks, and blessing given
Through all eternity ! BERNARD.

GRIGGS. C. M.

J. GRIGGS.

1. Plunged in a gulf of dark despair, We wretched sinners lay,
 Without one cheerful beam of hope, Or spark of glimmering day.

467

- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
 Beheld our helpless grief;
 He saw, and, oh amazing love!
 He ran to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above
 With joyful haste he fled,
 Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
 And dwelt among the dead.
- 4 He spoiled the powers of darkness
 thus,
 And brake our iron chains;
 Jesus has freed our captive souls
 From everlasting pains.
- 5 Oh! for this love let rocks and hills
 Their lasting silence break;
 And all harmonious human tongues
 The Saviour's praises speak.

WATTS.

468

- 1 JESUS, the very thought of thee,
 With sweetness fills my breast:
 But sweeter far thy face to see,
 And in thy presence rest.
- 2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can
 frame,
 Nor can the memory find
 A sweeter sound than thy blest name,
 O Saviour of mankind!

- 3 O Hope of every contrite heart!
 O Joy of all the meek!
 To those who fall, how kind thou art!
 How good to those who seek!
- 4 But what to those who find? Ah! this,
 Nor tongue nor pen can show,
 The love of Jesus, what it is,
 None but his loved ones know.
- 5 Jesus, our only joy be thou,
 As thou our prize wilt be;
 Jesus, be thou our glory now,
 And through eternity.

BERNARD.

469

- 1 MY soul doth magnify the Lord,
 My spirit doth rejoice
 In Him, my Saviour and my God,
 I hear his joyful voice.
- 2 I need not go abroad for joy,
 Who have a feast at home;
 My sighs are turned to happy songs;
 The Comforter is come.
- 3 Down from on high, the blessed Dove
 Is come into my breast,
 To witness God's eternal love:
 This is my heavenly feast.
- 4 Glory to God the Father be,
 Glory to God the Son,
 Glory to God the Holy Ghost,
 Glory to God alone.

1. How sweet the name of Je - sus sounds In a be - liev - er's ear!
It soothes his sor - rows, heals his wounds, And drives a - way his fear.

470

- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.
- 3 Jesus, my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,—
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.
- 4 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But, when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.
- 5 Till then I would thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death. NEWTON.

471

- 1 DEAREST of all the names above,
My Jesus and my God,
Who can resist thy heavenly love,
Or trifle with thy blood?
- 2 'Tis by the merits of thy death,
The Father smiles again;
'Tis by thine interceding breath,
The Spirit dwells with men.
- 3 Till God in human flesh I see,
My thoughts no comfort find;

The holy, just, and sacred Three
Are terrors to my mind.

- 4 But if Immanuel's face appear,
My hope, my joy begins;
His name forbids my slavish fear,
His grace removes my sins.
- 5 While Jews on their own law rely,
And Greeks of wisdom boast,
I love the Incarnate Mystery,
And there I fix my trust. WATTS.

472

- 1 To thee, my Shepherd, and my Lord,
A grateful song I'll raise;
Oh let the humblest of thy flock
Attempt to speak thy praise.
- 2 My life, my joy, my hope, I owe
To thine amazing love;
Ten thousand thousand comforts here,
And nobler bliss above.
- 3 To thee my trembling spirit flies,
With sin and grief oppress'd;
Thy gentle voice dispels my fears,
And lulls my cares to rest.
- 4 Lead on, dear Shepherd!—led by thee,
No evil shall I fear;
Soon shall I reach thy fold above,
And praise thee better there.

WESTERN MELODY.

1. There is a fount-ain filled with blood, Drawn from Im-man-uel's veins ;

And sin-ners, plunged be-neath that flood, Lose all their guilt-y stains, Fine.

Lose all their guilt-y stains,... Lose all their guilt-y stains, D. S.

473

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day ;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Wash'd all my sins away.

3 Dear dying Lamb ! thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransom'd Church of God,
Are saved, to sin no more.

4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be, till I die.

5 And when this feeble, stam'ring tongue
Lies silent in the grave,
Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save. COWPER.

474

- 2 No mortal can with him compare,
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is he than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.
- 3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
And flew to my relief;
For me he bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.
- 4 To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
And saves me from the grave.
- 5 To heaven, the place of his abode,
He brings my weary feet,
Shows me the glories of my God,
And makes my joys complete.
- 6 Since from his bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord, they should all be thine.

- 1 I've found the pearl of greatest price!
My heart doth sing for joy;
And sing I must, for Christ is mine!
Christ shall my song employ.
- 2 Christ is my Prophet, Priest, and King;
My Prophet full of light,
My great High-Priest before the throne,
My King of heavenly might.

- 3 Christ is my Peace; he died for me,
For me he gave his blood;
And as my wondrous Sacrifice,
Offered himself to God.

My Comfort and my Love;
My Life below, and he shall be
My Joy and Crown above.

- 1 I LOVE thee, O my God, and still
I ever will love thee,
Solely because my God thou art
Who first hast lovéd me.
- 2 For me, to lowest depths of woe
Thou didst thyself abase;
For me didst bear the cross, the shame,
And manifold disgrace:
- 3 For me didst suffer pains unknown,
Blood-sweat and agony,
Yea, death itself,—all, all for me,
For me, thine enemy.
- 4 Then shall I not, O Saviour mine,
Shall I not love thee well?
Not with the hope of winning heaven,
Nor of escaping hell:
- 5 Not with the hope of gaining aught,
Nor seeking a reward;
But as thyself hast lovéd me,
O everloving Lord!

- 1 ENTHRONED is Jesus now
Upon his heavenly seat ;
The kingly crown is on his brow,
The saints are at his feet.
- 2 In shining white they stand,—
A great and countless throng ;
A palmy sceptre in each hand,
On every lip a song.

- 3 They sing the Lamb of God,
Once slain on earth for them ;
The Lamb, through whose atoning
blood,
Each wears his diadem.
- 4 Thy grace, O Holy Ghost,
Thy blesséd help supply,
That we may join that radiant host,
Triumphant in the sky. JUDKIN.

Glad tidings, full of joy,
Flow from thy lips, the lips of truth,
And flow without alloy.

The bruised, the deaf, the blind,
The dumb, the dead, the captive wretch,
In thee compassion find.

To all the poor, the dumb, the deaf,
The dead, of Adam's race.

Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me :

- 3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds new lustre to the day.
- 4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified ;
Peace is there, that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.
- 5 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Tow'ring o'er the wrecks of time ;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

- 1 SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend ;
Life, and health, and peace possessing,
From the sinner's dying Friend.
- 2 Here I'll sit, forever viewing
Mercy streaming in his blood ;
Precious drops! my soul bedewing,
Plead and claim my peace with God.
- 3 Truly blessed is my station,
Low before his cross to lie ;

While I see divine compassion
Floating in his languid eye.

- 4 Here it is I find my heaven
While upon the cross I gaze ;
Love I much? I've much forgiven,
I'm a miracle of grace.
- 5 Love and grief my heart dividing,
With my tears his feet I'll bathe ;
Constant still in faith abiding,
Life deriving from his death.

Chanting at the crystal sea,
Hallelujah, hallelujah,
Hallelujah! Lord, to thee.

Like the stars in glory, stand
Clothed in white apparel, holding
Victor-palms in every hand.
- 3 They have come from tribulation,
And have washed their robes in blood,
Washed them in the blood of Jesus ;
Tried they were, and firm they stood.
- 4 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
Now they walk in golden light,
Now they drink, as from a river,
Holy bliss and infinite.

All gloom and doubt dispel ;
Give peace and joy, for we are thine ;
In us forever dwell.
- 3 From death to life our spirits raise ;
Complete redemption bring ;
New tongues impart to speak the praise

- 1 No track is on the sunny sky,
No footprints on the air ;
Jesus hath gone ; the face of earth
Is desolate and bare.
- 2 That Upper Room is heaven on earth,
Within its precincts lie
All that earth has of faith, or hope,
Or heaven-born charity.
- 3 One moment—and the silentness
Was breathless as the grave :
The fluttered earth forgot to quake,
The troubled trees to wave.
- 4 He comes ! he comes ! that mighty
Breath
From heaven's eternal shores ;
His uncreated freshness fills
His Bride, as she adores.
- 5 Earth quakes before that rushing blast,
Heaven echoes back the sound,
And mightily the tempest wheels
That Upper Room around.

O'er all with dread desire :
Then broke upon the heads of all
In cloven tongues of fire !

- 2 Enlightened by thy heavenly ray,
 Our shades and darkness turn to-day ;
 Thine inward teachings make us know
 Our danger, and our refuge too.
- 3 Thy power and glory work within,
 And break the chains of reigning sin ;
 All our imperious lusts subdue,
 And form our wretched hearts anew.
- 4 The troubled conscience knows thy voice ;
 Thy cheering words awake our joys ;
 Thy words allay the stormy wind,
 And calm the surges of the mind.

WATTS.

497

- 1 COME, O Creator Spirit blest !
 And in our souls take up thy rest ;
 Come, with thy grace and heavenly aid,
 To fill the hearts which thou hast made.
- 2 Great Comforter ! to thee we cry ;
 O highest Gift of God most high !
 O fount of life ! O fire of love !
 Send sweet anointing from above !
- 3 Kindle our senses from above,
 And make our hearts o'erflow with
 love ;
 With patience firm, and virtue high,
 The weakness of our flesh supply.

- 4 Far from us drive the foe we dread,
 And grant us thy true peace instead ;
 So shall we not, with thee for guide,
 Turn from the path of life aside.

- 1 THE Spirit, like a peaceful dove,
 Flies from the realms of noise and strife :
 Why should we vex and grieve his love,
 Who seals our souls to heavenly life !

 Through all our lives let mercy run ;
 So God forgives our numerous faults,
 Through grace abounding in the Son.

WATTS.

- 1 COME, bless'd Spirit ! source of light !
 Whose power and grace are uncon-

 Dispel the gloomy shades of night,—
 The thicker darkness of the mind.
- 2 To mine illumined eyes display
 The glorious truth thy word reveals ;
 Cause me to run the heavenly way,
 Thy book unfold, and loose the seals.

 Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad,
 To show the dangers of the way,
 And guide my feeble steps to God.

With ardent wish my heart aspires,—
Can it be less than power divine,

I love my God and taste his grace,—
Lord! is it not thy blissful ray,
That brings this dawn of sacred peace?

Sweet earnest of the joys above.

With light and comfort from above:
Be thou our guardian, thou our guide!
O'er every thought and step preside.

And make us know and choose thy

Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.

That we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from his precepts stray.

To be with him forever blest;

Lead us to heaven, its bliss to share—
Fulness of joy forever there! BROWNE.

502

- 1 COME, Holy Spirit, calm my mind,
And fit me to approach my God;
Remove each vain, each worldly thought,
And lead me to thy blest abode.
- 2 Hast thou imparted to my soul
A living spark of holy fire?
Oh kindle now the sacred flame,
Make me to burn with pure desire!
- 3 A brighter faith and hope impart,
And let me now my Saviour see;
Oh soothe and cheer my burden'd heart,
And bid my spirit rest in thee!

- 1 As when in silence, vernal showers
Descend, and cheer the fainting flowers,
So, in the secrecy of love,
Falls the sweet Spirit from above.

In holy silence of the mind,
While every grace maintains its bloom,
Diffusing wide its rich perfume.

To me, but poured on all mankind,
Till earth's wild wastes in verdure rise,
And a young Eden bless our eyes.

To seek that grace which now they scorn.

3 Oh ! let a holy flock await,
In crowds around thy temple-gate !
Each pressing on with zeal to be
A living sacrifice to thee.

4 In answer to our fervent cries,
Give us to see thy church arise ;
Or, if that blessing seem too great,
Give us to mourn its low estate.

1 WHEN God of old came down from
heaven,

In power and wrath he came ;
Before his feet the clouds were riven,
Half darkness and half flame :

2 But when he came the second time,
He came in power and love ;
Softer than gale at morning prime
Hovered his holy dove.

3 The fires, that rushed on Sinai down
In sudden torrents dread,
Now gently light, a glorious crown,
On every sainted head.

4 And as on Israel's awe-struck ear
The voice exceeding loud,
The trump, that angels quake to hear,
Thrill'd from the deep, dark cloud :

5 So, when the Spirit of our God
Came down his flock to find,
A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
A rushing, mighty wind.

6 He fills the church of God : he fills
The sinful world around ;
Only in stubborn hearts and wills
No place for him is found.

7 Come Lord, come Wisdom, Love and Open our ears to hear ; [Power,
Let us not miss th' accepted hour,
Save, Lord, by love or fear.

Revive the flame of heavenly love,
And feed the pure desire.

2 'Tis thine to soothe the sorrowing

With guilt and fear oppressed ;
'Tis thine to bid the dying live,
And give the weary rest.

3 Subdue the power of every sin,
Whate'er that sin may be,

May worship only thee.

4 Then with our spirits witness bear
That we are sons of God,
Redeemed from sin, from death and

Through Christ's atoning blood.

And make our hearts thy home;
Descend with all thy gracious power:
Come, Holy Spirit, come!
- 2 Come as the light: to us reveal
Our sinfulness and woe;
And lead us in those paths of life
Where all the righteous go.
- 3 Come as the fire, and purge our hearts
Like sacrificial flame:
Let our whole soul an offering be
To our Redeemer's name.
- 4 Come as the dew, and sweetly bless
This consecrated hour;

Shed richly on my fruitless soul
Thy fertilizing power.

And make the great salvation known
Wide as the human race.

Descend with all thy gracious power,

Subdues the power of sin,
Transforms the heart of stone to flesh,
And plants his grace within.

Applies redeeming blood,
Bids both our guilt and fear remove,
And brings us home to God.

- 2 Look ! how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys !
Our souls can neither fly nor go,
To reach eternal joys.
- 3 In vain we tune our formal songs ;
In vain we strive to rise ;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
- 4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
At this poor, dying rate,—
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,

Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours. WATTS.

Behold, thy servants wait ;
With longing eyes and lifted hands,

Thy Spirit from above,
To bless our eyes with sacred light,
And fire our hearts with love !
- 3 With speedy flight may he descend,
And solid comfort bring,

And o'er our languid souls extend
His all-reviving wing.

- 4 Blest earnest of eternal joy,
Declare our sins forgiven,
And bear, with energy divine,
Our raptured thoughts to heaven.

That earth its fruit may yield,
And change this barren wildness
To Carmel's flowery field.

And, when we tremble at thy frown,
Oh, bring thy comforts near !

And may the souls which thou hast taught
To weep, now learn to love.
- 3 Now let thy saving mercy heal
The wounds it made before ;

That we may doubt no more.

And make our darkness light,
That we a glorious race may run,
Till faith be lost in sight.

i. 'Tis God, the Spir - it leads In paths be - fore un - known ; The work to be per - formed is ours, The strength is all his own.

540

- 2 Supported by his grace,
We still pursue our way ;
And hope at last to reach the prize,
Secure in endless day.
- 3 'Tis he that works to will,
'Tis he that works to do ;
His is the power by which we act,
His be the glory too.

BEDDOME.

541

- i THE Comforter has come,
We feel his presence here,
Our hearts would now no longer roam,
But bow in filial fear.
- 2 This tenderness of love,
This hush of solemn power,—
'Tis heaven descending from above,
To fill this favored hour.
- 3 Earth's darkness all has fled,
Heaven's light serenely shines,
And every heart, divinely led,
To holy thought inclines.
- 4 No more let sin deceive,
Nor earthly cares betray,
Oh, let us never, never grieve
The Comforter away !

542

- i COME, Spirit, source of light,
Thy grace is unconfined ;

Dispel the gloomy shades of night,
The darkness of the mind.

- 2 Now to our eyes display
The truth thy words reveal ;
Cause us to run the heavenly way,
Delighting in thy will.
- 3 Thy teachings make us know
The mysteries of thy love,
The vanity of things below,
The joy of things above.
- 4 While through this maze we stray,
Oh, spread thy beams abroad !
Disclose the dangers of the way,
And guide our steps to God.

BEDDOME.

543

- i COME, Holy Spirit, come,
With energy divine ;
And on this poor benighted soul
With beams of mercy shine.
- 2 Oh ! melt this frozen heart ;
This stubborn will subdue ;
Each evil passion overcome,
And form me all anew.
- 3 Mine will the profit be,
But thine shall be the praise ;
And unto thee will I devote
The remnant of my days.

1. Gra-cious Spir - it, Love di - vine! Let thy light with - in me shine;

All my guilt - y fears re - move, Fill me full of heaven and love.

544

- 2 Speak thy pardoning grace to me,
Set the burdened sinner free;
Lead me to the Lamb of God,
Wash me in his precious blood.
- 3 Life and peace to me impart,
Seal salvation on my heart;
Breathe thyself into my breast,—
Earnest of immortal rest.
- 4 Let me never from thee stray,
Keep me in the narrow way;
Fill my soul with joy divine,
Keep me, Lord! forever thine.

STOCKER.

545

- 1 HOLY Spirit! Lord of light!
From thy clear celestial height,
Come, thou Light of all that live!
Thy pure beaming radiance give!
- 2 Come, thou hope of all the poor!
Come with treasures which endure;
Thou, of all consolers best,
Visiting the troubled breast.
- 3 Thou in toil art comfort sweet;
Pleasant coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe;
Dost refreshing peace bestow.
- 4 Light immortal! light divine!
Visit thou these hearts of thine;

If thou take thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay.

- 5 Heal our wounds—our strength renew;
On our dryness pour thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away;
Guide the steps that go astray.
- 6 Give us comfort when we die;
Give us life with thee on high;
In thy gracious gifts descend;
Give us joys which never end.

Tr. E. CASWALL.

546

- 1 HOLY Ghost! with light divine,
Shine upon this heart of mine;
Chase the shades of night away,
Turn my darkness into day.
- 2 Holy Ghost! with power divine,
Cleanse this guilty heart of mine;
Long hath sin, without control,
Held dominion o'er my soul.
- 3 Holy Ghost! with joy divine,
Cheer this saddened heart of mine;
Bid my many woes depart,
Heal my wounded, bleeding heart.
- 4 Holy Spirit! all-divine,
Dwell within this heart of mine;
Cast down every idol-throne,
Reign supreme—and reign alone.

- 2 When around my sinking soul
Gathering waves of sorrow roll,
Spirit blest, the tempest still,
And with hope my bosom fill.
- 3 Holy Spirit, from my mind
Thought and wish and will unkind,
Deed and word unkind remove,
And my bosom fill with love.
- 4 Faith, and Hope, and Charity,
Comforter, descend from thee ;
Thou the Anointing Spirit art,
These thy gifts to us impart.
- 5 Till our faith be lost in sight,
Hope be swallowed in delight,
And love return to dwell with thee,
In the threefold Deity !

RICHARD MANT.

548

- 1 HOLY Spirit, from on high,
Bend o'er us a pitying eye ;
Now refresh the drooping heart ;
Bid the power of sin depart.
- 2 Light up every dark recess
Of our heart's ungodliness ;
Show us every devious way
Where our steps have gone astray.

- 3 Teach us, with repentant grief,
Humbly to implore relief ;
Then the Saviour's blood reveal,
And our broken spirits heal.
- 4 May we daily grow in grace,
And pursue the heavenly race,
Trained in wisdom, led by love,
Till we reach our rest above. BATHURST.

549

- 1 HOLY Spirit, source of light,
We invoke thy kindling ray :
Dawn upon our spirit's night,
Turn our darkness into day.
- 2 To the anxious soul impart
Hope, all other hopes above ;
Stir the dull and hardened heart
With a longing and a love.
- 3 Give the struggling peace for strife,
Give the doubting light for gloom ;
Speed the living into life,
Warn the dying of their doom.
- 4 Work in all, in all renew,
Day by day, the life divine ;
All our wills to thee subdue,
All our hearts to thee incline.

WARNING AND INVITATION.

HAVEN. L. M.

1. Why will ye waste on tri - fling cares That life which God's compassion spares,

While, in the va - rious range of thought, The one thing needful is for - got?

550

- 2 Shall God invite you from above?
Shall Jesus urge his dying love?
Shall troubled conscience give you pain?
And all these pleas unite in vain?
- 3 Not so your eyes will always view
Those objects which you now pursue;
Not so will heaven and hell appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.
- 4 Almighty God, thy grace impart;
Fix deep conviction on each heart;
Nor let us waste on trifling cares
That life which thy compassion spares.

DODDRIDGE.

551

- 1 MAN has a soul of vast desires;
He burns within with restless fires;
Tossed to and fro, his passions fly
From vanity to vanity.
- 2 In vain on earth we hope to find
Some solid good to fill the mind;
We try new pleasures, but we feel
The inward thirst and torment still.
- 3 Great God, subdue this vicious thirst,
This love to vanity and dust;
Cure the wild fever of the mind,
And feed our souls with joys refined.

WATTS.

552

- 1 NOT to condemn the sons of men,
Did Christ, the Son of God, appear:
No weapons in his hands are seen,
No flaming sword nor thunder there.
- 2 Such was the pity of our God,
He loved the race of man so well,
He sent his Son to bear our load
Of sins, and save our souls from hell.
- 3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word;
Trust in his mighty name, and live;
A thousand joys his lips afford,
His hands a thousand blessings give.

WATTS.

553

- 1 COME, weary souls, with sins distressed,
Come, and accept the promised rest;
The Saviour's gracious call obey,
And cast your gloomy fears away.
- 2 Oppressed with guilt—a painful load—
Oh, come and bow before your God!
Divine compassion, mighty love
Will all that painful load remove.
- 3 Here mercy's boundless ocean flows,
To cleanse your guilt and heal your woes;
Pardon, and life, and endless peace—
How rich the gift, how free the grace!

- 2 "Deny thyself and take thy cross,"—
Is the Redeemer's great command :
Nature must count her gold but dross,
If she would gain this heavenly land.
- 3 The fearful soul that tires and faints,
And walks the ways of God no more,
Is but esteemed almost a saint,

- 1 ETERNITY is just at hand !
And shall I waste my ebbing sand,
And careless view departing day,
And throw my inch of time away ?
- 2 Eternity !—tremendous sound !
To guilty souls a dreadful wound ;
But oh, if Christ and heaven be mine,
How sweet the accents ! how divine !
- 3 What countless millions of mankind
Have left this fleeting world behind !
They're gone ! but where ?—ah, pause
Gone to a long eternity. [and see !

In all the fiery deeps of hell ?
Has death no warning sound for thee ?
Oh ! turn, and to the Saviour flee.

Soon will the mighty Judge approach ;

This is the summons which he sends—
"Awake ! for on this passing hour
Thy long eternity depends."

HIGGINBOTHAM,

Mark well, O man, Eternity !
Eternity ! Eternity !

COXE, FROM THE GERMAN

- 1 BEHOLD the path that mortals tread
Down to the regions of the dead !
Nor will the fleeting moments stay,

Feeble as theirs, my mortal frame,
The same my way, my house the same.

1. While life prolongs its pre-cious light, Mer-cy is found, and peace is given;
But soon, ah! soon, ap-proaching night Shall blot out ev-ery hope of heaven.

561

2 While God invites, how blest the day!
How sweet the gospel's charming
sound!

Come, sinners, haste, oh, haste away,
While yet a pardoning God he's found.

3 Soon, borne on time's most rapid wing.
Shall death command you to the grave,
Before his bar your spirits bring,
And none be found to hear or save.

4 In that lone land of deep despair
No Sabbath's heavenly light shall rise;
No God regard your bitter prayer,
Nor Saviour call you to the skies.

5 Now God invites—how blest the day!
How sweet the gospel's charming
sound!

Come, sinners, haste, oh, haste away,
While yet a pardoning God is found.

DWIGHT.

562

1 THAT day of wrath, that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass
away,

What power shall be the sinner's stay?
How shall he meet that dreadful day?

2 When, shriveling like a parched scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll;
When, louder yet, and yet more dread,
Swells the high trump that wakes the
dead;

3 Oh, on that day, that dreadful day,
When man to judgment wakes from clay,
Be thou, O Christ, the sinner's stay,
Tho' heaven and earth shall pass away.

SIR WALTER SCOTT.

563

1 RETURN, O wanderer, return,
And seek thine injured Father's face;
Those new desires that in thee burn,
Were kindled by reclaiming grace.

2 Return, O wanderer, return,
And seek a Father's melting heart;
His pitying eyes thy grief discern,
His heavenly balm shall heal thy smart.

3 Return, O wanderer, return,
Thy dying Saviour bids thee live;
Go, view his bleeding side, and learn
How freely Jesus can forgive. COLLYER.

564

1 SINNER, oh, why so thoughtless grown!
Why in such dreadful haste to die!
Daring to leap to worlds unknown,
Heedless against thy God to fly?

2 Wilt thou despise eternal fate,
Urged on by sin's fantastic dreams?
Madly attempt th' infernal gate
And force thy passage to the flames?

3 Stay, sinner! on the Gospel plains,
Behold the God of love unfold
The glories of his dying pains,
For ever telling, yet untold.

Poor sin-ner, har - den not thy heart : Thou wouldst be saved ; why not to - night ?

565

- 2 To-morrow's sun may never rise
To bless thy long deluded sight ;
This is the time ; oh, then be wise !
Thou wouldst be saved ; why not tonight ?
- 3 Our God in pity lingers still ;
And wilt thou thus his love requite ?
Renounce at length thy stubborn will :
Thou wouldst be saved ; why not to-
night ?
- 4 The world has nothing left to give—
It has no new, no pure delight ;
Oh ! try the life which Christians live ;
Thou wouldst be saved ; why not to-
night ?
- 5 Our blessed Lord refuses none
Who would to him their souls unite ;
Then be the work of grace begun !
Thou wouldst be saved ; why not tonight ?

566

- 1 If thou dost truly seek to live
With all the joys that life can give ;
If thy young feet would gladly press
The ways of peace and happiness ;
- 2 Go thou, with fresh and fervent love,
To him who dwells in light above,

Who sees ten thousand sons obey
Yet listens when the lowly pray.

- 3 Cling thou to Jesus faithfully,
As vines embrace their guardian tree ;
Nor fail in this thy day of youth
To find the Way, the Life, the Truth ;
- 4 And thou shalt breathe in this low
world,
An eagle chained, with wings unfurled,
Prepared, when once thy bonds are ripen,
To soar away, and flee to heaven.

LYONS.

567

- 1 Now, in the heat of youthful blood,
Remember your Creator, God ;
Behold ! the months come hastening on,
When you shall say, "My joys are

- 2 Behold ! the aged sinner goes,
Laden with guilt and heavy woes,
Down to the regions of the dead,
With endless curses on his head.
- 3 Eternal King ! I fear thy name ;
Teach me to know how frail I am ;
And when my soul must hence remove,
Give me a mansion in thy love.

1. Say, sin-ner, hath a voice with - in Oft whispered to thy se - cret soul,
Urged thee to leave the ways of sin, And yield thy heart to God's con - trol?

568

- 2 Hath something met thee in the path
Of worldliness and vanity,
And pointed to the coming wrath,
And warn'd thee from that wrath to flee?
- 3 Sinner, it was a heavenly voice,
It was the Spirit's gracious call;
It bade thee make the better choice,
And haste to seek in Christ thine all.
- 4 Spurn not the call to life and light;
Regard in time the warning kind;
That call thou mayest not always slight,
And yet the gate of mercy find.
- 5 God's Spirit will not always strive
With hardened, self-destroying man;
Ye who persist his love to grieve,
May never hear his voice again.
- 6 Sinner, perhaps this very day
Thy last accepted time may be;
Oh, shouldst thou grieve him now
away,
Then hope may never beam on thee.

HYDE.

569

- 1 "COME, take my yoke," the Saviour said,
"To follow me be not afraid;
For I in heart am lowly, meek,
And offer you the rest you seek.

- 2 "The yoke of pleasure may allure,
And promise bliss that will endure;
But when it has thy youth despoiled,
'Twill cast thee off as garment soiled.
- 3 "Take not on thee the yoke of wealth;
'Twill eat thy soul, destroy thy health,
And make thee feel how cheap the cost
If worlds could buy the peace it lost!
- 4 "Ambition, too, its yoke displays,
And hangs out its perennial bays;
Be not, poor soul, by it misled;
I offer thee a crown instead.
- 5 "Then take my yoke: 'tis soft and light,
'Twill ne'er disturb thy rest at night,
But bring thee to that world above,
Where no restraint is known but love."

570

- 1 I HEAR a voice that comes from far;
From Calvary it sounds abroad;
It soothes my soul, and calms my fear;
It speaks of pardon bought with blood.
- 2 And is it true, that many fly
The sound that bids my soul rejoice;
And rather choose in sin to die,
Than turn an ear to mercy's voice!
- 3 Alas, for those!—the day is near,
When mercy will be heard no more;
Then will they ask in vain to hear
The voice they would not heed before.

Turn out his enemy and thine,
That soul-destroying monster, sin,

Can I his loving voice despise,
And basely his kind care repay?
He calls me still ; can I delay?

He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare his Spirit grieve?

SCOTTISH.

The musical score consists of two systems of music. Each system has a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are written below the treble clef staff.

1. See, in the vine - yard of the Lord, A bar - ren fig - tree stands ;
It yields no fruit, no blos - som bears, Though plant - ed by his hands.

581

- 2 From year to year the tree he views,
And still no fruit is found ;
Then "cut it down," the Lord com - mands,
"Why cumberers it the ground?"
3 But lo! the gracious Saviour pleads :
"The barren fig-tree spare,
Another year in mercy wait,
It yet may bloom and bear."

COTTERILL.

582

- 1 COME, sinner, to the gospel feast ;
Oh, come without delay !
For there is room in Jesus' breast
For all who will obey.
2 There's room in God's eternal love
To save thy precious soul ;
Room in the Spirit's grace above
To heal and make thee whole.
3 There's room within the church, re - deemed
With blood of Christ divine ;
Room in the white-robed throng, con - vened
For that dear soul of thine.
4 There's room in heaven among the choir,
And harps and crowns of gold,
And glorious palms of victory there,
And joys that ne'er were told.

HUNTINGDON.

583

- 1 YE hearts with youthful vigor warm,
In smiling crowds draw near,
And turn from every mortal charm,
A Saviour's voice to hear.
2 He, Lord of all the worlds on high,
Stoops to converse with you ;
And lays his radiant glories by,
Your friendship to pursue.
3 "The soul that longs to see my face,
Is sure my love to gain ;
And those that early seek my grace,
Shall never seek in vain." DODDRIDGE.

584

- 1 "REPENT!" the voice celestial cries ;
No longer dare delay :
The soul that scorns the mandate dies,
And meets a fiery day.
2 No more the sovereign eye of God
O'erlooks the crimes of men ;
His heralds now are sent abroad
To warn the world of sin.
3 O sinners, in his presence bow,
And all your guilt confess ;
Accept the offered Saviour now,
Nor trifle with his grace.
4 Soon will the awful trumpet sound,
And call you to his bar ;
His mercy knows th' appointed bound,
And yields to justice there.

HEBER. C. M.

GEORGE KINGSLEY.

1. By cool Si - lo - am's sha - dy rill, How fair the lil - y grows!
How sweet the breath, be - neath the hill, Of Sha - ron's dew - y rose!

585

- 2 Lo! such the youth, whose early feet
The paths of peace have trod—
Whose secret heart, with influence
sweet,
Is upward drawn to God.
- 3 By cool Siloam's shady rill,
The lily must decay ;
The rose, that blooms beneath the hill,
Must shortly fade away.
- 4 And soon, too soon, the wintry hour,
Of man's maturer age,
May shake the soul with sorrow's
power,
And stormy passion's rage.
- 5 O thou, whose infancy was found,
With heavenly rays to shine,—
Whose years, with changeless virtue crowned,
Were all alike divine,—
- 6 Dependent on thy bounteous breath,
We seek thy grace alone,
In childhood, manhood, and in death,
To keep us still thine own. HEBER.

586

- 1 REMEMBER thy Creator now,
In these thy youthful days ;
He will accept thine earliest vow,
And listen to thy praise.

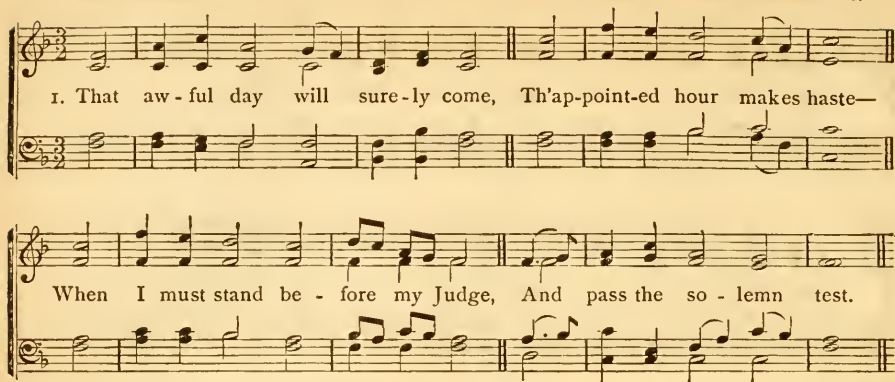

- 2 Remember thy Creator now,
Seek him while he is near ;
For evil days will come, when thou
Shalt find no comfort here.
- 3 Remember thy Creator now ;
His willing servant be :
Then, when thy head in death shall bow,
He will remember thee.

587

- 1 IN the bright morn of life, when youth
With vital ardor glows,
And shines in all the fairest charms
That beauty can disclose,
- 2 Deep in thy soul, before its powers
Are yet by vice enslaved,
Be thy Creator's glorious name
And character engraved :
- 3 Ere yet the shades of sorrow cloud
The sunshine of thy days ;
And cares, and toils, in endless round
Encompass all thy ways :
- 4 Ere yet thy heart the woes of age
With vain regret deplore,
And sadly muse on former joys,
That now return no more.
- 5 True wisdom, early sought and gained,
In age will give thee rest ;
Oh then, improve the morn of life,
To make its evening blest !

DUNLAP'S CREEK. C. M.

WESTERN MELODY.

1. That aw-ful day will sure-ly come, Th'ap-point-ed hour makes haste—
When I must stand be-fore my Judge, And pass the so-lemn test.

588

- 2 Thou lovely Chief of all my joys,
Thou Sovereign of my heart,
How could I bear to hear thy voice
Pronounce the sound "Depart!"
- 3 The thunder of that dismal word
Would so distress my ear,
'Twould tear my soul asunder, Lord,
With most tormenting fear.
- 4 Oh, wretched state of deep despair,
To see my God remove—
And fix my doleful station where
I must not taste his love!
- 5 Jesus, I throw my arms around,
And hang upon thy breast,
Without a gracious smile from thee,
My spirit cannot rest.
- 6 Oh! tell me that my worthless name
Is graven on thy hands;
Show me some promise in thy book,
Where my salvation stands. WATTS.

589

- 1 The day approacheth, O my soul,
The great decisive day,
Which from the verge of mortal life,
Shall bear thee far away.
- 2 Another day, more awful, dawns;
And lo, the Judge appears;

- Ye heavens, retire before his face,
And sink, ye darkened stars.
- 3 Yet does one short, preparing hour,
One precious hour remain;
Rouse thee, my soul, with all thy power,
Nor let it pass in vain.
- 4 For this, thy temple, Lord, we throng,
For this, thy board surround;
Here may our service be approved,
And in thy presence crowned.

DODDRIDGE.

590

- 1 COME to the ark, come to the ark;
To Jesus come away:
The pestilence walks forth by night,
The arrow flies by day.
- 2 Come to the ark: the waters rise,
The seas their billows rear;
While darkness gathers o'er the skies,
Behold a refuge near!
- 3 Come to the ark, all, all that weep
Beneath the sense of sin:
Without, deep calleth unto deep,
But all is peace within.
- 4 Come to the ark, ere yet the flood
Your lingering steps oppose;
Come, for the door which open stood
Is now about to close.

WARWICK. C. M.

STANLEY.

1. Vain man, thy fond pur - suits for - bear, Re - pent, thy end is nigh !
 Death, at the far - thest, can't be far— Oh, think be - fore thou die !

591

- 2 Reflect—thou hast a soul to save :
 Thy sins, how high they mount !
 What are thy hopes beyond the grave ?
 How stands that dread account ?
- 3 Death enters, and there's no defence ;
 His time, there's none can tell :
 He'll in a moment call thee hence,
 To heaven, or to hell !
- 4 To-day the gospel call obey :
 Oh, hear ; it speaks to you !
 This moment, then, forsake your way,
 And mercy will ensue. HART.

592

- 1 SINNER, the voice of God regard ;
 His mercy pleads to-day ;
 He calls you, by his sovereign word,
 From sin's destructive way.
- 2 Like the rough sea, that cannot rest
 You live devoid of peace ;
 A thousand stings within your breast
 Deprive your soul of ease.
- 3 Why will you in the crooked ways
 Of sin and folly go ?
 In pain you travel all your days,
 To reap immortal woe.
- 4 But he who turns to God shall live,
 Through his abounding grace ;
 His mercy will the guilt forgive
 Of those who seek his face.

- 5 Bow to the sceptre of his word,
 Renouncing every sin ;
 Submit to him, your sovereign Lord,
 And learn his will divine.
- 6 His love exceeds your highest thoughts,
 He pardons like a God ;
 He will forgive your numerous faults
 Through our Redeemer's blood.

FAWCETT.

593

- 1 How short and hasty is our life !
 How vast our soul's affairs !
 Yet senseless mortals vainly strive
 To lavish out their years.
- 2 Our days run thoughtlessly along,
 Without a moment's stay ;
 Just like a story, or a song,
 We pass our lives away.
- 3 God from on high invites us home,
 But we march heedless on,
 And, ever hastening to the tomb,
 Stoop downward as we run.
- 4 How we deserve the deepest hell,
 Who slight the joys above ! [feel,
 What chains of vengeance should we
 Who break such cords of love !
- 5 Draw us, O God ! with sovereign grace,
 And lift our thoughts on high,
 That we may end this mortal race,
 And see salvation nigh. WATTS.

RETURN. C. M.

T. HASTINGS.

1. Re-turn, O wand'rer, to thy home, Thy Fa-ther calls for thee; No long-er now an ex-ile roam In guilt and mis-e-ry. Re-turn, re-turn!

CODA. p

594

2 Return, O wand'rer, to thy home,
'Tis Jesus calls for thee;
The Spirit and the Bride say—come;
Oh! now for refuge flee;
Return, return!

3 Return, O wand'rer, to thy home,
'Tis madness to delay;
There are no pardons in the tomb,
And brief is mercy's day:
Return, return!

PASSING AWAY. L. M.

1. { To-day, if you will hear his voice, Now is the time to make your choice; } { Say, will you to Mount Zi-on go? Say, will you have this Christ, or no? } We are passing a-way, We are passing a-way, We are passing away, To the great Judgment-day.

595

2 Ye wandering souls, who find no rest,
Say, will you be forever blest?
Will you be saved from sin and hell?
Will you with Christ in glory dwell?

3 Come now, dear youth, for ruin bound,
Obey the Gospel's joyful sound:

Come, go with us, and you shall prove
The joy of Christ's redeeming love.

4 Once more we ask you, in his name,
For yet his love remains the same,
Say, will you to Mount Zion go?
Say, will you have this Christ, or no?

MILLER.

OLNEY. S. M.

L. MASON.

1. The Spi - rit, in our hearts, Is whis-pering, "Sin - ner, come !"

The bride, the church of Christ, proclaims, To all his chil-dren, "Come !"

596

- 2 Let him that heareth say
To all about him, "Come !"
Let him that thirsts for righteousness,
To Christ, the fountain, come !
- 3 Yes, whosoever will,
Oh let him freely come,
And freely drink the stream of life ;
'Tis Jesus bids him come.
- 4 Lo ! Jesus, who invites,
Declares, " I quickly come ;"
Lord, even so ! we wait thine hour ;
O blest Redeemer, come !

H. U. ONDERDONK.

597

- 1 YE trembling captives ! hear ;
The gospel-trumpet sounds ;
No music more can charm the ear,
Or heal your heart-felt wounds.
- 2 'Tis not the trump of war,
Nor Sinai's awful roar ;
Salvation's news it spreads afar,
And vengeance is no more.
- 3 Forgiveness, love, and peace,
Glad heaven aloud proclaims ;
And earth, the jubilee's release,
With eager rapture claims.
- 4 Far, far to distant lands
The saving news shall spread ;
And Jesus all his willing bands,
In glorious triumph lead.

T. BOYCE.

598

- 1 COME to the land of peace,
From shadows come away,
Where all the sounds of weeping cease,
And storms no more have sway.
- 2 Fear hath no dwelling here ;
But pure repose and love
Breathe through the bright, celestial air,
The spirit of the dove.
- 3 Come to the bright and blest,
Gathered from every land ;
For here thy soul shall find its rest,
Amidst the shining band.

BRIGGS' COLL.

599

- 1 Now is th' accepted time ;
Now is the day of grace ;
Now, sinners, come, without delay,
And seek the Saviour's face.
- 2 Now is th' accepted time ;
The Saviour calls to-day ;
To-morrow it may be too late ;
Then why should you delay ?
- 3 Now is th' accepted time ;
The gospel bids you come,
And every promise in his word
Declares there yet is room.
- 4 Lord, draw reluctant souls,
And feast them with thy love ;
Then will the angels swiftly fly
To bear the news above.

DOBELL.

PADDINGTON. S. M.

The musical score consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef, 2/4 time) and a piano accompaniment (bass clef, 2/4 time). The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The lyrics are: "1. Be - hold, the day is come; The right - eous Judge is near; And sin - ners, trem - bling at their doom, Shall soon their sen - tence hear."

600

- 2 Angels, in bright attire,
Conduct him through the skies;
Darkness and tempest, smoke and fire
Attend him as he flies.
- 3 How awful is the sight!
How loud the thunders roar!
The sun forbears to give his light,
And stars are seen no more.
- 4 The whole creation groans;
But saints arise and sing:
They are the ransomed of the Lord,
And he their God and King.

BEDDOME.

601

- 1 AND canst thou, sinner, slight
The call of love divine?
Shall God with tenderness invite,
And gain no thought of thine?
- 2 Wilt thou not cease to grieve
The Spirit from thy breast,
Till he thy wretched soul shall leave
With all thy sins opprest?
- 3 To-day, a pardoning God
Will hear the suppliant pray;
To-day, a Saviour's cleansing blood
Will wash thy guilt away.
- 4 But grace, so dearly bought,
If yet thou wilt despise, [fraught,
Thy fearful doom, with vengeance
Will fill thee with surprise.

HYDE.

602

- 1 YE sinners, fear the Lord,
While yet 'tis called to-day;
Soon will the awful voice of death
Command your souls away.
- 2 Soon will the harvest close,
The summer soon be o'er;
O sinners, then your injured God
Will heed your cries no more.
- 3 Then, while 'tis called to-day,
Oh, hear the gospel's sound;
Come, sinners, haste, oh, haste away,
While pardon may be found.

DWIGHT.

603

- 1 AND will the Judge descend,
And must the dead arise,
And not a single soul escape
His all-discerning eyes?
- 2 How will my heart endure
The terrors of that day,
When earth and heaven before his face
Astonished shrink away?
- 3 But, ere the trumpet shakes
The mansions of the dead,
Hark! from the Gospel's cheering sound
What joyful tidings spread!
- 4 Ye sinners! seek his grace
Whose wrath ye cannot bear;
Fly to the shelter of his cross,
And find salvation there.

DODDRIDGE.

GOLDEN HILL. S. M.

1. The swift - de - clin - ing day, How fast its mom - ents fly,

While eve - ning's broad and gloom - y shade Gains on the west - ern sky!

604

- 2 Ye mortals, mark its pace,
And use the hours of light ;
For know, its Maker can command
An instant, endless night.
- 3 Give glory to the Lord,
Who rules the rolling sphere ;
Submissive, at his footstool bow,
And seek salvation there.
- 4 Then shall new lustre break
Through all the heavy gloom,
And lead you to unchanging light,
In your celestial home. DODDRIDGE.

605

- 1 OH, where shall rest be found—
Rest for the weary soul ?
'Twere vain the ocean depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.
- 2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh :
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years ;
And all that life is love.

- 4 There is a death whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath :
Oh, what eternal horrors hang Around the second death !
- 5 Lord God of truth and grace,
Teach us that death to shun,
Lest we be banished from thy face,
And evermore undone. MONTGOMERY.

606

- 1 I SAW, beyond the tomb,
The awful Judge appear,
Prepar'd to scan, with strict account
My blessings wasted here.
- 2 His wrath, like flaming fire,
Burn'd to the lowest hell—
And in that hopeless world of woe
He bade my spirit dwell.
- 3 Ye sinners, fear the Lord,
While yet 'tis call'd to-day ;
Soon will the awful voice of death
Command your souls away.
- 4 Soon will the harvest close—
The summer soon be o'er—
And soon your injur'd, angry God
Will hear your prayers no more.

SPANISH HYMN. 7s. Double.

Fine.

I. { Pil - grim, burdened with thy sin, Come the way to Zi - on's gate ; }
 { There, till mer - cy speaks with - in, Knock, and weep, and watch, and wait : }
 d. c. Watch, for sav - ing grace is nigh ; Wait, till heavenly grace ap - pears.

D. C.

Knock—he knows the sin - ner's cry ; Weep—he loves the mourner's tears ;

607

2 Hark ! it is the Saviour's voice—
 "Welcome, pilgrim, to thy rest !"
 Now within the gate rejoice,
 Safe, and owned, and bought, and
 blest :

Safe, from all the lures of vice ;
 Owned, by joys the contrite know ;
 Bought by love, and life the price ;
 Blest, the mighty debt to owe.

3 Weary pilgrim ! what for thee
 In a world like this remains ?
 From thy guarded breast shall flee
 Fear, and shame, and doubts, and pains :

Fear, the hope of heaven shall fly,
 Shame, from glory's view retire ;
 Doubt, in full belief, shall die,
 Pain, in endless bliss, expire.

CRABBE.

608

1 WHEN thy mortal life is fled,
 When the death-shades o'er thee spread,
 When is finished thy career,
 Sinner, where wilt thou appear ?

2 When the world has passed away,
 When draws near the judgment day,
 When the awful trump shall sound,
 Say, oh, where wilt thou be found ?

3 When the Judge descends in light,
 Clothed in majesty and might,
 When the wicked quail with fear,
 Where, oh, where wilt thou appear ?

4 What shall soothe thy bursting heart,
 When the saints and thou must part ?
 When the good with joy are crowned,
 Sinner, where wilt thou be found ?

5 While the Holy Ghost is nigh,
 Quickly to the Saviour fly ;
 Then shall peace thy spirit cheer ;
 Then in heaven shalt thou appear.

S. F. SMITH.

609

1 SINNER, what has earth to show
 Like the joys believers know ?
 Is thy path, of fading flowers,
 Half so bright, so sweet, as ours ?
 Doth a skillful, healing friend
 On thy daily path attend,
 And, where thorns and stings abound,
 Shed a balm on every wound ?

2 When the tempest rolls on high,
 Hast thou still a refuge nigh ?
 Can, oh, can thy dying breath
 Summon one more strong than death ?
 Canst thou, in that awful day,
 Fearless tread the gloomy way,
 Plead a glorious ransom given,
 Burst from earth, and soar to heaven ?

MRS. C. E. TONNA.

PLEYEL'S HYMN, 7s.

PLEYEL.

1. Has - ten, sin - ner, to be wise; Stay not for the mor - row's sun:

Wis - dom, if you still de - spise, Hard - er is it to be won.

610

- 2 Hasten mercy to implore ;
Stay not for the morrow's sun ;
Lest thy season should be o'er,
Ere this evening's stage be run.
- 3 Hasten, sinner, to return ;
Stay not for the morrow's sun ;
Lest thy lamp should cease to burn,
Ere salvation's work is done.
- 4 Hasten, sinner, to be blest ;
Stay not for the morrow's sun ;
Lest perdition thee arrest,
Ere the morrow is begun. T. SCOTT.

611

- 1 SINNERS, turn ; why will ye die ?
God, your Maker, asks you why ;
God, who did your being give,
Made you with himself to live.
- 2 Sinners, turn ; why will ye die ?
God, your Saviour, asks you why ;
Will ye not in him believe ?
He has died that ye might live.
- 3 Will ye let him die in vain ?
Crucify your Lord again ?
Why, ye ransom'd sinners, why
Will ye slight his grace, and die ?

- 4 Sinners, turn ; why will ye die ?
God, the Spirit, asks you why—
He, who all your lives hath strove,
Wooed you to embrace his love.
- 5 Will ye not his grace receive ?
Will ye still refuse to live ?
Oh, ye dying sinners, why,
Why will ye forever die ? C. WESLEY.

612

- 1 SINNER, rouse thee from thy sleep ;
Wake, and o'er thy folly weep ;
Raise thy spirit, dark and dead ;
Jesus waits his light to shed.
- 2 Wake from sleep ; arise from death ;
See the bright and living path ;
Watchful, tread that path ; be wise ;
Leave thy folly, seek the skies.
- 3 Leave thy folly, cease from crime ;
From this hour redeem thy time ;
Life secure without delay ;
Evil is thy mortal day.
- 4 Oh, then, rouse thee from thy sleep !
Wake, and o'er thy folly weep ;
Jesus calls from death and night ;
Jesus waits to shed his light.

 Long hast born the proud world's scorn,
 Long hast roamed the barren waste,
 Weary wanderer, hither haste.

 Balm that flows for every wound!

1. { Day of judgment, day of wonders! Hark! the trum-pet's aw - ful sound, }
 { Loud-er than a thou-sand thunders, Shakes the vast cre - a - tion round: }

How the summons, How the summons Will the sin - ner's heart confound!

615

2 See the Judge, our nature wearing,
 Clothed in majesty divine:
 You who long for his appearing,
 Then shall say, "This God is mine:"
 Glorious Saviour!
 Own me in that day for thine.

3 At his call the dead awaken,
 Rise to life from earth and sea;
 All the powers of nature, shaken
 By his voice, prepare to flee:
 Careless sinner,
 What will then become of thee?

4 But to those who have confess'd,
 Loved and served the Lord below,
 He will say, "Come near, ye bless'd;
 See the kingdom I bestow:
 You forever
 Shall my love and glory know."

NEWTON.

616

1 To the ark away! or perish;
 Sinners, to the ark away!
 Vain the hope, that thousands cherish,
 Of deliverance in that day,
 When destruction
 Cometh, that no arm can stay.

2 Careless ones, be warned, and haste ye
 To the ark that open lies;

Why, oh, why, in folly waste ye
 Precious time that quickly flies?
 Soon your laughter
 Will be turned to bitter cries.

3 Hear the Lord himself invite you
 To his arms—a refuge sure;
 Oh, believe him, lest he smite you
 With a curse that none can cure!
 When he thunders,
 Who his anger can endure?

4 They are safe, and none besides them
 Who the Saviour's word obey;
 They are safe, for he will hide them,
 In the dark and dreadful day;
 They shall triumph,
 When the world has passed away.

1 SINNER, hear the melting story
 Of the Lamb that once was slain;
 'Tis the Lord of life and glory:
 Shall he plead with you in vain?
 Oh, receive him,
 And salvation now obtain!

2 All your sins to him confessing
 Who is ready to forgive,
 Seek the Saviour's richest blessing;
 On his precious name believe:
 He is waiting;
 Will you not his grace receive?

I. { See th'e-ter-nal Judge descending! View him seated on his throne!
Now, poor sinner, now lamenting, Stand, and hear thine awful doom: } Trumpets call thee,

Stand, and hear thine awful doom! Trumpets call thee, Stand, and hear thine awful doom.

618

- 2 Hear the cries he now is venting,
Fill'd with dread of fiercer pain;
While in anguish thus lamenting
That he ne'er was born again—
Greatly mourning
That he ne'er was born again:
- 3 "Yonder sits my slighted Saviour,
With the marks of dying love;
Oh that I had sought his favor,
When I felt his Spirit move—
Golden moments,
When I felt his Spirit move!"
- 4 Now, despisers, look and wonder!
Hope and sinners here must part;
Louder than a peal of thunder,
Hear the dreadful sound, "Depart!"
Lost for ever,
Hear the dreadful sound, "Depart!"

619

- 1 HEAR, O sinner! mercy hails you;
Now with sweetest voice she calls;
Bids you haste to seek the Saviour,
Ere the hand of justice falls:
Hear, O sinner!
'Tis the voice of mercy calls.
- 2 See! the storm of vengeance gathering
O'er the path you dare to tread!

- Hark! the awful thunder rolling
Loud and louder o'er your head!
Turn, O sinner!
Lest the lightning strike you dead.
- 3 Haste, O sinner! to the Saviour;
Seek his mercy while you may;
Soon the day of grace is over;—
Soon your life will pass away;
Haste, O sinner!
You must perish if you stay. REED.

620

- 1 HEAR the heralds of the Gospel
News from Zion's King proclaim:—
"To each rebel sinner pardon;
Free forgiveness in his name:"
Oh, what mercy!
"Free forgiveness in his name."
- 2 Sinners, will you scorn the message
Sent in mercy from above?
Every sentence, oh, how tender!
Every line is full of love:
Listen to it;
Every line is full of love.
- 3 Oh, ye angels, hovering round us,
Waiting spirits, speed your way;
Hasten to the court of heaven;
Tidings bear without delay;
Rebel sinners
Glad the message will obey. ALLEN.

1. When thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come To take thy ransomed people home, Shall

I among them stand? { Shall such a worthless worm as I, }
 { Who sometimes am afraid to die, } Be found at thy right hand?

621

- 2 I love to meet thy people now,
 Before thy feet with them to bow,
 Though vilest of them all ;
 But, can I bear the piercing thought,
 What if my name should be left out,
 When thou for them shalt call ?
- 3 O Lord, prevent it by thy grace,
 Be thou my only hiding-place,
 In this the accepted day ;
 Thy pardoning voice, oh, let me hear,
 To still my unbelieving fear,
 Nor let me fall, I pray.
- 4 Among thy saints let me be found,
 Whene'er the archangel's trump shall
 sound,
 To see thy smiling face ;
 Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,
 While heaven's resounding mansions ring
 With shouts of sovereign grace.

COUNTESS OF HUNTINGDON.

622

- 1 Lo ! on a narrow neck of land,
 'Twixt two unbounded seas, I stand,
 Secure ! insensible !

- A point of time, a moment's space,
 Removes me to that heavenly place,
 Or shuts me up in hell.
- 2 O God ! my inmost soul convert,
 And deeply on my thoughtful heart
 Eternal things impress ;
 Give me to feel their solemn weight,
 And tremble on the brink of fate,
 And wake to righteousness.
 - 3 Before me place, in dread array,
 The pomp of that tremendous day,
 When thou with clouds shalt come
 To judge the nations at thy bar ;
 And tell me, Lord ! shall I be there
 To meet a joyful doom ?
 - 4 Be this my one great business here,—
 With holy trembling, holy fear,
 To make my calling sure !
 Thine utmost counsel to fulfill,
 And suffer all thy righteous will,
 And to the end endure !
 - 5 Then, Saviour, then my soul receive,
 Transported from this earth, to live
 And reign with thee above ;
 Where faith is sweetly lost in sight,
 And hope, in full, supreme delight,
 And everlasting love.

And silence left to die,
With Christ's unfolding tomb,
Your portals open fly ;
Rise with your Lord ;—he sets you free ;
It is the year of Jubilee.

3 Ye, who yourselves have sold
For debts to Justice due,
Ransom'd, but not with gold,
He gave himself for you !
The blood of Christ hath made you free ;
It is the year of Jubilee.

4 Captives of sin and shame,
O'er earth and ocean, hear
An angel's voice proclaim
The Lord's accepted year :
Let Jacob rise, be Israel free ;
It is the year of Jubilee.

1 YE dying sons of men,—
Immerged in sin and woe,
The gospel's voice attend,
While Jesus sends to you :
Ye perishing and guilty, come,
In Jesus' arms there yet is room.

2 No longer now delay,
Nor vain excuses frame :
He bids you come to-day,
Though poor, and blind, and lame :
All things are ready ; sinners, come,
For every trembling soul there's room.

3 Compelled by bleeding love,
Ye wandering sheep, draw near ;
Christ calls you from above ;
His charming accents hear ;
Let whosoever will now come :
In mercy's breast there still is room.

2 Jesus, our great High Priest,
Hath full atonement made:
Ye weary spirits, rest;
Ye mournful souls, be glad;
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

3 Extol the Lamb of God,
The sin-atonng Lamb;
Redemption by his blood
Throughout the world proclaim:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

4 Ye slaves of sin and hell,
Your liberty receive,

And safe in Jesus dwell,
And blest in Jesus live:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

5 Ye who have sold for naught
Your heritage above,
Receive it back unbought,
The gift of Jesus' love:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

6 The Gospel trumpet hear,
The news of heavenly grace;
And, saved from earth, appear
Before your Saviour's face:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

Chorus.

D. C.

Turn to the Lord, and seek sal - va - tion, Sound the praise of his dear name ;

626

- 2 Now, ye needy, come and welcome,
 God's free bounty glorify ;
 True belief and true repentance,
 Every grace that brings you nigh.
- 3 Let not conscience make you linger,
 Nor of fitness fondly dream ;
 All the fitness he requireth,
 Is to feel your need of him.
- 4 Come, ye weary, heavy laden,
 Bruised and mangled by the fall,
 If you tarry till you 're better,
 You will never come at all.
- 5 Agonizing in the garden,
 Lo ! your Maker prostrate lies !
 On the bloody tree behold him—
 There he groans, and bleeds, and dies.
- 6 Lo ! th' Incarnate God ascending
 Pleads the merit of his blood ;
 Venture on him—venture wholly,
 Let no other trust intrude.

- 1 COME, ye sinners, heavy laden,
 Bruised and mangled by the fall,
 If you tarry till you 're better,
 You will never come at all ;
 Not the righteous,
 Sinners Jesus came to call.
- 2 Let no sense of guilt prevent you,
 Nor of fitness fondly dream ;
 All the fitness he requireth,
 Is to feel your need of him ;
 This he gives you—
 'Tis the Spirit's rising beam.
- 3 Agonizing in the garden,
 Lo, your Maker prostrate lies ;
 On the bloody tree behold him ;
 Hear him cry before he dies,
 " It is finished !"
 Sinners, will not this suffice ?
- 4 Lo ! th' Incarnate God ascended
 Pleads the merit of his blood ;
 Venture on him, venture wholly ;
 Let no other trust intrude ;
 None but Jesus
 Can do helpless sinners good.

HART.

EXPOSTULATION. 11s.

1. Oh, turn ye, oh, turn ye, for why will ye die, When God, in great mer-cy, is com-ing so nigh?

Now Je - sus in-vites you, the Spir - it says, Come, And an - gels are wait-ing to welcome you home.

628

- 2 How vain the delusion, that while you delay,
Your hearts may grow better ; your chains melt away !
Come guilty, come wretched, come just as you are ;
All helpless and dying, to Jesus repair.
- 3 Come, give us your hand, and the Saviour your heart ;
In him once united, we never shall part ;
Oh, how can we leave you ? why will you not come ?
We'll journey together, and soon be at home.

J. HOPKINS.

629

- 1 DELAY not, delay not, O sinner, draw near,
The waters of life are now flowing for thee ;
No price is demanded, the Saviour is here ;
Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.
- 2 Delay not, delay not, why longer abuse
The love and compassion of Jesus thy God ?
A fountain is open, how canst thou refuse
To wash and be cleansed in his pardoning blood ?
- 3 Delay not, delay not, the Spirit of grace
Long grieved and resisted may take his sad flight,
And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race,
To sink in the gloom of eternity's night.
- 4 Delay not, delay not, the hour is at hand,
The earth shall dissolve, and the heavens shall fade ;
The dead, small and great, in the judgment shall stand ;
What power then, O sinner, will lend thee its aid !

In rapture range the plains of light ;
And in one harmonious choir they praise
Their glorious Saviour's matchless grace.

WARNING. 12s & 8s.

1. When the harvest is past, and the summer is gone, And sermons and prayers shall be o'er,

When the beams cease to break of the blest Sabbath morn, And Jesus in-vites thee no more.

- 2 When the rich gales of mercy no longer shall blow,
The gospel no message declare,—
Sinner, how canst thou bear the deep wailing of woe,
How suffer the night of despair?
- 3 When the holy have gone to the regions of peace,
To dwell in the mansions above ;
When their harmony wakes, in the fulness of bliss,
Their song to the Saviour of love,—
- 4 Say, O sinner, now living at rest and secure,
And fearing no trouble to come,
Can thy spirit the swellings of sorrow endure,
Or bear the impenitent's doom?

i. To weary hearts, to mourning homes,
 God's meekest angel gently comes ;
 No power hath he to banish pain,
 Or give us back our lost again,
 And yet, in tenderest love, our dear

2 Angel of patience ! sent to calm
 Our feverish brows with cooling balm,
 To lay with hope the storms of fear,
 And reconcile life's smile and tear,

Go, while thy heart is light,
Go, ere thy strength declineth,
While every sense is bright:
Sell all thou hast and buy it;
'Tis worth all earthly things,—
Rubies, and gold, and diamonds,
Sceptres and crowns of kings!
- 3 Go, ere the cloud of sorrow
Steals o'er thy bloom of youth;
Defer not till to-morrow;
Go now, and buy the truth.
Go, seek thy great Creator;
Learn early to be wise;
Go, place upon the altar,
A morning sacrifice.

- 1 O JESUS, thou art standing
Outside the fast closed door,
In lowly patience waiting
To pass the threshold o'er:

Shame on us, guilty mortals,
Who can his favor share,
Oh, shame, thrice shame upon us,
To keep him standing there!

- 2 O Jesus, thou art knocking:
And lo! that hand is scarred,
And thorns thy brow encircle,
And tears thy face have marred:
Oh, love that passeth knowledge
So patiently to wait!
Oh, sin that hath no equal
So fast to bar the gate!

- 3 O Jesus, thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,
"I died for you, poor sinners,
And will ye treat me so?"
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door:
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us never more.

2 My crimes are great, but ne'er surpass
The power and glory of thy grace:
Great God, thy nature hath no bound,
So let thy pardoning love be found.

3 Oh, wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean!
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offences pain mine eyes.

4 My lips with shame my sins confess,
Against thy law, against thy grace;
Lord, should thy judgment grow severe,
I am condemned, but thou art clear.

5 Should sudden vengeance seize my
breath,

I must pronounce thee just in death;
And if my soul were sent to hell,
Thy righteous law approves it well.

6 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord!
Whose hope, still hovering round thy

Would light on some sweet promise

Some sure support against despair.

More full of grace than I of sin;

My fallen spirit to restore;
Oh, for thy truth and mercy's sake,
Forgive, and bid me sin no more!

Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,

I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood,
And they shall praise a pardoning God.

WARNER. L. M.

Arr. by KINGSLEY.

I. With brok-en heart and con-trite sigh, A trembling sin-ner, Lord, I cry;
Thy pardon-ing grace is rich and free: O God, be mer-ci-ful to me!

647

- 2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt op-
pressed ;
Christ and his cross my only plea :
O God, be merciful to me !
- 3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies ;
But thou dost all my anguish see :
O God, be merciful to me !
- 4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone ;
To Calvary alone I flee :
O God, be merciful to me !
- 5 And when redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God has been merciful to me !

C. ELVEN.

648

- 1 My sufferings all to thee are known,
Tempted in every point like me ;
Regard my grief, regard thine own :
Jesus, remember Calvary !
- 2 For whom didst thou the cross endure ?
Who nailed thy body to the tree ?
Did not thy death my life procure ?
Oh ! let thy mercy answer me.
- 3 Art thou not touched with human woe ?
Hath pity left the Son of Man ?

- Dost thou not all my sorrows know,
And claim a share in all my pain ?
4 Thou wilt not break a bruised reed,
Nor quench the smallest spark of grace,
Till through the soul thy power is spread,
Thy all-victorious righteousness.
- 5 The day of small and feeble things,
I know thou never wilt despise ;
I know, with healing in his wings,
The Sun of Righteousness shall rise.

C. WESLEY.

649

- 1 I LEFT the God of truth and light ;
I left the God who gave me breath,
To wander in the wilds of night,
And perish in the snares of death !
- 2 Sweet was his service, and his yoke
Was light and easy to be borne ;
Through all his bonds of love I broke ;
I cast away his gifts with scorn !
- 3 Heart-broken, friendless, poor, cast
down,
Where shall the chief of sinners fly,
Almighty Vengeance ! from thy frown,
Eternal Justice ! from thine eye ?
- 4 Lo ! through the gloom of guilty fears,
My faith discerns a dawn of grace :
The Sun of Righteousness appears
In Jesus' reconciling face !

1. When at thy foot-stool, Lord, I bend, And plead with thee for mer-cy there,

Think of the sin-ner's dy-ing Friend, And for his sake re-ceive my prayer.

650

- 2 Oh think not of my shame and guilt,
My thousand stains of deepest dye ;
Think of the blood which Jesus spilt,
And let that blood my pardon buy.
- 3 Oh think upon thy holy word,
And every plighted promise there ;
How prayer should evermore be heard,
And how thy glory is to spare.
- 4 Oh think not of my doubts and fears,
My strivings with thy grace divine ;
Think upon Jesus' woes and tears,
And let his merits stand for mine.
- 5 Thine eye, thine ear, they are not dull ;
Thine arm can never shortened be ;
Behold me here ; my heart is full ;
Behold, and spare, and succor me !

LYTTE.

651

- 1 OH ! that my load of sin were gone !
Oh ! that I could at last submit
At Jesus' feet to lay it down—
To lay my soul at Jesus' feet !
- 2 Rest for my soul I long to find :
Saviour of all, if mine thou art,
Give me thy meek and lowly mind,
And stamp thine image on my heart.
- 3 Break off the yoke of inbred sin,
And fully set my spirit free :

I cannot rest till pure within—
Till I am wholly lost in thee.

- 4 Fain would I learn of thee, my God ;
Thy light and easy burden prove ;—
The cross all stained with hallowed
blood,
The labor of thy dying love.
- 5 I would—but thou must give the power ;
My heart from every sin release ;
Bring near, bring near the joyful hour,
And fill me with thy perfect peace !

C. WESLEY.

652

- 1 OH ! where is now that glowing love
That marked our union with the Lord ?
Our hearts were fixed on things above,
Nor could the world a joy afford.
- 2 Where is the zeal that led us then
To make our Saviour's glory known ?
That freed us from the fear of men,
And kept our eye on him alone ?
- 3 Where are the happy seasons spent
In fellowship with him we loved ?
The sacred joy, the sweet content,
The blessedness that then we proved ?
- 4 Behold, again we turn to thee ;
Oh ! cast us not away, though vile ;
No peace we have, no joy we see,
O Lord our God, but in thy smile.

The new-born peace of sin forgiven!
Tears of such pure and deep delight,
Ye angels, never dimmed your sight.
- 3 Ye saw of old, on chaos rise
The beauteous pillars of the skies:
Ye know where morn exulting springs,
And evening folds her drooping wings.
- 4 Bright heralds of th' eternal will,
Abroad his errands ye fulfill;
Or, throned in floods of beamy day,
Symphonious, in his presence play.

Ye on your harps must lean to hear
A secret chord that mine will bear.

- 1 I THIRST, thou wounded Lamb of God,
To wash me in thy cleansing blood;
To dwell within thy wounds; then pain
Is sweet, and life or death is gain.
- 2 Take my poor heart, and let it be Forever closed to all but thee:
Seal thou my breast, and let me wear
That pledge of love forever there.

- 3 How blest are they who still abide
Close shelter'd in thy bleeding side!
Who thence their life and strength derive,
And by thee move, and in thee live.
- 4 What are our works but sin and death,
Till thou thy quick'ning Spirit breathe?
Thou giv'st the power thy grace to

O wondrous grace! O boundless love!

ZINZENDORF, tr. by J. WESLEY.

- 1 LORD, I am thine, entirely thine,
Purchased and saved by blood divine,
With full consent thine I would be,
And own thy sov'reign right in me.
- 2 Grant one poor sinner more a place
Among the children of thy grace;
A wretched sinner, lost to God,
But ransom'd by Immanuel's blood.
- 3 Thine would I live—thine would I die;
Be thine through all eternity;
The vow is past beyond repeal,
And now I set the solemn seal.
- 4 Here, at that cross where flows the
blood
That bought my guilty soul to God,—
Thee, my new Master, now I call,
And consecrate to thee my all.

Lost and undone, for aid I flee;
Weary of earth, myself, and sin,
Open thine arms and take me in.
- 2 Pity and save my ruined soul;
'Tis thou alone canst make me whole;

Dark, till in me thine image shine,
And lost I am, till thou art mine.

- 3 At last I own it cannot be
That I should fit myself for thee:
Here, then, to thee I all resign;
Thine is the work, and only thine.
- 4 What can I say thy grace to move?
Lord, I am sin—but thou art love:
I give up every plea beside,
Lord, I am lost,—but thou hast died!

C. WESLEY.

- 1 OH, for a glance of heavenly day,
To take this stubborn heart away;
And thaw, with beams of love divine,
This heart, this frozen heart of mine.
- 2 The rocks can rend; the earth can
quake;
The seas can roar; the mountains shake:
Of feeling, all things show some sign,
But this unfeeling heart of mine.
- 3 To hear the sorrows thou hast felt,
O Lord, an adamant would melt:
But I can read each moving line,
And nothing moves this heart of mine.
- 4 But Power Divine can do the deed;
And, Lord, that power I greatly need:
Thy Spirit can from dross refine,
And melt and change this heart of mine.

Oh, may we feel the sins we own, And hate what we de - plore.

659

- 2 Our contrite spirits, pitying, see ;
True penitence impart ;
And let a healing ray from thee
Beam hope on every heart.
- 3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
Oh, let our wills resign,
And not a thought our bosom share
Which is not wholly thine.
- 4 Let faith each meek petition fill,
And waft it to the skies,
And teach our hearts 'tis goodness, still,
That grants it, or denies.

- 1 JESUS, and didst thou condescend,
When veiled in human clay,
To heal the sick, the lame, the blind,
And drive disease away ?
- 2 Didst thou regard the beggar's cry,
And give the blind to see ?
Jesus, thou Son of David, hear—
Have mercy, too, on me.
- 3 And didst thou pity mortal woe,
And sight and health restore ?
Then pity, Lord, and save my soul,
Which needs thy mercy more.
- 4 Didst thou regard thy servant's cry,
When sinking in the wave ?

I perish, Lord—oh, save my soul,
For thou alone canst save. BRADLEY.

661

- 1 O THOU, whose tender mercy hears
Contrition's humble sigh ;
Whose hand, indulgent, wipes the tears
From sorrow's weeping eye.
- 2 See, low before thy throne of grace,
A wretched wanderer mourn ;
Hast thou not bid me seek thy face ?
Hast thou not said—"Return?"
- 3 And shall my guilty fears prevail
To drive me from thy feet ?
Oh, let not this dear refuge fail,
This only safe retreat !

STEELE.

662

- 1 DEAR Saviour, when my thoughts recall
The wonders of thy grace,
Low at thy feet, ashamed, I fall
And hide this wretched face.
- 2 Shall love like thine be thus repaid ?
Ah, vile, ungrateful heart !
By earth's low cares so oft betrayed
From Jesus to depart.
- 3 Oh, while I breathe to thee, my Lord,
The deep, repentant sigh,
Confirm the kind, forgiving word,
With pity in thine eye !

- 2 Thy promise is my only plea,
With this I venture nigh:
Thou callest burdened souls to thee,
And such, O Lord! am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely pressed;
By wars without, and fears within,
I come to thee for rest.
- 4 Be thou my shield and hiding-place,
That, sheltered near thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him—thou hast died.

To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead thy gracious name!

- 1 JESUS! thou art the sinner's Friend;
As such I look to thee;
Now in the fullness of thy love,
O Lord! remember me.
- 2 Remember thy pure word of grace—
Remember Calvary;
Remember all thy dying groans,
And then remember me.
- 3 Thou wondrous Advocate with God!
I yield myself to thee;
While thou art sitting on thy throne,
Dear Lord! remember me.

- 4 Lord! I am guilty—I am vile,
But thy salvation's free;
Then, in thine all-abounding grace,
Dear Lord! remember me.
- 5 And, when I close my eyes in death,
When creature-helps all flee,
Then, O my dear Redeemer-God!
I pray, remember me. BURNHAM.

- 1 WHEN wounded sore the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a piercéd hand,
Can salve the sinner's wound.
- 2 When sorrow swells the laden breast,
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart, a broken heart,
Can feel the sinner's woe.
- 3 When penitence has wept in vain
Over some foul dark spot,
One only stream, a stream of blood,
Can wash away the blot.
- 4 'Tis Jesus' blood that washes white,
His hand that brings relief,
His heart that's touched with all our joys
And feeleth for our grief.

Unseal that cleansing tide;
We have no shelter from our sin,
But in thy wounded side.

1. Sweet was the time when first I felt The Sav-iour's pardoning blood
Ap-plied to cleanse my soul from guilt, And bring me home to God.

666

- 2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue ;
And when the evening shades prevailed,
His love was all my song.
- 3 In prayer my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine ;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.
- 4 But now, when evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns ;
And when the morn the light reveals,
No light to me returns.
- 5 Rise, Lord, and help me to prevail ;
Oh, make my soul thy care !
I know thy mercy cannot fail ;
Let me that mercy share. NEWTON.

667

- 1 OH, that I knew the secret place,
Where I might find my God !
I'd spread my wants before his face,
And pour my woes abroad.
- 2 I'd tell him how my sins arise,
What sorrows I sustain ;
How grace decays, and comfort dies,
And leaves my heart in pain.
- 3 He knows what arguments I'd take
To wrestle with my God :

I'd plead for his own mercy's sake—
I'd plead my Saviour's blood.

WATTS.

1. Come, trembling sin - ner, in whose breast A thou - sand thoughts re - volve—

Come, with your guilt and fear op - pressed, And make this last re - solve:

- 2 "I'll go to Jesus, though my sin
Hath like a mountain rose ;
I know his courts, I'll enter in,
Whatever may oppose.
- 3 "Prostrate I'll lie before his throne,
And there my guilt confess ;
I'll tell him I'm a wretch undone,
Without his sovereign grace.
- 4 "Perhaps he will admit my plea,
Perhaps will hear my prayer ;
But if I perish, I will pray,
And perish only there.
- 5 "I can but perish if I go ;
I am resolved to try ;
For if I stay away, I know
I must forever die.
- 6 "But if I die with mercy sought,
When I - the King have tried,
This were to die (delightful thought!)
As sinner never died." JONES.

- 1 AND are we wretches yet alive?
And do we yet rebel?
'Tis boundless, 'tis amazing love,
That bears us up from hell.
- 2 Almighty goodness cries, "Forbear!"
And straight the thunder stays:

And dare we now provoke his wrath
And weary out his grace?

- 3 Lord, we have long abused thy love,
Too long indulged our sin,
Our aching hearts now bleed to see
What rebels we have been.

WATTS.

- 1 I SEE the crowd in Pilate's hall,
And mark their wrathful mien ;
Their shouts of "Crucify!" appall,
With blasphemies between.
- 2 I see the scourges tear his back,
I see the piercing crown ;
And of that crowd who smite and mock
I feel that I am one.
- 3 Around yon Cross a throng I see,
Mocking the Sufferer's groan ;
Yet still my voice it seems to be,
As if I mocked alone.
- 4 'Twas I that shed the Saviour's blood,
I nailed him to the tree,
I crucified the Son of God,
I joined the mockery.

To wash away my sin ;
And not the less that Cross prevails
To give me peace within. BONAR.

"Tis Christ's inviting word—

"Ho! ye despairing sinners, come,

3 To the dear fountain of thy blood,

Incarnate God, I fly;

Here let me wash my spotted soul
From stains of deepest dye.

My Saviour and my all. WATTS.

674

1 IN evil long I took delight,

Unawed by shame or fear,

Till a new object struck my sight,
And stopped my wild career.

2 I saw One hanging on a tree,

In agonies and blood,

Who fixed his languid eyes on me,
As near his cross I stood.

3 Sure never till my latest breath

Can I forget that look:

It seemed to charge me with his death,
Though not a word he spoke:

4 My conscience felt and owned the guilt,

And plunged me in despair;

I saw my sins his blood had spilt,
And helped to nail him there.

5 Alas! I knew not what I did!

But now my tears are vain:

Where shall my trembling soul be hid?
For I the Lord have slain!

6 A second look he gave, which said,

"I freely all forgive;

This blood is for thy ransom paid;
I die that thou may'st live."

7 Thus, while his death my sin displays

In all its blackest hue,
Such is the mystery of grace,
It seals my pardon too.

And cleanse and keep me clean!

3 Wash me, and make me thus thine own,

Wash me, but not my feet alone:
My hands, my head, my heart!

A moment's misery or joy;

I. God of mer - cy! God of love! Hear our sad, re - pent - ant song;

Sor - row dwells on ev - ery face, Pen - i - tence on ev - ery tongue.

694

- 2 Deep regret for follies past,
Talents wasted, time misspent;
Hearts debased by worldly cares,
Thankless for the blessings lent;
- 3 Foolish fears and fond desires,
Vain regrets for things as vain;
Lips too seldom taught to praise,
Oft to murmur and complain;
- 4 These, and every secret fault,
Filled with grief and shame we own;
Humbled at thy feet we lie,
Seeking pardon from thy throne.
- 5 God of mercy! God of grace!
Hear our sad, repentant songs;
Oh, restore thy suppliant race,
Thou to whom all praise belongs!

- 1 DOES the Gospel word proclaim
Rest for those that weary be?
Then, my soul, put in thy claim—
Sure that promise speaks to thee!
- 2 Marks of grace I cannot show,
All polluted is my best;
But I weary am, I know,
And the weary long for rest.
- 3 Burdened with a load of sin,
Harassed with tormenting doubt,
Hourly conflicts from within,
Hourly crosses from without;—

- 4 All my little strength is gone,
Sink I must without supply;
Sure upon the earth is none
Can more weary be than I.
- 5 In the ark the weary dove
Found a welcome resting-place;
Thus my spirit longs to prove
Rest in Christ, the Ark of grace.

And the flood increases fast;
Open, Lord, and take me in,
Till the storm be overpast!

- 1 GENTLY, gently, lay the rod
On my sinful head, O God!
Stay thy wrath, in mercy stay,
Lest I sink beneath its sway.
- 2 Heal me, for my flesh is weak;
Heal me, for thy grace I seek;
This my only plea I make,—
Heal me for thy mercy's sake.
- 3 Who, within the silent grave,
Shall proclaim thy power to save?
Lord! my sinking soul reprieve;
Speak, and I shall rise and live.
- 4 Lo! he comes—he heeds my plea;
Lo! he comes—the shadows flee;
Glory round me dawns once more;
Rise, my spirit! and adore.

- 2 Saviour, Prince, enthroned above,
 Repentance to impart,
 Give me, through thy dying love,
 The humble, contrite heart :
 Give what I have long implored,
 A portion of thy grief unknown ;
 Turn, and look upon me, Lord !
 And break my heart of stone.
- 3 For thine own compassion's sake,
 The gracious wonder show ;
 Cast my sins behind thy back,
 And wash me white as snow :
 If thy mercies now are stirred,
 If now I do myself bemoan,
 Turn, and look upon me, Lord !
 And break my heart of stone.

- 1 VAIN, delusive world, adieu,
 With all of creature good !

- Only Jesus I pursue,
 Who bought me with his blood :
 All thy pleasures I forego ;
 I trample on thy wealth and pride ;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.
- 2 Other knowledge I disdain ;
 'Tis all but vanity :
 Christ, the Lamb of God, was slain,—
 He tasted death for me.
 Me to save from endless woe
 The sin-aton-ing Victim died :
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.
 - 3 Him to know is life and peace,
 And pleasure without end ;
 This is all my happiness,
 On Jesus to depend ;
 Daily in his grace to grow,
 And ever in his faith abide ;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

2 I have long withstood his grace ;
 Long provoked him to his face ;

 Let me now my sins lament ;
 Now my foul revolt deplore,
 Weep, believe, and sin no more.

 Cries, "How shall I give thee up ?"
 Lets the lifted thunder drop.

 God is love ! I know, I feel ;

NOTHING BUT LEAVES.

S. J. VAIL.

1. Nothing but leaves ! the spir - it grieves O - ver a wast - ed life ; O'er sins indulged while conscience slept, O'er vows and prom - is - es un-kept, And reap from years of strife— Nothing but leaves, Nothing but leaves.

701

2 Nothing but leaves ! no gathered sheaves
 Of life's fair ripening grain ;
 We sow our seeds, lo ! tares and weeds,
 Words, idle words for earnest deeds,
 We reap with toil and pain—
 Nothing but leaves.

3 Nothing but leaves ! sad memory weaves
 No veil to hide the past ;

And as we trace our weary way,
 Counting each lost and misspent day,
 Sadly we find at last—
 Nothing but leaves.

4 Ah ! who shall thus the Master meet,
 Bearing but withered leaves ?
 Ah ! who shall at the Saviour's feet,
 Before the awful judgment-seat,
 Lay down, for golden sheaves,
 Nothing but leaves ?

Like mountains of deep guilt before your eyes :

I. A-waked by Si - nai's aw - ful sound, My soul in bonds of guilt I found,
 And knew not where to go; One sol - cmn truth in - creased my pain,
 The sin - ner "must be born a - gain," Or sink to end - less woe.

703

- 2 I heard the law its thunders roll,
 While guilt lay heavy on my soul—
 A vast oppressive load;
 All creature-aid I saw was vain;
 The sinner "must be born again,"
 Or drink the wrath of God.
- 3 The saints I heard with rapture tell—
 How Jesus conquered death and hell
 To bring salvation near;
 Yet still I found this truth remain—
 The sinner "must be born again,"
 Or sink in deep despair.
- 4 But while I thus in anguish lay,
 The bleeding Saviour passed that way,
 My bondage to remove;
 The sinner, once by justice slain,
 Now by his grace is born again,
 And sings redeeming love. OCKUM.

704

- I LORD, thou hast won—at length I yield;
 My heart, by mighty grace compelled,
 Surrenders all to thee:
 Against thy terrors long I strove,
 But who can stand against thy love?—
 Love conquers even me.
- 2 Yes, since thou hast thy love revealed,
 And shown my soul a pardon sealed,
 I can resist no more;
 Couldst thou for such a sinner bleed?
 Canst thou for such a rebel plead?
 I wonder and adore!
- 3 If thou hadst bid thy thunders roll,
 And lightnings flash to blast my soul,
 I still had stubborn been;
 But mercy has my heart subdued,
 A bleeding Saviour I have viewed,
 And now, I hate my sin.
- 4 Now, Lord, I would be thine alone—
 Come, take possession of thine own,
 For thou hast set me free;
 Released from Satan's hard command,
 See all my powers in waiting stand,
 To be employed by thee. NEWTON

- 2 Let the world despise and leave me,
They have left my Saviour, too ;
Human hearts and looks deceive me—
Thou art not, like them, untrue ;
Oh ! while thou dost smile upon me,
God of wisdom, love, and might,
Foes may hate, and friends disown
me,
Show thy face, and all is bright.
- 3 Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to thy breast,
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest !
Oh ! 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While thy love is left to me ;
Oh ! 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with thee.
- 4 Go then, earthly fame and treasure !
Come disaster, scorn, and pain !
In thy service pain is pleasure,
With thy favor, loss is gain.

- I have called thee, Abba, Father !
I have stayed my heart on thee !
Storms may howl, and clouds may

All must work for good to me.
- 5 Soul, then know thy full salvation,
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care ;
Joy to find in every station
Something still to do or bear.
Think what Spirit dwells within thee ;
Think what Father's smiles are thine ;
Think that Jesus died to win thee ;
Child of heaven, canst thou repine ?
 - 6 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
Armed by faith, and winged by prayer !
Heaven's eternal day 's before thee ;
God's own hand shall guide thee

Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days,
Hope shall change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

Of all the duties I have done ;

2 Now, for the love I bear his name,
What was my gain I count my loss ;
My former pride I call my shame,
And nail my glory to his cross.

3 Yes, and I must and will esteem
All things but loss for Jesus' sake ;

Oh, may my soul be found in him,

1 JESUS, my all, to heaven is gone—
He, whom I fix my hopes upon ;
His track I see, and I'll pursue,
The narrow way, till him I view.

2 The way the holy prophets went,—
The road that leads from banishment,
The King's highway of holiness,
I'll go, for all his paths are peace.

3 This is the way I long had sought,
And mourned because I found it not ;
My grief, my burden, long have been
Because I could not cease from sin.

4 The more I strove against their power,
I sinned and stumbled but the more ;
Till late I heard my Saviour say,
" Come hither, soul, for I'm the Way !"

5 Lo ! glad I come, and thou, blest Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee, as I am :
Nothing but sin I thee can give ;
Nothing but love shall I receive.

6 I'll tell to all poor sinners round
What a dear Saviour I have found ;
I'll point to thy redeeming blood,
And say, " Behold the way to God !"

2 Oh who will follow Jesus,
Amid reproach and shame?
Where others shrink and falter,

6 My all to Christ I've given,
My talents, time and voice,

My all-sufficient Friend!
Come, fold me to thy bosom,

1 ASHAMED to be a Christian,
Afraid the world should know
I'm on the way to Zion,
Where joys eternal flow!
Forbid it, blessed Saviour,
That I should ever be Afraid the cross to cherish,
Or blush to follow thee.

2 Ashamed to be a Christian,
To love my God and King!
The fire of zeal is burning,
My soul is on the wing.
I want a faith made perfect,
That all the world may see,
I stand a living witness,
Of mercy, rich and free.

711*

1 O LORD, thy heavenly grace impart,
And fix my frail, inconstant heart;
Henceforth my chief desire shall be,
To dedicate myself to thee.

2 Whate'er pursuits my time employ,
One thought shall fill my soul with joy;
That silent, secret thought shall be,
That all my hopes are fixed on thee.

3 Renouncing every worldly thing,
And safe beneath thy spreading wing,
My sweetest thought henceforth shall be.
That all I want I find in thee.

712

- 2 Asham'd of Jesus! sooner far
Let evening blush to own a star:
He sheds the beams of light divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.
- 3 Asham'd of Jesus!—just as soon
Let midnight be asham'd of noon:
'Tis midnight with my soul, till he,
Bright morning Star, bid darkness flee.
- 4 Asham'd of Jesus!—that dear Friend
On whom my hopes of heav'n depend?
No! when I blush, be this my shame,
That I no more revere his name.
- 5 Asham'd of Jesus!—yes, I may,
When I've no guilt to wash away;
No tear to wipe; no good to crave;
No fear to quell—no soul to save.
- 6 Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
Till then I boast a Saviour slain!
And oh, may this my glory be,
That Christ is not asham'd of me!

To save rebellious, ruin'd man,
Hail, matchless, free, eternal grace,
That gave my soul a hiding-place.

- 2 Against the God that rules the sky
I fought, with weapons lifted high;
I madly ran the sinful race,
Regardless of a hiding-place.
- 3 Yet when God's justice rose in view,
To Sinai's burning mount I flew;
Keen were the pangs of my distress,—
The mountain was no hiding-place.
- 4 But a celestial voice I heard,
A bleeding Saviour then appear'd,
Led by the Spirit of his grace,—
I found in him a hiding-place.

The fairest of ten thousand fairs,
A sun amongst ten thousand stars.

He is beloved and yet adored;
His worth, if all the nations knew,
Sure, the whole earth would love him too.

 Our friends and Jesus we shall see,

 Let us never mind the scoffs, etc.

MAITLAND. C. M.

1. Must Je - sus bear the cross a - lone, And all the world go free?
No, there's a cross for ev - ery one, And there's a cross for me.

717

- 2 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
Till death shall set me free ;
And then go home my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me.
- 3 How happy are the saints above,
Who once went sorrowing here !
But now they taste unmingled love,
And joy without a tear.
- 4 Upon the crystal pavement, down
At Jesus' piercéd feet,
Joyful I'll cast my golden crown,
And his dear name repeat.
- 5 And palms shall wave, and harps shall ring,
Beneath heaven's arches high ;
The Lord that lives, the ransomed sing,
That lives, no more to die.
- 6 Oh, precious cross ! oh, glorious crown !
Oh, resurrection day !
Ye angels, from the stars flash down,
And bear my soul away. ALLEN.

718

- 1 THE Saviour, by whose name I'm called,
Will grant me strength within,
To own his name before the world,
And fight the fight with sin.
- 2 So will I sing, oh blesséd be
The Lord who is my Strength !

The weakest child who calls on thee,
Shall overcome at length.

- 3 The swift may stumble in the race,
The strong in battle fail ;
But they who ever seek thy face,
Shall in thy might prevail.
- 4 And oh, when on each brow shall shine
Thy gift, a fadeless crown,
What joy to own the glory thine,
And lowly cast it down.

719

- 1 MY God, accept my heart this day,
And make it always thine ;
That I from thee no more may stray,
No more from thee decline.
- 2 Before the cross of him who died,
Behold, I prostrate fall ;
Let every sin be crucified,
Let Christ be all in all.
- 3 May the dear blood, once shed for me,
My blest atonement prove ;
That I, from first to last, may be
The purchase of thy love.
- 4 Let every thought and work and word
To thee be ever given ;
Then life shall be thy service, Lord,
And death the gate of heaven !

CHRISTMAS. C. M.

From HANDEL.

1. Am I a soldier of the cross, A follower of the Lamb? And shall I fear to own his cause, Or blush to speak his name? Or blush to speak his name?

720

- 2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
- 3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?
- 4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord:
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.
- 5 Thy saints in all this glorious war
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.
- 6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine. WATTS.

721

- 1 WITNESS, ye men and angels now,
Before the Lord we speak;
To him we make our solemn vow,
A vow we dare not break:
- 2 That, long as life itself shall last,
Ourselves to Christ we yield;

Nor from his cause will we depart,
Or ever quit the field.

- 3 We trust not in our native strength,
But on his grace rely,
That, with returning wants, the Lord
Will all our need supply.
- 4 Oh, guide our doubtful feet aright,
And keep us in thy ways;
And while we turn our vows to prayers,
Turn thou our prayers to praise.

BEDDOME.

722

- 1 I'M not ashamed to own my Lord,
Or to defend his cause;
Maintain the honor of his word,
The glory of his cross.
- 2 Jesus, my God!— I know his name—
His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.
- 3 Firm as his throne, his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands,
Till the decisive hour.
- 4 Then will he own my worthless name,
Before his Father's face,
And in the new Jerusalem
Appoint my soul a place. WATTS.

 I did not love my Shepherd's voice, I would not be con-trolled:

 I was a way - ward child, I did not love my home,
 D. S.

- 2 The Shepherd sought his sheep,
 The Father sought his child ;
 He followed me o'er vale and hill,
 O'er deserts waste and wild :
 He found me nigh to death,
 Famished, and faint, and lone ;
 He bound me with the bands of love,
 He saved the wandering one.
- 3 Jesus my Shepherd is ;
 'Twas he that loved my soul,
 'Twas he that washed me in his blood,
 'Twas he that made me whole :
 'Twas he that sought the lost,
 That found the wandering sheep ;
 'Twas he that brought me to the fold,
 'Tis he that still doth keep.
- 4 No more a wandering sheep,
 I love to be controlled,
 I love my tender Shepherd's voice,
 I love the peaceful fold :
 No more a wayward child,
 I seek no more to roam ;
 I love my heavenly Father's voice,
 I love, I love his home !

BONAR.

724

- I I was a foe to God,
 I fought in Satan's host,
 I trifled all his grace away,
 Alas ! my soul was lost :
 Yet God forgets my sin ;
 His heart, with pity moved,
 He gives me, Son of God, to thee ;
 Lo, thus our God hath loved !
- 2 Once, blind with sin and self,
 Along the treacherous way
 That ends in ruin at the last,
 I hastened far astray :
 Then God sent down his Son ;
 For with a love most deep,
 Most undeserved, his heart still yearned
 O'er me, poor wandering sheep !
- 3 God with his life of love
 To me was far and strange ;
 My heart clung only to the world
 Of sight, and sense, and change :
 In thee, Immanuel,
 Are God and man made one ;
 In thee my heart hath peace with God,
 And union in the Son.

 But he called the louder still ;
 Till the gracious Saviour bid him,
 "Come, and ask me what you will."
 3 Money was not what he wanted,
 Though by begging used to live ;
 But he ask'd, and Jesus granted
 Alms which none but he could give.
 4 "Lord, remove this grievous blindness,
 Let my eyes behold the day!"

Straight he saw, and won by kindness,
 Follow'd Jesus in the way.

- 5 Now, methinks I hear him praising,
 Publishing to all around :
 "Friends, is not my case amazing?
 What a Saviour I have found !
 6 "Oh, that all the blind but knew him,
 And would be advised by me !
 Surely they would hasten to him,
 He would cause them all to see."

1. O thou who in Jor - dan didst bow thy meek head, And whelmed in our sor - row, didst sink to the dead, Then rose from the dark - ness to

729

- 2 Thy footsteps we follow, to bow in the tide,
And are buried with thee in the death thou hast died,
Then wake with thy likeness to walk in the way
That brightens and brightens to shadowless day.
- 3 O Jesus, our Saviour, O Jesus, our Lord !
By the life of thy passion, the grace of thy word,
Accept us, redeem us, dwell ever within,
To keep, by thy Spirit, our spirits from sin.
- 4 Till crowned with thy glory, and waving the palm,
Our garments all white from the blood of the Lamb,
We join the bright millions of saints gone before,
And bless thee, and wonder, and praise evermore.

With hearts all full of prais - es, To keep thy blest com - mand.
D. S. Thro' death's dark, an - gry bil - lows, Up to the Throne a - bove.

By faith our souls re - joic - ing, To trace thy path of love,

2 Lord Jesus, we remember
The travail of thy soul,
When, in thy love's deep pity,
The waves did o'er thee roll.
Baptized in death's cold waters,
For us thy blood was shed ;
For us the Lord of Glory
Was numbered with the dead.

3 O Lord, thou now art risen,
Thy travail all is o'er,
For sin thou once hast suffered,
Thou liv'st to die no more ;
Sin, death and hell are vanquished
By thee, thy church's Head ;
And lo ! we share thy triumph,
Thou First Born from the dead !

1 DESCEND, celestial Dove,
And make thy presence known ;
Reveal our Saviour's love,
And seal us for thine own :
Unblest by thee, our works are vain ;
Nor can we e'er acceptance gain.

2 When our incarnate God,
The sovereign Prince of light,

Sing to Lischer, page 14.

In Jordan's swelling flood
Received the holy rite,
In open view thy form came down,
And, dove-like, flew the King to crown.

3 Continue still to shine,
And fill us with thy fire :
This ordinance is thine ;
Do thou our souls inspire :
Thou wilt attend on all thy sons :
"Till time shall end," thy promise runs.

- 2 In the Garden, o'er his soul
Sorrow's whelming waves did roll ;
Ah! on Calvary's cruel tree,
Jesus bowed in death for me.
I with him am crucified :
All my hope is—he hath died :
At his feet my place I take,
Bear the cross for his dear sake.
- 3 In the new-made tomb he lay,
Taking all its dread away ;
Burst he through its rock-bound door,
Glorious now, and evermore.
I with Christ would buried be
In this rite required of me—
Rising from the mystic flood,
Living hence anew to God. S. D. PHELPS.

1. { Thou hast said, ex - alt - ed Je - sus, "Take thy cross, and fol - low me ;" }
 { Shall the word with ter - ror seize us? Shall we from the bur - den flee? }

Lord, I'll take it, Lord, I'll take it, And, re - joic - ing, fol - low thee.

733

- 2 While this liquid tomb surveying,
 Emblem of my Saviour's grave,
 Shall I shun its brink, betraying
 Feelings worthy of a slave?
 No! I'll enter:
 Jesus entered Jordan's wave.
- 3 Sweet the sign that thus reminds me,
 Saviour, of thy love for me;
 Sweeter still the love that binds me
 In its deathless bonds to thee:
 Oh what pleasure,
 Buried with my Lord to be!
- 4 Should it rend some fond connection,
 Should I suffer shame or loss,
 Yet the fragrant, blest reflection,
 I have been where Jesus was,
 Will revive me
 When I faint beneath the cross.
- 5 Fellowship with him possessing,
 Let me die to all around,
 So I rise to enjoy the blessing,
 Kept for those in Jesus found,
 When the archangel
 Wakes the sleepers under ground.
- 6 Then, baptized in love and glory,
 Lamb of God, thy praise I'll sing;
 Loudly, with the immortal story,
 All the harps of heaven shall ring:
 Saints and seraphs
 Sound it loud from every string.

JOHN E. GILES.

734

- 1 JESUS, mighty King in Zion,
 Thou alone our Guide shall be:
 Thy commission we rely on;
 We would follow none but thee.
- 2 As an emblem of thy passion,
 And thy victory o'er the grave,
 We, who know thy great salvation,
 Are baptized beneath the wave.
- 3 Fearless of the world's despising,
 We the ancient path pursue,
 Buried with our Lord, and rising
 To a life divinely new.

JOHN FELLOWS.

- 1 LORD, in humble, sweet submission,
 Here we meet to follow thee:
 Trusting in thy great salvation,
 Which alone can make us free.
- 2 Nought have we to claim as merit;
 All the duties we can do
 Can no crown of life inherit:
 All the praise to thee is due.
- 3 Yet we come in Christian duty,
 Down beneath the wave to go;
 Oh the bliss! the heavenly beauty!
 Christ the Lord was buried so.

1. Come, happy souls, adore the Lamb, Who loved our race ere time be-gan! Who veiled his Godhead in our clay, And in an humble manger lay, And in an humble manger lay.

736

2 To Jordan's stream the Spirit led,
To mark the path his saints should tread ;

Joyful they trace the sacred way,
To see the place where Jesus lay.

3 Immersed by John in Jordan's wave,
The Saviour left his watery grave ;
Heaven owned the deed, approved the
way,

And blessed the place where Jesus lay.

4 Come, all who love his precious name,
Come, tread his steps and learn of him :
Happy beyond expression they,
Who find the place where Jesus lay.

BALDWIN.

737

1 COME, Holy Spirit, Dove divine,
On these baptismal waters shine,
And teach our hearts, in highest strain,
To praise the Lamb, for sinners slain.

2 We love thy name, we love thy laws,
And joyfully embrace thy cause ;
We love thy cross, the shame, the pain,
O Lamb of God, for sinners slain.

3 We sink beneath thy mystic flood ;
Oh, bathe us in thy cleansing blood !
We die to sin, and seek a grave,
With thee, beneath the yielding wave.

4 And as we rise, with thee to live,
Oh, let the Holy Spirit give
The sealing unction from above,
The breath of life, the fire of love !

JUDSON.

738

1 GREAT God, we in thy courts appear,
With humble joy and holy fear,
Thy wise injunctions to obey ;
Let saints and angels hail the day !

2 Great things, O everlasting Son,
Great things for us thy grace hath done ;
Constrain'd by thy almighty love,
Our willing feet to meet thee move.

3 In thy assembly here we stand,
Obedient to thy great command ;
The sacred flood is full in view,
And thy sweet voice invites us through.

4 The Word, the Spirit, and the Bride,
Must not invite and be denied ;
Was not the Lord, who came to save,
Interr'd in such a liquid grave ?

5 Thus we, dear Saviour, own thy name,
Receive us rising from the stream ;
Then to thy table let us come,
And dwell in Zion as our home.

We seek thro' Jordan's wave the way

The Spirit's cleansing power confess :
Bend, Saviour, from thy heavenly home,

Exalted Head of all the church,

Boundless their joy above,
Where, on the bosom of their God,
They rest in perfect love.
- 4 Lord! may that grace be ours;
Like them in faith to bear
All that of sorrow, grief, or pain
May be our portion here!
- 5 Enough, if thou at last
The word of blessing give,

- 1 To sit at Jesus' feet
And listen all the day
To words of truth and grace, is sweet,
But sweeter to obey.
- 2 'Tis excellent to know,
But oh! diviner still,
To do what God enjoins, and so
All righteousness fulfill.
- 3 The least of his commands
In any wise to break,
Is like the attempt of impious hands
His very throne to shake.
- 4 Without defect or flaw,
Fit, holy, just, and good,
We may not change in aught his law,
Nor would we if we could.
- 5 The time this rite was done
To speak the Father seized;—
"Lo! this is my Beloved Son

O'er our dead selves the waters close;
We die, but live again.

How doth the gen'rous flame within
Refine from earth, and cleanse from sin!

For human guilt and mortal woe;
Their ardent prayers together rise,

In Jesus' name we bid thee come;

We'll seek in fellowship to prove,
Joined in one spirit to our Lord,
'Together bound by mutual love.
- 3 And while we pass this vale of tears,
We'll make our joys and sorrows known;
We'll share each other's hopes and

And count a brother's cares our own.

Receive assurance of our love;
Oh may we all together meet

A hearty welcome here receive;
May we together now partake
The joys which only he can give.
- 2 May he, by whose kind care we meet,
Send his good Spirit from above;
Make our communications sweet,
And cause our hearts to burn with love.
- 3 Forgotten be each worldly theme,
When Christians meet together thus;
We only wish to speak of him,
Who lived, and died, and reigns, for us.
- 4 We'll talk of all he did and said,
And suffered for us here below;—
The path he marked for us to tread,
And what he's doing for us now.
- 5 Thus,—as the moments pass away,—
We'll love, and wonder, and adore,
And hasten to the glorious day
When we shall meet to part no more.

I. { How sweet, how heavenly is the sight, When those who love the Lord }
 { In one an-oth-er's peace de-light, And so ful-fil his word : } 2. When each can feel his brother's sigh, And with him bear a part ; When sor-row flows from eye to eye, And joy from heart to heart, And joy from heart to heart.

770

- 3 When, free from envy, scorn and pride,
 Our wishes all above,
 Each can his brother's failings hide,
 And show a brother's love !
- 4 Let love in one delightful stream
 Through every bosom flow,
 And union sweet, and dear esteem,
 In every action glow.
- 5 Love is the golden chain that binds
 The happy souls above ;
 And he's an heir of heaven who finds
 His bosom glow with love. SWAIN.

771

- 1 HAPPY the souls to Jesus joined,
 And saved by grace alone :
 Walking in all his ways, they find
 Their heaven on earth begun.
- 2 The church triumphant in thy love,—
 Their mighty joys we know :
 They sing the Lamb in hymns above,
 And we in hymns below.
- 3 Thee, in thy glorious realm, they praise,
 And bow before thy throne :

We in the kingdom of thy grace ;—
 The kingdoms are but one.

- 4 The holy to the holiest leads ;
 From thence our spirits rise :
 And he that in thy statutes treads
 Shall meet thee in the skies.

C. WESLEY.

772

- 1 HAIL, sweetest, dearest tie, that binds
 Our glowing hearts in one ;
 Hail, sacred hope, that tunes our minds
 To harmony divine.
- 2 What though the northern wint'ry blast
 Shall howl around our cot ;
 What though beneath an eastern sun
 Be cast our distant lot :
- 3 No lingering look, no parting sigh,
 Our future meeting knows ;
 There friendship beams from every eye,
 And love immortal glows.
- 4 O sacred hope ! O blissful hope !
 Which Jesus' grace has given—
 The hope, when days and years are past,
 We all shall meet in heaven. SUTTON.

GEORGE KINGSLEY.

I. Come in, thou bless-ed of the Lord, Stran-ger nor foe art thou:
We wel-come thee with warm ac-cord, Our friend, our broth-er, now.

773

- 2 The hand of fellowship, the heart
Of love, we offer thee:
Leaving the world, thou dost but part
From lies and vanity.
- 3 Come with us,—we will do thee good,
As God to us hath done;
Stand but in him, as those have stood
Whose faith the victory won.
- 4 And when, by turns, we pass away,
As star by star grows dim,
May each, translated into day
Be lost and found in him.

MONTGOMERY.

774

- 1 LORD, thou on earth didst love thine
Didst love them to the end; [own,
Oh, still from thy celestial throne,
Let gifts of love descend!
- 2 The love the Father bears to thee,
His own eternal Son,
Fill all thy saints, till all shall be
In pure affection one.
- 3 One blessed fellowship of love,
Thy living church should stand,
Till, faultless, she at last above
Shall shine at thy right hand.
- 4 Oh, glorious day, when she, the Bride,
With her dear Lord appears!
Then robed in beauty at his side,
She shall forget her tears.

RAY PALMER.

775

- 1 BLESS'D be the dear, uniting love,
That will not let us part;
Our bodies may far off remove—
We still are one in heart.
- 2 Joined in one Spirit to our head,
Where he appoints, we go;
And still in Jesus' footsteps tread,
And show his praise below.
- 3 Partakers of the Saviour's grace,
The same in mind and heart—
Nor joy, nor grief, nor time, nor place,
Nor life, nor death, can part.
- 4 But let us hasten to the day
Which shall our flesh restore,
When death shall all be done away,
And we shall part no more.

C. WESLEY.

776

- 1 BENEATH the shadow of the Cross,
As earthly hopes remove,
His new commandment Jesus gives,
His blessed word of Love.
- 2 Oh, bond of union strong and deep!
Oh, bond of perfect peace!
Not e'en the lifted cross can harm,
If we but hold to this.
- 3 Then, Jesus, be thy Spirit ours!
And swift our feet shall move
To deeds of pure self-sacrifice,
And the sweet tasks of love.

OLD MELODY.

1. From whence doth this un-ion a-rise, That ha-tred is con-quer'd by love?
That fast-ens our souls in such ties As na-ture and time can't re-move?

777

- 2 It cannot in Eden be found,
Nor yet in a paradise lost;
It grows on Immanuel's ground,
And Jesus' rich blood it did cost.
- 3 My friends are so dear unto me,
Our hearts are united in love:
Where Jesus is gone we shall be,
In yonder blest mansions above.
- 4 Then why so unwilling to part,
Since there we shall all meet again?

Engraved on Immanuel's heart,
At distance we cannot remain.

- 5 Oh, when shall we see that bright day,
And join with the angels above,
Set free from these prisons of clay,
United with Jesus in love!
- 6 With Jesus we ever shall reign,
And all his bright glories shall see,
And sing, Hallelujah! amen!
Amen! even so let it be.

1. Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Christian love:

The fel-low-ship of kin-dred minds Is like to that a-bove.

779

- 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers ;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.
- 3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear ;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.
- 4 When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain ;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.
- 5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way ;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.
- 6 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free,
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

FAWCETT.

780

- 1 AND are we yet alive
To see each other's face?
Glory and praise to Jesus give,
For his redeeming grace.
- 2 What troubles have we seen!
What conflicts have we past!
Fightings without, and fears within,
Since we assembled last!

- 3 But out of all, the Lord
Hath brought us by his love ;
And still he doth his help afford,
And hides our life above.
- 4 Then let us make our boast
Of his redeeming power,
Which saves us to the uttermost,
Till we can sin no more.
- 5 Let us take up the cross,
Till we the crown obtain ;
And gladly reckon all things loss,
So we may Jesus gain. C. WESLEY.

781

- 1 ONCE more before we part,
Oh, bless the Saviour's name!
Let every tongue and every heart
Adore and praise the same.
- 2 Lord, in thy grace we came,
That blessing still impart ;
We meet in Jesus' sacred name,
In Jesus' name we part.
- 3 Still on thy holy word
We'll live, and feed, and grow,
And still go on to know the Lord,
And practise what we know.
- 4 Now, Lord, before we part,
Help us to bless thy name ;
Let every tongue and every heart
Adore and praise the same.

WHEN SHALL WE MEET AGAIN.

"SPIRITUAL SONGS."

1. When shall we meet a - gain, Meet ne'er to sev - er? When will peace wreathe her chain Round us for ev - er? Our hearts will ne'er re - pose, Safe from each blast that blows, In this dark vale of woes, Nev - er—no, nev - er!

782

- 1 WHEN shall we meet again?
Meet ne'er to sever?
When will peace wreathe her chain
Round us forever?
Our hearts will ne'er repose,
Safe from each blast that blows,
In this dark vale of woes,
Never—no, never!
- 2 When shall love freely flow
Pure as life's river?
When shall sweet friendship glow
Changeless forever?
Where the joys celestial thrill,
Where bliss each heart shall fill,
And fears of parting chill
Never—no, never!

- 3 Up to that world of light
Take us, dear Saviour;
May we all there unite,
Happy forever;
Where kindred spirits dwell,
There may our music swell,
And time our joys dispel
Never—no, never!
- 4 Soon shall we meet again,
Meet ne'er to sever;
Soon shall peace wreathe her chain
Round us forever;
Our hearts will then repose
Secure from worldly woes;
Our songs of praise shall close
Never—no, never!

A - gainst the Son of God's de-light, And friends betrayed him to his foes.

783

- 2 Before the mournful scene began,
He took the bread, and blessed, and brake ;
What love through all his actions ran !
What wondrous words of grace he spake !
- 3 "This is my body, broke for sin ;
Receive and eat the living food ;"
Then took the cup, and blessed the wine ;
" 'Tis the new covenant in my blood."
- 4 "Do this," he cried, "till time shall

In memory of your dying Friend ;
Meet at my table, and record
The love of your departed Lord."

We show thy death, we sing thy

Till thou return, and we shall eat
The marriage supper of the Lamb.

This blest cup of sacrifice ;

I. O Jesus, bruis'd and wounded more Than bursted grape, or bread of wheat,

The Life of life with - in our souls, The cup of our sal - va - tion sweet!

785

2 We come to show thy dying hour,
Thy streaming vein, thy broken flesh;
And still that blood is warm to save,
And still thy fragrant wounds are fresh.

3 O Heart, that with a double tide
Of blood and water, maketh pure!
O Flesh, once offered on the cross,
The gift that makes our pardon sure!

4 Let nevermore our sinful souls
The anguish of thy cross renew;
Nor forge again the cruel nails
That pierced thy victim body through!

5 Come, Bread of heav'n, to feed our souls!

O blessed Jesus, enter in!
Come, Wine of God! and as we drink,
Thy precious blood wash out our sin!

C. F. ALEXANDER.

786

1 AT thy command, our dearest Lord,
Here we attend thy dying feast;
Thy blood, like wine, adorns thy board,
And thine own flesh feeds every guest.

2 Our faith adores thy bleeding love,
And trusts for life in One that died;
We hope for heavenly crowns above
From a Redeemer crucified.

3 Let the vain world pronounce it shame,
And fling their scandals on the cause;
We come to boast our Saviour's name,
And make our triumphs in his cross.

4 With joy we tell the scoffing age,
He that was dead has left his tomb;
He lives above their utmost rage,
And we are waiting till he come.

WATTS.

1 JESUS is gone above the skies,
Where our weak senses reach him not;
And carnal objects court our eyes,
To thrust our Saviour from our thought.

2 He knows what wandering hearts we have,
Apt to forget his lovely face;
And, to refresh our minds, he gave
These kind memorials of his grace.

3 Let sinful joys be all forgot,
And earth grow less in our esteem,
Christ and his love fill every thought,
And faith and hope be fixed on him.

4 While he is absent from our sight,
'Tis to prepare our souls a place,
That we may dwell in heavenly light,
And live forever near his face.

- 2 Renounce thy works and ways, with grief,
And fly to this divine relief ;
Nor him forget, who left his throne,
And for thy life gave up his own.
- 3 Eternal truth and mercy shine
In him, and he himself is thine :
And canst thou, then, with sin beset,
Such charms, such matchless charms,

- 4 Oh, no ; till life itself depart,
His name shall cheer and warm my heart ;
And, lispng this, from earth I'll rise,
And join the chorus of the skies.

- 1 DRAW near, O Holy Dove, draw near,
With peace and gladness on thy wing ;
Reveal the Saviour's presence here,
And light, and life, and comfort bring.
- 2 "Eat, O my friends—drink, O beloved!"
We hear the Master's voice exclaim :
Our hearts with new desire are moved,
And kindled with a heavenly flame.
- 3 No room for doubt, no room for dread,
Nor tears, nor groans, nor anxious sighs ;
We do not mourn a Saviour dead,
But hail him living in the skies !

- 1 AMIDST us our Belovéd stands,
And bids us view his piercéd hands ;
Points to the wounded feet and side,
Blest emblems of the crucified.
- 2 What food luxurious loads the board,
When at his table sits the Lord !
The wine how rich, the bread how sweet,
When Jesus deigns the guests to meet.
- 3 If now, with eyes defiled and dim,
We see the signs, but see not him,
Oh may his love the scales displace,
And bid us see him face to face.

Rich banquet of his Flesh and Blood !
Thrice happy he who here partakes

And may each soul salvation see,
That here its sacred pledges tastes.

- 1 STILL one in life and one in death,
One in our hope of rest above,
One in our joy, our trust, our faith,
One in each other's faithful love;
- 2 Yet must we part, and parting weep;
What else has earth for us in store?
Our farewell pangs, how sharp and deep!
Our farewell words, how sad and sore!
- 3 Yet shall we meet again in peace,
To sing the song of festal joy,
Where none shall bid our gladness cease,
And none our fellowship destroy:
- 4 Where none shall beckon us away,
Nor bid our festival be done;
Our meeting-time the eternal day,
Our meeting-place the eternal throne.

And heart to heart enfolded all,

We'll smile upon the troubled past,
And wonder why we wept at all.

Join to admire the feast,
Each of us cries, with thankful tongue,
"Lord, why was I a guest?"

3 "Why was I made to hear thy voice,
And enter while there's room,
When thousands make a wretched

And rather starve than come?"

4 'Twas the same love that spread the

That sweetly forced us in ;

1 OPPREST with noon-day's scorching heat,
To yonder cross I flee ;
Beneath its shelter take my seat :
No shade like this for me !

2 Beneath that cross clear waters burst—
A fountain sparkling free ;

And there I quench my desert thirst :
No spring like this for me !

3 A stranger here, I pitch my tent
Beneath this spreading tree ;
Here shall my pilgrim life be spent :
No home like this for me !

4 For burdened ones a resting-place,
Beside that cross I see ;
I here cast off my weariness :
No rest like this for me !

BONAR.

1 LORD, may the spirit of this feast—
The earnest of thy love—
Maintain a dwelling in our breast,
Until we meet above.

2 And if no more with kindred dear
The broken bread we share,
Nor at the banquet-board appear
To breathe the grateful prayer ;—

3 Forget us not,—when on the bed
Of dire disease we waste,
Or to the chambers of the dead,
And bar of judgment haste.

4 Forget not,—thou who bore the woe
Of Calvary's fatal tree,—
Those who within these courts below
Have thus remembered thee.

Thy fasting and thy prayer;
Thy locks with mountain vapors wet,
To save us from despair?
- 3 Gethsemane, can we forget—
Thy struggling agony—
When night lay dark on Olivet,
And none to watch with thee?
- 4 Can we the crown of thorns forget,
The buffeting and shame;
When hell thy sinking soul beset,
And earth reviled thy name?
- 5 The nails, the spear, can we forget;
The agonizing cry—
“My God! my Father! wilt thou let Thy Son forsaken die?”
- 6 Life's brightest joys we may forget—
Our kindred cease to love;
But he who paid our hopeless debt,

And owns the grateful tie ;
If tender thoughts within us burn
To feel a friend is nigh :
- 2 Oh, shall not warmer accents tell
The gratitude we owe
To him who died our fears to quell,
Our more than orphan's woe !
- 3 While yet his anguished soul surveyed
Those pangs he would not flee,
What love his latest words displayed,
"Meet and remember me !"

- 1 HERE at thy table, Lord, we meet,
To feed on food divine :
Thy body is the bread we eat,
Thy precious blood the wine.
- 2 Here peace and pardon sweetly flow :
Oh, what delightful food !
We eat the bread, and drink the wine,
But think on nobler good.
- 3 Deep was the suffering he endured
Upon th' accurséd tree ;
"For me," each welcome guest may say,
"Twas all endured for me."
- 4 Sure there was never love so free—
Dear Saviour—so divine :
Well thou mayst claim that heart of me,
Which owes so much to thine.

STENNETT.

802

- 1 WITH humble faith, and thankful heart,
Lord, I accept thy love :
'Tis a rich banquet I have had,
What will it be above !

- 2 Ye saints below, and hosts of heaven,
Join all your raptured powers ;
No theme is like redeeming love,
No Saviour is like ours.
- 3 Had I ten thousand hearts, dear Lord,
I'd give them all to thee ;
Had I ten thousand tongues, they all
Should join the harmony.

STENNETT.

803

- 1 LORD, at thy table we behold
The wonders of thy grace,
But most of all admire that we Should find a welcome place ;—
- 2 We, who were all defiled with sin,
And rebels to our God ;
We, who have crucified thy Son,
And trampled on his blood.
- 3 What strange, surprising grace is this,
That we, so lost, have room !
Jesus our weary souls invites,
And freely bids us come.

STENNETT.

804

- 1 LET vain pursuits and vain desires
Be banished from the heart,
The Saviour's love fill every breast,
And life and light impart.
- 2 He knows how frail our nature is,
Our souls how apt to stray ;
How much we need his gracious help
To keep us in the way !
- 3 These faithful pledges of his love
His mercy did ordain,
To bring refreshment to our souls,
And faith and hope sustain.
- 4 Since such his condescending grace,
Let us, with hearts sincere,
Obedient to his holy will,
His table now draw near.

1. Blest feast of love di-vine! 'Tis grace that makes us free To feed up-on this bread and wine, In mem-ory, Lord, of thee!

805

- 2 That blood which flowed for sin,
In symbol here we see,
And feel the bless'd pledge within,
That we are loved of thee.
- 3 Oh, if this glimpse of love
Be so divinely sweet,
What will it be, my Lord, above,
Thy gladdening smile to meet!
- 4 To see thee face to face,
Thy perfect likeness wear,
And all thy ways of wondrous grace
Through endless years declare!

806

- 1 JESUS invites his saints
To meet around his board ;
Here pardoned rebels sit and hold
Communion with their Lord.
- 2 Thus do the bread and wine
Revive our fainting breath,
By union with our living Lord,
And interest in his death.
- 3 Our heavenly Father calls
Christ and his members one ;
We, the young children of his love,
And he, the First-born Son.
- 4 Let all our powers be joined
His glorious Name to raise ;

Pleasure and love fill every mind,
And every voice be praise. WATTS.

807

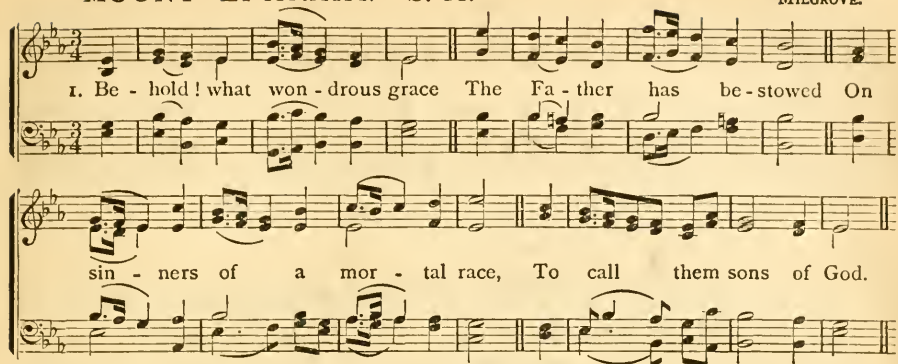

- 1 JESUS, we thus obey
Thy last and kindest word,
And in thine own appointed way,
We come to meet our Lord.
- 2 Thus we remember thee,
And take this bread and wine
As thine own dying legacy,
And our redemption's sign.
- 3 Thy presence makes the feast ;
Now let our spirits feel
The glory not to be expressed,
The joy unspeakable.
- 4 With high and heavenly bliss
Thou dost our spirits cheer ;
Thy house of banqueting is this,
And thou hast brought us here.
- 5 Now let our souls be fed
With manna from above,
And over us thy banner spread
Of everlasting love. C. WESLEY.

- 2 'Tis no surprising thing
That we should be unknown ;
The Jewish world knew not their King,
God's everlasting Son.
- 3 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made ;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our head.
- 4 A hope so much divine
May trials well endure ;
May purge our souls from sense and sin,
As Christ, the Lord, is pure.
- 5 If in my Father's love
I share a filial part,
Send down thy Spirit like a dove,
To rest upon my heart.

Our faith shall "Abba, Father !" cry,

- 1 A PARTING hymn we sing,
Around thy table, Lord,
Again our grateful tribute bring,
Our solemn vows record.
- 2 Here have we seen thy face,
And felt thy presence here,
So may the savor of thy grace
In word and life appear.

- 3 The purchase of thy blood—
By sin no longer led—
The path our dear Redeemer trod
May we rejoicing tread.
- 4 In self-forgetful love
Be our communion shown,
Until we join the church above,
And know as we are known.

810

- 1 DEAR Saviour ! we are thine,
By everlasting bands ;
Our hearts, our souls, we would resign
Entirely to thy hands.
- 2 To thee we still would cleave
With ever-growing zeal ;
If millions tempt us Christ to leave,
Oh, let them ne'er prevail !
- 3 The Spirit shall unite
Our souls to thee, our Head ;
Shall form in us thine image bright,
And teach thy paths to tread.
- 4 Death may our souls divide
From these abodes of clay ;
But love shall keep us near thy side,
Through all the gloomy way.
- 5 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear ?
If he in heaven has fixed his throne,
He'll fix his members there.

Only whisper, "Till he come."
- 4 See, the feast of love is spread;
Drink the wine and break the bread;
Sweet memorials,—till the Lord
Call us round his heavenly board;
Some from earth, from glory some,— Severed only "till he come."

- 1 WHEN on Sinai's top I see
God descend, in majesty,
To proclaim his holy law,
All my spirit sinks with awe.
- 2 When, in ecstasy sublime,
Tabor's glorious steep I climb,
At the too transporting light
Darkness rushes o'er my sight.

- 3 When on Calvary I rest,
God, in flesh made manifest,
Shines in my Redeemer's face,
Full of beauty, truth, and grace.
- 4 Here I would forever stay,
Weep and gaze my soul away ;
Thou art heaven on earth to me,
Lovely, mournful Calvary !

I. Bread of the world in mer - cy brok - en, Wine of the soul in mer - cy shed,

By whom the words of life were spok - en, And in whose death our sins are dead :

813

- 1 BREAD of the world in mercy broken,
Wine of the soul in mercy shed,
By whom the words of life were spoken,
And in whose death our sins are dead :
- 2 Look on the heart by sorrow broken,
Look on the tears by sinners shed,
And be thy feast to us the token
That by thy grace our souls are fed.

i. Come, O my soul, to Cal - va - ry, Cal - va - ry, Cal - va - ry,

And see the Man who died for thee Up - on th'ac - curs - ed tree.

CHORUS.

How can I for - get thee? How can I for - get my Lord?

How can I for - get thee? Dear Lord, re - mem - ber me....

814

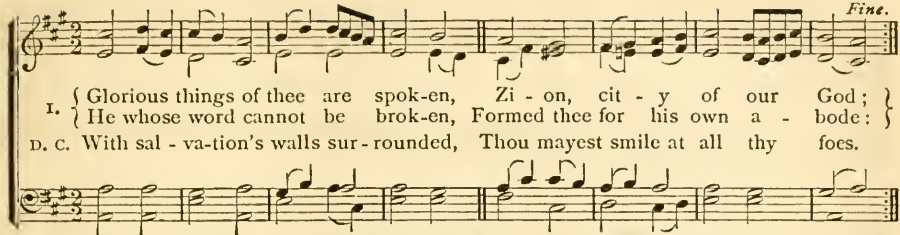

- 2 Behold the Saviour's agony—
While groaning in Gethsemane,
Beneath the sins of men.
Cho.—How can I forget thee? etc.
- 3 With purple robe, and thorny crown,
And mocking soldiers—bowing down,
The Saviour bears my shame.
Cho.—How can I forget thee? etc.
- 4 Behold, they shed his precious blood,
Oh! hear him cry, “My God, my God,
Hast thou forsaken me?”
Cho.—How can I forget thee? etc.
- 5 He died; the earth was rob'd in gloom,
They laid him then in Joseph's tomb,

- While soldiers watched around.
Cho.—How can I forget thee? etc.
- 6 But in the light of dawning day,
Bright angels rolled the rock away,
And Christ the conqueror rose.
Cho.—How can I forget thee? etc.
- 7 Soon he who once was scourged and bound,
Shall come again with glory crowned,
And reign forevermore.
Cho.—How can I forget thee? etc.
- 8 His saints shall crown him Lord of all;
Before him every foe shall fall,
And every knee shall bow.
Cho.—How can I forget thee? etc.

- 2 See, the streams of living waters,
 Springing from eternal love,
 Well supply thy sons and daughters,
 And all fear of want remove:
 Who can faint, while such a river
 Ever flows their thirst t' assuage?
 Grace which, like the Lord the Giver,
 Never fails from age to age.

- 3 Round each habitation hovering,
 See the cloud and fire appear
 For a glory and a covering,
 Showing that the Lord is near:
 Thus deriving from their banner
 Light by night and shade by day,
 Safe they feed upon the manna
 Which he gives them when they pray.

- 4 Saviour, if of Zion's city
 I, through grace, a member am,
 Let the world deride or pity,
 I will glory in thy Name:
 Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
 All his boasted pomp and show;

Solid joys and lasting treasure
 None but Zion's children know.

- 1 Lo! he comes! let all adore him!
 'Tis the God of grace and truth!
 Go! prepare the way before him,
 Make the rugged places smooth!
 Lo! he comes, the mighty Lord!
 Great his work, and his reward.
- 2 Let the valleys all be raiséd;
 Go, and make the crooked straight;
 Let the mountains be abaséd;
 Let all nature change its state;
 Through the desert mark a road,
 Make a highway for our God.
- 3 Through the desert God is going,
 Through the desert waste and wild,
 Where no goodly plant is growing,
 Where no verdure ever smiled:
 But the desert shall be glad,
 And with verdure soon be clad.

Our - selves, with hum - ble faith and joy, We yield to thee, O Lord.

817

- 2 Joined in one body may we be ;
One inward life partake ;
One be our heart ; one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.
- 3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils,
One wisdom be our guide ;
Taught by one Spirit from above,
In thee may we abide.
- 4 Complete in us, whom grace hath called,
Thy glorious work begun,
O thou, in whom the church on earth
And church in heaven are one.
- 5 Around this feeble, trusting band
Thy sheltering pinions spread,
Nor let the storms of trial beat
Too fiercely on our head.
- 6 Then, when, among the saints in light,
Our joyful spirits shine,
Shall anthems of immortal praise,
O Lamb of God, be thine.

- 1 BEHOLD the sure foundation-stone,
Which God in Zion lays,
To build our heavenly hopes upon,
And his eternal praise.
- 2 Chosen of God, to sinners dear,
Let saints adore the name ;

- They trust their whole salvation here,
Nor shall they suffer shame.
- 3 The foolish builders, scribe and priest,
Reject it with disdain ;
Yet on this rock the church shall rest,
And envy rage in vain.
 - 4 What though the gates of hell withstood,
Yet must this building rise :
'Tis thine own work, almighty God,
And wondrous in our eyes. WATTS.

819

- 1 COME, Lord, in mercy come again,
With thy converting power ;
The fields of Zion thirst for rain,
O send a gracious shower !
- 2 Our hearts are filled with sore distress,
While sinners all around
Are pressing on to endless death,
And no relief is found.
- 3 Dear Saviour, come with quickening
power,
Thy mourning people cry ;
Salvation bring in mercy's hour,
Nor let the sinner die.
- 4 Once more let converts throng thy house,
And shouts of victory raise ;
Then shall our griefs be turned to joy,
And sighs to songs of praise.

1. Oh, where are kings and em-pires now Of old that went and came?

But, Lord, thy church is pray - ing yet, A thousand years the same.

820

- 2 We mark her goodly battlements,
And her foundations strong ;
We hear within the solemn voice
Of her unending song.
- 3 For not like kingdoms of the world
Thy holy church, O God !
Though earthquake shocks are threatening her,
And tempests are abroad.
- 4 Unshaken as eternal hills,
Immovable she stands,
A mountain that shall fill the earth,
A house not made by hands.

- 1 OH, how the hearts of those revive,
Who fear and love the Lord,
When sinners dead are made alive,
By his all-quickenng word.
- 2 The parent views, with joyful eyes,
His now returning son,
And, lost in grateful rapture, cries,
What hath the Saviour done !
- 3 The ministers of Christ rejoice,
When souls the word receive ;
When sinners hear the Saviour's voice,
And in his name believe.
- 4 The church of God their praises join,
And of salvation sing ;

They glorify the grace divine,
Of their victorious King.

- 1 CHURCH of the ever-living God,
The Father's gracious choice,
Amid the voices of this earth
How feeble is thy voice !
- 2 A little flock !—so calls he thee
Who bought thee with his blood ;
A little flock, disowned of men,
But owned and loved of God.
- 3 Not many rich or noble called,
Not many great or wise ;
They whom God makes his kings and priests
Are poor in human eyes.
- 4 But the chief Shepherd comes at length ;
Their feeble days are o'er,
No more a handful in the earth,
A little flock no more.
- 5 No more a lily among thorns,
Weary and faint and few ;
But countless as the stars of heaven,
Or as the early dew.
- 6 Then entering th' eternal halls,
In robes of victory,
That mighty multitude shall keep
The joyous jubilee.

- 2 Awake, awake, put on thy strength,
Thy beautiful array;
The day of freedom dawns at length,
The Lord's appointed day.
- 3 Rebuild thy walls, thy bounds enlarge,
And send thy heralds forth;
Say to the south—"Give up thy charge,
And keep not back, O north!"
- 4 They come, they come;—thine exiled
bands,
Where'er they rest or roam,
Have heard thy voice in distant lands,
And hasten to their home.

- 1 BEHOLD, the mountain of the Lord,
In latter days, shall rise
On mountain tops, above the hills,
And draw the wond'ring eyes.
- 2 To this the joyful nations round,
All tribes and tongues, shall flow;
"Up to the hill of God," they say,
"And to his house we'll go."
- 3 The beams that shine on Zion's hill
Shall lighten every land;

- The King who reigns in Salem's towers
Shall all the world command.
- 4 No longer hosts encountering hosts,
Their millions slain deplore;
They hang the trumpet in the hall,
And study war no more.

- 1 LET Zion and her sons rejoice—
Behold the promised hour!
Her God hath heard her mourning
voice,
And comes to exalt his power.
- 2 Her dust and ruins that remain
Are precious in our eyes;
Those ruins shall be built again,
And all that dust shall rise.
- 3 The Lord will raise Jerusalem,
And stand in glory there;
Nations shall bow before his name,
And kings attend with fear.
- 4 He frees the soul condemned to death,
Nor, when his saints complain,
Shall it be said that praying breath
Was ever spent in vain.
- 5 This shall be known when we are dead,
And left on long record,
That nations yet unborn may read,
And trust and praise the Lord.

- 2 But we are come to Zion's hill,
The city of our God,
Where milder words declare his will,
And spread his love abroad.
- 3 Behold the great, the glorious host
Of angels clothed in light;
Behold the spirits of the just,
Whose faith is turned to sight.
- 4 Behold the blest assembly there,
Whose names are writ in heaven,
And God, the Judge, who doth declare
Their vilest sins forgiven.
- 5 The saints on earth, and all the dead,
But one communion make;
All join in Christ, their living Head,
And of his grace partake.

Our weary souls would rest;
The man who dwells where Jesus is
Must be forever blest. WATTS.

For human love is frail;
But thy Creator's love to thee,

And never shall remove.
- 3 Before his ever-watchful eye
Thy mournful state appears,
And every groan, and every sigh,
Divine compassion hears.

Be every fear suppressed;
Unchanging truth, and love, and power,
Dwell in thy Saviour's breast.

And enter to thy rest;
Behold, thy church, with longing eyes
Waits to be owned and blest.
- 2 Enter, with all thy glorious train,
Thy Spirit and thy Word;
All that the ark did once contain
Could no such grace afford.
- 3 Here, mighty God, accept our vows;
Here let thy praise be spread;
Bless the provisions of thy house,
And fill thy poor with bread.
- 4 Here let the Son of David reign,
Let God's Anointed shine;
Justice and truth his court maintain,
With love and power divine.

To see the work of God decline,
Methought I heard the Saviour say—
“Dismiss thy fears, the ark is mine.

Still wrestle at the throne of grace,
And wait for a reviving hour.
- 3 “Take down thy long-neglected harp,

The winter season has been sharp,
But spring shall all its wastes repair.”

Streams ever copious are gliding along;
Loud from the mountain-tops echoes are ringing,
Wastes rise in verdure, and mingle in song.

Praise to Jehovah ascending on high;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

A fruitful soil become!
The desert blossoms as the rose,
When Jesus conquers all his foes,
And makes his people one.
- 3 The glorious time is rolling on,
The gracious work is now begun,
My soul a witness is!
"Oh, taste and see the pardon free,
For all mankind as well as me!
Oh, come to Christ and live!"
- 4 Amen, amen, my soul replies,
I'm bound to meet you in the skies,
And claim my mansion there!
Now here's my heart, and here's my hand,
To meet you in that heavenly land,
Where we shall part no more.

LOVING-KINDNESS. L. M.

1. A-wake, my soul, in joy-ful lays, And sing thy great Re-deemer's praise ;

He saved me from my lost estate :

He safely leads my soul along :

And sing with rapture and surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies ! |

HAPPINESS. 11s & 9s.

WESTERN MELODY.

1. Oh ! how happy are they Who their Saviour obey, And have laid up their treasure a-bove !

Tongue can never express The sweet comfort and peace Of a soul in its ear - li - est love.

851

2 That sweet comfort was mine
 When the favor divine
 I had found in the blood of the Lamb.
 When at first I believed,
 What true joy I received !
 What a heaven in Jesus' sweet name !

3 'Twas a heaven below
 My Redeemer to know ;
 And the angels could do nothing more
 Than to fall at his feet,
 And the story repeat,
 And the Lover of sinners adore.

4 Jesus, all the day long,
 Was my joy and my song :
 Oh, that all his salvation might see !
 " He hath loved me," I cried,
 " He hath suffered and died
 To redeem such a rebel as me !"

C. WESLEY.

852

1 O THOU, in whose presence
 My soul takes delight,
 On whom in affliction I call,
 My comfort by day,
 And my song in the night,
 My hope, my salvation, my all.

2 Where dost thou, dear Shepherd,
 Resort with thy sheep,

To feed them in pastures of love ;
 Say, why in the valley
 Of death should I weep,
 Or alone in this wilderness rove.

3 Ye daughters of Zion,
 Declare, have you seen
 The star that on Israel shone ?
 Say, if in your tents
 My Beloved has been,
 And where with his flocks he is gone ?

4 Love sits in his eyelids,
 And scatters delight
 Through all the bright mansions on high !
 Their faces the cherubim
 Veil in his sight,
 And tremble with fulness of joy.

5 He looks ! and ten thousands
 Of angels rejoice,
 And myriads wait for his word ;
 He speaks ! and eternity,
 Filled with his voice,
 Re-echoes the praise of the Lord.

6 Dear Shepherd ! I hear, and
 Will follow thy call ;
 I know the sweet sound of thy voice ;
 Restore and defend me,
 For thou art my all.
 And in thee I will ever rejoice.

 Speak gladness to this heart;
 They tell me all is done;
 They bid my fear depart:
- 2 Thy tears, not mine, O Christ,
 Have wept my guilt away;
 And turned this night of mine
 Into a blessed day:
- 3 Thy wounds, not mine, O Christ,
 Can heal my bruised soul;
 Thy stripes, not mine, contain
 The balm that makes me whole:
- 4 Thy cross, not mine, O Christ,
 Has borne the awful load
 Of sins that none could bear
 But the incarnate God:
- 5 Thy death, not mine, O Christ,
 Has paid the ransom due;
 Ten thousand deaths like mine
 Would have been all too few:
- 6 Thy righteousness alone
 Can clothe and beautify;
 I wrap it round my soul,
 In this I'll live and die.

- 1 I BRING my sins to thee,
 The sins I cannot count,
 That all may cleanséd be
 In thy once-opened fount.
- 2 My heart to thee I bring,
 The heart I cannot read,
 A faithless, wandering thing,
 An evil heart indeed.
- 3 To thee I bring my care,
 The care I cannot flee;
 Thou wilt not only share,
 But take it all for me.
- 4 I bring my grief to thee,
 The grief I cannot tell;
 No words shall needed be,
 Thou knowest all so well.
- 5 My joys to thee I bring,
 The joys thy love has given,
 That each may be a wing
 To lift me nearer heaven.
- 6 My life I bring to thee,
 I would not be my own;
 O Saviour! let me be
 Thine ever, thine alone!

1. I lay my sins on Je - sus, The spotless Lamb of God ; He bears them all, and frees us From the ac-curs-ed load : I bring my guilt to Je - sus, To wash my crimson stains, White in his blood most precious, Till not a stain remains.

855

- 2 I lay my wants on Jesus ;
All fullness dwells in him ;
He healeth my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem :
I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares ;
He from them all releases,
He all my sorrow shares.
- 3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine ;
His right hand me embraces,
I on his breast recline :
I love the name of Jesus,
Immanuel, Christ, the Lord ;
Like fragrance on the breezes,
His name abroad is poured.
- 4 I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild ;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy child :
I long to be with Jesus
Amid the heavenly throng,
To sing with saints his praises,
And learn the angels' song.

BONAR.

- 1 O BLESSED feet of Jesus,
Weary with seeking me !
Stand at God's bar of judgment
And intercede for me.
O knees which bent in anguish
In dark Gethsemane !
Kneel at the throne of glory
And intercede for me.
- 2 O hands that were extended
Upon the awful tree !
Hold up those precious nail prints
Which intercede for me.
O head so deeply pierced
With thorns which sharpest be !
Bend low before thy Father,
And intercede for me.
- 3 O body scarred and wounded,
My sacrifice to be !
Present thy perfect offering
And intercede for me.
O loving risen Saviour,
From death and sorrow free !
Though throned in endless glory,
Still intercede for me.

 On the rocks and hills to fall ;
 When I see them start and shrink,
 On the fiery deluge brink ;

 Clothed in beauty not my own ;
 When I see thee as thou art,

- Hidden in the Saviour's side,
 By the Spirit sanctified—
 Teach me, Lord, on earth to show,
 By my love, how much I owe.

 Dark as midnight's gloomy shroud ;
 But, when fear is at the height,
 Jesus comes, and all is light ;
 Blesséd Jesus ! bid me show
 Doubting saints how much I owe.
 - 3 Oft the nights of sorrow reign—
 Weeping, sickness, sighing, pain ;
 But a night thine anger burns—
 Morning comes, and joy returns :
 God of comforts ! bid me show
 To thy poor how much I owe.
 - 4 When in flowery paths I tread,
 Oft by sin I'm captive led ;
 Oft I fall, but still arise—
 Jesus comes—the tempter flies :
 Blesséd Jesus ! bid me show
 Weary sinners all I owe.

 Welcome eternity !
 Jesus is mine.
 He my Redemption is,
 Wisdom and Righteousness,

 Born but for one brief day,
 Pass from my heart away ;

 That I have loved so long!—Cho. |

Thy wounds, Imman-uel, all for-bid That I should seek my pleasure there.

2 It was the sight of thy dear cross,
First weaned my soul from earthly things,

And taught me to esteem as dross
The mirth of fools and pomp of kings.

3 I want that grace that springs from thee,

That quickens all things where it flows,
And makes a wretched thorn like me
Bloom as the myrtle or the rose.

4 For sure, of all the plants that share
The notice of my Father's eye,
None proves less grateful to his care,
Or yields him meaner fruit than I.

1 JESUS, thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;

Unite my thankful heart to thee,
And reign without a rival there.

2 Thy love, how cheering is its ray!
All pain before its presence flies;
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away
Where'er its healing beams arise.

3 Oh, let thy love my soul inflame,
And to thy service sweetly bind;
Transfuse it through my inmost frame,
And mould me wholly to thy mind.

4 Thy love, in sufferings, be my peace;
Thy love, in weakness, make me strong,
And, when the storms of life shall cease,
Thy love shall be in heaven my song.

1 How happy every child of grace,
Who knows his sins forgiven!
This earth, he cries, is not my place,
I seek my place in heaven:

A country far from mortal sight,
Yet oh, by faith I see
The land of rest, the saints' delight,
The heaven prepared for me.

2 Oh what a blessed hope is ours!
While here on earth we stay,
We more than taste the heavenly powers,
And antedate that day:

We feel the resurrection near—
Our life in Christ concealed—
And with his glorious presence here
Our earthen vessels filled.

3 Oh, would he more of heaven bestow,
And let the vessels break,
And let our ransomed spirits go
To grasp the God we seek;
In rapturous awe on him to gaze,
Who bought the sight for me,
And shout and wonder at his grace
To all eternity. C. WESLEY.

1. Oh, gift of gifts! oh, grace of faith! My God! how can it be
That thou, who hast discerning love, Shouldst give that gift to me?

872

- 2 How many hearts thou mightst have had
More innocent than mine!
How many souls more worthy far
Of that sweet touch of thine!
- 3 Ah, grace! into unlikeliest hearts
It is thy boast to come,
The glory of thy light to find
In darkest spots a home.
- 4 The crowd of cares, the weightiest cross,
Seem trifles less than light—
Earth looks so little and so low
When faith shines full and bright.
- 5 Oh, happy, happy that I am!
If thou canst be, O faith,
The treasure that thou art in life,
What wilt thou be in death!

FABER.

873

- 1 ALL that I was, my sin and guilt,
My death was all my own,—
All that I am, I owe to thee,
My gracious God, alone.
- 2 The evil of my former state
Was mine, and only mine;
The good in which I now rejoice,
Is thine, and only thine.
- 3 The darkness of my former state,
The bondage, all was mine;

The light of life, in which I walk,
The liberty, is thine.

- 4 Thy grace first made me feel my sin,
It taught me to believe;
Then, in believing, peace I found,
And now I live—I live!

- 5 All that I am, e'en here on earth;
All that I hope to be,
When Jesus comes, and glory dawns,
I owe it, Lord, to thee.

Where can such sweetness be,
As I have tasted in thy love,
As I have found in thee?
- 2 If there's a fervor in my soul,
And fervor sure there is,
Now it shall be at thy control,
And but to serve thee rise.
- 3 If love, that mildest flame, can rest
In hearts so hard as mine,
Come, gentle Saviour, to my breast,
Its love shall all be thine.
- 4 Now the gay world with treacherous art
Shall tempt my heart in vain,
I have conveyed away that heart,
Ne'er to return again.

Then let me nothing love:
Dead be my heart to every joy
When Jesus cannot move.
- 3 Is not thy name melodious still
To mine attentive ear?
Doth not each pulse with pleasure
bound,
My Saviour's voice to hear?
- 4 Hast thou a lamb in all thy flock
I would disdain to feed?
Hast thou a foe before whose face
I fear thy cause to plead?

But oh, I long to soar
Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
And learn to love thee more.

- 1 My God, what silken cords are thine,
How soft, and yet how strong;
While power and truth, and love combine
To draw our souls along.
- 2 Thou saw'st us crushed beneath the yoke
Of Satan and of sin;
Thy hand the iron bondage broke,
Our worthless hearts to win.

- 3 The guilt of twice ten thousand sins
One offering takes away;
And grace, when first the war begins,
Secures the crowning day.
- 4 Comfort through all this vale of tears
In rich profusion flows,
And glory of unnumbered years
Eternity bestows.

Till round thy throne we meet;
And, captives in the chains of love,
Embrace our Conq'rour's feet.

As my eternal God,
Who bears the earth's huge pillars up
And spreads the heavens abroad?
- 2 How can I die while Jesus lives,
Who rose and left the dead?
Pardon and grace my soul receives
From mine exalted Head.
- 3 All that I am, and all I have,
Shall be forever thine;
Whate'er my duty bids me give,
My cheerful hands resign.

And duty did not call,
I love my God with zeal so great,
That I would give him all. WATTS.

Their souls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as summer evenings be.
- 4 How oft they look to heavenly hills,
Where streams of living pleasures flow ;
And longing hopes and cheerful smiles
Sit undisturbed upon their brow !
- 5 They scorn to seek earth's golden toys,
But spend the day, and share the night,
In numbering o'er the richer joys
That heaven prepares for their delight.

I. Je - sus ! thy robe of right-eous-ness My beau-ty is, my glo - rious dress ;

'Mid flaming worlds, in this ar - rayed, With joy shall I lift up my head.

881

- 2 When from the dust of death I rise,
To claim my mansion in the skies,
E'en then shall this be all my plea—
"Jesus hath lived and died for me."
- 3 This spotless robe the same appears,
When ruined nature sinks in years ;
No age can change its lovely hue ;
Its glory is forever new.
- 4 O let the dead now hear thy voice ;
Now bid thy banished ones rejoice ;
Their beauty this, their glorious dress,
Jesus, the Lord, our righteousness.

ZINZENDORF.

882

- 1 How vast the treasure we possess,
How rich thy bounty, King of grace !
This world is ours, and worlds to come ;
Earth is our lodge, and heaven our home.
- 2 All things are ours, the gifts of God,
The purchase of a Saviour's blood ;
While the good Spirit shows us how
To use and to improve them too.
- 3 If peace and plenty crown my days,
They help me, Lord, to speak thy praise ;
If bread of sorrows be my food,
Those sorrows work my lasting good.
- 4 I would not change my blest estate
For all the world calls good or great ;

And, while my faith can keep her hold,
I envy not the sinner's gold.

883

- 1 No more, ye wise ! your wisdom boast ;
No more, ye strong ! your valor trust ;
No more, ye rich ! survey your store,
Elate with heaps of shining ore.
- 2 Glory, ye saints, in this alone,—
That God, your God, to you is known ;
That you have own'd his sovereign
sway,
That you have felt his cheering ray.
- 3 All else, which we our treasure call,
May in one fatal moment fall ;
But what their happiness can move,
Whom God, the bless'd, deigns to love?

DODDRIDGE.

884

- 1 My precious Lord, for thy dear Name
I bear the cross, despise the shame ;
Nor do I faint while thou art near ;
I lean on thee ; how can I fear ?
- 2 No other name but thine is given
To cheer my soul, in earth or heaven ;
No other wealth will I require ;
No other friend can I desire.
- 3 Yea, into nothing would I fall
For thee alone, my All in All ;
To feel thy love, my only joy,
To tell thy love, my sole employ.

SHEPHERD. L. M.

Arr. "MAROT & BEZA Ps."

1. Thou, whom my soul admires a - bove All earthly joy and earth-ly love—Tell me, dear Shepherd, let me know, Where do thy sweetest pas - tures grow? Where do thy sweetest pas - tures grow?

885

- 2 Where is the shadow of that rock,
That from the sun defends thy flock?
Fain would I feed among thy sheep,
Among them rest, among them sleep.
- 3 Why should thy bride appear like one,
That turns aside to paths unknown?
My constant feet would never-rove,
Would never seek another love.
- 4 The footsteps of thy flock I see ;
The sweetest pastures here they be ;
A wondrous feast thy love prepares,
Bought with thy wounds, and groans and tears
- 5 His dearest flesh he makes my food,
And bids me drink his richest blood ;
Here to these hills, my soul would come,
Till my Beloved leads me home.

WATTS.

886

- 1 OF all the joys we mortals know,
Jesus, thy love exceeds the rest ;
Love the best blessing here below,
The nearest image of the blest.
- 2 While we are held in thine embrace,
There's not a thought attempts to rove ;
Each smile upon thy beauteous face
Fixes, and charms, and fires our love.
- 3 While of thy absence we complain,
And long, or weep in all we do,

23

There's a strange pleasure in the pain,
And tears have their own sweetness too.

- 4 When round thy courts by day we rove,
Or ask the watchman of the night
For some kind tidings of our love,
Thy very name creates delight.

- 5 Jesus, our God, yet rather come,—
Our eyes would dwell upon thy face :
'Tis best to see our Lord at home,
And feel the presence of his grace.

WATTS.

887

- 1 I LOVE, I love thee, Lord most high !
Because thou first hast lovéd me ;
I seek no other liberty
But that of being bound to thee.
- 2 May memory no thought suggest,
But shall to thy pure glory tend :
My understanding find no rest,
Except in thee, its only end.
- 3 All mine is thine ; say but the word,
Whate'er thou wilt shall be done ;
I know thy love, all-gracious Lord ;
I know it seeks my good alone.
- 4 Apart from thee all things are naught ;
Then grant, O my supremest Bliss,—
Grant me to love thee as I ought ;
Thou givest all in giving this. XAVIER.

THE SHADOW OF THE ROCK. -

J. E. GOULD.

DUET.

CHORUS.

i. The Shadow of the Rock! Stay, pil-grim, stay! Night treads upon the heels of day; There is no oth-er rest-ing-place this way.

The Rock is near, The well is clear.
The Rock is near,..... The well is clear.

DUET. CHORUS. rit.
Rest in the Shadow of the Rock; Rest, oh, Rest in the Shadow of the Rock!

888

2 The Shadow of the Rock!
All come alone;
All, ever since the sun hath shone,
Who traveled by this road, have come
Be of good cheer— [alone.
A home is here—
Rest in the Shadow of the Rock!

3 The Shadow of the Rock!
To weary feet,
That have been diligent and fleet,
The sleep is deeper, and the shade more
sweet.

O weary, rest!
Thou art sore pressed—
Rest in the Shadow of the Rock

4 The Shadow of the Rock!
One day of pain,
Thou scarce wilt hope the Rock to gain,
Yet there wilt sleep thy last sleep of the plain.
And only wake
In heaven's daybreak—
Rest in the Shadow of the Rock!

THE CROSS. 8s & 6s.

J. H. STOCKTON.

Slow.

i. The cross! the cross! the blood-stained cross! The hal-lowed cross I see!

Re - mind - ing me of pre - cious blood That once was shed for me.

CHORUS. Slow and soft.

Oh, the blood! the pre - cious blood! That Je - sus shed for me; ritard.

Up - on the cross, in crim - son flood, Just now by faith I see.

889

- 2 The cross: the cross! that heavy cross,
My Saviour bore for me;
It bowed him to the earth with grief
On sad Mount Calvary.—Chorus.
- 3 The wounds! the wounds! those painful wounds;
Oh! they were made for me!
His hands and feet, his holy head,
All pierced and torn I see.—Chorus.
- 4 The death! the death! the awful death
That Jesus died for me!
I heard his groans, his prayer, "Forgive,"
His bleeding side I see.—Chorus.
- 5 The love! the love! the matchless love,
That bled upon the tree!
It melts my heart, it wins my love,
It brings me, Lord, to thee.—Chorus.

LYTE. 6s & 4s.

J. P. HOLBROOK.

1. Je - sus, thy name I love, All oth - er names a - bove, Je - sus, my Lord! Oh, thou art all to me! Noth - ing to please I see, Noth - ing a - part from thee, Je - sus, my Lord!

890

- 2 Thou, blesséd Son of God,
 Hast bought me with thy blood,
 Jesus, my Lord!
 Oh! how great is thy love,
 All other loves above,
 Love that I daily prove,
 Jesus, my Lord!
- 3 When unto thee I flee,
 Thou wilt my refuge be,
 Jesus, my Lord!

- What need I now to fear?
 What earthly grief or care,
 Since thou art ever near?
 Jesus, my Lord!
- 4 Soon thou wilt come again!
 I shall be happy then,
 Jesus, my Lord!
 Then thine own face I'll see,
 Then I shall like thee be,
 Then evermore with thee,
 Jesus, my Lord!

HOW I LOVE JESUS. C. M.

1. A - mazing grace ! how sweet the sound That saved a wretch like me ! I once was lost, but now am found—Was blind, but now I see. Oh, how I love Je - sus ;

CHORUS.

HOW I LOVE JESUS. Concluded.

Oh, how I love Je - sus ; Oh, how I love Je - sus, Because he first loved me.

891

- 2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
 And grace my fears relieved ;
 How precious did that grace appear,
 The hour I first believed !
- 3 Through many dangers, toils and snares,
 I have already come ;

- 'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
 And grace will lead me home.
- 4 Yes—when this flesh and heart shall fail,
 And mortal life shall cease,
 I shall possess, within the veil,
 A life of joy and peace. NEWTON.

1, When God re-vealed his gra-cious name, And changed my mournful state,

My rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-peared so great.

892

- 2 The world beheld the glorious change,
 And did thy hand confess ;
 My tongue broke out in unknown strains,
 And sung surprising grace.
- 3 "Great is the work," my neighbors cried,
 And owned thy power divine ;
 "Great is the work," my heart replied,
 "And be the glory thine."

- 4 The Lord can clear the darkest skies,
 Can give us day for night ;
 Make drops of sacred sorrow rise
 To rivers of delight.
- 5 Let those that sow in sadness wait
 Till the fair harvest come ;
 They shall confess their sheaves are great,
 And shout the blessings home.

I could from all things part-ed be, But nev - er, nev - er, Lord, from thee.

893

- 2 Needful is thy most precious blood,
To reconcile my soul to God ;
Needful is thy indulgent care ;
Needful thy all-prevailing prayer.
- 3 Needful thy presence, dearest Lord,
True peace and comfort to afford ;
Needful thy promise, to impart
Fresh life and vigor to my heart.
- 4 Needful art thou, my guide, my stay,
Through all life's dark and weary way ;
Nor less in death thou 'lt needful be,
To bring my spirit home to thee.
- 5 Then needful still, my God, my King,
Thy name eternally I'll sing !
Glory and praise be ever his,—
The one thing needful Jesus is !

894

- 1 THOU only Sovereign of my heart,
My Refuge, my Almighty Friend,
And can my soul from thee depart,
On whom alone my hopes depend ?
- 2 Whither, ah ! whither shall I go,
A wretched wanderer from my Lord ?
Can this dark world of sin and woe
One glimpse of happiness afford ?
- 3 Eternal life thy words impart ;
On these my fainting spirit lives ;

Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart
Than all the round of nature gives.

- 4 Thy name my inmost powers adore ;
Thou art my Life, my Joy, my Care ;
Depart from thee ! 'tis death, 'tis more ;
'Tis endless ruin, deep despair !
- 5 Low at thy feet my soul would lie ;
Here safety dwells, and peace divine ;
Still let me live beneath thine eye,
For life, eternal life, is thine.

STEELE.

895

- 1 My God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and thee ;
Amid a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.
- 2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heavenly birth ?
Why should I cleave to things below,
And let my God, my Saviour, go ?
- 3 Call me away from flesh and sense ;
One sovereign word can draw me thence ;
I would obey the voice divine,
And all inferior joys resign.
- 4 Be earth, with all her scenes withdrawn ;
Let noise and vanity be gone :
In secret silence of the mind
My heaven, and there my God, I find.

Lord, I would seize the golden hour:
I pray to be released from guilt,
And freed from sin and Satan's power.
- 2 More of thy presence, Lord, impart;
More of thine image let me bear:
Erect thy throne within my heart,
And reign without a rival there.
- 3 Give me to read my pardon sealed,
And from thy joy to draw my strength;
Oh, be thy boundless love revealed

And fruits, and flowers, and stream,

But his who all with glory fills,
Who bought me with his precious blood,

Its curious work, its living soul;
But his who for my ransom came;
Slain for my sake, he claims the whole.

Oh, not my own the thought that leaps,
Adoring, blessed Lord, to thee.

Safe home, to wander nevermore.

Till we ar-rive at heaven, our home, Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

- 2 The want of sight she well supplies ;
She makes the pearly gates appear ;
Far into distant worlds she pries,

Though lions roar, and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.

- 1 Go, labor thou, while it is day ;
The world's dark night is hastening on :
Speed, speed thy work,—cast sloth
away !
It is not thus that souls are won.
- 2 Men die in darkness at your side,
Without a hope to cheer the tomb :
Take up the torch and wave it wide—
The torch that lights time's thickest gloom.
- 3 Toil on—faint not ; keep watch and
Be wise the erring soul to win ; [pray !
Go forth into the world's highway ;
Compel the wanderer to come in.
- 4 Go, labor on ; your hands are weak ;
Your knees are faint, your soul cast
down ;
But falter not ; the prize you seek
Is near,—a kingdom and a crown !

- 1 HAD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews,
And nobler speech than angels use,
If love be absent, I am found
Like tinkling brass, an empty sound.
- 2 Should I distribute all my store
To feed the hungry, clothe the poor ;
Or give my body to the flame,

Be absent, all my hopes are vain ;
Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal,

And grace subdues the power of sin.

Ambition, envy, lust, and pride ;

904

2 What is my being but for thee,
Its sure support, its noblest end,—
Thine ever-smiling face to see,
And serve the cause of such a Friend!

3 I would not breathe for worldly joy,
Or to increase my worldly good;
Nor future days nor powers employ
To spread a sounding name abroad.

4 'Tis to my Saviour I would live,
To him who for my ransom died;
Nor could the bowers of Eden give
Such bliss as blossoms at his side.

5 His work my hoary age shall bless,
When youthful vigor is no more;
And my last hour of life confess
His dying love, his saving power.

DODDRIDGE.

905

1 WHEN Jesus dwelt in mortal clay,
What were his works from day to day,
But miracles of power and grace,
That spread salvation through our race?

2 Teach us, O Lord, to keep in view
Thy pattern, and thy steps pursue;
Let alms bestowed, let kindness done,
Be witnessed by each rolling sun.

3 That man may last, but never lives,
Who much receives, but nothing gives;
Whom none can love, whom none can thank,
Creation's blot, creation's blank!

4 But he who marks, from day to day,
In generous acts his radiant way,
Treads the same path his Saviour trod,
The path to glory and to God.

GIBBONS.

906

1 Go, labor on; spend and be spent;
Thy joy to do the Father's will;
It is the way the Master went,
Should not the servant tread it still?

2 Go, labor on; 'tis not for nought;
Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain,
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not;
The Master praises,—what are men!

3 Go, labor on; enough while here
If he shall praise thee; if he deign
Thy willing heart to mark and cheer;
No toil for him shall be in vain.

4 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice;
For toil comes rest, for exile home;
Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's
voice,
The midnight peal: "Behold, I come!"

- 1 LORD, as to thy dear Cross we flee,
And plead to be forgiven,
So let thy life our pattern be,
And form our souls for heaven.
- 2 Help us, through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear;
Like thee, to do our Father's will,
Our brethren's griefs to share.

Our earthliness refine;
And kindness in our bosoms dwell,
As free and true as thine.

Or brethren faithless prove, [fame,
Then, like thine own, be all our aim

- 1 SCORN not the slightest word or deed,
Nor deem it void of power;
There's fruit in each wind-wafted seed,
That waits its natal hour.
- 2 A whispered word may touch the heart,
And call it back to life;
A look of love bid sin depart,
And still unholy strife.
- 3 No act falls fruitless; none can tell
How vast its power may be,
Nor what results infolded dwell
Within it silently.
- 4 Work on, despair not, bring thy mite,
Nor care how small it be;
God is with all that serve the right,
The holy, true, and free.

910

With God laid up in store;
Treasures beyond the changing sky,

At Jesus' feet I lay;
Grace shall the humble gift receive,
Abounding grace repay.

1. Oh, for a heart to praise my God, A heart from sin set free;
A heart that al-ways feels thy blood, So free-ly shed for me!

911

My dear Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone!
- 3 An humble, lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean!
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within.
- 4 A heart in every thought renewed
And filled with love divine;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good;
A copy, Lord, of thine.
- 5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above;
Write thy new name upon my heart,—
Thy new, best name of love.

912

- 1 FAITH adds new charms to earthly bliss,
And saves us from its snares;
It yields support in all our toils,
And softens all our cares.
- 2 The wounded conscience knows its power
The healing balm to give;
That balm the saddest heart can cheer,
And make the dying live.
- 3 Unveiling wide the heavenly world,
Where endless pleasures reign,

It bids us seek our portion there,
Nor bids us seek in vain.

- 4 Faith shows the promise fully sealed
With our Redeemer's blood;
It helps our feeble hope to rest
Upon a faithful God.
- 5 There, still unshaken, would we rest,
Till this frail body dies,
And then, on faith's triumphant wing
To endless glory rise.

- 1 BLEST is the man whose softening heart
Feels all another's pain;
To whom the supplicating eye
Was never raised in vain:—
- 2 Whose breast expands with generous warmth,
A stranger's woes to feel;
And bleeds in pity o'er the wound
He wants the power to heal.
- 3 He spreads his kind, supporting arms,
To every child of grief;
His secret bounty largely flows,
And brings unasked relief.

His feet are never slow:
He views, through mercy's melting eye,
A brother in a foe.

914

- 2 I love to kiss each print where thou
Hast set thine unseen feet;
I cannot fear thee, blessed will,
Thine empire is so sweet.
- 3 I have no cares, O blessed will,
For all my cares are thine;
I live in triumph, Lord, for thou
Hast made thy triumphs mine.
- 4 He always wins who sides with God,
To him no chance is lost;
God's will is sweetest to him when
It triumphs at his cost.
- 5 Ill, that God blesses, is our good,
And unblest good is ill;
And all is right that seems most wrong,
If it be his dear will!

Like prison-walls to be,
I do the little I can do,
And leave the rest to thee. FABER.

915

- 1 OH, it is hard to work for God,
To rise and take his part
Upon this battle-field of earth,
And not sometimes lose heart!
- 2 He hides himself so wondrously,
As though there was no God;
He is least seen when all the powers
Of ill are most abroad;

- 3 Or he deserts us in the hour
The fight is all but lost;
And seems to leave us to ourselves
Just when we need him most.
- 4 It is not so, but so it looks;
And we lose courage then;
And doubts will come if God hath kept
His promises to men.
- 5 But right is right, since God is God;
And right the day must win;
To doubt would be disloyalty,
To falter would be sin!

FABER.

916

Most strange in all its ways,
And, of all things on earth, least like
What men agree to praise.
- 2 Oh, blessed is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field, when he Is most invisible!
- 3 Workman of God! oh lose not heart,
But learn what God is like;
And in the darkest battle-field
Thou shalt know where to strike.
- 4 Oh, learn to scorn the praise of men!
Oh, learn to lose with God!
For Jesus won the world thro' shame,
And beckons thee his road.

Beneath the chastening rod,
But, in the hour of grief or pain,

That when in danger knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt ;—
- 4 That bears, unmoved, the world's dread

Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Lights up a dying bed.

Which comes from outward rest,
If we may have through all life's woes
Thy peace within our breast ;—

- 3 That peace which suffers and is strong,
Trusts where it cannot see,
Deems not the trial way too long,
But leaves the end with thee ;—
- 4 That peace which flows serene and
A river in the soul, [deep—
Whose banks a living verdure keep,—
God's sunshine o'er the whole !

The sounds my ear that greet,—
Calm in the closet's solitude,
Calm in the bustling street ;—

Calm in the hour of pain,
Calm in my poverty or wealth,
Calm in my loss or gain ;—

Like him who bore my shame,
Calm 'mid the threatening, taunting

1. Speak gently—it is bet-ter far To rule by love than fear; Speak gently—let no harsh word mar The good we may do here, The good we may do here.

920

- 2 Speak gently to the little child!
Its love be sure to gain;
Teach it in accents soft and mild—
It may not long remain.
- 3 Speak gently to the young—for they
Will have enough to bear;
Pass through this life as best they may,
'Tis full of anxious care.
- 4 Speak gently to the aged one,
Grieve not the careworn heart;
The sands of life are nearly run,
Let them in peace depart.
- 5 Speak gently, kindly, to the poor;
Let no harsh tone be heard;
They have enough they must endure,
Without an unkind word!
- 6 Speak gently to the erring ones—
They must have toiled in vain;
Perchance unkindness made them so;
Oh, win them back again!
- 7 Speak gently—'tis a little thing,
Dropped in the heart's deep well;
The good, the joy, that it may bring,
Eternity shall tell. BATES.

921

- 1 Who is thy neighbor? he whom thou
Hast power to aid or bless;

Whose aching heart or burning brow
Thy soothing hand may press.

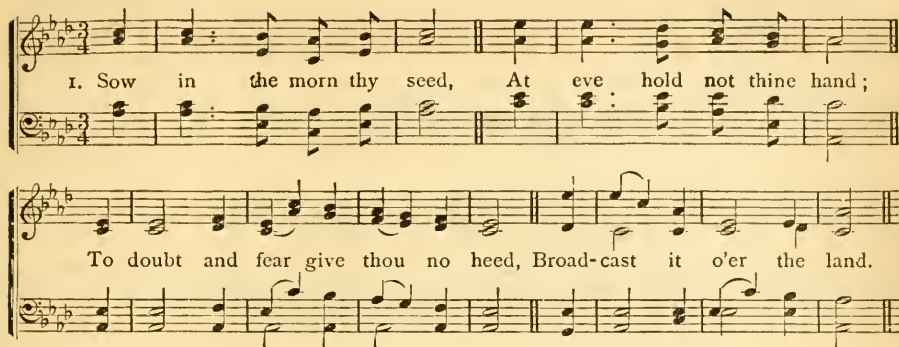

- 2 Thy neighbor? 'tis the fainting poor,
Whose eye with want is dim;
Oh enter thou his humble door,
With aid and peace for him.
- 3 Thy neighbor? he who drinks the cup
When sorrow drowns the brim;
With words of high sustaining hope,
Go thou and comfort him.
- 4 Thy neighbor? pass no mourner by;
Perhaps thou canst redeem
A breaking heart from misery;
Go, share thy lot with him. PEABODY.

922

- 1 MAKE channels for the streams of love,
Where they may broadly run;
And love has overflowing streams,
To fill them every one.
- 2 But if at any time we cease
Such channels to provide,
The very founts of love for us
Will soon be parched and dried.
- 3 For we must share, if we would keep
That blessing from above;
Ceasing to give, we cease to have;—
Such is the law of love. TRENCH.

GREATOREX.

I. Sow in the morn thy seed, At eve hold not thine hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed, Broad-cast it o'er the land.

923

- 2 Beside all waters sow,
The highway furrows stock,
Drop it where thorns and thistles grow,
Scatter it on the rock.
- 3 Thou knowest not which may thrive,
The late or early sown;
Grace keeps the precious germ alive,
When and wherever strown.
- 4 And duly shall appear,
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn at length.
- 5 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, and moist and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garners in the sky.
- 6 Thence when the glorious end,
The day of God shall come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
And heaven cry, "Harvest home!"

MONTGOMERY.

924

- 1 LABORERS of Christ, arise,
And gird you for the toil;
The dew of promise from the skies
Already cheers the soil.
- 2 Go where the sick recline,
Where mourning hearts deplore;
And where the sons of sorrow pine,
Dispense your hallowed lore.

- 3 Urge, with a tender zeal,
The erring child along
Where peaceful congregations kneel,
And pious teachers throng.
- 4 Be faith, which looks above,
With prayer, your constant guest,
And wrap the Saviour's changeless love
A mantle round your breast.
- 5 So shall you share the wealth
That earth may ne'er despoil,
And the blest gospel's saving health
Repay your arduous toil.

- 1 LOVE is the fountain whence
All true obedience flows;
The Christian serves the God he loves,
And loves the God he knows.
- 2 He treads the heavenly road,
And neither faints nor tires;
That generous love which warms his breast,
With fortitude inspires.
- 3 No burden seems so great,
No task so hard appears,
But this he cheerfully performs,
And that he meekly bears.

O'er all my powers preside;
Direct my thoughts, suggest my words,
And every action guide!

O'er our pathway dark and drear ;
Waking hope within our bosoms,

- 1 BLESSED angels, high in heaven
O'er the penitent rejoice :
Hast thou for thy brother striven
With an importuning voice ?
- 2 Art thou not thy brother's keeper,
Canst thou not his soul obtain ?
He that wakes his brother sleeper
Double life himself shall gain.
- 3 Think how words in season spoken,
In the sinful heart sink deep,
And the first link may have broken
Of the chains that round him creep.

- 4 Think of that day when each brother
To his brother shall be known :
If thy prayers have saved another,
God will then thy service own.
- 5 Then, when ends this life's short fever,
They, who many turn to God,
Like the stars shall shine forever,
In th' eternal brotherhood !

Bearing precious seed in love,
Never tiring, never sleeping,

Precious fruits will thus be given,
Through an influence all divine.
- 3 Sow thy seed, be never weary,
Let no fears thy soul annoy ;
Be the prospect ne'er so dreary,
Thou shalt reap the fruits of joy.

See the rising grain appear ;
Look again ! the fields are whitening,
For the harvest time is near.

Work, for the night is com - ing, When man's work is done.

933

2 Work for the night is coming,
 Work thro' the sunny noon ;
 Fill brightest hours with labor,
 Rest comes sure and soon.
 Give every flying minute,
 Something to keep in store :
 Work, for the night is coming,
 When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
 Under the sunset skies ;
 While their bright tints are glowing,
 Work, for daylight flies.
 Work till the last beam fadeth,
 Fadeth to shine no more ;
 Work while the night is dark'ning,
 When man's work is o'er.

For one short dream of joy :
With fond embrace cling to a clod,
And fling all heaven away.
- 3 Vain world, thy weak attempts forbear,
We all thy charms defy ;
And rate our precious souls too dear,
For all thy wealth to buy.

936

- 1 OH not to fill the mouth of fame
My longing soul is stirred ;
Oh give me a diviner name,—
Call me thy servant, Lord.
- 2 Sweet title that delighteth me,
Rank earnestly implored ;
Oh what can reach the dignity
Of thy true servants, Lord ?
- 3 No longer would my soul be known
As self-sustained and free ;
Oh, not mine own, oh, not mine own,
Lord, I belong to thee.
- 4 In life, in death, on earth, in heaven,
No other name for me ;
The same sweet style and title given
Through all eternity.

937

- 1 ONE thing alone, dear Lord! I dread—
To have a secret spot
That separates my soul from thee,
And yet to know it not.
- 2 But if this weariness hath come
A present from on high,
Teach me to find the hidden wealth
That in its depths may lie.
- 3 If this drear change be thine, O Lord!
If it be thy sweet will,
Spare not, but to the very brim
The bitter chalice fill.
- 4 But if it hath been sin of mine,
Oh, show that sin to me !
Not to get back the sweetness lost,
But to make peace with thee.
- 5 So in this darkness I can learn
To tremble and adore,
To sound my own vile nothingness,
And thus to love thee more.
- 6 Oh, blesséd be this darkness then,
This deep in which I lie,
And blesséd be all things that teach
God's dread Supremacy !

DE FLEURY.

I. How tedious and tasteless the hours When Je - sus no longer I see!

Sweet prospects, sweet birds and sweet flow'rs Have lost all their sweetness with me :

The mid-summer sun shines but dim, The fields strive in vain to look gay,

But when I am hap-py in him, De - cem-ber's as pleasant as May.

938

- 2 His name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice ;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice :
I should, were he always so nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear ;
No mortal so happy as I ;
My summer would last all the year.
- 3 Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resigned,
No changes of season or place
Would make any change in my mind :
- While blest with a sense of his love,
A palace a toy would appear ;
And prisons would palaces prove,
If Jesus would dwell with me there.
- 4 Dear Lord, if indeed, I am thine,
If thou art my sun and my song,
Say, why do I languish and pine ?
And why are my winters so long ?
Oh, drive these dark clouds from my sky ;
Thy soul-cheering presence restore ;
Or take me to thee up on high,
Where winter and clouds are no
more.

Anew from day to day,
In joys the world can never give,
Nor ever take away.
- 3 Blest Jesus, come, and rule my heart,
And make me wholly thine,
That I may never more depart,
Nor grieve thy love divine.
- 4 Thus, till my last, expiring breath,
Thy goodness I'll adore ;
And when my frame dissolves in death,
My soul shall love thee more.

- 1 LONG have I sat beneath the sound
Of thy salvation, Lord ;
But still how weak my faith is found,
And knowledge of thy word !
- 2 Oft I frequent thy holy place,
And hear almost in vain ;
How small a portion of thy grace
My memory can retain !
- 3 How cold and feeble is my love,
How negligent my fear,
How low my hope of joys above,
How few affections there !

- 4 Great God, thy sovereign power impart
To give thy word success ;
Write thy salvation in my heart,
And make me learn thy grace.
- 5 Show my forgetful feet the way
That leads to joys on high :
There knowledge grows without decay,
And love shall never die.

Strong powers against my soul contest ;
Oh, let me turn from self and sin
To thy dear cross, for there is rest !

My parting soul in death shall say,
"Now, Lord ! I come to thee for rest."

1 O LOVE Divine ! that stooped to share
Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear,
On thee we cast each earth-born care,
We smile at pain while thou art near.

2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year,
No path we shun, no darkness dread,
Our hearts still whispering, Thou art near.

3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
And trembling faith is changed to fear,
The murmuring wind, the quivering
leaf,
Shall softly tell us thou art near.

4 On thee we fling our burdening woe,
O Love Divine, forever dear ;
Content to suffer while we know,
Living or dying, thou art near !

1 FATHER ! beneath thy shelt'ring wing
In sweet security we rest,
And fear no evil earth can bring,
In life, in death, supremely blest.

2 For life is good whose tidal flow
The motions of thy will obeys ;
And death is good, that makes us know
The Life Divine that all things sways.

3 And good it is to bear the cross,
And so thy perfect peace to win :
And nought is ill, nor brings us loss,
Nor works us harm, save only sin.

4 Redeemed from this, we ask no more,
But trust the love that saves to guide :
The grace that yields so rich a store,
Will grant us all we need beside.

Something for thee.
- 3 Give me a faithful heart—
Likeness to thee,
That each departing day
Henceforth may see
Some work of love begun,
Some deed of kindness done,
Some wanderer sought and won,
Something for thee. S. D. PHELPS.

And mortal spirits tire and faint;
But they forget the mighty God,

And firm endures, while endless years
Their everlasting circles run.

And hosts of sin are press-ing hard To draw thee from the skies.

958

- 2 Oh, watch, and fight, and pray;
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.
- 3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor lay thine armor down:
Thy arduous work will not be done
Till thou obtain thy crown.
- 4 Fight on, my soul, till death
Shall bring thee to thy God;
He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
To his divine abode. HEATH.

959

- 1 My soul, it is thy God
Who calls thee by his grace;
Now loose thee from each cumbering
And bend thee to the race. [load,
- 2 Make thy salvation sure;
All sloth and slumber shun;
Nor dare a moment rest secure,
Till thou the goal hast won.
- 3 Thy crown of life hold fast;
Thy heart with courage stay;
Nor let one trembling glance be cast
Along the backward way.
- 4 Thy path ascends the skies,
With conq'ring footsteps bright;
And thou shalt win and wear the prize
In everlasting light.

960

- 1 THE people of the Lord
Are on their way to heaven;
There they obtain their great reward;
The prize will there be given.
- 2 'Tis conflict here below;
'Tis triumph there, and peace:
On earth we wrestle with the foe;
In heaven our conflicts cease.
- 3 'Tis gloom and darkness here;
'Tis light and joy above;
There all is pure, and all is clear;
There all is peace and love.
- 4 There rest shall follow toil,
And ease succeed to care:
The victors there divide the spoil;
They sing and triumph there.
- 5 Then let us joyful sing;
The conflict is not long:
We hope in heaven to praise our King
In one eternal song. KELLY.

961

- 1 THE harvest dawn is near,
The year delays not long;
And he who sows with many a tear,
Shall reap with many a song.
- 2 Sad to his toil he goes,
His seed with weeping leaves;
But he shall come, at twilight's close,
And bring his golden sheaves. BURGESS.

MORNINGTON.

I, Sol-diers of Christ, a-rise, And gird your ar-mor on,
Strong in the strength which God sup-plies, Through his e-ter-nal Son:

962

- 2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
And in his mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts,
Is more than conqueror.
- 3 Leave no unguarded place,
No weakness of the soul ;
Take every virtue, every grace,
And fortify the whole.
- 4 Stand, then, in his great might,
With all his strength endued,
And take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God :
- 5 That, having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
You may o'ercome thro' Christ alone,
And stand complete at last.
- 6 From strength to strength go on ;
Wrestle, and fight, and pray ;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

C. WESLEY.

963

- 1 WHAT cheering words are these ;
Their sweetness who can tell ?
In time and to eternal days,
" 'Tis with the righteous well."
- 2 In every state secure,
Kept as Jehovah's eye,
'Tis well with them while life endures,
And well when called to die.

- 3 Well when they see his face,
Or sink amidst the flood ;
Well in affliction's thorny maze,
Or on the mount with God.
- 4 'Tis well when joys arise,
'Tis well when sorrows flow,
'Tis well when darkness veils the skies,
And strong temptations grow.
- 5 'Tis well when Jesus calls,
" From earth and sin arise,
To join the hosts of ransomed souls,
Made to salvation wise !"

KENT.

964

- 1 MY soul, weigh not thy life
Against thy heavenly crown ;
Nor suffer Satan's deadliest strife
To beat thy courage down.
- 2 With prayer and crying strong,
Hold on the fearful fight,
And let the breaking day prolong
The wrestling of the night.
- 3 The battle soon will yield
If thou thy part fulfil ;
For strong as is the hostile shield,
Thy sword is stronger still.
- 4 Thine armor is divine,
Thy feet with victory shod ;
And on thy head shall quickly shine
The diadem of God.

 The trumpet call obey ;
 Forth to the mighty conflict,
 In this his glorious day :
 "Ye that are men, now serve him"
 Against unnumbered foes ;
 Your courage rise with danger,
 And strength to strength oppose.
- 3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus !
 Stand in his strength alone ;
 The arm of flesh will fail you,
 Ye dare not trust your own :
 Put on the gospel armor,
 And, watching unto prayer,
 Where duty calls, or danger,
 Be never wanting there.
- 4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus !
 The strife will not be long ;
 This day the noise of battle,
 The next the victor's song :
 To him that overcometh,
 A crown of life shall be ;
 He with the King of Glory
 Shall reign eternally.

- 1 I NEED thee, Precious Jesus,
 For I am very poor ;
 A stranger and a pilgrim,
 I have no earthly store ;
 I need the love of Jesus
 To cheer me on my way,
 To guide my doubting footsteps,
 To be my strength and stay.
- 2 I need thee, Precious Jesus,
 I need a friend like thee,
 A friend to soothe and pity,
 A friend to care for me :
 I need the Heart of Jesus
 To feel each anxious care,
 To tell my every trial,
 And all my sorrows share.
- 3 I need thee, Precious Jesus,
 And hope to see thee soon
 Encircled with the rainbow,
 And seated on thy throne ;
 There, with thy blood-bought children,
 My joy shall ever be,
 To sing thy praises, Jesus,
 To gaze, my Lord, on thee.

PLEYEL.

I. Chil-dren of the heavenly King, As ye jour-ney, sweet-ly sing;

Sing your Sav-iour's wor-thy praise, Glo-rious in his works and ways.

967

- 2 Ye are traveling home to God
In the way the fathers trod ;
They are happy now, and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest !
You on Jesus' throne shall rest ;
There your seat is now prepared ;
There your kingdom and reward.

- 4 Fear not, brethren ; joyful stand
On the borders of your land ;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.
- 5 Lord, submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below ;
Only thou our Leader be, ¹
And we still will follow thee. CENNICK.

D.C. Oh, how hap-py we shall be, When we've gained the vic-to-ry.

Vic-to-ry, vic-to-ry, When we've gained the vic-to-ry;

968

- I CHRISTIAN, let your heart be glad !
March, in heavenly armor clad ;
Fight ! nor think the battle long :
Victory soon will tune your song.

- 2 Let not sorrow dim your eye ;
Soon shall every tear be dry :
Let not fears your course impede ;
Great your strength, if great your need.

MAITLAND.

969

- 1 MUCH in sorrow, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians, onward go ;
Fight the fight ; and worn with strife,
Steep with tears the bread of life.
- 2 Onward, Christians, onward go ;
Join the war, and face the foe ;
Faint not : much doth yet remain ;
Dreary is the long campaign.
- 3 Shrink not, Christians—will ye yield ?
Will ye quit the battle-field ?
Fight till all the conflict's o'er,
Nor your foes shall rally more.
- 4 But, when loud the trumpet blown,
Speaks their forces overthrown,
Christ, your Captain, shall bestow
Crowns to grace the conqueror's brow.

H. K. WHITE.

970

- 1 FAINT not, Christian ! though the road,
Leading to thy blest abode,
Darksome be, and dangerous too,
Christ thy Guide will bring thee through.
- 2 Faint not, Christian ! though in rage
Satan would thy soul engage,
Gird on faith's anointed shield,—
Bear it to the battle-field.
- 3 Faint not, Christian ! though the world
Has its hostile flag unfurled ;
Hold the cross of Jesus fast,
Thou shalt overcome at last.
- 4 Faint not, Christian ! though within
There's a heart so prone to sin ;
Christ, the Lord, is over all ;
He'll not suffer thee to fall.
- 5 Faint not, Christian ! look on high ;
See the harpers in the sky :
Patient, wait, and thou wilt join—
Chant with them of love divine.

25

971

- 1 SLEEP not, soldier of the cross !
Foes are lurking all around ;
Look not here to find repose :
This is but thy battle-ground.
- 2 Up ! and take thy shield and sword ;
Up ! it is the call of heaven :
Shrink not faithless from thy Lord ;
Nobly strive as he hath striven.
- 3 Break through all the force of ill ;
Tread the might of passion down,—
Struggling onward, onward still,
To the conq'ring Saviour's crown !
- 4 Through the midst of toil and pain,
Let this thought ne'er leave thy
breast :
Every triumph thou dost gain
Makes more sweet thy coming rest.

W. GASKELL.

- 1 LORD ! I cannot let thee go,
Till a blessing thou bestow ;
Do not turn away thy face,
Mine 's an urgent, pressing case.
- 2 Once, a sinner, near despair,
Sought thy mercy-seat by prayer ;
Mercy heard and set him free—
Lord ! that mercy came to me.
- 3 Many days have passed since then,
Many changes I have seen ;
Yet have been upheld till now ;
Who could hold me up but thou ?
- 4 Thou hast helped in every need—
This emboldens me to plead :
After so much mercy past,
Canst thou let me sink at last ?
- 5 No—I must maintain my hold ;
'Tis thy goodness makes me bold ;
I can no denial take,
Since I plead for Jesus' sake. NEWTON

1 HEAVENLY Father, to whose eye
 Future things unfolded lie,
 Through the desert, where I stray,
 Let thy counsels guide my way.

2 Lead me not, for flesh is frail,
 Where fierce trials would assail ;
 Leave me not, in darkened hour,
 To withstand the tempter's power.

3 Help thy servant to maintain
 A profession free from stain ;
 That my sole reproach may be
 Following Christ and fearing thee.

4 Should thy wisdom, Lord, decree
 Trials long and sharp for me,
 Pain or sorrow, care or shame,
 Father, glorify thy name.

 Feeling still that thou art near,
 In the course my Saviour trod,
 Tending still to thee my God.

Of our life's wild restless sea,
Day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, " Christian, follow me."
- 2 Jesus calls us—from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us—
Saying, " Christian, love me more."

Days of toil, and hours of ease,
Still he calls, in cares and pleasures,

Faith shall every prospect brighten,

 Deceived by those I prized too well ;
 He shall his pitying aid bestow,

 Through every conflict but the last ;
 Still, still unchanging, watch beside

- 1 As oft, with worn and weary feet,
 We tread earth's rugged valley o'er,
 The thought—how comforting and
 sweet !
 Christ trod this very path before !
 Our wants and weaknesses he knows,
 From life's first dawning to its close.
- 2 Do sickness, feebleness, or pain,
 Or sorrow in our path appear,
 The recollection will remain,
 More deeply did he suffer here !
 His life, how truly sad and brief,
 Filled up with suff'ring and with grief !
- 3 If Satan tempt our hearts to stray,
 And whisper evil things within,
 So did he, in the desert way,
 Assail our Lord with thoughts of sin ;
 When worn, and in a feeble hour,
 The tempter came with all his power.
- 4 Just such as I, this earth he trod,
 With every human ill but sin ;
 And, though indeed the very God,
 As I am now, so he has been.
 My God, my Saviour, look on me
 With pity, love, and sympathy.

It tells me where my soul may flee :

That earthly props resigned must be,
And from each broken cistern turns,
It hears the accents, Come to me !

From all I love, enjoy, and see ;
When a faint chill steals o'er my heart,
A sweet voice utters, Come to me !

Earth is no resting-place for thee ;
Heavenward direct thy weeping eye ;
I am thy Portion ; Come to me !

My sins lie heavily,
My pardon speak, new peace impart,
In love remember me!

3 Temptations sore obstruct my way;
And ills I cannot flee:
Oh, give me strength, Lord, as my day;
For good remember me!

4 Distrest in pain, disease, and grief,
This feeble body see!
Grant patience, rest, and kind relief;
Hear, and remember me!

5 If on my face, for thy dear Name,
Shame and reproaches be;
All hail reproach, and welcome shame,
If thou remember me!

"Saviour!" with my last parting breath,
I'll cry, "Remember me!"

When I am wholly thine;

In thee I firmly trust;
Thy ways, unknown or understood,

3 May I remember that to thee

Whate'er I have I owe;

May all thy bounties flow.

4 And though thy wisdom takes away,
Shall I arraign thy will?
No, let me bless thy name, and say,

I. Fa-ther! whate'er of earth-ly bliss Thy sov-ereign will de-nies,
Ac-cept-ed at thy throne of grace, Let this pe-ti-tion rise:—

Org.

997

- 2 "Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free!
The blessings of thy grace impart,
And make me live to thee.
- 3 "Let the sweet hope that thou art mine
My life and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end."

STEELE.

998

- 1 "REMEMBER me," my Saviour God,
Whilst here on earth I stay;
Give strength to bear affliction's rod,
And faith to watch and pray.
- 2 "Remember me," when fortune smiles,
And scenes are bright and fair,
Lest I should fall, through Satan's wiles,
Beneath his baneful snare.
- 3 "Remember me;" thy voice I'll greet
In all thy dealings here;
Oh, let thy Spirit guide my feet,
And I shall never fear.
- 4 "Remember me;" stand near my side,
Where'er my lot may be;
And when by Jordan's swelling tide,
O Lord, "remember me."

999

- 1 WHEN musing sorrow weeps the past,
And mourns the present pain,

'Tis sweet to think of peace at last,
And feel that death is gain.

- 2 'Tis not that murmuring thoughts arise,
And dread a Father's will;
'Tis not that meek submission flies,
And would not suffer still.
- 3 It is that heaven-born faith surveys
The path that leads to light,
And longs her eagle plumes to raise,
And lose herself in sight.
- 4 Oh, let me wing my hallowed flight
From earth-born woe and care,
And soar above these clouds of night,
My Saviour's bliss to share.

G. T. NOEL.

I 000

- 1 OH, help us, Lord! each hour of need
Thy heavenly succor give;
Help us in thought, and word, and deed,
Each hour on earth we live.
- 2 Oh, help us, when our spirits bleed
With contrite anguish sore!
And when our hearts are cold and dead,
Oh, help us, Lord, the more!
- 3 Oh, help us, Father, from on high,—
We know no help but thee!
Oh, help us, Lord, to live and die,
And thine in heaven to be!

1. When languor and dis - ease in - vade This trem-bling house of clay

'Tis sweet to look be - yond the cage, And long to fly a - way.

1001

- 2 Sweet to look inward, and attend
The whispers of his love ;
Sweet to look upward to the place
Where Jesus pleads above.
- 3 Sweet to look back, and see my name
In Life's fair book set down ;
Sweet to look forward, and behold
Eternal joys my own.
- 4 Sweet to reflect, how Grace Divine
My sins on Jesus laid ;
Sweet to remember that his blood
My debt of sufferings paid.
- 5 Sweet in the confidence of faith
To trust his firm decrees ;
Sweet to lie passive in his hand,
And know no will but his.
- 6 If such the sweetness of the stream,
What must the Fountain be,
Where saints and angels draw their bliss
Immediately from thee ! TOPLADY.

1002

- 1 How vain are all things here below !
How false, and yet how fair !
Each pleasure hath its poison, too,
And every sweet a snare.
- 2 The brightest things below the sky
Give but a flattering light ;
We should suspect some danger nigh,
Where we possess delight.

- 3 Our dearest joys, and nearest friends,—
The partners of our blood,
How they divide our wavering minds,
And leave but half for God !
- 4 The fondness of a creature's love,
How strong it strikes the sense !
Thither the warm affections move,
Nor can we call them thence.
- 5 Dear Saviour ! let thy beauties be
My soul's eternal food ;
And grace command my heart away
From all created good. WATTS.

1003

- 1 WHEN waves of trouble round me swell,
My soul is not dismay'd ;
I hear a voice I know full well,—
" 'Tis I ; be not afraid."
- 2 When black the threatening skies appear
And storms my path invade,
Those accents tranquillize each fear,—
" 'Tis I ; be not afraid."
- 3 There is a gulf that must be cross'd ;
Saviour, be near to aid !
Whisper, when my frail bark is toss'd,
" 'Tis I ; be not afraid."
- 4 There is a dark and fearful vale,
Death hides within its shade ;
Oh say, when flesh and heart shall fail,—
" 'Tis I ; be not afraid."

1. Children of God, who, faint and slow, Your pil - grim path pur - sue,

In strength and weakness, joy and woe, To God's high call - ing true!—

1004

- 2 Why move ye thus, with lingering tread,
A doubting, mournful band?
Why faintly hangs the drooping head?
Why fails the feeble hand?
- 3 Oh! weak to know a Saviour's power,
To feel a Father's care;
A moment's toil, a passing shower,
Is all the grief ye share.
- 4 The orb of light, though clouds awhile
May hide his noon-tide ray,
Shall soon in lovelier beauty smile
To gild the closing day,—
- 5 And, bursting through the dusky shroud
That dared his power invest,
Ride throned in light o'er every cloud,
Triumphant to his rest.
- 6 Then, Christian, dry the falling tear,
The faithless doubt remove;
Redeemed at last from guilt and fear,
Oh wake thy heart to love.

BOWDLER.

1005

- 1 JESUS, my sorrow lies too deep
For human ministry;
It knows not how to tell itself
To any but to thee.
- 2 Thou dost remember still, amid
The glories of God's throne,

The sorrows of mortality,—

For they were once thine own.

- 3 Jesus! my fainting spirit brings
Its fearfulness to thee!
Thine eye, at least, can penetrate
The clouded mystery.
- 4 It is enough, my precious Lord,
Thy tender sympathy!
My every sin and sorrow can
Devolve itself on thee.

BONAR.

1006

- 1 LORD, it belongs not to my care
Whether I die or live;
To love and serve thee is my share,
And this thy grace must give.
- 2 If life be long, I will be glad
That I may long obey;
If short, yet why should I be sad
To soar to endless day?
- 3 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before;
He that into God's kingdom comes
Must enter by this door.
- 4 Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet
Thy blesséd face to see;
For, if thy work on earth be sweet,
What will thy glory be?

Yea, Christ, his word and Spi-rit too,

- 2 If he is mine, then from his love,
He every trouble sends ;
All things are working for my good,
And bliss his rod attends.
- 3 If he is mine, I need not fear
The rage of earth and hell ;
He will support my feeble frame,
Their utmost force repel.
- 4 If he is mine, let friends forsake,—
Let wealth and honors flee—
Sure he, who giveth me himself,
Is more than these to me.
- 5 If he is mine, I'll boldly pass
Through death's tremendous vale ;
He is a solid comfort, when
All other comforts fail.
- 6 Oh, tell me, Lord ! that thou art mine ;
What can I wish beside ?
My soul shall at the fountain live,
When all the streams are dried.

BEDDOME. Altered.

1008

- 1 YE trembling souls, dismiss your fears ;
Be mercy all your theme ;
Mercy, which like a river flows
In one continued stream.
- 2 Fear not the powers of earth and hell :
God will these powers restrain ;

- His mighty arm their rage repel,
And make their efforts vain.
- 3 Fear not that he will e'er forsake,
Or leave his work undone :
He's faithful to his promises,
And faithful to his Son.
- 4 Fear not the terrors of the grave,
Or death's tremendous sting :
He will from endless wrath preserve,
To endless glory bring. BEDDOME.

- 1 SING, ye redeemed of the Lord,
Your great Deliverer sing :
Pilgrims for Zion's city bound,
Be joyful in your King.
- 2 A hand divine shall lead you on Through all the blissful road ;
Till to the sacred mount you rise,
And see your gracious God.
- 3 There garlands of immortal joy
Shall bloom on every head ;
While sorrow, sighing, and distress,
Like shadows all are fled.
- 4 March on in your Redeemer's strength ;
Pursue his footsteps still ;
And let the prospect cheer your eye
While laboring up the hill.

IOIO

- 2 Thro' waves, thro' clouds and storms,
 He gently clears thy way;
 Wait thou his time; so shall this night
 Soon end in joyous day.
- 3 Still heavy is thy heart?
 Still sink thy spirits down?
 Cast off the weight, let fear depart,
 Bid every care be gone.
- 4 What though thou rulest not!
 Yet heaven, and earth, and hell
 Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
 And ruleth all things well.

GERHARDT.

IOII

- 1 IF, through unruffled seas,
 Toward heaven we calmly sail,
 With grateful hearts, O God, to thee,
 We'll own the favoring gale.
- 2 But should the surges rise,
 And rest delay to come,
 Blest be the sorrow—kind the storm,
 Which drives us nearer home.
- 3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
 All yield to thy control:
 Thy tender mercies shall illumine
 The midnight of the soul.
- 4 Teach us, in every state,
 To make thy will our own;
 And when the joys of sense depart,
 To live by faith alone.

IOI2

- 1 WHERE wilt thou put thy trust?
 In a frail form of clay,
 That to its element of dust
 Must soon resolve away?
- 2 Where wilt thou cast thy care?
 Upon an erring heart,
 Which hath its own sore ills to bear,
 And shrinks from sorrow's dart?
- 3 No! place thy trust above
 This shadowy realm of night,
 In him, whose boundless power and love
 Thy confidence invite.
- 4 His mercies still endure
 When skies and stars grow dim,
 His changeless promise standeth sure,
 Go,—cast thy care on him.

MRS. SIGOURNEY.

IOI3

- 1 THE Lord himself will keep
 His people safe from harm;
 Will hold the helm, and guide the ship,
 With his almighty arm.
- 2 Then let the tempest roar,
 The billows heave and swell;
 We hope to reach the peaceful shore
 Where all the ransomed dwell.
- 3 And when we gain the land,
 How happy shall we be!
 How shall we bless the mighty hand
 That led us through the sea!

- 1 FAR from my heavenly home,
Far from my Father's breast,
Fainting I cry, "Blest Spirit, come,
And speed me to my rest !"
- 2 Upon the willows long
My harp had silent hung :
How should I sing a cheerful song
Till thou inspire my tongue ?
- 3 My spirit homeward turns,
And fain would thither flee ;
My heart, O Zion, droops and yearns,
When I remember thee.

- 4 To thee, to thee I press,
A dark and toilsome road :
When shall I pass the wilderness
And reach the saints' abode ?
- 5 God of my life, be near !
On thee my hopes I cast ;
Oh guide me through the desert here,
And bring me home at last. LYRE.

- 1 MY soul, with joy attend,
While Jesus silence breaks ;
No angel's harp such music yields,
As what my Shepherd speaks.
- 2 "I know my sheep," he cries ;
"My soul approves them well :
Vain is the world's delusive guise,
And vain the rage of hell.
- 3 "I freely feed them now
With tokens of my love ;
But richer pastures I prepare,
And sweeter streams, above.
- 4 "Unnumbered years of bliss
I to my people give ;
And while my throne unshaken stands
Shall all my chosen live.
- 5 "This tried, almighty hand
Is raised for their defence ;
Where is the power shall reach them
there,
Or what shall force them thence ?"

 When our bitter tears o'erflow,
 When we mourn the lost, the dear,
 Gracious Son of Mary, hear!
 Thou our throbbing flesh hast worn,

 Thou hast shed the human tear:
 Gracious Son of Mary, hear!

2 When the solemn death-bell tolls
 For our own departing souls,
 When our final doom is near,
 Gracious Son of Mary hear!

Thou hast bowed the dying head,

 With the thought of all its sin,
 When the spirit shrinks with fear,

 Though the sins were not thine own,
 Thou hast deigned their load to bear:
 Gracious Son of Mary, hear!

1 JESUS, grant me this I pray,
 Ever in thy heart to stay;
 Let me evermore abide
 Hidden in thy wounded side.
 If the evil one prepare,
 Or the world, a tempting snare,
 I am safe when I abide
 In thy heart and wounded side.

2 If the flesh, more dangerous still,
 Tempt my soul to deeds of ill,
 Naught I fear when I abide
 In thy heart and wounded side.
 Death will come one day to me;
 Jesus, cast me not from thee:
 Dying let me still abide
 In thy heart and wounded side.

 Hastens onward to the grave ;
 Earthly joys and pleasures perish,

 Earthly flames must cease to glow,
 Earthly beings cease from being,
 Earthly blossoms cease to blow.

 When upon the bed of pain ;
 If thy presence only cheer me,
 All my loss I count but gain :

 Thus to cheer my heart the while
 In the deeply anxious hours ;—
 But it is not Jesus' smile !
 Only Jesus
 Can my trembling fears beguile.

3 Dearest Saviour! go not from me;
 Let thy presence still abide:
 Look in tenderest love upon me—
 As I'm nestling in thy side:
 Dearest Saviour!—
 Who for suffering sinners died.

4 Both mine arms I'll clasp around thee,
 And my head upon thy breast;
 For my weary soul has found thee
 Such a perfect, perfect rest.

My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love;
And then, when gray hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

I will not—I will not desert to his foes;
That soul—though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never—no never—no never forsake!"

AGATE. 11s.

1. The Lord is my shepherd, no want shall I know, I feed in green pastures, safe-fold-ed I rest;

AGATE. Concluded.

He lead-eth my soul where the still waters flow, Restores me when wand'ring, redeems when oppressed.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'AGATE. Concluded.' It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff contains the melody, and the bass staff contains the accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, aligned with the notes. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is common time (C). The music concludes with a double bar line.

- 2 Through the valley and shadow of death, though I stray,
Since thou art my guardian, no evil I fear ;
Thy rod shall defend me, thy staff be my stay ;
No harm can befall, with my Comforter near.
- 3 In the midst of affliction my table is spread ;
With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth o'er ;
With perfume and oil thou anointest my head ;
Oh ! what shall I ask of thy providence more ?

MONTGOMERY.

1035

- 1 ONCE was a stranger to grace and to God ;
I knew not my danger, and felt not my load ;
Though friends spoke in rapture of Christ on the tree,
Jehovah, my Saviour, seemed nothing to me.
- 2 When free grace awoke me by light from on high,
Then legal fears shook me ; I trembled to die :
No refuge, no safety, in self could I see :
Jehovah, thou only my Saviour must be !
- 3 My terrors all vanished before his sweet name ;
My guilty fears banished, with boldness I came
To drink at the fountain, so copious and free :
Jehovah, my Saviour, is all things to me.
- 4 Jehovah, the Lord, is my treasure and boast ;
Jehovah my Saviour, I ne'er can be lost :
In thee I shall conquer, by flood and by field,
Jehovah my anchor, Jehovah my shield !

- 1 THOUGH troubles assail, and dangers affright,
Though friends should all fail, and foes all unite,
Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide,
The Scripture assures us the Lord will provide.
- 2 No strength of our own, no goodness we claim,
Yet since we have known the Redeemer's great name,
In this our strong tower for safety we hide,—
The Lord is our power, the Lord will provide.

1 RISE, my soul, and stretch thy wings,
Thy better portion trace ;
Rise from transitory things
Towards heaven, thy native place :
Sun, and moon, and stars decay ;
Time shall soon this earth remove ;
Rise, my soul, and haste away
To seats prepared above.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course ;
Fire, ascending, seeks the sun ;
Both speed them to their source :
So a soul that's born of God,
Pants to view his glorious face,
Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace.

3 Fly me, riches, fly me, cares,
Whilst I that coast explore ;
Flattering world, with all thy snares,
Solicit me no more !
Pilgrims fix not here their home ;
Strangers tarry but a night ;
When the last dear morn is come,
They'll rise to joyful light.

4 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
Press onward to the prize ;
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies :
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given,
All our sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven.

He snatch'd you from hell and the grave,
He ransomed from death and despair :
For you he was mighty to save,
Almighty to bring you safe there.
- 3 Oh ! when will the period appear
When I shall unite in your song ?
I'm weary of lingering here,
And I to your Saviour belong !
I want—oh ! I want to be there,
To sorrow and sin bid adieu—
Your joy and your friendship to share—
To wonder, and worship with you !

- 1 My Saviour, whom absent I love,
Whom, not having seen, I adore,
Whose name is exalted above
All glory, dominion, and power,—

Dissolve thou those bands that detain
My soul from her portion in thee ;
Ah ! strike off this adamant chain,
And make me eternally free !

- 2 When that happy era begins,
When arrayed in thy glories I shine,
Nor grieve any more, by my sins,
The bosom on which I recline,
Oh ! then shall the vail be removed,
And round me thy brightness be poured !
I shall meet him, whom absent I loved,
I shall see, whom unseen I adored.
- 3 And then, nevermore shall the fears,
The trials, temptations, and woes,
Which darken this valley of tears,
Intrude on my blissful repose :
To Jesus, the crown of my hope,
My soul is in haste to be gone ;
Oh ! bear me, ye cherubim, up,
And waft me away to his throne !

- 2 It is not for thee to be seeking thy bliss,
And building thy hopes in a region like this ;
I look for a city which hands have not piled ;
I pant for a country by sin undefiled.
- 3 The thorn and the thistle around me may grow,
I would not recline upon roses below ;
I ask not my portion, I seek not my rest,
Till I find them for ever on Jesus' breast.
- 4 Afflictions may press me, they cannot destroy—
One glimpse of his love turns them all into joy ;

1 AWAY with our sorrow and fear,
 We soon shall recover our home ;

The city of saints shall appear,
 The day of eternity come.

2 From earth we shall quickly remove,
 And mount to our native abode ;
 The house of our Father above—
 The palace of angels and God.

3 Our mourning is all at an end,
 When, raised by the life-giving word,
 We see the new city descend,
 Adorned as a bride for her Lord :

4 The city so holy and clean,
 No sorrow can breathe in the air :
 No gloom of affliction or sin ;
 No shadow of evil is there.

5 By faith we already behold
 That lovely Jerusalem here :
 Her walls are of jasper and gold ;
 As crystal her buildings are clear.

6 Immovably founded in grace,
 She stands as she ever hath stood,
 And brightly her Builder displays,
 And flames with the glory of God.

2 Born by a new celestial birth,
Why should we grovel here on earth?
Why grasp at transitory toys,
So near to heaven's eternal joys?

3 Shall aught beguile us on the road,
When we are walking back to God?
For strangers into life we come,
And dying is but going home.

4 To dwell with God, to feel his love,
Is the full heaven enjoy'd above;
And the sweet expectation now
Is the young dawn of heaven below.

GIBBONS.

1061

1 AND may I hope, that when no more
My pulse shall beat with life below,
I shall the God of grace adore,
And all the bliss of glory know?

2 I, who deserve no place but hell,
No portion but devouring fire,
Shall I with Christ my Saviour dwell,
Possessed of all I now desire?

3 Will Jesus own a wretch like me?
And tell to saints and angels round,
That when he suffered on the tree,
My sins augmented every wound?

4 Will he from life's eternal book
To earth and heaven proclaim my name;
On me, as on his chosen, look,
And make my lot with theirs the same?

5 He will! I read it in his word,
And in my heart the witness feel:
I shall be with, and like my Lord,
Though sin oppose in league with hell!

1062

1 DESCEND from heaven, immortal Dove;
Stoop down and take us on thy wings;
And mount, and bear us far above
The reach of these inferior things;

2 Beyond, beyond this lower sky,
Up where eternal ages roll,
Where solid pleasures never die,
And fruits immortal feast the soul.

3 Oh, for a sight, a pleasing sight
Of our Almighty Father's throne!
There sits our Saviour, crowned with
light,
Clothed in a body like our own.

4 Adoring saints around him stand,
And thrones and powers before him fall:
The God shines gracious through the Man,
And sheds sweet glories on them all.

5 Oh, what amazing joys they feel,
While to their golden harps they sing,
And sit on every heavenly hill,
And spread the triumph of their King!

6 When shall the day, dear Lord, appear,
That I shall mount, to dwell above;
And stand, and bow, among them there,
And view thy face, and sing, and love!

Death was their gate to endless life;
An opened cage, to let them fly

And sometimes sing, and sometimes weep;
Yet strip me of this house of clay,
And I will sing as loud as they.

JOHN BERRIDGE.

1064

- 1 As when the weary traveller gains
The height of some o'erlooking hill,
His heart revives, if 'cross the plains
He eyes his home, though distant still.
- 2 While he surveys the much-loved spot
He slights the space that lies between;
His past fatigues are now forgot,
Because his journey's end is seen.
- 3 Thus when the Christian pilgrim views
By faith his mansion in the skies,

- The sight his fainting strength renews,
And wings his speed to reach the prize.
- 4 The thought of home his spirit cheers;
No more he grieves for troubles past,
Nor any future trial fears
So he may safe arrive at last.
- 5 'Tis there, he says, I am to dwell
With Jesus in the realms of day;
Then I shall bid my cares farewell,
And he shall wipe my tears away.

- 1 THERE is a land mine eye hath seen,
In visions of enraptured thought,
So bright, that all which spreads between
Is with its radiant glories fraught.
- 2 A land, upon whose blissful shore
There rests no shadow, falls no stain;
There those who meet shall part no
more,
And those long parted meet again.
- 3 Its skies are not like earthly skies,
With varying hues of shade and light;
It hath no need of suns to rise
To dissipate the gloom of night.
- 4 There sweeps no desolating wind
Across that calm, serene abode;
The wanderer there a home may find
Within the paradise of God.

- 1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign ;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers ;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green ;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, shivering, on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unobscured eyes !—
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream nor death's cold flood
Should fright us from the shore.

WATTS.

1067

- 1 ON Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.
- 2 Oh the transporting, rapturous scene
That rises to my sight !
Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
And rivers of delight.
- 3 All o'er those wide-extended plains
Shines one eternal day ;
There God the Son forever reigns,
And scatters night away.

- 4 No chilling winds, nor poisonous
breath,
Can reach that healthful shore ;
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more.
- 5 When shall I reach that happy place,
And be forever blest ?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest ?
- 6 Filled with delight, my raptured soul
Would here no longer stay ;
Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless I'd launch away.

- 1 HOPE of our hearts, O Lord, appear,
Thou glorious Star of day !
Shine forth, and chase the dreary night,
With all our tears, away.
- 2 No resting place we seek on earth,
No loveliness we see ;
Our eye is on the royal crown,
Prepared for us and thee.
- 3 But, dearest Lord, however bright
That crown of joy above,
What is it to the brighter hope
Of dwelling in thy love ?
- 4 What to the joy, the deeper joy,
Unmingled, pure, and free,
Of union with our living Head,
Of fellowship with thee ?
- 5 This joy e'en now on earth is ours ;
But only, Lord, above,
Our hearts, without a pang, shall know
The fullness of thy love.
- 6 There, near thy heart, upon the throne,
Thy ransomed bride shall see
What grace was in the bleeding Lamb,
Who died to make her free.

1. Fa - ther! I long, I faint to see The place of thine a - bode;

I'd leave thine earth - ly courts, and flee Up to thy seat, my God!

1071

- 2 Here I behold thy distant face,
And 'tis a pleasing sight;
But, to abide in thine embrace
Is infinite delight.
- 3 I'd part with all the joys of sense,
To gaze upon thy throne;
Pleasure springs fresh forever thence,
Unspeaking, unknown.
- 4 There all the heavenly hosts are seen;
In shining ranks they move;
And drink immortal vigor in,
With wonder and with love.
- 5 Then at thy feet, with awful fear,
Th' adoring armies fall;
With joy they shrink to nothing there,
Before th' eternal All.
- 6 The more thy glories strike my eyes,
The humbler I shall lie;
Thus while I sink, my joys shall rise
Immeasurably high. WATTS.

- 1 THERE is a world of perfect bliss
Above the starry skies;
Oppressed with sorrows and with sins,
I thither lift my eyes.
- 2 'Tis there the weary are at rest,
And all is peace within;
The mind, with guilt no more oppressed,
Is tranquil and serene.

- 3 Discord and strife are banished thence,
Distrust and slavish fear;
No more we hear the pensive sigh,
Or see the falling tear.
- 4 Farewell to earth and earthly things:
In vain they tempt my stay:
Come, angels, spread your joyful wings,
And bear my soul away.

- 1 JESUS, to thy dear wounds we flee,
We seek thy bleeding side,
Assured that all who trust in thee
Shall evermore abide.
- 2 Then let the thundering trumpet sound,
The latest lightning glare;
The mountains melt; the solid ground
Dissolve as liquid air;
- 3 The huge, celestial bodies roll,
Amidst that general fire;
And shrivel as a parchment scroll,
And all in smoke expire!
- 4 Sublime upon his azure throne,
He speaks—the Almighty Word;
His fiat is obeyed! 'tis done;
And Paradise restored!
- 5 So be it! let this system end,
This ruined earth and skies;
The New Jerusalem descend,
The New Creation rise.

No evenings there, nor gloomy nights,
To want the feeble moon.
- 4 Amidst those ever-shining skies
Behold the sacred Dove ;
While banished sin and sorrow flies
From all the realms of love.
- 5 But oh, what beams of heavenly grace
Transport them all the while !
Ten thousand smiles from Jesus' face,

- 1 WHEN wild confusion wrecks the air,
And tempests rend the skies ;
Whilst blended ruin, clouds and fire
In harsh disorder rise ;—

And strike a tuneful song ;
My harp all trembling in my hand,
And all inspired my tongue.

- 3 I'll shout aloud, "Ye thunders, roll,
And shake the sullen sky ;
Your sounding voice, from pole to pole,
In angry murmurs try.
- 4 "Let the earth totter on her base,
And clouds the heavens deform ;
Blow, all ye winds, from every place,
And rush the final storm !"
- 5 Come quickly, blessed Lord, appear—
Bid the swift chariot fly ;
Let angels tell thy coming near,
And snatch me to the sky.
- 6 Around thy wheels, in the glad throng,
I'd bear a joyful part ;
All hallelujah on my tongue—
All rapture in my heart. BYLES.

Nothing, my soul, that's worth thy joys,

And all the heaven I hope above

Of my divine abode,
The pavement of those heavenly courts
Where I shall reign with God.
- 4 The Father of eternal light

- 1 FAR from these narrow scenes of night
Unbounded glories rise,
And realms of infinite delight,
Unknown to mortal eyes.
- 2 Fair distant land; could mortal eyes
But half its joys explore,
How would our spirits long to rise,
And dwell on earth no more!

- 3 There pain and sickness never come,
And grief no more complains:
Health triumphs in immortal bloom,
And endless pleasure reigns.
- 4 No cloud those blissful regions know,
Forever bright and fair;
For sin, the source of mortal woe,
Can never enter there.
- 5 Oh may the heavenly prospect fire
Our hearts with ardent love,
Till wings of faith and strong desire
Bear every thought above!

- 1 OUR country is Immanuel's ground—
We seek that promised soil;
The songs of Zion cheer our hearts,
While strangers here we toil.
- 2 Oft do our eyes with joy o'erflow,
And oft are bathed in tears;
Yet naught but heaven our hopes can raise,
And naught but sin our fears.
- 3 The flowers that spring along the road
We scarcely stoop to pluck;
We walk o'er beds of shining ore,
Nor waste one wishful look.
- 4 We tread the path our Master trod;
We bear the cross he bore;
And every thorn that wounds our feet
His temples pierced before.

- 2 May not an exile, Lord, desire,
 His own sweet land to see?
 May not a captive seek release,
 A prisoner, to be free?
- 3 A child, when far away, may long
 For home and kindred dear;
 And she that waits her absent lord
 May sigh till he appear.
- 4 I fain would strike my harp divine,
 Before the Father's throne,
 There cast my crown of Righteousness,
 And sing what grace has done!
- 5 Ah! leave me not in this base world,
 A stranger still to roam;
 Come, Lord, and take me to thyself;
 Come, Jesus, quickly come!

ROBERT C. CHAPMAN.

1081

- 1 OH, for the pearly gates of heaven!
 Oh, for the golden floor!
 Oh, for the Sun of Righteousness,
 That setteth nevermore!
- 2 The highest hopes we cherish here,
 How soon they tire and faint!
 How many a spot defiles the robe
 That wraps an earthly saint!
- 3 Oh, for a heart that never sins!
 Oh, for a soul washed white!
 Oh, for a voice to praise our King,
 Nor weary day nor night!

- 4 Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
 And grace to lead us higher!
 But there are perfectness and peace,
 Beyond our best desire.
- 5 Oh, by thy love and anguish, Lord,
 And by thy life laid down,
 Grant that we fail not of thy grace,
 Nor fail to reach our crown!

C. F. ALEXANDER.

- 1 THERE is a fold whence none can stray;
 And pastures ever green,
 Where sultry sun, or stormy day,
 Or night is never seen.
- 2 Far up the everlasting hills
 In God's own light it lies;
 His smile its vast dimension fills
 With joy that never dies.
- 3 One narrow vale, one darksome wave,
 Divides that land from this:
 I have a Shepherd pledged to save
 And bear me home to bliss.
- 4 Soon at his feet my soul will lie
 In life's last struggling breath;
 But I shall only seem to die,
 I shall not taste of death.
- 5 Far from this guilty world to be Exempt from toil and strife—
 To spend eternity with thee—
 My Saviour, this is life!

2 There is a home for weary souls,
By sin and sorrow driven,—
When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise, and ocean rolls,
And all is drear—but heaven.

3 There faith lifts up her cheerful eye
To brighter prospects given ;

And views the tempest passing by,
The evening shadows quickly fly,
And all serene—in heaven.

4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given ;
There rays divine disperse the gloom ;
Beyond the confines of the tomb
Appears the dawn of heaven !

These from great affliction came :
Now, before the throne of God,
Sealed with his almighty name,
Clad in raiment pure and white,
Victor-palms in every hand,
Through their dear Redeemer's might,
More than conquerors they stand.
- 3 Hunger, thirst, disease unknown,
On immortal fruits they feed ;
Them the Lamb, amid the throne,

Joy and gladness banish sighs ;
Perfect love dispel all fears ;
And forever from their eyes

- 1 HIGH in yonder realms of light,
Dwell the raptured saints above ;

- Far beyond our feeble sight,
Happy in Immanuel's love :
Pilgrims in this vale of tears,
Once they knew, like us below,
Gloomy doubts, distressing fears,
Torturing pain and heavy woe.
- 2 But these days of weeping o'er,
Passed this scene of toil and pain,
They shall feel distress no more—
Never, never weep again :
'Mid the chorus of the skies,
'Mid the angelic lyres above,
Hark, their songs melodious rise,
Songs of praise to Jesus' love !
- 3 All is tranquil and serene,
Calm and undisturbed repose :
There no cloud can intervene,
There no angry tempest blows :
Every tear is wiped away,
Sighs no more shall heave the breast,
Night is lost in endless day,
Sorrow, in eternal rest.

BAXTER. 6s.

I. One sweetly solemn thought Comes to me o'er and o'er: I'm near-er home to-day, Than I have been be-fore; Near-er my Fa-ther's house, Where ma-ny man-sions be, Near-er the great white throne, Nearer the crys-tal sea.

1096

2 Nearer the bound of life,
Where burdens are laid down,
Nearer to leave the cross,
And nearer to the crown;
But lying dark between,
And winding through the night,
The deep and unknown stream
Crossed ere we reach the light.

3 Jesus, confirm my trust;
Strengthen the hand of faith
To feel thee, when I stand
Upon the shore of death.
Be near me when my feet
Are slipping o'er the brink;
For I am nearer home,
Perhaps, than now I think.

I AFTER the Christian's tears,
After his | fights and | fears,
After his weary cross,
"All things be- | low but | loss."
What — | then? what | then?

3 After this holy calm,
This rest on | Jesus' | arm;

HALLELUJAH.

1. In the far bet-ter land of glo-ry and light The ran-somed are sing-ing in gar-ments of white, The harp-ers are harp-ing, and all the bright train Sing the song of re-demption—"The Lamb that was slain."

CHORUS.

Hal-le-lu-jah to the Lamb, Hal-le-lu-jah to the Lamb,
Hal-le-lu-jah to the Lamb,
Hal-le-lu-jah, Hal-le-lu-jah, Hal-le-lu-jah, A-men.

1098

- 2 Like the sound of the sea swells their chorus of praise
Round the star-circled crown of the Ancient of Days
And thrones and dominions re-echo the strain
Of glory eternal to him that was slain.—Cho.
- 3 Dear Saviour, may we, with our voices so faint,
Sing the chorus celestial with angel and saint?
Yes, yes, we will sing, and thine ear we will gain
With the song of redemption—"The Lamb that was slain.—Cho.
- 4 Now let our hearts and our voices unite
In loud hallelujahs with angels in light;
To Jesus we'll sing that melodious strain,
The song of redemption—"The Lamb that was slain.—Cho.

SPANISH HYMN. 6s & 3s.

i. Far, far o'er hill and dell, on the winds steal - ing, List to the toll - ing bell, mourn - ful - ly peal - ing, Hark, hark, it seems to say, as melt those sounds away, So earth - ly joys de - cay, whilst new their feel - ing !

1099

- 2 Now through the charmed air, on the winds stealing,
List to the mourner's prayer, solemnly bending ;
Hark, hark, it seems to say, turn from those joys away,
To those which ne'er decay, for life is ending.
- 3 So when our mortal ties death shall dissever,
Lord, may we reach the skies where care comes never,
And in eternal day, joining the angels' lay,
To our Creator pay homage forever.
- 4 When in their lonely bed loved ones are lying ;
When joyful wings are spread to heaven flying ;
Would we to sin and pain call back their souls again,
Weave round their hearts the chain severed in dying ?
- 5 No, dearest Jesus, no ; to thee, their Saviour,
Let their free spirits go, ransomed forever :
Heirs of unending joy, theirs is the victory ;
Thine let the glory be, now and forever.

1. A- sleep in Je - sus! blessed sleep! From which none ev-er wake to weep;

A calm and un - dis-turbed re- pose, Un-brok-en by the last of foes.

I 100

- 2 Asleep in Jesus! oh, how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing
That death hath lost its venom'd sting.
- 3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest!
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear—no woe—shall dim the hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.
- 4 Asleep in Jesus! oh, for me
May such a blissful refuge be:
Securely shall my ashes lie,
And wait the summons from on high.
- 5 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be:
But thine is still a bless'd sleep
From which none ever wake to weep.

MRS. MACKAY.

I 101

- 1 DEAR is the spot where Christians sleep,
And sweet the strains their spirits pour;
Oh, why should we in anguish weep?—
They are not lost, but gone before.
- 2 Secure from every mortal care,
By sin and sorrow vexed no more,
Eternal happiness they share
Who are not lost, but gone before.
- 3 To Zion's peaceful courts above
In faith triumphant may we soar,

- Embracing in the arms of love,
The friends not lost, but gone before.
- 4 To Jordan's bank when'er we come,
And hear the swelling waters roar,
Jesus, convey us safely home,
To friends not lost, but gone before.

I 102

- 1 How blest the righteous when he dies!
When sinks a weary soul to rest!
How mildly beam the closing eyes!
How gently heaves the expiring breast!
- 2 So fades a summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies a wave along the shore.
- 3 A holy quiet reigns around,
A calm which life nor death destroys;
And naught disturbs that peace profound
Which the unfettered soul enjoys.
- 4 Farewell, conflicting hopes and fears,
Where lights and shades alternate dwell; [pears!
How bright the unchanging morn ap-
Farewell, inconstant world, farewell!
- 5 Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
"How blest the righteous when he dies!"

BARBAULD.

ZEPHYR. L. M.

I. Why should we start, and fear to die! What timorous worms we mortals are!

Death is the gate of endless joy, And yet we dread to enter there.

1103

- 2 The pains, the groans, the dying strife
Fright our approaching souls away;
We still shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.
- 3 Oh, if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul should stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she passed!
- 4 Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there!
- WATTS.

To sink into that soft repose,
Then wake to perfect happiness?

BATHURST.

1105

- 1 SAY, why should friendship grieve for those
Who safe arrive on Canaan's shore?
Released from all their hurtful foes,
They are not lost—but gone before.
- 2 How many painful days on earth
Their fainting spirits numbered o'er!
Now they enjoy a heavenly birth;
They are not lost—but gone before.
- 3 Dear is the spot where Christians sleep,
And sweet the strain which angels
pour;
Oh, why should we in anguish weep?
They are not lost—but gone before.

1106

- 1 Go, spirit of the sainted dead,
Go to thy longed for, happy home!
The tears of man are o'er thee shed;
The voice of angels bids thee come.
- 2 If life be not in length of days,
In silvered locks and furrowed brow,
But living to the Saviour's praise,
How few have lived so long as thou!
- 3 Tho' earth may boast one gem the less,
May not e'en heaven the richer be?
And myriads on thy footsteps press,
To share thy blest eternity.

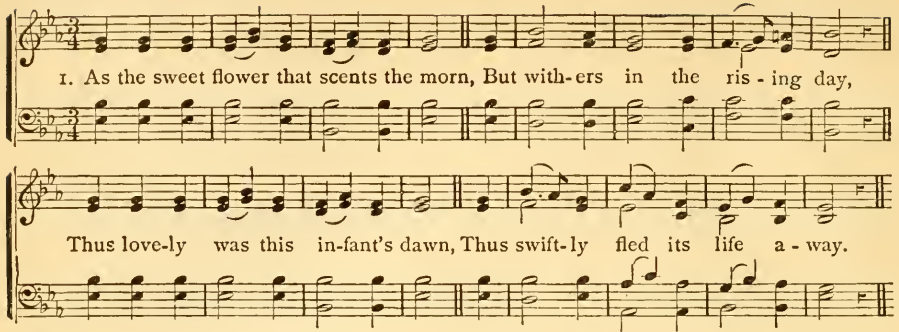

J. N. BROWN.

1104

- 1 How sweet the hour of closing day,
When all is peaceful and serene,
And when the sun, with cloudless ray
Sheds mellow lustre o'er the scene!
- 2 Such is the Christian's parting hour;
So peacefully he sinks to rest;
When faith, endued from heaven with
power,
Sustains and cheers his languid breast.
- 3 Mark but that radiance of his eye,
That smile upon his wasted cheek:
They tell us of his glory nigh,
In language that no tongue can speak.
- 4 Who would not wish to die like those Whom God's own Spirit deigns to bless?

- 2 It died ere its expanding soul
Had ever burnt with wrong desires,
Had ever spurned at heaven's control,
Or ever quenched its sacred fires.
- 3 Yet the sad hour that took the boy
Perhaps has spared a heavier doom—
Snatched him from scenes of guilty joy,
Or from the pangs of ills to come.
- 4 He died to sin; he died to care;
But for a moment felt the rod;
Then, rising on the viewless air;
Spread his light wings, and soared to God.

CUNNINGHAM.

Have hailed a spirit's heavenly birth
And sung a song of joy and love;
Then why should anguish reign on

- 1 O God, thy grace and blessing give
To us, who on thy name attend,
That we this mortal life may live
Regardful of our journey's end.
- 2 Teach us to know that Jesus died,
And rose again, our souls to save;
Teach us to take him as our guide,
Our help from childhood to the

- 3 Then shall not death with terror come,
But welcome as a bidden guest,
The herald of a better home,
The messenger of peace and rest.

I I 10

I I 08

- 1 OH stay thy tears; for they are blest,
Whose days are past, whose toil is done;
Here midnight care disturbs our rest;
Here sorrow dims the noonday sun.
- 2 How blest are they whose transient years
Pass like an evening meteor's flight!
Not dark with guilt, nor dim with tears;
Whose course is short, unclouded,
bright.
- 3 Oh, cheerless were our lengthened way;
But heaven's own light dispels the
gloom,
Streams downward from eternal day,
And casts a glory round the tomb.

- 1 How vain is all beneath the skies!
How transient every earthly bliss!
How slender all the fondest ties,
That bind us to a world like this!
- 2 The evening cloud, the morning dew,
The withering grass, the fading flower,
Of earthly hopes are emblems true—
The glory of a passing hour!
- 3 But though earth's fairest blossoms die,
And all beneath the skies is vain,
There is a land, whose confines lie
Beyond the reach of care and pain.

 Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way;
 The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here
 Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.
- 2 I would not live alway, thus fettered by sin,
 Temptation without and corruption within:
 E'en the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears,
 And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears.
- 3 I would not live alway; no, welcome the tomb;
 Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom;
 There sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise
 To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

 Away from yon heavén, that blissful abode,
 Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
 And the noontide of glory eternally reigns:

- 2 Are we not tending upward, too,
As fast as time can move?
Nor would we wish the hours more slow,
To keep us from our love.
- 3 Why should we tremble to convey
Their bodies to the tomb?
There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
And scattered all the gloom.
- 4 The graves of all the saints he blessed,
And softened every bed;
Where should the dying members rest,
But with the dying Head?
- 5 Thence he arose, ascending high,
And showed our feet the way;
Up to the Lord we, too, shall fly,
At the great rising day.
- 6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
And bid our kindred rise;
Awake! ye nations under ground;
Ye saints! ascend the skies.

WATTS.

- 1 WHY should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls his own;
And bids them leave a world of woe
For an immortal crown?
- 2 Is not e'en death a gain to those Whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
To open them in heaven.

- 3 Their toils are past, their work is done,
And they are fully blest:
They fought the fight, the victory won,
And entered into rest.
- 4 Then let our sorrows cease to flow,—
God has recalled his own;
And let our hearts in every woe,
Still say,—“Thy will be done!”

- 1 THERE is an hour when I must part
With all I hold most dear;
And life, with its best hopes, will then
As nothingness appear.
- 2 There is an hour when I must sink
Beneath the stroke of death;
And yield to him who gave it first,
My struggling vital breath.
- 3 There is an hour when I must stand
Before the judgment-seat;
And all my sins, and all my foes,
In awful vision meet.
- 4 There is an hour when I must look
On vast eternity;
And nameless woe, or blissful life,
My endless portion be.
- 5 O Saviour, then, in all my need
Be near, be near to me;
And let my soul, by steadfast faith,
Find life and heaven in thee.

1 HARK! from the tombs a warning
sound ;

My ears, attend the cry—

“Ye living men, come view the ground
Where you must shortly lie.

2 “Princes, this clay must be your bed,
In spite of all your towers ;
The tall, the wise, the reverend head,
Must lie as low as ours.”

3 Great God, is this our certain doom ?
And are we still secure?—
Still walking downward to the tomb,
And yet prepare no more ?

4 Grant us the power of quickening grace,
To fit our souls to fly ;
Then, when we drop this dying flesh,
We'll rise above the sky. WATTS.

2 They die in Jesus, and are blest ;
How calm their slumbers are !
From sufferings and from sin released,

End in a large reward. WATTS.

It melts in deepening gloom:
So calmly Christians sink away,
Descending to the tomb.

Scarce whispers from the tree:
So gently flows the parting breath,
When good men cease to be.

The crimson light is shed!
'Tis like the peace the Christian gives
To mourners round his bed.

The sunset beam is cast!
'Tis like the memory left behind

The rising star appears:

Thy golden gates appear!
- 4 "Forever with the Lord!"
Father, if 't is thy will,
The promise of thy gracious word
Ev'n here to me fulfill.

MONTGOMERY.

Oh, be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!

- 2 Their bodies in the ground,
In silent hope may lie,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound
Shall call them to the sky.
- 3 Their ransomed spirits soar
On wings of faith and love,
To meet the Saviour they adore,
And reign with him above.
- 4 With us their names shall live
Through long succeeding years,
Embalmed with all our hearts can give,
Our praises and our tears.

I 134

- 1 OH, for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!

I 135

- 2 The voice at midnight came,
He started up to hear ;
A mortal arrow pierced his frame,
He fell—but felt no fear.
- 3 Tranquil amidst alarms,
It found him on the field,
A veteran slumbering on his arms,
Beneath his red-cross shield.
- 4 The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease ;
And, life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.
- 5 Soldier of Christ, well done !
Praise be thy new employ ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

MONTGOMERY.

I 136

- 1 AND is there, Lord, a rest
For weary souls designed,
Where not a care shall stir the breast,
Or sorrow entrance find ?
- 2 Is there a blissful home
Where kindred minds shall meet,
And live, and love, nor ever roam
From that serene retreat ?

- 3 Are there bright, happy fields
Where nought that blooms shall die,
Where each new scene fresh pleasure yields,
And healthful breezes sigh ?
- 4 Forever blesséd they
Whose joyful feet shall stand,
While endless ages waste away,
Amid that glorious land !

RAY PALMER.

I 137

- 1 AND must this body die,
This mortal frame decay,
And must these active limbs of mine
Lie mouldering in the clay ?
- 2 God, my Redeemer, lives,
And ever from the skies
Looks down and watches all my dust,
Till he shall bid it rise.
- 3 Arrayed in glorious grace,
Shall these vile bodies shine,
And every shape and every face
Look heavenly and divine.
- 4 These lively hopes we owe
To Jesus' dying love ;
We would adore his grace below,
And sing his power above.

1138

2 Here, where oft thy lip hath taught us
Of the Lamb who died to save,— Where thy guiding hand hath brought us

To the deep, baptismal wave,—

3 Pale and cold we see thee lying
In God's temple, once so dear,
And the mourners' bitter sighing
Falls unheeded on thine ear.

4 All thy love and zeal, to lead us
Where immortal fountains flow,
And on living bread to feed us,
In our fond remembrance glow.

5 May the conquering faith that cheered thee
When thy foot on Jordan pressed,
Guide our spirits while we leave thee
In the tomb that Jesus blessed.

L. H. SIGOURNEY.

3 Brother, wake ; for he who loved thee,
He who died that thou mightst live,
He who graciously approved thee,
Waits thy crown of joy to give.

4 Fare thee well ; though woe is blending
With the tones of earthly love,
Triumph high and joy unending
Wait thee in the realms above.

BAP. MEMORIAL.

1140

1 CEASE, ye mourners, cease to languish
O'er the grave of those you love ;
Pain, and death, and night, and anguish,
Enter not the world above.

2 While our silent steps are straying,
Lonely, through night's deepening
shade,
Glory's brightest beams are playing
Round the happy Christian's head.

3 Light and peace at once deriving
From the hand of God most high,
In his glorious presence living,
They shall never, never die.

4 Endless pleasure, pain excluding,
Sickness, there, no more can come ;
There, no fear of woe, intruding,
Sheds o'er heaven a moment's gloom.

COLLYER.

1139

1 BROTHER, rest from sin and sorrow ;
Death is o'er, and life is won ;
On thy slumber dawns no morrow :
Rest ; thine earthly race is run.

2 Brother, wake ; the night is waning ;
Endless day is round thee poured ;
Enter thou the rest remaining
For the people of the Lord.

Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

I 147

- 2 A little while for patient vigil-keeping,
 To face the storm, to battle with the strong ;
 A little while to sow the seed with weeping,
 Then bind the sheaves and sing the harvest home !
- 3 A little while the earthen pitcher taking
 To wayside brooks from far-off fountains fed ;
 Then the cool lip its thirst forever slaking
 Beside the fullness of the fountain head !
- 4 A little while to keep the oil from failing,
 A little while faith's flickering lamp to trim ;
 And then the bridegroom's coming footsteps hailing,
 To haste to meet him with the bridal hymn !
- 5 And he who is himself the Gift and Giver,—
 The future glory and the present smile,—
 With the bright promise of the glad forever
 Will light the shadows of the "little while !"

- 2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
And nights and days thy power confess;
But the blest volume thou hast writ,
Reveals thy justice and thy grace.
- 3 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
Round the whole earth, and never stand;
So when thy truth began its race,
It touched and glanced on every land.
- 4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest,
Till thro' the world thy truth has run ;
Till Christ has all the nations blest,
That see the light, or feel the sun.

Bless the dark world with heavenly

Thy gospel makes the simple wise ;
Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

- 1 GOD, in the gospel of his Son,
Makes his eternal counsels known,
Where love in all its glory shines,
And truth is drawn in fairest lines.
- 2 Here sinners of a humble frame
May taste his grace, and learn his name;
May read, in characters of blood,
The wisdom, power, and grace of God.

- 3 Here faith reveals to mortal eyes
A brighter world beyond the skies ;
Here shines the light which guides our way
From earth to realms of endless day.
- 4 Oh grant us grace, Almighty Lord,
To read and mark thy holy word,
Its truths with meekness to receive,
And by its holy precepts live.

My knee, with humble homage, bow ;
My tongue perform its solemn vow.

In worlds below and worlds above ;
But in thy blessed word I trace
Diviner wonders of thy grace.
- 3 There Jesus bids my sorrows cease,
And gives my lab'ring conscience peace ;
Raises my grateful passions high,
And points to mansions in the sky.
- 4 For love like this, oh let my song,
Through endless years, thy praise pro-

Let distant climes thy name adore,
Till time and nature are no more.

To mansions that will ne'er decay;—
Dear Lord, oh, when wilt thou appear,
And bear thy prisoner away?
- 4 While I am here, these leaves supply
His place, and tell me of his love;
I read with faith's discerning eye,
And gain a glimpse of joys above.

To animate his people here;
Oh, may these truths prove life to all,

Yet shine not to thy praise, O Lord,

Its truths divine and precepts wise,
In each a heavenly beam I see,

The radiant chorus of the sky;—

- 1 UPON the Gospel's sacred page
The gathered beams of ages shine;
And, as it hastens, every age
But makes its brightness more divine.
- 2 On mightier wing, in loftier flight,
From year to year does knowledge soar;
And, as it soars, the Gospel light
Becomes effulgent more and more.
- 3 More glorious still, as centuries roll,
New regions blest, new powers unfurled,
Expanding with the expanding soul,
Its radiance shall o'erflow the world,—
- 4 Flow to restore, but not destroy;
As when the cloudless lamp of day
Pours out its floods of light and joy,
And sweeps the lingering mist away.

2 Come as a shepherd ; guard and keep
This fold from hell, and earth, and sin ;
Nourish the lambs, and feed the sheep,
The wounded heal, the lost bring in.

3 Come as a teacher sent from God,
Charged his whole counsel to declare ;
Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.

4 Come as a messenger of peace,
Filled with the Spirit, fired with love ;

Saviour, like stars in thy right hand
Let all thy chosen pastors be.

3 Wisdom and zeal and love impart,—
Firmness with meekness from above,
To bear thy people in their heart,
And love the souls whom thou dost love.

Spirit of grace, diffuse thy power,
Our vows accept, thy might reveal.

3 Behold our guide, and deign to crown
His toils, O Lamb of God, with love ;
His lips inspire ; each effort own ;
Breathe, dwell within him, heavenly

The wicked quake in dread despair,
May we, all reverent at thy feet,
Pastor and flock, find mercy there.

- 2 'Tis not a cause of small import
The pastor's care demands,
But what might fill an angel's heart,
And filled a Saviour's hands.
- 3 They watch for souls, for which the Lord
Did heavenly bliss forego,—
For souls, which must for ever live,
In rapture or in woe.
- 4 May they that Jesus whom they preach,
Their own Redeemer, see ;
And watch thou daily o'er their souls,
That they may watch for thee.

- 1 OH, still in accents sweet and strong
Sounds forth the ancient word,—
"More reapers for white harvest fields,
More laborers for the Lord."
- 2 We hear the call ; in dreams no more
In selfish ease we lie,
But girded for our Father's work,
Go forth beneath his sky.
- 3 Where prophets' word, and martyrs'
blood,
And prayers of saints were sown,
We, to their labors entering in,
Would reap where they have sown.

S. LONGFELLOW.

I 176

- 1 We thank thee, Lord, for sending here
The publishers of peace :
Speak by them now, and everywhere
By them declare thy grace.
- 2 So when the harvest-day shall come,
Sowers, and reapers too,
Shall, shouting, enter endless home,
And thee eternal view.
- 3 That happy morning we desire—
Oh let it hasten on !—
When all shall join the angelic choir
In singing round thy throne.
- 4 The pastors and the people there
Shall thee in glory see ;
Shall keep the long Sabbathic year—
The feast of Jubilee.

I 177

- 1 THE earth, O Lord, is one wide field
Of all thy chosen seed ;
The crop prepared its fruit to yield ;
The laborers few indeed.
- 2 Therefore we come before thee now
With words of humble prayer,
Beseeching of thy love that thou
Would'st send more laborers there.
- 3 Not for our land alone we pray,
Though that above the rest,
The realms and islands far away,
Oh, let them all be blest !

1. O Lord of hosts, whose glo-ry fills The bounds of the e - ter - nal hills,

And yet vouchsafes, in Christian lands, To dwell in tem-ples made with hands ;

1180

- 2 Endue the creatures with thy grace
That shall adorn thy dwelling-place ;
The beauty of the oak and pine,
The gold and silver, make them thine.
- 3 The heads that guide endue with skill ;
The hands that work preserve from ill,
That we, who these foundations lay,
May raise the topstone in its day.
- 4 Both now and ever, Lord, protect
The temple of thine own elect ;
Be thou in them, and they in thee,
Oh ever-blesséd Trinity !

J. M. NEALE.

1181

- 1 THE perfect world, by Adam trod,
Was the first temple built to God ;
His fiat laid the corner-stone,
And heaved its pillars one by one.
- 2 He hung its starry roof on high—
The broad, illimitable sky ;
He spread its pavement, green and
bright,
And curtained it with morning light.
- 3 The mountains in their places stood,
The sea—the sky—and “all was good ;”
And when its first few praises rang,
The “morning stars together sang.”

- 4 Lord, 'tis not ours to make the sea,
And earth, and sky, a house for thee ;
But in thy sight our off'ring stands—
An humbler temple, “made with hands.”
- 5 We cannot bid the morning star
To sing how bright thy glories are ;
But, Lord, if thou wilt meet us here,
Thy praise shall be the Christian's tear.

N. P. WILLIS.

- 1 O God the Father, Christ the Son,
And Holy Spirit, three in one,
Accept this gift our hearts have sought,
Our hands in Christian love have wrought.
- 2 Here may the light of gospel truth
Illumine age, enlighten youth :
In many hearts that grace begin,
Which saves from sorrow and from sin.
- 3 May Jesus here that power display
Which changes darkness into day,
And open wide those gates of love
That lead to blessedness above.
- 4 O Jesus Christ, our sovereign Lord,
By angels and by saints adored,
Accept this tribute of our praise,
And with thy glory fill this place.

BEETHOVEN.

1. Mak-er of land and roll - ing sea, We ded - i - cate this house to thee ;

And what our will - ing hands have done, We give to God, and to the Son.

II 83

2 Come, fill this house with heavenly grace,
While sinners throng the sacred place,
And saints below with saints above,
Unite to sing redeeming love.

3 Here let the cross be lifted high
Before a world condemned to die:
Here flow the blood of sacrifice,
To hush the Law's avenging cries.

4 Here let the mourning soul find rest
Upon the Saviour's loving breast ;
And with the sense of sins forgiven,
Each heart aspire to God and heaven.

5 Long may this sacred temple be
A monument of praise to thee ;
And when to this no more we come,
Be heaven our high, eternal home.

D. C. EDDY.

II 84

1 AND wilt thou, O Eternal God,
On earth establish thine abode?
Then look propitious from thy throne,
And take this temple for thine own.

2 These walls we to thine honor raise,
Long may they echo in thy praise ;
And thou, descending, fill the place
With the rich tokens of thy grace.

3 Here may the great Redeemer reign,
With all the graces of his train ;

While power divine his word attends,
To conquer foes and cheer his friends.

4 And in the last decisive day,
When God the nations shall survey,
May it before the world appear,
Thousands were born for glory here.

DODDRIDGE.

II 85

1 WHEN Israel's priest the lamb did choose,

He chose of all the flock the best ;
No poor, no maim'd, no sickly thing
Upon Jehovah's shrine could rest.

2 When David's son a Temple built,
No common wood or stone was sought,
But rarest wood, and gold, and gems,
A house of wondrous beauty wrought.

3 When Mary would her love display,
A costly gift did she bestow ;
And Mary's act the lesson leaves
That precious things to God should go.

4 O Lord, this day we bring our gift,
Not rich, but best we could, and free ;
This desk, this cup, this pool, this house,
We dedicate them, Lord, to thee.

5 Accept, O God, this proffer'd gift ;
Here let thy Spirit's power be given ;
To many souls let this place be
The House of God—the Gate of Heav'n.

LEACH.

1. Build-er of mighty worlds on worlds, How poor the house must be, That with our human, sin-ful hands, We may erect for thee, We may e-rect. . . . for thee.

I 186

- 2 O Christ, thou art our Corner-stone,
On thee our hopes are built ;
Thou art our Lord, our light, our life,
Our sacrifice for guilt.
- 3 In thy blest name we gather here,
And set apart the ground ;
The walls that on this rock shall rise
Thy praises shall resound.
- 4 May many a soul, from death redeemed,
In heavenly regions fair,
With joy exclaim, " I learned the path
To God and glory there."

I 187

- 1 To thee this temple we devote,
Our Father and our God ;
Accept it thine, and seal it now
Thy Spirit's blest abode.
- 2 Here may the prayer of faith ascend,
The voice of praise arise ;
Oh, may each lowly service prove Accepted sacrifice.
- 3 Here may the sinner learn his guilt,
And weep before his Lord ;
Here, pardoned, sing a Saviour's love,
And here his vows record.

31

- 4 Here may affliction dry the tear,
And learn to trust in God,
Convinced it is a Father smites,
And love that guides the rod.
- 5 Peace be within these sacred walls ;
Prosperity be here ;
Long smile upon thy people, Lord,
And evermore be near. J. R. SCOTT.

I 188

- 1 O THOU, whose own vast temple stands,
Built over earth and sea,
Accept the walls that human hands
Have raised to worship thee !
- 2 Lord, from thine inmost glory send,
Within these courts to bide,
The peace that dwelleth without end,
Serenely by thy side !
- 3 May erring minds that worship here
Be taught the better way ;
And they who mourn, and they who fear,
Be strengthened as they pray.
- 4 May faith grow firm, and love grow
warm,
And pure devotion rise,
While round these hallowed walls the storm
Of earth-born passion dies. BRYANT.

2 Great King of glory, come,
And with thy favor crown
This temple as thy dome,
This people as thy own;
Beneath this roof, oh deign to show
How God can dwell with men below!

3 Here may thine ears attend
Our interceding cries,
And grateful praise ascend,
All fragrant, to the skies.
Here may the word melodious sound,
And spread celestial joys around!

4 Here may our unborn sons
And daughters sound thy praise,
And shine, like polished stones,
Through long succeeding days;
Here, Lord, display thy saving power,
While temples stand, and men adore.

B. FRANCIS.

1190

I BEFORE the Lord we bow,
The God who reigns above,

And rules the world below,
Boundless in power and love.
In joy and praise our thanks we bring,
Our hearts we raise to heaven's high King.

2 The nation thou hast blest
May well thy love declare,
From foes and fears at rest,
Protected by thy care:
For* this fair house and this bright land,
Our thanks we pay, gifts of thy hand.

3 May every mountain height,
Each vale and forest green,
Shine in thy word's pure light,
And its rich fruits be seen!
With rapturous praise may every tongue
Now join to raise a grateful song.

4 And when in power he comes
Oh, may our native land,
From all its rending tombs,
Send forth a glorious band;
A countless throng ever to sing
Salvation's song to heaven's high King!

1. Look from thy sphere of end-less day, O God of mer-cy and of might!
In pit-y look on those who stray, Be-night-ed, in this land of light.

1191

- 2 In peopled vale, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by stream or sea,
How many of the sons of men
Hear not the message sent from thee!
- 3 Send forth thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
- 4 A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to thy peaceful fold.
Then all these wastes, a dreary scene,
That make us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

1. Sons of day! A-rise from slumbers, For the slug-gish night is gone;
Swell the Sav-iour's marshaled numbers, March-ing where he lead-eth on.

1192

- 2 Soldiers of the cross, appointed,
Girded for the glorious war,
In the name of God's Anointed,
Spread your victories afar.
- 3 Bid the trumpet of redemption,
Greet our country's farthest shore;
Boldly claim our Lord's pre-emption,
For the agonies he bore.
- 4 On the prairie and the mountain,
In the valley rich and fair,
- 5 By the river and the fountain,
Plant the sacred standard there.
Where the infant city's founded,
Where the hamlet dots the plain;
Let the Gospel-call be sounded,
Let the church a foothold gain.
- 6 So shall Error be supplanted,
So shall Truth her vanguard keep,
So shall temple-homes be granted,
To the Shepherd's wandering sheep.

- 2 Go where the waves are breaking
 On California's shore,
 Christ's precious gospel taking,
 More rich than golden ore;
 On Alleghany's mountains,
 Through all the western vale,
 Beside Missouri's fountains,
 Rehearse the wondrous tale.
- 3 The love of Christ unfolding,
 Speed on from east to west,
 Till all, his cross beholding,
 In him are fully blest.
 Great Author of salvation,
 Haste, haste the glorious day,
 When we, a ransomed nation,
 Thy sceptre shall obey.

MRS. G. W. ANDERSON.

II 94

- 1 Go preach the blest salvation
 To every sinful race,
 And bid each guilty nation
 Accept the Saviour's grace;
 But bear, oh, quickly bear it
 Where thronging millions roam,
 And bid them freely share it,
 Who dwell with us at home.

- 2 Where blooms the broad savanna,
 Where mighty waters roll,
 There let the gospel banner
 Beam hope on every soul;
 Go where the west is teeming,
 And yet behold they come!
 The fields all ripe are gleaming
 For those who reap at home!
- 3 Our children there are dwelling,
 Neglected and astray,
 Whose hearts are often swelling
 To learn of Zion's way.
 Bear, bear to them the treasure,
 And bid the exiles come;
 There is no sweeter pleasure
 Than preaching Christ at home.

1. When, Lord, to this our west-ern land, Led by thy prov - i - den - tial hand,
Our wandering fa - thers came, Their an - cient homes, their friends in youth,
Sent forth the her - alds of thy truth, To keep them in thy Name.

I 195

2 Then, through our solitary coast,
The desert features soon were lost ;
Thy temples there arose ;
Our shores, as culture made them fair,
Were hallow'd by thy rites, by prayer,
And blossom'd as the rose.

3 And oh, may we repay this debt
To regions solitary yet,
Within our spreading land :
There, brethren, from our common
home,
Still westward, like our fathers, roam ;
Still guided by thy hand.

4 Saviour, we own this debt of love :
Oh shed thy Spirit from above,
To move each Christian breast ;
Till heralds shall thy truth proclaim,
And temples rise to fix thy Name,
Through all our desert west.

H. U. ONDERDONK.

1 FROM yonder Rocky Mountains,
With summits white and cold,

From California's fountains,
That pour down virgin gold ;
From every western prairie,
From every mystic mound,
They call on us to carry
The gospel's joyful sound.

2 Oh ! shall we close our bosoms,
While every breath 's a cry ?
While brothers drop like blossoms,
And there forever die ?
Oh ! Christian, rest not, sleep not,
But pray, and toil, and fight,
Till those who 're weeping, weep not,
And darkness turns to light.

3 Then, when enthroned in glory,
With Jesus' ransomed fold,
We tell Love's wondrous story,
Upon our harps of gold ;
Each effort that we 're making,
Will sweeten heaven's employ,
And every cross we 're taking,
Add rapture to its joy.

Through all the millions of the skies—
That song of triumph which records
That all the earth is now the Lord's!

Obedient, mighty God, to thee!
And, over land and stream and main,
Wave thou the sceptre of thy reign!

Let host to host the triumph tell,
That not one rebel heart remains,
But over all the Saviour reigns!

I 204

The glory of the latter day,
Already is the dawn begun,
That marks at hand the rising sun.

- 2 The friends of truth assembled stand,
A chosen, consecrated band,
The emblem of the cross display,
And cry aloud—"Behold the way!"
- 3 Behold the way to Zion's hill,
Where Israel's God delights to dwell;
He fixes there his lofty throne,
And calls the sacred place his own.

Spare not, but lift your voices high;
Convey the sound from shore to shore,
And bid the captive sigh no more.

Give power and unction from above,

The joy the gospel will bestow;—
The exiled captive to receive
The freedom Jesus has to give.

2 Come, let us, with a grateful heart,
In this blest labor share a part;
Our prayers and offerings gladly bring
To aid the triumphs of our King.

3 Our hearts exult in songs of praise,
That we have seen these latter days,
When our Redeemer shall be known
Where Satan long hath held his throne.

4 Where'er his hand hath spread the skies,
Sweet incense to his name shall rise,

And slave and freeman, Greek and Jew,
By sovereign grace be formed anew.

1 THE heathen perish; day by day,
Thousands on thousands pass away!
O Christians, to their rescue fly,
Preach Jesus to them ere they die!

2 Wealth, labor, talents freely give,
Yea, life itself, that they may live;
What hath your Saviour done for you?
And what for him will ye not do?

3 Oh, Spirit of the Lord! go forth,
Call in the south, wake up the north;
From every clime, from sun to sun,
Gather God's children into one!

MONTGOMERY.

I 2 I 5

1 DISOWNED of heaven, by man oppress'd,
Outcasts from Zion's hallowed ground,
Oh, why should Israel's sons, once blessed,

Still roam the scorning world around?

2 Lord, visit thy forsaken race,
Back to thy fold the wanderers bring;
Teach them to seek thy slighted grace,
And hail in Christ their promised King.

3 The veil of darkness rend in twain,
Which hides their Shiloh's glorious
light,

The severed olive branch again
Firm to its parent stock unite.

The praises of thy royal name,
And own thee as their King.

To the bright world above,
Break forth in sweetest strains of joy,
In memory of thy love.
- 4 Jesus, thy fair creation groans,
The air, the earth, the sea,
In unison with all our hearts,
And calls aloud for thee.

Be thine the crown of glory now,

And, with united plea,
We meet and pray for those who roam
Far off upon the sea.

The sailor's heart to thee,
Till tears of deep repentance flow,
Like rain-drops in the sea!

Pour peace into his breast,

Are by creation thine;
And in thy works, by all beheld,
Thy radiant glories shine.

Thy gospel to mankind,
Unveiling what rich stores of grace
Are treasured in thy mind.
- 3 Lord, when shall these glad tidings spread
The spacious earth around,
Till every tribe and every soul

To spread the gospel's rays,
And build on sin's demolished throne
The temples of thy praise. GIBBONS.

Assert thy rightful sway;
Till earth, subdued, its tribute brings,

Their trophies at thy feet.

This spacious earth around,

With your music and your wine?

God's own arm hath need of thine.
Hark! the onset! will ye fold your Faith-clad arms in lazy lock?
Up, oh up, thou drowsy soldier!
Worlds are charging to the shock.
- 3 Worlds are charging—heaven behold-

Thou hast but an hour to fight;
Now the blazoned cross unfolding,
On—right onward, for the right.
On! let all the soul within you
For the truth's sake go abroad!
Strike! let every nerve and sinew
Tell on ages—tell for God!

- i ONWARD, onward, men of heaven!
Bear the Gospel's banner high;

- Rest not till its light is given,
Star of every pagan sky.
Send it where the pilgrim-stranger
Faints 'neath Asia's scorching ray;
Bid the red-browed forest ranger
Hail it, ere he fades away.
- 2 Where the Arctic ocean thunders,
Where the tropics fiercely glow,
Broadly spread its page of wonders,
Brightly bid its radiance flow.
India marks its lustre stealing,
Shiv'ring Greenland loves its rays,
Afric, 'mid her deserts kneeling,
Lifts the untaught strain of praise.
- 3 Rude in speech, or grim in feature,
Dark in spirit though they be,
Show that light to every creature,
Prince or vassal—bond or free.
Lo! they haste to every nation,
Host on host the ranks supply;
Onward!—Christ is your salvation,
And your death is victory.

1. From Greenland's icy mountains, From India's coral strand, Where Africa's sunny

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle ;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile ;
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown ;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Can we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny ?
Salvation, oh, salvation !
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole ;

Till o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign ! HEBER.

I 234

1 Oh that the Lord's salvation
Were out of Zion come,
To heal his ancient nation,
To lead his outcasts home !
How long the holy city
Shall heathen feet profane ?
Return, O Lord, in pity ;
Rebuild her walls again.

2 Let fall thy rod of terror :
Thy saving grace impart ;
Roll back the veil of error :
Release the fetter'd heart.
Let Israel, home returning,
Her lost Messiah see ;
Give oil of joy for mourning,
And bind thy Church to thee.

Peace and truth its course portends!
Watchman! will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?—
Traveler! ages are its own,
See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

3 Watchman! tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn.—
Traveler! darkness takes its flight,
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.—
Watchman! let thy wanderings cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home.—
Traveler! lo! the Prince of Peace,
Lo! the Son of God is come.

 Hail the long-expected star!
 Star of truth that gilds the night,
 And guides bewildered men aright.

 Piercing through the shades of death;
 Scattering error's wide-spread night;
 Kindling darkness into light.
- 2 Nations all, remote and near,
 Hasten to see your Lord appear;

Haste, for him your hearts prepare,
 Meet him manifested there!
 There behold the day-spring rise,
 Pouring light on mortal eyes;
 See it chase the shades away,
 Shining to the perfect day. LYTE.

- 1 HARK! the song of Jubilee,
 Loud as mighty thunders roar,
 Or the fulness of the sea,
 When it breaks upon the shore!
 Hallelujah! for the Lord
 God Omnipotent shall reign:
 Hallelujah! let the word
 Echo round the earth and main.
- 2 Hallelujah! hark! the sound,
 From the centre to the skies,
 Wakes above, beneath, around,
 All creation's harmonies.
 See Jehovah's banner furled,
 Sheathed his sword, he speaks—'tis
 done;
 And the kingdoms of this world
 Are the kingdoms of his Son.

3 "He shall reign from pole to pole
With illimitable sway ;
He shall reign when, like a scroll,
Yonder heavens have pass'd away ;
Then the end :—beneath his rod,
Man's last enemy shall fall :
Hallelujah ! Christ in God,
God in Christ is all in all."

This before the throne their strain—
"Hell is vanquished—death is slain !
"Blessing, honor, glory, might,

Thrones and powers before him fall—
Lamb of God, and Lord of all !"

2 Hasten, Lord ! the promised hour ;
Come in glory and in power ;
Still thy foes are unsubdued—
Nature sighs to be renewed.
Time has nearly reached its sum ;
All things with the bride, say, "Come !"
Jesus ! whom all worlds adore,
Come—and reign for evermore.

CONDER.

I 240

1 SEE how great a flame aspires,
Kindled by a spark of grace !
Jesus' love the nations fires—
Sets the kingdoms on a blaze.
To bring fire on earth he came ;
Kindled in some heart it is :
Oh, that all might catch the flame,
All partake the glorious bliss !

2 When he first the work begun,
Small and feeble was his day :
Now the word doth swiftly run ;
Now it wins its widening way.
More and more it spreads and grows,
Ever mighty to prevail ;
Sin's strongholds it now o'erthrows—
Shakes the trembling gates of hell.

3 Saw ye not the cloud arise,
Little as a human hand ?
Now it spreads along the skies—
Hangs o'er all the thirsty land.
Lo ! the promise of a shower
Drops already from above ;
But the Lord will shortly pour
All the Spirit of his love.

C. WESLEY.

I 241

1 COME, Desire of nations, come ;
Hasten, Lord, the general doom ;
Hear the Spirit and the Bride ;
Come, and take us to thy side.
Thou who hast our place prepared,
Make us meet for our reward ;
Then with all thy saints descend ;
Then our earthly trials end.

2 Mindful of thy chosen race,
Shorten these vindictive days,
Hear us now, and save thine own,
Who for full redemption groan.
Now destroy the Man of Sin,
Now thine ancient flock bring in,
Filled with righteousness divine ;
Claim a ransomed world for thine !

3 Plant thy heavenly kingdom here ;
Glorious in thy saints appear ;
Speak the sacred number sealed,
Speak the mystery revealed :
Take to thee thy royal power ;
Reign, when sin shall be no more !
Reign, when death no more shall be !
Reign to all eternity !

IF I WERE A VOICE.

I. B. WOODBURY.

i. If I were a voice, a per-suas - ive voice, That could trav-el the wide world through, I would fly on the beams of the morning light, And speak to men with a gen - tle might, And tell them to be true. I would fly, I would fly o - ver land and sea, Wher - ev - er a human heart might be, Telling a tale or singing a song In praise of the right—in blame of the wrong, I would fly,....

I would fly, I would fly,.... I would fly, I would fly o-ver land and sea.

I 247

- 2 If I were a voice, a consoling voice,
 I'd fly on the wings of the air ;
 The homes of sorrow and guilt I'd seek,
 And calm and truthful words I'd speak,
 To save them from despair.
 I would fly, I would fly o'er the crowded town,
 And drop, like the happy sunlight,
 down
 Into the hearts of suffering men,
 And teach them to look up again :
 I would fly, I would fly,
 I would fly o'er the crowded town.
- 3 If I were a voice, a convincing voice,
 I'd travel with the wind,
 And wherever I saw the nations torn,
 By warfare, jealousy, spite or scorn,
 Or hatred of their kind,

- I would fly, I would fly on the thunder crash,
 And into their blinded bosoms flash ;
 Then, with their evil thoughts subdued,
 I'd teach them Christian brotherhood ;
 I would fly, I would fly,
 I would fly on the thunder crash.
- 4 If I were a voice, an immortal voice,
 I would fly the earth around :
 And wherever man to his idols bowed,
 I'd publish in notes both long and loud
 The Gospel's joyful sound.
 I would fly, I would fly on the wings
 of day,
 Proclaiming peace on my world-wide
 way,
 Bidding the saddened earth rejoice—
 If I were a voice, an immortal voice,
 I would fly, I would fly,
 I would fly on the wings of day.

Till the lovely flowers are gone!
Strange, the summer skies and sunshine
Never seem one half so fair,
As when winter's snowy pinions
Shake the white down in the air.
- 3 If we knew the baby fingers,
Pressed against the window-pane,
Would be cold and stiff to-morrow—
Never trouble us again—

- Would the bright eyes of our darling
Catch the frown upon our brow?
Would the print of rosy fingers
Vex us then as they do now?
- 4 Ah! those little ice-cold fingers,
How they point our memories back
To the hasty words and actions
Strewn along our backward track!
How those little hands remind us,
As in snowy grace they lie,
Not to scatter thorns—but roses—
For our reaping by and by!

IS YOUR LAMP BURNING?

J. E. GOULD.

Expressive.

i. Say, is your lamp burning, my broth - er? I pray you, look quickly, and see, For if it were burn - ing, then sure - ly Some beams would fall bright up - on me. Straight, straight is the road, but I fal - ter, And oft I fall out by the way; Then lift your lamp higher, my broth - er,
Lest I should make fa - tal de - lay, Lest I should make fa - tal de - lay.

I 250

- 2 Oh, see! there are many around you
Who follow wherever you go;
And thought you they walked in the shadow
Your lamp would burn brighter, I
know:
Upon the dark mountains they stumble,
They're bruised on the rocks, and they lie
With white pleading faces turned upward
To the clouds and the pitiful sky.
- 3 How many a lamp that is flick'ring
Behold we anear and afar!

- Not many among them, my brother,
Shine steadily on like a star:
I think were they trimmed night and morning,
They never'd burn down or go out,
Tho' from the four quarters of heaven
The winds were all blowing about.
- 4 If once all the lamps that are lighted
Should steadily blaze in a line,—
Wide over the land and the ocean,—
What a girdle of glory would shine,
How all the dark places would brighten,
How mists would roll up and away!
How earth would laugh out in her glad-
To hail the millennial day! [ness

WHILE THE DAYS ARE GOING BY. 8s & 7s. Pec.

1. { There are lone - ly hearts to cher-ish, While the days are go - ing by ;
If a smile we can re - new, As our jour - ney we pur - sue,

There are wea - ry souls who per-ish, While the days are go - ing by ; }
Oh, the good we all may do, While the days are go - ing by ; }

CHORUS.

Up! then, trust - y hearts and true, Tho' the day comes, night comes too ;

Oh, the good we all may do, While the days are go - ing by.

1251

2 There's no time for idle scorning

While the days are going by ;

Let our face be like the morning

While the days are going by.

Oh ! the world is full of sighs,

Full of sad and weeping eyes.

Help your fallen brothers rise

While the days are going by.

3 All the loving links that bind us

While the days are going by,

One by one we leave behind us

While the days are going by ;

But the seeds of good we sow,

Both in shade and shine will grow,

And will keep our hearts aglow

While the days are going by.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1. Go forth on wings of faith and prayer, Ye pag-es, bright with love;
 Though mute, the joy-ful tid-ings bear, Sal-va-tion from a-bove.

1252

- 2 Go, tell the sinful, careless soul
 The warning God has given;
 Go, make the wounded spirit whole,
 With healing balm from heaven.
- 2 Go to the rude, the dark, the poor,
 That live estranged from God;—
 Bid them the pearl of price secure,
 Bought with a Saviour's blood.
- 4 O Jesus, Friend of dying men,
 Thy presence we implore;
 Without thy blessing all is vain;
 Be with us evermore. HASTINGS.

1253

- 1 WEEP for the lost! Thy Saviour wept
 O'er Salem's hapless doom;
 He wept, to think their day was past,
 And come their night of gloom.
- 2 Weep for the lost! Apostles wept,
 That men should error choose;
 That dying men should Christ reject,
 And endless life refuse.
- 3 Weep for the lost! The lost will weep,
 In that long night of woe,
 On which no star of hope will rise,
 And tears in vain will flow.
- 4 Weep for the lost! Lord, make us
 weep,
 And toil, with ceaseless care,
 To save our friends, ere yet they pass
 That point of deep despair.

COLVER.

1254*

- 1 OUR land, with mercies crowned,
 This wide, enchanted ground,
 O God, is thine:
 Our fathers knew thy name;
 The trophies of their fame—
 Our heritage—proclaim,
 A Power divine.
- 2 Far in the purple west,
 Thy hand with beauty drest
 These fertile plains,
 These rivers dark and deep,
 These torrents down the steep,
 These mighty woods that sweep
 From mountain chains.
- 3 Dear Native Land, rejoice!
 Raise thou thy virgin voice
 To God on high;
 From all thy hills and bays,
 From all thy homes and ways,
 Let symphonies and praise
 Ascend the sky.
- 4 And thou Almighty One,
 At whose eternal throne
 She bows the knee;
 In all the coming time,
 Bless thou this favored clime,
 And may her deeds sublime
 Be hymns to thee!

AMERICA. 6s & 4s.

1. My country, tis of thee, Sweet land of lib - er - ty, Of thee I sing: Land where my fathers died, Land of the pilgrims' pride, From every mountain side Let freedom ring!

1255

2 My native country, thee,
 Land of the noble free,
 Thy name I love:
 I love thy rocks and rills,
 Thy woods and templed hills;
 My heart with rapture thrills
 Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
 And ring from all the trees
 Sweet freedom's song;
 Let mortal tongues awake,
 Let all that breathe partake,
 Let rocks their silence break,
 The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God, to thee,
 Author of liberty,
 To thee we sing;
 Long may our land be bright
 With freedom's holy light,
 Protect us by thy might,
 Great God, our King!

S. F. SMITH.

1256

1 GOD bless our native land!
 Firm may she ever stand,
 Through storm and night:
 When the wild tempests rave,
 Ruler of wind and wave,
 Do thou our country save
 By thy great might!

2 For her our prayer shall rise
 To God, above the skies;
 On him we wait:
 Thou who art ever nigh,
 Guarding with watchful eye,
 To thee aloud we cry,
 God save the State!

J. S. DWIGHT.

1257

1 LORD, from thy blesséd throne,
 Sorrow look down upon!
 God save the poor!
 Teach them true liberty,
 Make them from tyrants free,
 Let their homes happy be!
 God save the poor!

2 The arms of wicked men
 Do thou with might restrain—
 God save the poor!
 Raise thou their lowliness,
 Succor thou their distress,
 Thou whom the meanest bless;
 God save the poor!

3 Give them stanch honesty,
 Let their pride manly be—
 God save the poor!
 Help them to hold the right,
 Give them both truth and might,
 Lord of all life and light!
 God save the poor!

Lie beneath the clouds of sin ;
Onward urge its glorious duty,
Moral victories to win ;
Now in mercy,
Let its brightest days begin.

Oh, let constant plenty crown ;
Let contention flee before it,
Let it tread all evil down ;
While dark discord
Sinks beneath a nation's frown.

Sang our fathers long ago :
"Ebenezer! God is with us,"
Sing their grateful children now :
Ebenezer!
Every knee in worship bow.
- 2 Blessing now and adoration
Young and old in concert sing ;
Sing in lofty jubilation
To our great Redeemer, King ;
Grace and mercy
His right arm alone did bring.

Echo down the stream of time,
"Ebenezer!" till the story
From the hills of glory chime,
And the angels
Swell the glorious song sublime.

1. Why, O God! thy peo-ple spurn? Why per-mit thy wrath to burn?

God of mer-cy! turn once more, All our brok-en hearts re-store.

I 260

2 Thou hast made our land to quake,
Heal the sorrows thou dost make;
Bitter is the cup we drink,
Suffer not our souls to sink.

3 Be thy banner now unfurled,
Show thy truth to all the world;

Save us, Lord, we cry to thee,
Lift thine arm—thy chosen free.

4 Give us now relief from pain,—
Human aid is all in vain:
We, through God, shall yet prevail,
He will help, when foes assail.

1. Lord, while for all man-kind we pray, Of ev - ery clime and coast,

Oh, hear us for our na - tive land— The land we love the most.

I 262

2 Oh, guard our shore from every foe,
With peace our borders bless,
With prosperous times our cities crown,
Our fields with plenteousness.

3 Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth, and thee ;
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.

4 Here may religion, pure and mild,
Smile on our Sabbath hours ;
And piety and virtue bless
The home of us and ours.

5 Lord of the nations, thus to thee
Our country we commend ;
Be thou her refuge and her trust,
Her everlasting friend. WRENFORD.

I 263

1 SEE, gracious God, before thy throne,
Thy mourning people bend !
'Tis on thy sovereign grace alone,
Our humble hopes depend.

2 Alarming judgments from thy hand,
Thy dreadful power display ;
Yet mercy spares this guilty land,
And yet we live to pray.

3 Oh, bid us turn, Almighty Lord,
By thy resistless grace ;
Then shall our hearts obey thy word,
And humbly seek thy face.

STEELE.

I 264

1 LORD, thou hast scourged our guilty land ;
Behold, thy people mourn ;
Shall vengeance ever guide thy hand,
And mercy ne'er return ?

2 Our Zion trembles at thy stroke,
And dreads thy lifted hand ;
Oh, heal the people thou hast broke,
And spare our guilty land.

3 Then shall our loud and grateful voice
Proclaim our guardian God,
The nations round the earth rejoice,
And sound thy praise abroad.

1. Great God of na-tions! now to thee Our hymn of gra-ti-tude we raise;

With hum-ble heart, and bend-ing knee, We of-fer thee our song of praise.

I 265

1 GREAT God of nations! now to thee
Our hymn of gratitude we raise;
With humble heart, and bending knee,
We offer thee our song of praise.

2 Thy name we bless, Almighty God!
For all the kindness thou hast shown,
To this fair land the Pilgrims trod,—
This land we fondly call our own.

3 Here, freedom spreads her banner wide,
And casts her soft and hallowed ray:—
Here, thou our fathers' steps didst guide
In safety, through their dangerous way.

4 We praise thee, that the gospel's light,
Through all our land, its radiance sheds;
Dispels the shades of error's night,
And heavenly blessings round us spreads.

I 266

1 WHEN driven by oppression's rod,
Our fathers fled beyond the sea,
Their care was first to honor God,
And next to leave their children free.

2 Above the forest's gloomy shade,
The altar and the school appeared:
On that the gifts of faith were laid,
On this their precious hopes were reared.

3 The altar and the school still stand,
The sacred pillars of our trust;
And freedom's sons shall fill the land,
While we are sleeping in the dust.

4 Before thine altar, Lord, we bend,
With grateful song and fervent prayer;
For thou, who wast our father's Friend,
Wilt make their offspring still thy care.

I 267

1 LORD, let thy goodness lead our land,
Still sav'd by thine almighty hand,
The tribute of its love to bring
To thee, our Saviour and our King.

2 Let every public temple raise
Triumphant songs of holy praise,
Let every peaceful, private home
A temple, Lord, to thee become.

3 Still be it our supreme delight
To walk as in thy glorious sight;
Still in thy precepts and thy fear,
Till life's last hour, to persevere.

I 268

- 2 Blessings from his liberal hand
Flow around this happy land ;
Kept by him, no foes annoy ;
Peace and freedom we enjoy.
- 3 Here beneath a virtuous sway
May we cheerfully obey ;
Never feel oppression's rod ;
Ever own and worship God.
- 4 Hark ! the voice of nature sings
Praises to the King of kings ;
Let us join the choral song,
And the grateful notes prolong.

N. STRONG.

I 269

- 1 THANK and praise Jehovah's name !
For his mercies, firm and sure,
From eternity the same,
To eternity endure.
- 2 Let the ransomed thus rejoice,
Gathered out of every land,
As the people of his choice,
Plucked from the destroyer's hand.
- 3 To a pleasant land he brings,
Where the vine and olive grow,
Where, from flowery hills, the springs
Through luxuriant valleys flow.

- 4 Oh, that men would praise the Lord
For his goodness to their race ;
For the wonders of his word,
And the riches of his grace !

MONTGOMERY.

I 270

- 1 PRAISE, oh praise our God and King,
Hymns of adoration sing ;
For his mercies still endure
Ever faithful, ever sure.
- 2 Praise him that he made the sun
Day by day his course to run ;
And the silver moon by night,
Shining with her gentle light.
- 3 Praise him that he gave the rain
To mature the swelling grain ;
And had bid the fruitful field
Crops of precious increase yield.
- 4 Praise him for our harvest-store,—
He hath filled the garner-floor,—
And for richer food than this,
Pledge of everlasting bliss.
- 5 Glory to our bounteous King !
Glory let Creation sing !
Glory to the Father, Son,
And blest Spirit, Three in One.

 Thou canst hush the ocean wild ;

 Wondrous Sovereign of the sea,
 Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

 'Twixt me and the peaceful rest,
 Then, while leaning on thy breast,

"Nor scorn their humble claim;
The heirs of heaven are such as these;
For such as these I came."

Devoting them to thee,
Imploring that, as we are thine,
Thine may our offspring be.

I 276

- 1 OUR children thou dost claim,
O Lord our God, as thine:
Ten thousand blessings to thy name
For goodness so divine!
- 2 Thee let the fathers own,
Thee let the sons adore;
Joined to the Lord in solemn vows,
To be forgot no more.
- 3 How great thy mercies, Lord!
How plenteous is thy grace!
Which, in the promise of thy love,
Includes our rising race.
- 4 Our offspring, still thy care,
Shall own their fathers' God!
To latest times thy blessing share,
And sound thy praise abroad.

I 277

- 1 THOU God of sovereign grace,
In mercy now appear;
We long to see thy smiling face,
And feel that thou art near.
- 2 Receive these lambs to-day,
O Shepherd of the flock,
And wash the stains of guilt away
Beside the smitten Rock.
- 3 To-day in love descend;
Oh, come, this precious hour;
In mercy now their spirits bend
By thy resistless power.
- 4 Low bending at thy feet,
Our offspring we resign:
Thine arm is strong, thy love is great,
And high thy glories shine.

I 278

- 1 GREAT God, now condescend
To bless our rising race;
Soon may their willing spirits bend,
The subjects of thy grace.
- 2 Oh, what a pure delight
Their happiness to see;
Our warmest wishes all unite,
To lead their souls to thee.

The word of truth divine;
Send thy good Spirit from above,
And make these children thine.

To guide untutored youth,
And lead the mind that went astray
To virtue and to truth.

And turn the rising race
From the deceitful paths of sin
To seek redeeming grace!

 We shall part, and still his wing,
 Sweeping o'er the dead and dying,

 Let us, while our hearts are lightest,
 In our fresh and early years,
 Turn to him whose smile is brightest,
 And whose grace will calm our fears.
- 3 Then he 'll aid us, should existence
 With its sorrows sting the breast ;
 Gleaming in the onward distance,
 Faith will mark the land of rest :
 There, 'midst day-beams round him

 We our Father's face shall see,

 " Little children, come to me."

I 283

- 1 SAVIOUR, who thy flock art feeding
 With the Shepherd's kindest care,
 And the feeble gently leading,
 While the lambs thy bosom share,
 Now, these little ones receiving,
 Fold them in thy gracious arm ;
 There we know, thy word believing,
 Only there, secure from harm.
- 2 Never, from thy pasture roving,
 Let them be the lions' prey ;
 Let thy tenderness so loving Keep them all life's dangerous
 way.
 Then, within thy fold eternal,
 Let them find a resting-place,
 Feed in pastures ever vernal,
 Drink the rivers of thy grace.

- i GREAT God, whose hand outpours the rills [hills,
And springs that burst from all the
At whose command the rock was riven,
Who send'st on all, thy rain from
heaven;
- 2 We bless thee for the crystal draught
By sinless man in Eden quaffed;
Type of that fount whose streams above,
Flood endless worlds with life and love!
- 3 If there the drunkard may not dwell,
But woes crowd thick his paths to hell,
Oh, wake and help us, Lord, to save Their souls from thirst beyond the grave!
- 4 Help them to heed thy word divine,
And look not on the crimson wine,
To fear and flee th' accursed thing
As serpent's bite or adder's sting.
- 5 Stay thou, O Lord, the tide of death!
Rebuke the demon's blasting breath!
And speed, oh, speed, on every shore,
The day when strong drink slays no
more!

SHOEL. L. M.

Altered from SHOEL.

The musical score is written for a two-part setting in G major and 2/2 time. The top staff is the vocal line, and the bottom staff is the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "I. E - ter - nal Source of ev - ery joy, Well may thy praise our lips em - ploy, While in thy tem - ple we ap - pear, To hail thee, Sov - ereign of the year!"

I 289

2 Wide as the wheels of nature roll,
Thy hand supports and guides the whole,

The sun is taught by thee to rise,
And darkness when to veil the skies.

3 The flowery spring at thy command,
Perfumes the air, adorns the land ;
The summer rays with vigor shine,
To raise the corn, to cheer the vine.

4 Thy hand, in autumn, richly pours,
Through all our coasts, redundant
stores :

And winters, softened, by thy care,
No more the face of horror wear.

5 Seasons and months, and weeks, and days,

Demand successive songs of praise ;
And be the grateful homage paid,
With morning light and evening shade.

6 Here in thy house let incense rise,
And circling Sabbaths bless our eyes,
Till to those lofty heights we soar,
Where days and years revolve no more.

DODDRIDGE.

I 290

1 GREAT God, we sing that mighty hand
By which supported still we stand ;
The opening year thy mercy shows ;
Let mercy crown it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still we are guarded by our God ;
By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own ;
The future, all to us unknown,
We to thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or deprest,
Be thou our joy, and thou our rest ;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.

DODDRIDGE.

I 291

1 OUR helper, God, we bless thy name,
Whose love forever is the same ;
The tokens of whose gracious care
Begin and crown and close the year.

2 Amid ten thousand snares we stand,
Supported by thy guardian hand ;
And see, when we review our ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.

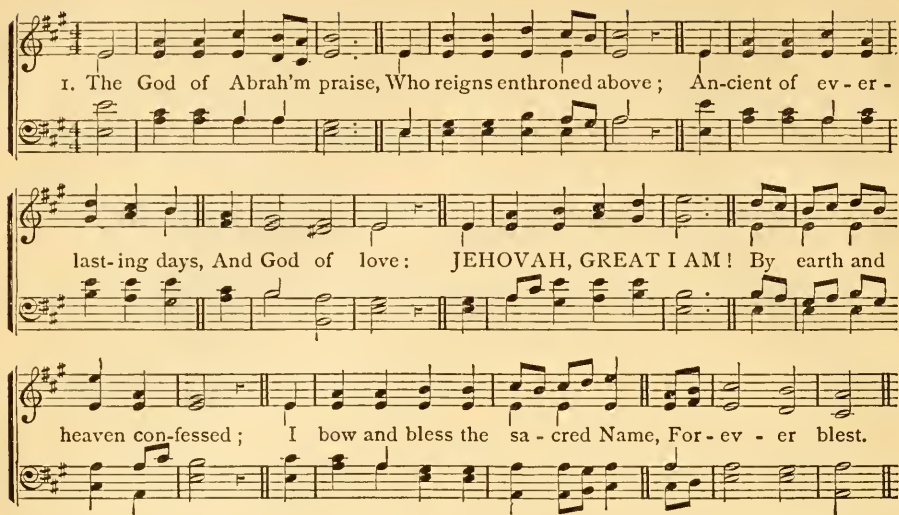

3 Thus far thine arm has led us on ;
Thus far we make thy mercy known ;
And while we tread this desert land,
New mercies shall new songs demand.

4 Our grateful souls on Jordan's shore
Shall raise one sacred pillar more,
Then bear, in thy bright courts above,
Inscriptions of immortal love.

1. The God of Abrah'm praise, Who reigns enthroned above; An-cient of ev - er - last-ing days, And God of love: JEHOVAH, GREAT I AM! By earth and heaven con-fessed; I bow and bless the sa - cred Name, For - ev - er blest.

I 292

- 2 The God of Abrah'm praise,
At whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At his right hand:
I all on earth forsake,
Its wisdom, fame, and power;
And him my only portion make,
My shield and tower.
- 3 The God of Abrah'm praise,
Whose all-sufficient grace
Shall guide me all my happy days
In all his ways;
He calls a worm his friend:
He calls himself my God!
And he shall save me to the end,
Through Jesus' blood.
- 4 He by himself hath sworn:
I on his oath depend;
I shall, on eagles' wings upborne,
To heaven ascend;
I shall behold his face;
I shall his power adore,
And sing the wonders of his grace
For evermore.

I 293

- 1 THE goodly land I see,
With peace and plenty blest;
The land of sacred liberty
And endless rest:
There milk and honey flow,
And oil and wine abound,
And trees of life forever grow,
With mercy crowned.
- 2 He keeps his own secure;
He guards them by his side;
Arrays in garments white and pure
His spotless bride;
With streams of sacred bliss,
With groves of living joys,
With all the fruits of Paradise,
He still supplies.
- 3 Before the great Three-One
They all exulting stand,
And tell the wonders he hath done
Through all their land:
The listening spheres attend,
And swell the growing fame,
And sing, in songs which never end,
The wondrous Name.

1. While with cease-less course the sun Hast-ed through the for-mer year,

Ma-ny souls their race have run, Nev-er-more to meet us here:

Fixed in an e-ter-nal state, They have done with all be-low;

We a lit-tle long-er wait, But how lit-tle, none can know.

1294

- 2 As the wingéd arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find;
As the lightning from the skies
Darts and leaves no trace behind;
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream;
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise,
All below is but a dream.
- 3 Thanks for mercies past receive;
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live
With eternity in view;
Bless thy word to young and old;
Fill us with a Saviour's love;
And when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with thee above.

I 295

2 It may be we shall toil in vain
For what the world holds fair;
And all the good we thought to gain,
Deceive and prove but care.

3 It may be it shall darkly blend
Our love with anxious fears,
And snatch away the valued friend,
The tried of many years.

4 It may be it shall bring us days
And nights of lingering pain;
And bid us take a farewell gaze
Of these loved haunts of men.

5 But calmly, Lord, on thee we rest;
No fears our trust shall move;
Thou knowest what for each is best,
And thou art Perfect Love.

I 296

i STERN winter throws his icy chains,
Encircling nature round;
How bleak, how comfortless the plains,
Of late with verdure crowned!

2 The sun withdraws his vital beams,
And light and warmth depart;
And drooping, lifeless nature seems
An emblem of my heart,—

3 My heart, where mental winter reigns,
In night's dark mantle clad,
Confined in cold, inactive chains;
How desolate and sad!

4 Return, O blissful sun, and bring
Thy soul-reviving ray;
This mental winter shall be spring,
This darkness cheerful day.

5 Oh, happy state, divine abode!
Where spring eternal reigns,
And perfect day, the smile of God,
Fills all the heavenly plains.

6 Great Source of light, thy beams display,
My drooping joys restore,
And guide me to the seats of day,
Where winter frowns no more.

1. Re - mark, my soul, the nar - row bound Of each re - volv - ing year ;
How swift the weeks com - plete their round ! How short the months ap - pear !

I 297

- 2 So fast eternity comes on,
And that important day
When all that mortal life hath done
God's judgment shall survey.
- 3 Yet like an idle tale we pass
The swift-revolving year,
And study artful ways t' increase
The speed of its career.
- 4 Awake, O God, my careless heart
Its great concerns to see,
That I may act the Christian part,
And give the year to thee.

If future years arise ;
Or this shall bear my waiting soul
To joy beyond the skies. DODDRIDGE.

- 1 THEE we adore, Eternal Name,
And humbly own to thee
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we.
- 2 The year rolls round, and steals away
The breath that first it gave ;
Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
We're traveling to the grave.
- 3 Great God, on what a slender thread
Hang everlasting things !—
The final state of all the dead
Upon life's feeble strings !

- 4 Eternal joy, or endless woe,
Attends on every breath ;
And yet how unconcerned we go
Upon the brink of death !
- 5 Awake, O Lord, our drowsy sense,
To walk this dangerous road ;
And if our souls are hurried hence,
May they be found with God.

Of thy short life is past ;
I cannot long continue here,
And this may be my last.

And swift my passing moments run,—
The few that yet remain.
- 3 Awake, my soul ; with utmost care
Thy true condition learn :
What are thy hopes ? how sure ? how fair ?
What is thy great concern ?
- 4 Behold, another year begins ;
Set out afresh for heaven ;
Seek pardon for thy former sins,
In Christ so freely given.
- 5 Devoutly yield thyself to God,
And on his grace depend ;
With zeal pursue the heavenly road,
Nor doubt a happy end. S. BROWNE.

Whose constant mercies from the skies,
In genial streams descend.

In every age, we see;

So let our praises be.

In every age, appear;

Our wandering souls to God:
In our affliction we shall sing,
If thou wilt bless the rod.

To mercy's golden sceptre bow,
And fall at Jesus' feet.
- 3 The time is short! ye saints, rejoice—
The Lord will quickly come;
Soon shall you hear the Bridegroom's
voice,
To call you to your home.

When we shall dwell above,

2 Our life is a dream ;
 Our time, as a stream,
 Glides swiftly away,
 And the fugitive moment refuses to stay ;
 The arrow is flown ;
 The moment is gone ;
 The millennial year
 Rushes on to our view ; and eternity's near.

3 Oh, that each, in the day
 Of his coming, may say,
 "I have fought my way through ;
 I have finished the work thou didst give me to do ;"
 Oh, that each from his Lord
 May receive the glad word,
 "Well and faithfully done ;
 Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne."

1304

- 1 THOU who roll'st the year around,
Crowned with mercies large and free,
Rich thy gifts to us abound,
Warm our praise shall rise to thee.
- 2 Kindly to our worship bow,
While our grateful thanks we tell,
That, sustained by thee, we now
Bid the parting year—farewell!
- 3 All its numbered days are sped,
All its busy scenes are o'er,
All its joys forever fled,
All its sorrows felt no more.
- 4 Mingled with the eternal past,
Its remembrance shall decay;
Yet to be revived at last
At the solemn judgment-day.
- 5 All our follies, Lord, forgive!
Cleanse us from each guilty stain;
Let thy grace within us live,
That we spend not years in vain.
- 6 Then, when life's last eve shall come,
Happy spirits, may we fly

To our everlasting home,
To our Father's house on high!

- 1 FOR thy mercy and thy grace
Constant through another year,
Hear our song of thankfulness;
Jesus, our Redeemer, hear.
- 2 In our weakness and distress,
Rock of Strength, be thou our Stay,
In the pathless wilderness
Be our true and living Way.
- 3 Who of us death's awful road
In the coming year shall tread,
With thy rod and staff, O God,
Comfort thou his dying bed.
- 4 Make us faithful, make us pure,
Keep us evermore thine own,
Help thy servants to endure,
Fit us for the promised crown.
- 5 So within thy palace gate
We shall praise, on golden strings,
Thee the only Potentate,
Lord of lords, and King of kings.

2 As moons are ever waning,
 As hastes the sun away,
 As stormy winds, complaining,
 Bring on the wintry day,
 So fast the night comes o'er us—
 The darkness of the grave;
 And death is just before us:
 God takes the life he gave.

3 Say, hath thy heart its treasure
 Laid up in worlds above?
 And is it all thy pleasure
 Thy God to praise and love?
 Beware, lest death's dark river
 Its billows o'er thee roll,
 And thou lament forever
 The ruin of thy soul. S. F. SMITH.

I 309

1 THE leaves, around me falling,
 Are preaching of decay,
 The hollow winds are calling,
 "Come, pilgrim, come away!"
 The day, in night declining,
 Says I must, too, decline;

The year, its life resigning—
 Its lot foreshadows mine.

2 The light my path surrounding,
 The loves, to which I cling,
 The hopes within me bounding,
 The joys that round me wing—
 All melt, like stars of even,
 Before the morning's ray—
 Pass upward unto heaven,
 And chide at my delay.

3 The friends, gone there before me,
 Are calling from on high;
 And joyous angels o'er me,
 Tempt sweetly to the sky.
 "Why wait," they say, "and wither
 'Mid scenes of death and sin?
 Oh, rise to glory, hither,
 And find true life begin."

4 I hear the invitation,
 And fain would rise and come—
 A sinner to salvation;
 An exile to his home:
 But, while I here must linger,
 Thus, thus let all I see
 Point on, with faithful finger,
 To heaven, O Lord, and Thee.

TE DEUM. Concluded.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'TE DEUM. Concluded.' It consists of three systems of staves. Each system has a vocal line (soprano and alto clefs) and a piano accompaniment (treble and bass clefs). The music is written in a common time signature and features a mix of quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, along with rests and dynamic markings. The score concludes with a double bar line.

STABAT MATER.

F. L. BENJAMIN.

1. Jews were wrought to cru-el mad-ness, Christians fled with fear and sad-ness,
 Ma-ry stood the cross be-side; Ma-ry stood the cross be-side.
 D. S. Till the gen-tle suf-ferer died, Till the gen-tle suf-ferer died.

Fine.

At its foot her foot she plant-ed, By the dread-ful scene un-daunt-ed,
D. S.

2 Poets oft have sung her story,
 Painters decked her brow with glory,
 Priests her name have deified ;
 But no worship, song, or glory,
 Touches like the simple story,
 Mary stood the cross beside !

3 Sad when under fierce oppression,
 Goodness suffers like transgression,
 Christ again is crucified :
 But if love be there true-hearted,—
 By no grief or terror parted,—
 We may stand the cross beside.

SOLID ROCK. L. M. 6 lines.

WM. B. BRADEURY.

1. { My hope is built on nothing less Than Je-sus' blood and righteousness ; }
 { I dare not trust the sweetest frame, But whol-ly lean on Je-sus' name. } On Christ, the sol-id rock, I stand. All oth-er ground is sink-ing sand, All oth-er ground is sink-ing sand.

2 When darkness seems to veil his face,
 I rest on his unchanging grace ;
 In every high and stormy gale,
 My anchor holds within the veil :
 On Christ, the solid rock, I stand
 All other ground is sinking sand.

3 His oath, his covenant, and blood,
 Support me in the whelming flood :
 When all around my soul gives way,
 He then is all my hope and stay :
 On Christ, the solid rock, I stand ;
 All other ground is sinking sand.

2 Praise him! Praise the Prince of Peace!

Angels! wake your strain again;
 Chant his triumphs, ne'er to cease
 Till our God shall dwell with men.
 Christ hath heard the ages sighing;
 Christ hath pitied mortal grief;
 At his coming tears are drying,
 Millions hail the glad relief;
 Hallelujah!
 Hell! thy reign shall now be brief.

3 Praise him! Praise the Lord of Life!

Him that liveth and was dead;
 Past the Cross and dying strife,
 Vanquished Death he captive led,
 Ever-living! Life-bestowing!
 In thee all the holy live;
 Fount exhaustless, overflowing!
 Health and gladness thou dost give;
 Hallelujah!
 Earth and heaven from thee receive.

4 Praise him! Praise the Lamb enthroned!

Radiant at his Father's side;
 Him who by his blood atone'd;
 Him who names the church his Bride!
 Thou, O Lamb of God, forever,
 Where eternal noontide glows,
 Thine own flock wilt feed, and never Cease to guard their sweet repose;
 Hallelujah!
 Thou hast crushed their mighty foes!

5 Praise him! Praise Incarnate Love!

Ranks seraphic, legions bright,
 Souls redeemed, who fixed above,
 Glow in his eternal light;
 All on earth who upward gazing,
 See his beauty and adore,
 One far-sounding chorus raising,
 Speak that Name forevermore;
 Hallelujah!
 Crown him! Once the Cross he bore!

To read that "Book Divine;"
There we are taught the way
To joys that ne'er decline;
The music of those Sabbath bells,
How sweetly on the ear it swells!

Shall tune our hearts God's praise to sing.

Where loved companions come
To lift their hearts to God;

The music of those Sabbath bells;

Inspire our hearts God's praise to sing.

GENNESARET. 11s.

1. See, daylight is fading o'er earth and o'er ocean, The sun has gone down on the far distant sea;
 Oh, now, in the hush of the fitful commotion, We lift our tired spirits, blest Saviour, to thee.

The musical score consists of two systems of staves. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 2/4. The lyrics are printed below the vocal lines.

- 2 Full oft wast thou found far away on the mountain,
 As eventide spread her dark wing o'er the wave:
 Thou Son of the Highest, and life's endless fountain,
 Be with us, we pray thee, to bless and to save.
- 3 And oft as the tumult of life's heaving billow
 Shall toss our frail bark, driving wild o'er night's deep,
 Let thy healing wing be stretched over our pillow,
 And guard us from evil, though death watch our sleep.
- 4 To God our great Father, whose throne is in heaven,
 Who dwells with the lowly and humble in heart,
 To the Son and the Spirit all glory be given;
 One God, ever blessed and praised, thou art.

HEBER.

- 1 THOU sweet gliding Kedron, by thy silver streams,
 Our Saviour, at midnight, when moonlight's pale beams
 Shone bright on thy waters, would frequently stray,
 And lose, in thy murmurs, the toils of the day.
 - 2 How damp were the vapors that fell on his head!
 How hard was his pillow, how humble his bed!
 The angels, astonished, grew sad at the sight,
 And followed their Master with solemn delight.
 - 3 O garden of Olivet, thou dear honored spot,
 The fame of thy wonders shall ne'er be forgot;
 The theme most transporting to seraphs above;
 The triumph of sorrow,—the triumph of love!
 - 4 Come, saints, and adore him: come, bow at his feet;
 Oh, give him the glory, the praise that is meet;
 Let joyful hosannas unceasing arise,
 And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

BAPTISMAL RESPONSES.

MINISTER.—Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

1. CHOIR.—But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest | thou to | me ?

MINISTER.—And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now : for thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness.

2. CHOIR.—And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water ; and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a | dove, and | lighting · up- | on him.

MINISTER.—And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

1. CHOIR.—Ye are my friends if ye do whatso- | ever · I com- | mand you.

MINISTER.—Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

2. CHOIR.—Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you alway even unto the | end · of the | world. A- | men.

MINISTER.—Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death ?

2. CHOIR.—Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should | walk in | newness of | life.

MINISTER.—For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection.

1. CHOIR.—Buried with him in baptism, whence also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath | raised him · from the | dead.

MINISTER.—If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth.

2. CHOIR.—For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ who is our life shall appear, then shall ye also ap- | pear with | him in | glory.

MINISTER.—Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

SENTENCE.

CHOIR.—Lord have mercy up- | on — | us, || and write all these thy laws in our | hearts, — | we be- | seech thee.

GLORIA PATRI.

CHOIR.—Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the | Holy | Ghost; || As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without | end, A- | men! A- | men!

WILT THOU NOT VISIT ME?

WM. B. BRADBURY.

Wilt thou not vis-it me? Wilt thou not vis-it me?

1 WILT thou not visit me?
The plant beside me feels thy | gentle | dew ;
Each blade of grass I see,
From thy deep earth its quickening
| moisture | drew,
Wilt thou not visit me?

2 Wilt thou not visit me?
Thy morning calls on me with | cheering | tone ;
And every hill and tree
Lend but one voice, the voice of | thee a- | lone.
Wilt thou not visit me?

3 Come, for I need thy love
More than the flow'r the dew, or | grass the | rain ;
Come like thy holy dove,
And let me in thy sight rejoice to |
live a- | gain.
Wilt thou not visit me?

4 Yes! thou wilt visit me!
Nor plant, nor tree, thine eye de- |
lights so | well,
As when from sin set free,
Man's spirit comes with thine in |
peace to | dwell,
Yes, thou wilt visit me. JONES VERY.

PAULINA. 11s.

Arr. by L. W. BACON.

1. O eyes that are wea-ry, and hearts that are sore! Look off un-to Je - sus, now sor-row no more!
The light of his countenance shin-eth so bright, That here as in heav-en there need be no night.

- 2 While looking to Jesus, my heart cannot fear ;
I tremble no more when I see Jesus near ;
I know that his presence my safeguard will be,
For, "Why are ye troubled?" he saith unto me.
- 3 Still looking to Jesus, O may I be found,
When Jordan's dark waters encompass me round :
They bear me away in his presence to be
I see him still nearer whom always I see.
- 4 Then, then shall I know the full beauty and grace
Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face ;
Shall know how his love went before me each day,
And wonder that ever my eyes turned away.
